CME Conference Information

Course Description

The 2012 Mayo Clinic Alumni Association International CME Program, in response to requests from previous course attendees, will address a variety of relevant topics in medical education, research and clinical practice. The conference format balances topics of general and medical specialty interest and physician leadership information with particular attention to preventive screening, integrative and holistic approaches to health, aging, administration, research breakthroughs and innovation through lecture and an interactive speaker panel. Faculty members will be available during the breaks to answer questions and to discuss topics with course participants.

Intended Audience

Physicians and scientists trained at Mayo Clinic from Europe, the Mediterranean, the Middle East, the United States and all members of the Mayo Clinic Alumni Association.

Course Highlights

- Acupuncture
- Cancer
- Genomics
- Health Promotion
- Menopause
- Obesity
- Physician Leadership
- Regenerative Medicine
- Social Media
- Spirituality
- Surgery
- Urology

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, participants should be able to:

- Describe current directions in the promotion of women's health and men's health
- Outline trends in cancer screenings and care
- Outline key issues in regenerative medicine that relate to patient care
- Identify new information on health; lifestyle, end of life, obesity
- Identify challenges to physician leadership in quality and transparency

Program Headquarters and Optional Travel Components

The Mayo Clinic Alumni Association International Scientific CME Education Program will be held October 22-25, 2012, in Jerusalem. Course headquarters is the Dan Jerusalem Hotel situated on the historic slopes of Mount Scopus, overlooking the Old City of Jerusalem and surrounding hills of Judea. <http://www.danhotels.com/JerusalemHotels/DanJerusalemHotel/index.htm>

All course accommodations are Executive or Executive Old City view rooms, which include breakfast (see registration form). The number of Executive and Executive Old City view rooms is limited; early registration is encouraged. Participants should schedule their flights to arrive at Ben Gurion Airport in Tel Aviv, Israel, on Monday, October 22. Tel Aviv is the main international airport and is a 45-minute transfer to Jerusalem. October temperatures in Jerusalem range from 66-77 F for highs to 49-57 F for lows.

All attendees must possess a valid passport. There is no visa required for Israel (or Jordan for post-conference participants) for citizens from the USA or Canada. (Other passport holders please verify your immigration requirements.) US passports must be valid for six-months after returning to the US from your trip.

The International Scientific CME Education Program will begin with an evening reception on October 22. The scientific sessions are scheduled from 7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. on October 23, 24, and 25. Participants may also register for a pre-conference program which includes three additional nights and tours in and near Jerusalem. A 10-night post-conference program is available and features: four nights in Israel that includes a Friday Shabbat program in Jerusalem, Masada and the Dead Sea, and six nights in neighboring Jordan that includes Petra, the Wadi Rum and Amman. The post-conference tour ends in Amman on Monday, November 5. Additional information on these programs is contained within this brochure.

Scientific CME Education Program Information

Meeting Headquarters: Dan Jerusalem Hotel

Monday, October 22, Opening Reception, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

The reception is included for all registrants; spouse/guest welcome with reservation (see registration form and deadline). A variety of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be provided along with cultural entertainment. Weather permitting, the reception will be held on the beautiful outdoor terrace of the Dan Jerusalem Hotel, overlooking Old City Jerusalem.

Tuesday, October 23, Scientific Program, 7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Wednesday, October 24, Scientific Program, 7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Thursday, October 25, Scientific Program, 7:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Thursday, October 25, Gala Finale Dinner (Evening Attire), tentatively scheduled 7:00 p.m. – midnight

The gala is included for all registrants; spouse/guest welcome with reservation (see registration form and deadline). This exclusive gala venue features a unique overview of the historic Old City of Jerusalem and is spectacular. The setting sun and illuminated walls will create a glowing backdrop for dinner and entertainment.

Optional Group Activities

Registration required (see registration form and deadline)

Tuesday, October 23

Afternoon and Evening Jerusalem City Tour and Dinner

Beginning at the Mount of Olives, with a panoramic view of the ancient city of Jerusalem, you will tour the Old City and the Western Wall Tunnels accompanied by professional English-speaking guides. Highlights feature the four neighborhoods of Jerusalem which are named according to the majority ethnic affiliation who live there. This Old City orientation includes a walking tour through Jaffa Gate and down David Street where the ethnic quarters surround you, including Christian, Armenian, Jewish and Muslim. A visit to the unique Western Wall Tunnels takes you on a journey through the fascinating timeline of history and archaeology of the city. Dinner will be at Bulghourji, a classic renowned Old City restaurant housed in an ancient bulgur factory. Hotel departure at approximately 1:30 p.m.; return approximately 9:00 p.m. Business casual attire is appropriate; good walking shoes are required for the uneven Old City walkways. Spouse/guest welcome; all participants must have reservations (see registration form and deadline).

