Chinese input

This mobile phone has different input methods for entering Chinese characters:

Switching between Chinese input methods

General instructions

Regardless of which input method you choose, your phone has a function to speed up the entry of Chinese characters. If the character you want is not displayed in the candidate row, press to present another candidate row. Continue pressing until the character you want is displayed. Alternatively, you can enter the next stroke or Pinyin letter and a new set of characters will immediately be displayed in the candidate row. To go back to the previous row, press . To select a character in the candidate row, press the navigation key.

| Number Key | Pinyin Letter |
|------------|---------------|
| 2 | a b c |
| 3 | d e f |
| 4 | g h i |
| 5 | j k l |
| 6 | m n o |
| 7 | p q r s |
| 8 | t u ü |
| 9 | w x y z |

💡 On the keypad, the letter ü is replaced by v.

For example, to enter “信息”

- 1 Press (9), (4), (6).
- 2 When “xin” is highlighted, press ⤴ or ⤵ and select “信”, then press ⏹. (If you want to enter any of the other suggested Pinyin combinations, scroll up or down to the desired combination, then press ⏹).
- 3 Press ⏹ again to select “息”, when “息” is highlighted.

Fuzzy Pinyin

When in Pinyin input mode, press Options > Writing options > Fuzzy Pinyin > On.

Input punctuation, symbols and smilies

Under any Input mode, > Options > Add symbol, or > Add item to see the table of punctuation marks, symbols and smilies. Use the navigation key to make a selection. Press (#-☞) to enter a space into the text.
