LEASE VEHICLE Excess Wear & Tear PLAN

Leasing a new car should be a carefree and enjoyable alternative to the responsibilities of auto ownership. But many of the risks of driving a car – the small dents and dings that happen in parking lots, chipped paint, even worn tires – are your responsibility at lease-end. You either repair them, or you pay the leasing company to perform the repairs. You may lose part of your security deposit, all of it, or maybe even more... Why worry about the kinds of things that happen to almost any car?

With Lease Vehicle Excess Wear & Tear, you may not have to worry about unexpected wear and tear charges at the end of your lease. Lease Vehicle Excess Wear & Tear may waive up to $7,500 of the cost of repairing covered dents, dings, scratches, and wear and tear on your vehicle at lease-end.

Lease Vehicle Excess Wear & Tear will help keep you driving worry-free!

Top five repairs typically charged as excess wear and tear are:

- Tires: $75-$100 per tire
- Glass: $20-$25 to repair a chip, to over $200 to replace a window
- Exterior dings, dents: $45-$135 per ding or dent
- Paint chips, cracks: $35-$70
- Upholstery rips, tears, burns: $25-$45

See Excess Wear and Tear Plan contract for complete details and coverage limitations.
