Android Auto

Connect a compatible Android phone to the system. You can use the touchscreen to make a phone call, listen to music, and more. Visit the Android Auto website for more information.

Park in a safe place before connecting your Android phone and launching any compatible apps.

1. Download the Android Auto app to your phone.
2. Connect the phone to the front USB port. A tutorial appears.
3. From the HOME screen, select Android Auto.
4. Android Auto requires you to send vehicle information to Honda. Select Enable Once, Always Enable, or Cancel.
5. Select a menu option.

- a Maps/Navigation: View a map and operate navigation. You can only use this system or the pre-installed navigation system to set a destination with routing guidance. You cannot enter destinations using the keyboard while the vehicle is moving.
- b Phone: Make phone calls or listen to voicemail. While connected to Android Auto, calls can only be made through Android Auto, not through Bluetooth[®] HandsFreeLink[®].
- c Google Now (Home): Display useful information organized by Android Auto into simple cards that appear only when needed.
- d Music: Play music from compatible apps. Select this icon to switch between music apps.
- e Return to HOME screen: Go back to the vehicle system HOME screen.
- f Voice: Use voice commands to operate Android Auto. You can also press and hold the Talk button on the steering wheel to say voice commands.

Android Auto requires a compatible Android phone with an active cellular connection and data plan. Your carrier's rate plans will apply.

Changes in operating systems, hardware, software, and other technology integral to providing Android Auto functionality, as well as new or revised governmental regulations, may result in a decrease or cessation of Android Auto functionality and services. Honda cannot and does not provide any warranty or guarantee of future Android Auto performance or functionality.

It is possible to use third-party apps if they are compatible with Android Auto. Refer to the Android Auto website for information on compatible apps.
