Reminder-Working With Children at School Events

- Please note that parents/carers that work voluntarily at the school with students are required to complete a 'Prohibited Employment Declaration' at the office. This also requires a 100 point check, details of which are available by contacting the office staff. NB . For overnight excursions, parents/carers must have a Volunteer's 'Working With Children Check' done through the RTA. Deni North Scoops the Pool at Corowa M.P.P.S Finals

On Thursday 25th June, 4 Deniliquin North students: Charlie Dudley, Hannah Dunmore, Harry Dudley and Samantha Hughes travelled to Corowa to compete in the local final of the Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition (M.P.P.S). Deni North has been successfully involved in this competition for well over a decade, with past students making it to both Regional and State Finals. This year at Corowa, Deni North won both the Junior and Senior sections of the competition. As a result, Hannah Dunmore and Charlie Dudley will be representing North at the Riverina and Western NSW Final to be held on Thursday 27th August at Sturt Public school in Wagga.

This is Charlie's second year competing at regional level, having won the junior section last year.

Samantha Hughes (senior division) was also presented with a 'highly commended' award for her efforts.

We congratulate all 4 students on their outstanding efforts!
