:: FCC Compliance Statement

This equipment has been tested and found to comply within the limits of a Class B digital device pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation.

This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation.

If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception (which can be determined by turning the equipment on and off), the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by using one or more of the following measures:

- ■ Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- ■ Increase the separation between the equipment and the receiver.
- ■ Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- ■ Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

Caution: Changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's (or your) authority to operate the equipment. Only peripherals (digital input/output devices, terminals, printers, etc.) certified to comply with the Class B limits may be attached to this monitor. Operation with non-certified peripherals is likely to result in interference to radio and TV reception. Only shielded signal cables may be used with this System.

NOTICE
The regulations are applied only to the products with the ID LABEL indicating specific requirements.

:: Canadian DOC Notice

:: Low Radiation Compliance (MPR II)

This monitor meets one of the strictest guidelines available today for low radiation emissions, offering the user extra shielding and an antistatic screen coating. These guidelines, set forth by a government agency in Sweden, limit the amount of emission allowed in the Extremely Low Frequency (ELF) and Very Low Frequency (VLF) electromagnetic range.

:: TCO'99 (TCO'99 applied model only)

Congratulations!
You have just purchased a TCO'99 approved and labelled product! Your choice has provided you with a product developed for professional use. Your purchase has also contributed to reducing the burden on the environment and also to the further development of environmentally adapted electronics products.

Why do we have environmentally labelled computers?
In many countries, environmental labelling has become an established method for encouraging the adaptation of goods and services to the environment. With the growing manufacture and usage of electronic equipment throughout the world, there is a recognized concern for the materials and substances used by electronic products with regards to their eventual recycling and disposal. By proper selection of these materials and substances, the impact on the environment can be minimized.

There are also other characteristics of a computer, such as energy consumption levels, that are important from the viewpoints of both the work (internal) and natural (external) environments. Electronic equipment in offices is often left running continuously, resulting in unnecessary consumption of large amounts of energy and additional power generation. From the standpoint of carbon dioxide emissions alone, it is vital to save energy.

What does labelling involve?
The product meets the requirements for the TCO'99 scheme which provides for international and environmental labelling of personal computers and/or displays.
The labelling scheme was developed as a joint effort by the TCO (The Swedish Confederation of Professional Employees), Svenska Naturskyddsforeningen
(The Swedish Society for Nature Conservation) and Statens Energimyndighet (The Swedish National Energy Administration).
Approval requirements cover a wide range of issues: ecology, ergonomics, emission of electrical and magnetical fields, energy consumption and electrical safety.

Ecological criteria impose restrictions on the presence and use of heavy metals, brominated and chlorinated flame retardants, and other substances. The product must be prepared for recycling and the manufacturing site(s) shall be certified according to ISO14001 or EMAS registered.

Energy requirements include a demand that the system unit and/or display, after a certain period of inactivity, shall reduce its power consumption to a lower level in one or more stages. The length of time to reactivate the system unit shall be reasonable for the user.

Labelled products must meet strict environmental demands, for example, in respect of the reduction of electrical and magnetical fields as well as work load and visual ergonomics.

Below you will find a brief summary of the ecological requirements met by this product. The complete ecological criteria document can be found at TCO Development's website http://www.tcodevelopment.com or may be ordered from:

TCO Development

Ecological requirements
Flame retardants
Flame retardants may be present in printed wiring board laminates, cables, and housings. Their purpose is to prevent, or at least to delay the spread of fire. Up to 30% by weight of the plastic in a computer casing can consist of flame retardant substances. Many flame retardants contain bromine or chlorine, and these flame retardants are chemically related to PCBs (polychlorinated biphenyls). Both the flame retardants containing bromine or chlorine and the PCBs are suspected of giving rise to health effects, including reproductive damage in fish-eating birds and mammals, due to the bio-accumulative* processes when not disposed of in accordance with strict standards for disposal.

TCO'99 requires that plastic components weighing more than 25 grams shall not contain flame retardants with organically bound bromine or chlorine. Flame retardants are allowed in the printed wiring board laminates due to the lack of commercially available alternatives.

Cadmium
Cadmium is present in rechargeable batteries and in the colour-generating layers of certain computer displays.
TCO'99 requires that batteries, the colour-generating layers of display screens, and the electrical or electronics components shall not contain any cadmium.

Mercury
Mercury is sometimes found in batteries, relays and switches. TCO'99 requires that batteries shall not contain any mercury. It also demands that mercury is not present in any of the electrical or electronics components associated with the labelled unit. There is however one exception. Mercury is, for the time being, permitted in the back light system of flat panel monitors as there today is no commercially available alternative. TCO aims on removing this exception when a mercury free alternative is available.

