

OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

How to use:

1. Plug the unit into cigarette lighter in your car.
2. Connect input connector in the unit to your portable device out put jack and adjust the portable device output to proper level by volume control.
3. Turn the frequency or FM receiver in your car to the frequency labeled on the unit and your can enjoy fantastic music in your portable device now.

FCC NOTE:

The antenna provided is a unique antenna. By installation of unauthorized antenna to this equipment. Such unauthorized installation could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

The manufacturer is not responsible for any radio or TV interference caused by unauthorized modifications to this equipment. Such modifications could also void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

1. This device may not cause harmful interference, and
2. This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.