Note:

- If the call has no phone number, the call is blocked but it is not stored in the call block list.
- The call block feature is not available for intercom calls or calls received by call waiting.
- Blocked calls are logged in the caller list.

Storing unwanted callers

The unit can block calls by storing the desired items in the call block list beforehand (Caller ID subscribers only).

- "Block a single number": The unit blocks calls from specific phone numbers stored in the call block list.
- "Block range of numbers": The unit blocks calls that begin with a number stored in the call block list, such as a toll-free phone number prefix or certain area codes.
- "Block unknown CID": The unit blocks calls that have no phone number.

Single phone numbers and ranges of numbers can be stored in the call block list up to 250 items in total.

Blocking unwanted callers:

When a call is received, the unit rings once*1 while caller information is being received. If the caller's phone number matches an entry in the call block list, the unit emits no sound to the caller, and disconnects the call.

*1 If you do not want this one ring to sound, select "No" in "Muting the first ring" (page 19).

Storing a single phone number

Important:

- We recommend storing 10 digits (including the area code). If only 7 digits are stored, all numbers that have the same last 7 digits will be blocked.

To use this feature, set the date and time first (page 13).
- *4 If you subscribe to a distinctive ring service (such as IDENT-A-RING), select a tone (tone 1 to 2). If you select a melody, you cannot distinguish lines by their ringers.
- *5 The preset melodies in this product are used with permission of © 2009 Copyrights Vision Inc.
- *6 This setting is available when you have the key detector (KX-TGA20). Read the installation manual for more information on the key detector.
- *7 For models with supplied key detectors, the display shows "1: Detector1".
- *8 If you register 2 or more key detectors.
- *9 If you subscribe to a Caller ID service and want to view the caller's information after lifting up the handset to answer a call, turn off this feature.
- *10 The flash time depends on your telephone exchange or host PBX. Contact your PBX supplier if necessary. The setting should stay at "700 ms" unless pressing [FLASH] fails to pick up the waiting call.
- *11 Generally, the line mode setting should not be changed. This setting automatically maintains receiver volume at the proper level depending on the current telephone line condition. Set the line mode to "A" if telephone line condition is not good.

Baby monitor

This feature allows you to listen in on a room where another handset is located, allowing you to easily monitor from different areas of the house or even while away from home. The monitored handset (placed in a baby's room, for example) will automatically call the monitoring handset or the phone number stored when it detects sound.

Important:

- Before using this feature, we recommend that you test this feature and adjust the baby monitor sensitivity as needed, especially if you plan to monitor from outside.
- This feature should not be used as a substitute for a medical or caregiver's supervision. It is the caregiver's responsibility to stay close enough to handle any eventuality.

Note:

- If the unit is connected to a PBX system, you cannot set the baby monitor.
- During the monitoring mode, battery consumption is faster than usual. We recommend leaving the monitored handset on the base unit or charger.
- The monitored handset never rings while it is being monitored. If the base unit is placed near the monitored handset, we recommend turning off the base unit ringer volume (page 25).

Setting the baby monitor

Perform the setting operation with the handset to be monitored (for example, the handset placed in a baby's room).

Using Caller ID service

Important:

- This unit is Caller ID compatible. To use Caller ID features, you must subscribe to a Caller ID service. Contact your phone service provider for details.

Caller ID features

When an outside call is being received, the caller information is displayed.

Caller information for the last 50 callers is logged in the caller list from the most recent call to the oldest.

- If the unit cannot receive caller information, the following is displayed:
 - “Out of area”: The caller dials from an area which does not provide a Caller ID service.
 - “Private caller”: The caller requests not to send caller information.
 - “Long distance”: The caller makes a long distance call.
- If the unit is connected to a PBX system, caller information may not be properly received. Contact your PBX supplier.

Missed calls

If a call is not answered, the unit treats it as a missed call. The display shows “Missed call”.

Note:

- Even when there are unviewed missed calls, “Missed call” disappears from the standby display if the following operation is performed by one of the units:
 - A handset is replaced on the base unit or charger.
 - Pressing [OFF] on a handset.

Phonebook name display

When caller information is received and it matches a phone number stored in the phonebook, the stored name in the phonebook is displayed and logged in the caller list.

Talking Caller ID

Handset / Base unit

This feature lets you know who is calling without looking at the display.

To use this feature, you must:

- subscribe to a Caller ID service of your phone service provider.
- turn this feature on (page 25).

When caller information is received, the handsets and/or base unit announce the caller’s name or phone number received from your phone service provider following every ring.

- Name pronunciation may vary. This feature may not pronounce all names correctly.
- Caller ID service has a limit of how many characters can be displayed. If the caller’s name is too long, the unit may not be able to display or announce the entire name.

Phonebook name announcement

When caller information is received and it matches a phone number stored in the phonebook, the stored name in the phonebook is announced.

Caller ID number auto edit feature

Once you call back an edited number, the unit which was used to call back remembers the area code and format of the edited number. The next time someone calls from the same area code, caller information is customized by the unit as follows:

- When the call is being received, the Caller ID number is displayed in the same format as the edited number.
- After the call has ended, the caller's phone number is displayed in the same format as the edited number, when reviewed from the caller list.

For example, you can use this feature to set the unit to ignore the area code of callers in your area, so that you can call these local numbers using caller information without dialing the area code.

To activate this feature, you must edit an entry in the caller list, then call that number. After that, phone numbers from that caller's area code are edited automatically.

This feature can be set for each unit (page 27). The default setting is “on”.

Note:

- Phone numbers from the 4 most recently edited area codes are automatically edited.

 - turn on the new message alert setting.
- After you answer the new message alert call, you can listen to messages from that call (page 38).

If you call your phone from outside to listen to new messages (page 39), you know that there are no new messages when the phone rings for the 3rd time. For landline voicemail service subscribers

If you subscribe to a flat-rate service package that includes Caller ID, call waiting, voicemail, and unlimited local/regional/long distance calls, please note the following:

- To use the voicemail service provided by your phone service provider rather than the unit's answering system, turn off the answering system (page 35).

- To use this unit's answering system rather than the voicemail service provided by your phone service provider, please contact your phone service provider to deactivate your voicemail service.

If your phone service provider cannot do this:

- Set this unit's "Ring count" setting so that this unit's answering system answers calls before the voicemail service of your phone service provider does. It is necessary to check the number of rings required to activate the voicemail service provided by your phone service provider before changing this setting.
- Change the number of rings of the voicemail service so that the answering system can answer the call first. To do so, contact your phone service provider.

 - If you use your own message, record the greeting-only message asking callers to call again later (page 35).

Voicemail service

Voicemail is an automatic answering service offered by your phone service provider. After you subscribe to this service, your phone service provider's voicemail system answers calls for you when you are unavailable to answer the phone or when your line is busy. Messages are recorded by your phone service provider, not your telephone. Please contact your phone service provider for details of this service.

Important:

- To use the voicemail service provided by your phone service provider rather than the unit's answering system, turn off the answering system (page 35). For details, see page 40.

If you hear a series of dial tones followed by a continuous dial tone after you press [↶/⏪], you have new voicemail messages. Soon after you hang up a call or after the phone stops ringing, your unit checks the phone line to see if new voicemail messages have been recorded.

Turn this feature off when:

- You do not subscribe to voicemail service.
 - Your phone service provider does not send voicemail tones.
 - Your phone is connected to a PBX.
- If you are not sure which setting is required, contact your phone service provider.
