News Aggregator Single Page Application with MEAN Stack

User's Manual

Introduction

A news aggregator was created for people who are wanting to be updated with the trending news. This application can be the one-stop application when user wants to take a break from their day.

This document guides a user through the necessary steps to use this application. This document includes all the features this application has, which is what the moderators have access to. For normal user, they are only able to delete or edit their own comment/article, not anyone elses.

If you have any questions not covered in this user guide, please contact the helpdesk at onsaint@hotmail.com.
