Carrying Case	Start Guide

Installing Batteries in the RemotePoint Presenter Remote

- Remove the battery cover on the underside of the RemotePoint Presenter Remote.
- Insert the two AAA batteries in the compartment. Ensure that the batteries are in the correct orientation as indicated by the positive (+) and negative (-) markings.
- Replace the battery cover.

Connecting the USB Receiver

- Remove the protective cap from the USB Receiver.
- Flip up the antenna.
- Insert the receiver into an available USB port on your computer.
- The slowly flashing green light indicates that the receiver is working.

Because RemotePoint Presenter uses radio waves, the receiver can be placed anywhere. You do not need to place it where you have a line-of-sight connection with the RemotePoint Presenter Remote.

Note: Shortly after you connect the receiver, Windows might display the Add New Hardware wizard. If required, click Next a few times to get through the wizard. Some Windows 98 computers require that you insert your Windows 98 installation disk. If you do not have this available, an alternative solution is provided on your RemotePoint Presenter CD in a file titled Win98.pdf.

Using RemotePoint Presenter

The RemotePoint Presenter Remote has four programmable buttons in addition to the laser pointer button and the ClickTrigger on the back.

Using RemotePoint Presenter for a PowerPoint Presentation

With no software loaded, RemotePoint Presenter is ready to help you present a PowerPoint slideshow.

To use the RemotePoint Presenter as a mouse:

- Using your thumb, apply side pressure to the mouse pointer in the direction you want the mouse cursor to move.
- Using your index finger, click the mouse by pressing the ClickTrigger on the back of the RemotePoint Presenter Remote.

The other RemotePoint Presenter Remote buttons work as follows:

Illuminates the red laser pointer on the front of the RemotePoint Presenter Remote. It is typically used as a pointer during presentations. The laser beam emits for the duration that you press the button, up to a maximum of 60 seconds. The range of the beam is in excess of 100 ft.

Moves to the previous slide in a PowerPoint slide show, or moves to the previous page in other applications.

Moves to the next slide in a PowerPoint slide show, or moves to the next page in other applications.

Alternately blanks the screen or restores the current slide in a PowerPoint slide show. Use this when you want to direct the audience's attention away from the screen or to begin or end a slide show.

Starts PowerPoint slide show when PowerPoint is active.

Installing the RemotePoint Presenter Software

The RemotePoint Presenter software allows you to customize the buttons on RemotePoint Presenter. Builtin profiles for several common applications are provided, and you can create your own profiles if the builtin profiles don't fit your needs.

To install the RemotePoint Presenter software:

- Insert the RemotePoint Presenter CD into the CD-ROM drive.
- Follow the on-screen instructions.

Note: If the setup wizard does not appear, double-click My Computer, double-click the icon for your CD-ROM drive, and then double-click Setup.exe. For complete instructions on using the software, please see the User's Guide on the CD provided.

Using RemotePoint Presenter as a Presentation Remote Control

With the RemotePoint Presenter software running, the RemotePoint Presenter becomes a full-featured presentation remote control. With a single click, you can change to a different profile, which is a collection of button assignments.

To use RemotePoint Presenter as a presentation remote control:

- Double-click the RemotePoint Presenter icon in the notification area (also known as the system tray) at the lower right corner of the screen.
- The RemotePoint Presenter software displays the current button assignments.
- You can choose a different profile by clicking it in the list of profiles. The button assignments for the selected profile are loaded into the RemotePoint Presenter Remote.
- Press any of the buttons on the top of the RemotePoint Presenter Remote. As soon as you press one of these buttons, the RemotePoint Presenter software minimizes to an icon in the notification area. The RemotePoint Presenter Remote is ready to use.

Using the 32MB USB Drive

The RemotePoint Presenter receiver has a built-in 32-megabyte flash memory mass storage device that acts just like a removable hard drive. When you insert the RemotePoint Presenter receiver into a USB port, an additional drive appears in Windows. Store your presentation as a back up, or to take on the road.

Warranty

1. What product is covered by this warranty?

The following product ("the Product") is covered by this warranty:
RemotePoint Presenter

2. What does this warranty cover?

Interlink Electronics, Inc. ("Interlink") warrants to the original end-user purchaser of the Product ("you") that the Product will be free from defects in materials or workmanship under normal use and service during the warranty period described in paragraphs 3 and 4.

3. When does your warranty begin?

The warranty will begin on the day you purchase the Product. Dated proof of purchase is necessary to accompany the Product returned for warranty service consideration.
