Messages (M 4)

Your phone allows you to send and receive text messages, multimedia messages and Emails. It is compatible with most POP3 Email providers.

SMS

SMS allows you to send text messages up to 70 Chinese or 160 English characters in one SMS. If the number of characters in an SMS exceeds this limit, the message is split into several segments. For example, if a message contains 100 Chinese characters, it is sent as two SMS messages.

As a general rule, if both Chinese and English characters are used, one Chinese character is counted as two English characters. For punctuation symbols and special symbols, the character count will depend on whether it is full-width or half-width. When the symbol is full-width, it is counted as two English characters or one Chinese character. When the symbol is half-width, it is counted as one English character.

Long SMS

WX-T930 supports Long SMS, which allows you to send text messages up to 335 Chinese or 765 English characters. If the number of characters in a message exceeds this number, the message is automatically delivered by MMS and the charge for an MMS is applied.

MMS

With MMS, you can send images, sound or video to brighten someone's day. Messages of up to 300 KB with images, sound, or video clips can be sent and received.

Email

Email allows you to send messages of up to 300 KB.

- Before removing the battery from the phone, make sure the phone is switched off.
- Replace and charge the new battery as soon as possible after removing the old one.

- Do not touch the battery terminals. Batteries can cause damage, injury or burns if a conductive material touches exposed terminals. When the battery is detached from the phone, use a cover made of non-conductive material for keeping and carrying the battery safely.
- Recommended temperature for using and storing batteries is approximately 20°C.
- The batteries' performance is limited in low temperatures, particularly below 0°C and the phone may not work temporarily regardless of the amount of remaining battery power.
- Exposing the phone to extreme temperatures will shorten battery life.
- The battery can be charged and discharged hundreds of times but it will eventually wear out. When the operating time (talk-time and stand-by time) is noticeably shorter than normal, it is time to buy a new battery.

CAUTION

RISK OF EXPLOSION IF BATTERY IS REPLACED
BY AN INCORRECT TYPE,
DISPOSE OF USED BATTERIES ACCORDING TO THE INSTRUCTIONS

See “Battery Disposal” on page 17.

Aerial Care

- Do not cover the hinge area of the phone (p. 15, No. 31) with your hand when in use as this may interfere with the performance of the built-in aerial. Call quality may deteriorate leading to shortened talk-time and stand-by time because the mobile phone has to operate on a higher power level than is necessary.
- Use only the aerial supplied or one approved by Sharp for your mobile phone. Using unauthorised or modified aerials may damage the mobile phone. Moreover, since the mobile phone may violate the appropriate regulations, it may lose performance or exceed the limitation of SAR levels.
- To avoid impaired performance, do not damage the aerial of the mobile phone.
- To avoid interfering with blasting operations, please turn off the mobile phone in a blasting area or in a place where a “turn off two-way radio” sign is posted.

Camera Operation

- Learn picture quality, file formats, etc. beforehand.
The taken pictures can be saved in JPEG format.
- Be careful not to move your hand while taking pictures.
If the phone moves while taking a picture, the picture can become blurred. When taking a picture, hold the phone firmly to prevent it from moving, or use the delay timer.
- Clean the lens cover before taking a picture.
Fingerprints, oils, etc. on the lens cover hinder clear focusing. Wipe them off with a soft cloth before taking a picture.

Others

- As with any electronic storage unit, data may be lost or corrupted under various circumstances.
- Before connecting the phone with a PC or a peripheral unit, read the operation manual for the other unit carefully.
- If the phone's battery has been removed for some time, or the phone has been reset, the unit's clock and calendar may be reinitialised. The date and time should be updated in this case.

- Do not place magnetic cards near your phone as it may damage the recorded data.

Environment

- Keep your phone away from extreme heat. Do not leave it on the dashboard of a car or near a heater. Do not leave it in any place that is extremely damp or dusty.
- Since this product is not waterproof, do not use it or store it where fluids such as water can splash onto it. Raindrops, water spray, juice, coffee, steam, perspiration, etc. will also cause malfunctions.

Precautions Concerning Vehicle Use

- It is the user's responsibility to check the local laws governing the use of a mobile phone in vehicles. Pay full attention to driving. Pull off to the side of the road, park the car, and switch off the engine before making or answering a call.
- Use of your phone's function may interfere with the vehicle's electronic systems, such as the ABS anti-lock brakes or the air-bag. To ensure no such problem occurs, please check with your dealer or car manufacturer before connecting your phone.
- Only allow qualified service maintenance personnel to install vehicle accessories.

The manufacturer disclaims any liability for damage which may result as a consequence of improper use or use contrary to the instructions contained herein.