Lead

Lead can be found in picture tubes, display screens, solders and capacitors. TCO'99 permits the use of lead due to the lack of commercially available alternatives, but in future requirements TCO Development aims at restricting the use of lead.

* Bio-accumulative is defined as substances which accumulate in living organisms.
Lead, Cadmium and Mercury are heavy metals which are bio-accumulative.

:: TCO'03 (TCO'03 applied model only)

Congratulations!

The display you have just purchased carries the TCO'03 Displays label.

This means that your display is designed,manufactured and tested according to some of the strictest quality and environmental requirements in the world. This makes for a high performance product, designed with the user in focus that also minimizes the impact on our natural environment. Some of the features of the TCO'03 Display requirements:

Ergonomics

• Good visual ergonomics and image quality in order to improve the working environment for the user and to reduce sight and strain problems. Important parameters are luminance, contrast, resolution, reflectance, colour rendition and image stability.

Energy

• Energy-saving mode after a certain time – beneficial both for the user and the environment
• Electrical safety

Emissions

• Electromagnetic fields

• Noise emissions

Ecology

• The product must be prepared for recycling and the manufacturer must have a certified environmental management system such as EMAS or ISO 14 001
• Restrictions on
  ○ chlorinated and brominated flame retardants and polymers
  ○ heavy metals such as cadmium, mercury and lead.

The requirements included in this label have been developed by TCO Development in co-operation with scientists, experts, users as well as manufacturers all over the world. Since the end of the 1980s TCO has been involved in influencing the development of IT equipment in a more user-friendly direction. Our labelling system started with displays in 1992 and is now requested by users and IT-manufacturers all over the world.

Information for Environmental Preservation

LGE. announced the 'LG Declaration for a Cleaner Environment' in 1994, and this ideal has served as a guiding managerial principle ever since. The Declaration is a foundation that has allowed us to undertake environmentally friendly activities in careful consideration of economic, environmental, and social aspects.

We promote activities for environmental preservation, and we specifically develop our products to embrace the concept of environment-friendly.
We minimize the hazardous materials contained in our products. For example, there is no cadmium to be found in our monitors.

Information for recycling

This monitor may contain parts which could be hazardous to the environment. It is important that this monitor be recycled after use.

LGE. handles all waste monitors through an environmentally acceptable recycling method. There are several take-back and recycling systems currently in operation worldwide. Many parts will be reused and recycled, while harmful substances and heavy metals are treated by an environmentally friendly method.

If you want to find out more information about our recycling program, please contact your local LG vendor or a corporate representative of LG.

We set our vision and policies on a cleaner world by selecting the issue of the global environment as a task for corporate improvement. Please visit our website for more information about our 'green' policies.

Informationen zur Erhaltung der Umwelt

Im Jahr 1994 verkündete LGE die 'LG Declaration for a Cleaner Environment' (LG Erklärung für eine sauberere Umwelt). Seitdem dient dieses Ideal als führendes Prinzip des Unternehmens. Diese Erklärung war die Basis für die Durchführung von umweltfreundlichen Aktivitäten, wobei wirtschaftliche, umweltbezogene und soziale Aspekte in die
Überlegungen mit einbezogen wurden.
Wir fördern Aktivitäten zum Schutz der Umwelt und die Entwicklung unserer Produkte ist darauf ausgerichtet, unserem Konzept bezüglich Umweltfreundlichkeit gerecht zu werden.
Wir sind darauf bedacht, den Anteil der in unseren Produkten enthaltenen schädlichen Materialien zu minimieren. So ist in unseren Monitoren beispielsweise kein Kadmium zu finden.

Informationen zum Thema Recycling

Dieser Monitor enthält Teile, die umweltschädlich sein können. Es ist unbedingt erforderlich, dass der Monitor recycelt wird, nachdem er außer Dienst gestellt wurde.

Bei LGE. werden alle ausrangierten Monitore in einem unter umweltbezogenen Aspekten geeigneten Verfahren recycelt. Augenblicklich sind weltweit mehrere Rücknahme- und Recyclingsysteme im Einsatz. Viele Teile werden wieder verwendet und recycelt. Schädliche Substanzen und Schwermetalle werden durch umweltverträgliche Verfahren behandelt.
Falls Sie mehr über unser Recyclingprogramm erfahren möchten, wenden Sie sich bitte an Ihren lokalen LG-Händler oder einen Unternehmensvertreter von LG.

Wir richten unsere Firmenpolitik auf eine sauberere Umwelt hin aus, indem wir umweltspezifische Aspekte als wichtigen Punkt in die Weiterentwicklung unseres Unternehmens einfließen lassen. Zusätzliche
