Key Technologies

All Inclusive Sound Bar With all the components for great sound built right in, there's no need for a subwoofer. So there's no worry about connecting or placing a subwoofer.

Stylish design The SA-40E1 is designed to complement 40-inch HDTVs.

Easy, one-wire installation Simply connect the supplied analog cable from the television to the bar and plug the power cord into a wall outlet. No need to run other cables or worry about other components.

Supplied Remote control Easily control the operation of the Soundbar. Most universal remotes can also be programmed to operate the sound bar because it uses standard remote codes.¹