SAR (Taiwan)

Your Sharp mobile phone has been designed, manufactured and tested so as not to exceed the limits for exposure to electromagnetic fields as required by the NCC. These limits are part of comprehensive guidelines developed by independent scientific organisations. The guidelines include a substantial safety margin designed to assure the safety of the phone user and others and to take into account variations in age and health, individual sensitivities and environmental conditions. The NCC rules provide for the amount of radio frequency electromagnetic energy absorbed by the body when using a mobile phone to be measured by reference to the Specific Absorption Rate (SAR). The SAR limit for the general public is currently 2.0 watts per kilogram averaged over 10 grams of body tissue. Your Sharp mobile phone SAR value is X.XXX W/kg. This has been tested to ensure that this limit is not exceeded even when the phone is operating at its highest certified power. In use however your Sharp mobile phone may operate at less than full power because it is designed to use only sufficient power to communicate with the network.

SAR (Europe)

Your Sharp mobile phone has been designed, manufactured and tested so as not to exceed the limits for exposure to electromagnetic fields recommended by the Council of the European Union. These limits are part of comprehensive guidelines developed by independent scientific organisations. The guidelines include a substantial safety margin designed to assure the safety of the phone user and others and to take into account variations in age and health, individual sensitivities and environmental conditions. European standards provide for the amount of radio frequency electromagnetic energy absorbed by the body when using a mobile phone to be measured by reference to the Specific Absorption Rate (SAR). The SAR limit for the general public is currently 2 watts per kilogram averaged over 10 grams of body tissue. Your Sharp mobile phone SAR value is 0.601 watts per kilogram. This has been tested to ensure that this limit is not exceeded even when the phone is operating at its highest certified power. In use however your Sharp mobile phone may operate at less than full power because it is designed to use only sufficient power to communicate with the network.

FCC NOTICE

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Information to User

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits of a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications.

However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation; if this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

1. Reorient/relocate the receiving antenna.
2. Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
3. Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
4. Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

CAUTION: Changes or modifications not expressly approved by the manufacturer responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Exposure to Radio Waves

THIS MODEL PHONE MEETS THE GOVERNMENT'S REQUIREMENTS FOR EXPOSURE TO RADIO WAVES.

Your wireless phone is a radio transmitter and receiver. It is designed and manufactured not to exceed the emission limits for exposure to radio frequency (RF) energy set by the Federal Communications Commission of the U.S. Government. These limits are part of comprehensive guidelines and establish permitted levels of RF energy for the general population. The guidelines are based on standards that were developed by independent scientific organizations through periodic and thorough evaluation of scientific studies. The standards include a substantial safety margin designed to assure the safety of all persons, regardless of age and health.

The exposure standard for wireless mobile phones employs a unit of measurement known as the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. The SAR limit set by the FCC is 1.6 W/kg.* Tests for SAR are conducted using standard operating positions specified by the FCC with the phone transmitting at its highest certified power level in all tested frequency bands. Although the SAR is determined at the highest certified power level, the actual SAR level of the phone while operating can be well below the maximum value. This is because the phone is designed to operate at multiple power levels so as to use only the power required to reach the network. In general, the closer you are to a wireless base station aerial, the lower the power output.

Before a phone model is available for sale to the public, it must be tested and certified to the FCC that it does not exceed the limit established by the government-adopted requirement for safe exposure. The tests are performed in positions and locations (e.g., at the ear and worn on the body) as required by the FCC for each model. The highest SAR value for this model phone when tested for use at the ear is 0.612 W/kg and when worn on the body, as described in this user guide, is 0.504 W/kg.

Body-worn Operation; This device was tested for typical body-worn operations with the back of the phone kept 1.5 cm from the body. To maintain compliance with FCC RF exposure requirements, use accessories that maintain a 1.5 cm separation distance between the user's body and the back of the phone. The use of belt-clips, holsters and similar accessories should not contain metallic components in its assembly.

The use of accessories that do not satisfy these requirements may not comply with FCC RF exposure requirements, and should be avoided. While there may be differences between the SAR levels of various phones and at various positions, they all meet the government requirement for safe exposure.

The FCC has granted an Equipment Authorization for this model phone with all reported SAR levels evaluated as in compliance with the FCC RF emission guidelines. SAR information on this model phone is on file with the FCC and can be found under the Display Grant section of <http://www.fcc.gov/oet/fccid> after searching on FCC ID APYHRO00084.

Additional information on Specific Absorption Rates (SAR) can be found on the Cellular Telecommunications & Internet Association (CTIA) web-site at <http://www.phonefacts.net>.

- * In the United States and Canada, the SAR limit for mobile phones used by the public is 1.6 watts/kg (W/kg) averaged over one gram of tissue. The standard incorporates a substantial margin of safety to give additional protection for the public and to account for any variations in measurements.
