

GUI Builder

In the Main menu select to Window → GUI Builder.

In the open window go the tab «Elements» and select the item you want to add . Press «Add», set the position of the element. Press LMB, set the size of the element. For confirm the setting item, press the LMB, to cancel - RMB. After that, configure element.

0 - The position and size of the element's, and you can set the size of greater than zero.

1 - The element name must be unique, or there might be problems with the work of the final script.

2 - Parameters of the element.

After placement of the elements, go to the tab «Elements», type in the «Class Name» name of the future class (Note: In C# script name must match the class name), select the type of script and click «Save Script».