Wednesday, October 24

Afternoon and Evening Tour featuring the new Holocaust History Museum, the Tower of David and Dinner at the American Colony. Yad Vashem, the Holocaust History Museum, is a powerful experience for visitors to Israel and has recently been renovated. The new museum places an emphasis on the history of the Holocaust from a human perspective and uses multimedia to present a historical narrative interwoven with personal stories. Following your visit, continue on to the rooftop of Notre Dame for time to reflect and converse with your fellow alumni attendees before experiencing the beautiful sunset sound and light presentation at the Tower of David. Dinner follows at the American Colony Hotel in its beautiful Arabesque Restaurant. Hotel departure at approximately 1:30 p.m.; return approximately 10:00 p.m. Business casual attire is appropriate. Spouse/guest welcome; all participants must have reservations (see registration form and deadline).

Friday, October 26

Friday Shabbat Program and Dinner. Extending your stay for one additional day will allow for free time, a visit to the Western Wall and the opportunity to experience a traditional Shabbat. Dinner is included. Spouse/guest welcome; all participants must have reservations (see registration form and deadline).

Cancellation Policy

Reservations for accommodations and optional programs must be made before July 31, 2012. All reservations are on a first-come basis. Cancellations after this date are subject to penalty and are the individual's responsibility. Hotel rates at the MCAA rate are available two nights pre-conference and two nights post-conference. Important notice: the MCAA rates quoted are for a 4-night minimum stay. If less than 4 nights are booked for any individual reservation, the hotel reserves the right to amend the quoted rate. Cancellation policy: if cancellation is required, all efforts will be made to regain payments required for hotel banquet services and/or optional tours confirmed. Recouping payment is based on the payments already paid by Concierge Services, LLC, to hotels and land operators, which are contractual. Cancellation penalties may apply and are the participant's responsibility. Cancellation insurance is highly recommended and will be sent on request to interested individuals.

Pre- and Post-Scientific CME Education Program Touring Extensions Terms and Conditions

Reservations must be accompanied by a 50% per-person deposit and a completed and signed registration form. Final payment is due by July 31, 2012. Deposit and final payments can be paid by Visa/MasterCard/American Express only. Tour confirmations are based on date deposits are paid and on a first-come basis. Minimum number of 20 participants required for either program to hold the pricing as outlined. Concierge Services, LLC, will invoice you for the final payment due. Should minimum numbers not be achieved, all deposits paid will be fully refunded.

Travelers are responsible for obtaining proper passports and/or other international identification documents that you require and for assuring their validity. US Passports must be valid through April 27, 2013 for those returning to the USA on October 25 or 26. For those extending to Jordan, passports must be valid through May 5, 2013.

Cancellations

In the event you must cancel your participation on the tour, contact Linda Freeman, President, Concierge Services, LLC, at 507-280-9066. Cancellations are subject to per-person penalties and will depend on when the cancellation is made. Refunds are based on payments and deposits that Concierge Services, LLC, has made on your behalf from the time of your deposit and until the time of cancellation. Concierge Services, LLC, and Linda S. Freeman, strongly recommend trip cancellation and interruption insurance coverage; all persons placing deposits for pre- and post-scientific education programs will be given trip cancellation insurance information.

Trip Cancellation Insurance

Trip cancellation insurance is strongly recommended. Trip cancellation information will be sent to all individuals placing trip deposits at the time the deposit is received. Cancellation insurance covers your financial investment in the trip (minus the premium paid) and is strongly recommended for all travelers. Trip cancellation insurance will not cover 'changing your mind' and is generally for immediate family and personal traveler medical concerns.

Responsibility

Concierge Services, LLC, acts only as an agent for the suppliers and contractors and group operators providing air and other transportation, hotel, sightseeing, restaurant and other services, and assumes no responsibility for (no matter how caused) personal injury, personal or property damage or loss in connection with any services from independent suppliers that are not subject to the control of Concierge Services, LLC, and Linda S. Freeman. Concierge Services, LLC, and Linda S. Freeman, can therefore not be held liable for any accident or personal injury or property damage or personal loss that may occur in connection with any service due to (1) Any act of omission by such a supplier, or (2) Any defects in or failure of any aircraft, vessel, automotive vehicle, or other means or transportation that is not under our control, or (3) Any circumstances arising as a result of military or political action, weather, acts of God, or any other circumstances over which Concierge Services, LLC, and Linda S. Freeman, have no control.

Concierge Services, LLC, reserves the right to alter, change or omit any part of the itinerary or any reservation, conveyance, or routing at any time and without notice, when it is deemed necessary or desirable by Concierge Services, LLC, and Linda S. Freeman, and is deemed to be in the best interests of the participants. Concierge Services, LLC, reserves the right to pass on to tour members any losses caused by delays or events beyond our control including extreme (more than 5%) cost changes. Concierge Services, LLC, also reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person(s) as a tour member if the circumstances require. Participants are responsible for understanding there are walking tours included requiring physical stamina and for which alternative arrangements will not be possible. Good health and physical condition of participants is assumed by Concierge Services, LLC, at the time of deposit. Participants must inform Concierge Services, LLC, of any health or incapacity or accommodation issues before traveling to Israel. Trip cancellation insurance is highly recommended.
