

The Utility Wireless Meter will never be sold to the General public. The device will only be sold to and used by Commercial Utility companies. Installation is made directly by Schlumberger. For this reason a user manual will never be made available.

.