Lenovo warrants that each Lenovo hardware product that you purchase is free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use and conditions during the warranty period.
THIS WARRANTY IS YOUR EXCLUSIVE WARRANTY AND REPLACES ALL OTHER WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

How to Obtain Warranty Service
If the product does not function as warranted during the warranty period, you may obtain warranty service by contacting Lenovo or a Lenovo approved Service Provider.

Remove all data, including confidential information, proprietary information and personal information, from the product or, if you are unable to remove any such information, modify the information to prevent its access by another party or so that it is not personal data under applicable law.

Remove all features, parts, options, alterations, and attachments not covered by the warranty.
Ensure that the product or part is free of any legal restrictions that prevent its replacement.

What Your Service Provider Will Do to Correct Problems
When you contact a Service Provider, you must follow the specified problem determination and resolution procedures.

Some problems may be resolved with a replacement part that you install yourself called a "Customer Replaceable Unit" or "CRU." If so, the Service Provider will ship the CRU to you for you to install.

Replacement Products and Parts
When warranty service involves the replacement of a product or part, the replaced product or part becomes Lenovo's property and the replacement product or part becomes your property.

Use of Personal Contact Information
If you obtain service under this warranty, you authorize Lenovo to store, use and process information about your warranty service and your contact information.
