A Day Trip on February 17, 2018

Offered by the
Macon County Senior Citizens Center
"To The Lincoln Jamboree"

Are you ready to go somewhere now that the holidays are over? You are invited to go with the Macon County Senior Citizens on their first trip of 2018. We will be traveling to Hodgenville, Kentucky, where we will enjoy a wonderful meal of down home cooking. After our meal, we will be entertained with some good old fashioned, foot stomping and hand clapping music. In fact, "Impressions of the Legends" will be a part of the show. Go with us, you might see Patsy Cline, Charlie Pride, Dolly Parton, Hank Williams, Elvis or others. The cost of this trip is $72.00 per person and includes transportation, meal, admission to the Kentucky Opry, all gratuities, tips, etc. Pick up locations will be Lafayette, Westmoreland and along the route as needed. You will be notified of exact times and departure locations a week or ten days before the trip. In case of severe weather, the trip will be rescheduled. Please make checks payable to Macon County Senior Citizens Center and give or mail by February 2, 2018 (later if space and tickets are available), with the form below to:

AUCTIONEER NOTE-Mr. Young is downsizing after 60+ years in the nursery business. Greenhouses will be sold as individual houses then regrouped as a whole. All greenhouses must be moved by the buyer at the buyer's expense as well as the metal buildings. If someone buys a greenhouse as a whole complex, the computer system will remain with the greenhouse. Should the greenhouses be bought individually, the computer system will be sold separately. Equipment is in excellent condition and maintained on a rigorous maintenance schedule. The CAT generators are in excellent working condition and ready for your application.
