Dipper HSS

The Dipper HSS card lets the user preset position three of the five-way pickup selector switch on the guitar's pickguard to yield any combination of the three pickups. Each pickup has a dedicated internal DIP switch that turns it on or off. When position three of the five-way pickup selector switch is activated, the DIP switch settings determine which pickups are active. This lets you choose any pickup configuration possible—all the standard pickup configurations, plus three very-cool pickup configurations not offered by standard five-way Stratocaster® pickup switching: all three pickups on, all three pickups off for a “stutter”/“kill switch” effect, and the neck and bridge pickups together. Also, the fourth DIP switch splits the humbucking bridge pickup for single-coil tone.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
099-0851-000	Dipper HSS

Dipper SSS

The Dipper SSS card lets the user preset position three of the five-way pickup selector switch on the guitar's pickguard to yield any combination of the three pickups. Each pickup has a dedicated DIP switch that turns it on or off. When position three of the five-way pickup selector switch is activated, the DIP switch settings determine which pickups are active. This lets you choose any pickup configuration possible—all the standard pickup configurations, plus three very-cool pickup configurations not offered by standard five-way Stratocaster® pickup switching: all three pickups on, all three pickups off for a “stutter”/“kill switch” effect, and the neck and bridge pickups together. Also, the Dipper card applies a fixed “treble-bleed” circuit modification (reduces treble loss when lowering volume), and it increases the amount of treble cut when lowering the tone controls.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION

Fader

The Fader card modifies the functions of the guitar's tone control knobs. It converts the first tone control knob (the one nearest the pickup switch) into a master tone control and the second tone control into a fader that gradually attenuates the sound of the top coil of the humbucking bridge pickup. This lets you get tones ranging from full humbucking to single coil when using the bridge pickup. Also, four internal DIP switches let you select two different “treble-bleed” circuit modifications (both reduce treble loss when lowering volume) and two different tone modifications that increase the amount of treble cut affected by the tone control knobs.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
099-0853-000	Fader HSS

Phaser HSS

The Phaser HSS card has four internal DIP switches that let the user reverse the phase of the neck or middle pickup. Pickups that are out of phase with each other create cool, hollow tones that are distinctly thin and funky. Reversing the phase of a pickup can also correct phase issues with aftermarket pickups.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION

Phaser SSS

<The Phaser SSS card has four internal DIP switches that let the user reverse the phase of the neck or middle pickup. Pickups that are out of phase with each other create cool, hollow tones that are distinctly thin and funky. Reversing the phase of a pickup can also correct phase issues with aftermarket pickups.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION

Stacker

The Stacker card modifies the function of the five-way pickup switch such that position three activates the bridge and middle pickups in series rather than the middle pickup by itself. This gives you a sound similar to pickup switch position two (bridge and middle) but with more output, gain and low end. Also, four internal DIP switches let you select two different “treble-bleed” circuit modifications (both reduce treble loss when lowering volume) and two different tone modifications that increase the amount of treble cut affected by the tone control knobs.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
099-0856-000	Stacker SSS

Super Stacker

The Super Stacker card converts the two “in-between” pickup selector switch positions of a Stratocaster—positions two and four, each of which combines two pickups—from parallel wiring to series wiring. This strengthens the tone of these two pickup switch positions, adding output, gain and low end. Also, four internal DIP switches let you select two different “treble-bleed” circuit modifications (both reduce treble loss when lowering volume) and two different tone modifications that increase the amount of treble cut affected by the tone control knobs.

099-0857-000	Super Stacker SSS

Fender Tone Saver

If you experience tonal change when turning down the volume control on your guitar, the Fender Tone Saver is a great solution. Unlike traditional treble bleed circuits that involve connecting tiny parts together with delicate soldering, the Tone Saver contains a special R/C network inside one convenient enclosure that will keep your guitar's tone remarkably consistent at any setting. Just solder the leads to the center and outside lugs of your guitar's volume control and you're done.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-398	Groove Tubes® GT-12AX7-C SELECT

