

The Choir Guide

The Choir Co-ordinator is in charge of the Fellowship Music and the Musical Instrument. Together with the Pastor(s), he is to recruit a team of quality and well-disciplined singers to form the Choir.

Members of this Choir are expected to carefully observe the Church's Rules and Regulations. And every member of the Church Choir is subject to all the related provisions in the Ministry's By-Laws, particularly 'Rules and Regulation binding on every registered member of the Ministries.

Secondly, every member of the Choir is expected to attend and to be punctual at every scheduled Choir meetings. Nevertheless, cases of possible absenteeism or lateness must be reported to the Co-ordinator prior to the time scheduled. Furthermore, should any member failed to attend the scheduled practice, such is not expected to perform with the other members when due. Also if a member, could not participate in meetings for a period of four consecutive weeks, acceptable reasons should be officially presented hence such a member could face a disciplinary action or be made to pay an amount of money to the purse of the Choir group as fine.

Finally, members could be reprovved when comported contrary to any one statement he/she has signed in the Choir application Form. These rules and regulations become necessary that we may be able to use the wisdom in it, to maximise the potential of God's calling in our individual lives.

Pastor,
