Note:

- a. It sends 1 connection request every 20 seconds.
- b. There are usually 10 profiles on one page.
- c. It moves to the next page automatically after the delay of 60 seconds. On every search you can have as many as 1000 results shown. This is the LinkedIn policy.

- d. You can either save this search and get new results every week, or you can more precise search using filters and keywords, to make sure you get less than 1000 for every search.
- e. You can send about 500-1000 requests every day.
- f. You can have as much as 5000 connection requests in total, so make sure you send requests to people who would be interested in your profile as well.
- 8. You can monitor to how many people you have sent the request using this URL https://www.linkedin.com/people/invites?trk=connect_hub_manage_invitations_sent Note: due to LinkedIn inefficiencies it might take up to few hours to show the connection requests that you've sent.
