Home screen

Quick access to the things you need most

Quick start: Home screen

The home screen gives you all your latest information in one place. It's what you see when you turn on the Tablet or touch Home from a menu. It will appear basically like this:

Status Indicators

Status Bar
Touch & drag this bar down to check notifications.

Shortcuts
Touch to open.

Applications Tab
Drag up to see all your apps.

Note: Your home screen might look a little different.

The home screen extends beyond what you see on the screen to give you more room for adding shortcuts, widgets, and more. Flick the home screen left and right to see more panels or to add widgets or shortcuts.

Widgets

Add a widget, such as a clock, music player, or a calendar that shows upcoming appointments.

To open a widget, touch it. To add widgets, touch Menu [icon] > Add > Widgets. If your home screen is full, you won't see the add option. You'll have to delete widgets or shortcuts to make room.

Note: If you install Apps from Android Market that have widgets, touch and hold the home screen, then select a widget to add to the home screen.

Shortcuts

To add shortcuts to the home screen, open the App menu (see below), then touch and hold the shortcut you wish to add. It will be added to the home screen.

Alternatively, access Menu ▣ > Add > Shortcuts.

Apps

Your Tablet comes with a few Apps already installed, and you can download and install more. To open an App, touch it.

App menu

All the Apps on your Tablet, including the Apps that came with your Tablet and the ones you download and install, are listed in alphabetical order in your App (application) menu. To open the App menu, touch ▦ and drag up.

Running multiple Apps

There is no need to close an App before opening another one.

Your Tablet can run multiple Apps, all at once.

You can open a new App by touching Home ⌂/◉ to return to the home screen, then opening the App menu and touching the App you want. To switch from one running App to another, touch and hold Home ⌂/◉ to see what Apps are already open, then touch the one you want. You can view up to the last six Apps that you ran.

Tablet status & notifications

The status bar at the top of the screen contains icons that tell you about messages and Tablet status. To view your notifications, touch the status bar and drag it down.

USB & memory card

Connect your Tablet and computer, then drag & drop

USB drag & drop

You can transfer your pictures, videos, music, ringtones, and more, from your computer to your Tablet's memory card.

1 With a memory card inserted, and your Tablet showing the home screen, connect a micro USB data cable from your Tablet's micro USB port to a USB port on your computer.

Note: You may need to remove the USB data cable from the charger power head.

Note: Make sure to connect the Tablet to a high power USB port. Typically, these are located directly on your computer.

2 Your Tablet shows a USB connection dialog at the top of the screen. Flick down, then touch USB connected. You will not be able to use the files on your memory card while it is connected.

3 Touch Mount (if asked) to connect your memory card.

4 On your computer, locate and click on the "Removable Disk" icon to access the Tablet's memory card.

5 Drag and drop your pictures, videos, music, ringtones, and more, to the Tablet folder on the memory card. To help manage your files, you can create more folders inside your Tablet folder.

6 When you're done, select the "Safely Remove Hardware" feature on your computer. On your Tablet, drag down the notification panel, touch Turn off USB storage, and select Turn off.

Memory card

Note: You need to install a memory card to use your

FCC RF EXPOSURE INFORMATION:
WARNING!! Read this information before using your phone
In August 1986 the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) of the United States with its action in Report and Outer FCC 96-326 adopted an updated safety standard for human exposure to radio frequency (RF) electromagnetic energy emitted by FCC regulated transmitters. Those guidelines are consistent with the safety standard previously set by both U.S. and international standards bodies. The design of this phone complies with the FCC guidelines and these international standards. Use only the supplied or an approved antenna. Unauthorized antennas modifications, or attachments could impair call quality, damage the phone, or result in violation of FCC regulations. Do not use the phone with a damaged antenna. If a damaged antenna comes into contact with the skin, a minor burn may result. Please contact your local dealer for replacement antenna.

BODY-WORN OPERATION:

This device was tested for typical body-worn operations with the back of the phone kept 10mm from the body. To comply with FCC RF exposure requirements, a minimum separation distance of 10mm must be maintained between the user's body and the back of the phone, including the antenna. Third-party belt-clips, holsters and similar accessories containing metallic components shall not be used. Body-worn accessories that cannot maintain 10mm separation distance between the user's body and the back of the phone, and have not been tested for typical body-worn operations may not comply with FCC RF exposure limits and should be avoided.
For more information about RF exposure, please visit the FCC website at www.fcc.gov

Your wireless handheld portable telephone is a low power radio transmitter and receiver. When it is ON, it receives and also sends out radio frequency (RF) signals. In August, 1996, the Federal Communications Commissions (FCC) adopted RF exposure guidelines with safety levels for hand-held wireless phones. Those guidelines are consistent with the safety standards previously set by both U.S. and international standards bodies:

<ANSIC95.1> (1992) / <NCRP Report 86> (1986) / <ICIMIRP> (1996)

Those standards were based on comprehensive and periodic evaluations of the relevant scientific literature. For example, over 120 scientists, engineers, and physicians from universities, government health agencies, and industry reviewed the available body of research to develop the ANSI Standard (C95.1). Nevertheless, we recommend that you use a hands-free kit with your phone (such as an earpiece or headset) to avoid potential exposure to RF energy. The design of your phone complies with the FCC guidelines (and those standards).

Use only the supplied or an approved replacement antenna. Unauthorized antennas, modifications, or attachments could damage the phone and may violate FCC regulations.

NORMAL POSITION:
Hold the phone as you would any other telephone with the antenna pointed up and over your shoulder.

 RF Exposure Information:
This product is compliance to FCC RF Exposure requirements and refer to FCC website search for FCC ID: 2ABN6S700 to gain further information include SAR Values.

 This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
 (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and

(2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

NOTE: The manufacturer is not responsible for any radio or TV interference caused by unauthorized modifications to this equipment. Such modifications could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.
NOTE: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help

Do not use the device with the environment which below minimum -10℃ or over maximum 50℃, the device may not work.

Changes or modifications to this unit not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Ad Hoc function is supported but not able to operate on non-US frequencies.