GT-12AX7-M Preamp Tube

An exact reproduction of the acclaimed Mullard ECC83 design, which was the tube found in most high-quality musical instrument and hi-fi amplifiers of the '50s, '60s and '70s. Excellent all-around sonic character that adds vintage clarity and feel to any modern amp — a slightly rounder, deeper and all-around warmer tone with clarity. A lower-gain 12AX7 tube, it is a highly musical, harmonically rich and an excellent performer.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-397	Groove Tubes® GT-12AX7-M SELECT

GT-12AT7 (ECC81) Preamp Tube

Durable phase splitter or driver tube. Excellent in vibrato or reverb circuits where consistent, high output power is desired.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-400	Groove Tubes® GT-12AT7 SELECT

GT-12AY7 Preamp Tube

Low-gain tube used in very early Fender amps. Can sub for a 12AX7 to lower gain and produce a slightly warmer tone. Great for harp or blues where softer, more compressed distortion at lower volumes is desired. Medium/soft gain.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-395	Groove Tubes® GT-12AY7 SELECT

GT-12AU7 Preamp Tube

Our lowest-gain preamp tube. Can sub for a 12AX7 for lower gain and to produce a very creamy, warm tone. Great for harp or blues when softer, more compressed distortion at lower volumes is desired. Very low gain and very mellow output.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-399	Groove Tubes® GT-12AU7 SELECT

GT-ECC83-S Preamp Tube

Our highest-gain preamp tube, this tube has a huge amount of gain, with terrific output that makes it a great choice for driving modern, complex high-gain circuits. It has a tight, strong and relatively bright tone that can really liven up a weak or tired old vintage amp or a new amp with stock tubes.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-391	Groove Tubes® GT-ECC83-S SELECT

GT-5Y3 Rectifier Tube

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0114-302	GT-5Y3 Rectifier Tube

GT-5U4 Rectifier Tube

The Groove Tubes GT5U4/GZ32 rectifier tube is commonly found in many medium powered amplifiers such as the Fender Blackface amps, also may be used to replace a 5Y3 for improved dynamics and power.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0112-401	Groove Tubes® GT-5U4 RECTIFIER

6V6

The 6V6 is a low-output power tube (12-18 watts) often used in Fender® amplifiers, including the Champ®, Deluxe™, Dual Professional, Vibro-King®, Princeton® Vibrolux® and others. It has a very warm, round and soft response with rich harmonics, and distorts easily.

The flagship of the GT 6L6 line, it looks and sounds exactly like the original G.E. tube used by Fender in the '50s and '60s. It took more than four years to develop, and has stunning clarity and power. Our most recommended 6L6.

EL34

GT-E34L

The original power platform behind most high-powered British guitar stacks from the '60s onward. Output is generally between 20 and 25 watts, with pronounced mid-range punch, tight low end and crisp top end that breaks up relatively smoothly and gets a little crunchy when pushed hard. It provides a great voice that stands out in a band mix as the mids tend to power their way through an overall mix. Big brother to the EL84.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0113-545	Groove Tubes® GT-E34LS MED DUET
555-0113-548	Groove Tubes® GT-E34LS MED QUARTET

The GT EL34 is based on the original Mullard EL34 of the '60s. Mullard produced it for about 15 years, and this is a faithful reproduction of the classic XF2 dual-getter version. It has a big, fat and well-defined tone and really "wakes up" reissue amps to perform like the originals. As close as you can get to vintage power tube heaven.

GT-EL34R

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0113-569	Groove Tubes® GT-EL34-R MED DUET

555-0113-561	Groove Tubes® GT-EL34-M MED QUARTET

EL84

A solid performer — good quality and long lasting. Tends to be a little more aggressive and edgy when pushed into overdrive. This version is a little brighter, but still has a nice smooth top end

GT-EL84-S

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0113-580	Groove Tubes® GT-EL84-S MED DUET
555-0113-583	Groove Tubes® GT-EL84-S MED QUARTET

555-0113-577	Groove Tubes® GT-EL84-R MED QUARTET

6550

GT-6550R

This 6550 is slightly easier to push into distortion than the original G.E. version and has a harder response than the "C" for tighter, quicker response. Good for bass amps and metal, when more pronounced note definition is desired with just a touch of distortion.

MODEL	DESCRIPTION
555-0113-477	Groove Tubes® GT-6550-R MED DUET
