Troubleshooting

I cannot turn off the "Interactive logon: Smart card removal behavior" policy on my computer

You might not have permission to turn off the Interactive logon: Smart card removal behavior policy on your computer.

Contact your administrator about turning off the policy for your computer temporarily while you upgrade the BlackBerry® Smart Card Reader software on your computer and update the BlackBerry Smart Card Reader driver on your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader.

I cannot pair my computer with my BlackBerry Smart Card Reader

If you are using a USB Bluetooth® adapter, verify that Windows® supports your model. To view a list of models that Windows® XP SP2 supports, visit http://support.microsoft.com to read article 841803.

I cannot send an S/MIME-protected message

Try performing the following actions:

- Verify that Bluetooth® technology on your BlackBerry® Smart Card Reader is turned on and that your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader is within range of your BlackBerry device or computer.

- Verify that your computer is connected to your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader.
- Verify that the smart card is inserted correctly in your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader.
- If you have more than one certificate on the smart card, try using a different certificate.
- Verify that your smart card supports the type of certificate that you are using. If you are using a DSA certificate, try using an RSA certificate. Likewise, if you are using an RSA certificate, try using a DSA certificate.
- If you are charging your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader, try sending an email message after your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader is charged.

My computer locked unexpectedly

Try performing the following actions:

- Verify that Bluetooth® technology on your BlackBerry® Smart Card Reader is turned on and that your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader is within range of your computer.
- Verify that the smart card is inserted correctly in your BlackBerry Smart Card Reader.
- If the Interactive Logon: Smart card removal behavior policy is set to Lock workstation and you reset the BlackBerry Smart Card Reader, wait until the BlackBerry Smart Card Reader is on and log in again.

Prior to subscribing for, installing, or using any Third Party Products and Services, it is your responsibility to ensure that your airtime service provider has agreed to support all of their features. Some airtime service providers might not offer Internet browsing functionality with a subscription to the BlackBerry® Internet Service. Check with your service provider for availability, roaming arrangements, service plans and features. Installation or use of Third Party Products and Services with RIM's products and services may require one or more patent, trademark, copyright, or other licenses in order to avoid infringement or violation of third party rights. You are solely responsible for determining whether to use Third Party Products and Services and if any third party licenses are required to do so. If required you are responsible for acquiring them. You should not install or use Third Party Products and Services until all necessary licenses have been acquired. Any Third Party Products and Services that are provided with RIM's products and services are provided as a convenience to you and are provided "AS IS" with no express or implied conditions, endorsements, guarantees, representations, or warranties of any kind by RIM and RIM assumes no liability whatsoever, in relation thereto. Your use of Third Party Products and Services shall be governed by and subject to you agreeing to the terms of separate licenses and other agreements applicable thereto with third parties, except to the extent expressly covered by a license or other agreement with RIM.

Certain features outlined in this documentation require a minimum version of BlackBerry® Enterprise Server, BlackBerry® Desktop Software, and/or BlackBerry® Device Software.

The terms of use of any RIM product or service are set out in a separate license or other agreement with RIM applicable thereto. NOTHING IN THIS DOCUMENTATION IS INTENDED TO SUPERSEDE ANY EXPRESS WRITTEN AGREEMENTS OR WARRANTIES PROVIDED BY RIM FOR PORTIONS OF ANY RIM PRODUCT OR SERVICE OTHER THAN THIS DOCUMENTATION.
