SX-1000U
USB Device Server

Ideal for Networking Multi-Function & All-In-One Printers

Intuitively share USB devices directly on your LAN

Features & benefits:

- Convert your Multi-Function or All-In-One printer to a network resource. Instantly allows your family members or co-workers to print, scan, fax and store from anywhere across the Local Area Network, taking full advantage of its capabilities including the printer's status monitoring and other MFP/AIO software compatibility.

- Perfect for use with various USB devices such as USB hard drives, CD/DVD/Zip drives, MP3 players, scanners, printers and digital cameras, enhancing fun and convenience while maximizing the return on your USB device investment.

- The bundled utility "SX-Virtual Link" allows the user to visually manage all the connected USB devices in the LAN. This intelligent utility provides you with device availability on a real-time basis. It can also automatically launch the USB device application software utility when the device is connected to your PC through the SX-1000U.
