

Installation Instructions

1. von-F module installation

von-F module installation is following below order.

1. von-F module installation requires after vehicle parking in safety area

* Caution : A side brake or foot brake should be locked and shift also checked on the parking position.

2. Please check vehicle engine should be off when if ignition on

3. Module shall be installed in front of passenger seat A or in the glove box B and must be located to ensure a separation distance of 20cm or more between the antenna and the driver/passenger to comply with FCC rf exposure requirements.

4. Users and module separation distance about 60 ~ 100cm