The grantee confirms that a) This FCC ID device is a data-only device with only black-and-white display; b) The WiFi feature does not support 5 GHz operation as well as ad-hoc, personal router (hotspot), WiFi Direct or WiFi Display functions; c) The device does not support wireless file sharing, Internet browsing, or other communications requiring long period of WWAN or WiFi radio transmission beyond the scope of the UBTDF analysis. Additionally, the grantee confirms the following FCC information will be incorporated in the final user manual --

Note: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.
