HMP FULL SUTTON LIST OF PERSONAL ARTICLES ALLOWED IN PRISONERS POSSESSION

(Other Prisons have their own lists which may be different)

GENERAL NOTES

The inclusion of any item in the list does not give a prisoner a right to obtain or retain such an item in possession. It should be noted in particular that:

- a. The Governor has the discretion to disallow any item which he considers may pose a threat to the good order or discipline or security of the prison. This includes items which may cause racial or religious offence or items which promote illegal activities, e.g. drug logos
- b. The Governor advises against the possession of any item of extreme value e.g., a medallion consisting of coins, or ingots of precious metal. All personal property brought into the prison, particularly that held in possession, is held at the prisoner's own risk and the prison will not accept liability for the loss of or damage to that property unless it results from the prison's negligence. Prisoners are reminded that they will not be able to control or supervise such items at all times and that the prison cannot guarantee the security of items left in cells or other accommodation. Prisoners are advised not to keep in possession particularly valuable property.
- c. When ordering an article which appears on the list, from a mail order firm or another source, prisoners should first ensure that the item is of an approved type. Failure to do so could result in the item being withheld.
- d. Spending is linked to the prisoners earned privilege level allowance.
- e. This list determines which items may be sent in or bought from the prison shop and paid for from private cash and/or prisoner's earnings.
- f. All items are subject to thorough search and x-ray examination.
- g. All property issued into possession is subject to volumetric control restrictions.
- h. All property has been given a MAXIMUM value which is the limit of compensation which will be considered where loss/damage occurs. Values are for what is considered reasonable for each item and have been arrived at by comparing more than one catalogue price. Should a prisoner decide to have an item of a higher value he must first sign a disclaimer accepting the above restrictions and responsibility for the excess cost.
- i. Prisoners arriving from another high security prison with an item of property which meets the criteria laid down in the Full Sutton Possessions List, except for size, and was in possession at their previous prison, may retain the item in possession. When the item needs replacing the replacement must meet all criteria laid down in the Full Sutton Possessions List.
- j. No items made in prison workshops can be held in prisoners' possession.

RESTRICTIONS ON HANDING/POSTING IN OF PROPERTY

The Possessions List attached to this notice shows property which may be brought through reception and sent in by post and items which must be purchased internally from the prison shop. The reasons for restricting access to those items which must be purchased internally or via approved suppliers are:

- ❖ to avoid undermining the incentives and earned privileges scheme, or
- ❖ to avoid compromising the security of this establishment.

The requirement to purchase items of property internally was designed to act as an incentive to prisoners to maximise their earnings, thus encouraging them to engage in purposeful activity. As a general rule property can only be purchased through the prison shop from an approved supplier and cannot be posted in. However, there are some exceptions to this rule e.g.:

- a. Legal documents.
- b. Newspapers and magazines direct from publisher. To be issued via library.
- c. Calendars / poster/ certificates.
- d. Photographs - no self images.

The security of this establishment is of paramount importance and anything which may weaken that security must be stopped. By accepting property which is difficult to search and which may be used to conceal illicit items, breaches of security could result. Items which are difficult to search must therefore be stopped from entering this establishment.
