1 Product Introduction

1.1 Overview

The Radar is developed for the traffic industry by using brand-new software and hardware technologies. The Radar has 2 models: DHI-ITARD-024MA-T4 (suitable for 4 lanes) and DHI-ITARD-024MA-T6 (suitable for 6 lanes). With a working frequency that ranges from 24 GHz to 24.25 GHz, the Radar conforms to global frequency standards. You can use the Radar to measure the information of multiple targets at the same time, including the distance between a target and the Radar, the angle between a target and the Radar, and target speed. Based on the measuring results, the Radar provides accurate trigger information.

The Radar adopts the frequency-modulated continuous-wave (FMCW) technology, which allows the Radar to accurately and quickly distinguish distances and speeds. For angle measurement, the Radar adopts the multiple-input and multiple-output (MIMO) technology, which allows the Radar to measure and distinguish angles with higher accuracy. In addition, the Radar is equipped with advanced tracking algorithm. The algorithm ensures that the Radar can measure the information of all targets in target-intensive scenarios. With these technologies, the Radar can be used to help monitor the checkpoints of multiple lanes and collect traffic information, and is particularly suitable for places with heavy traffic flow.

1.2 Functions

- You can install the Radar above the lanes or at the side of the lanes.
- DHI-ITARD-024MA-T4 has a horizontal viewing angle of 60° and can cover 4 lanes.
- DHI-ITARD-024MA-T6 has a horizontal viewing angle of 120° and can cover 6 lanes.
- Output trigger information includes lane numbers, vehicle speeds, and vehicle lengths.
- You can set the trigger distance between 20 m and 55 m. The accuracy is 1 m.
- You can set the lower limit of the trigger speed.
- The Radar supports signal processing based on MIMO.
- The Radar supports 100 M network port and RS-485 communication port.
- The Radar supports automatic calibration of the horizontal angle, which facilitates installation and debugging.

3 Installing the Radar

3.1 Installation Requirements

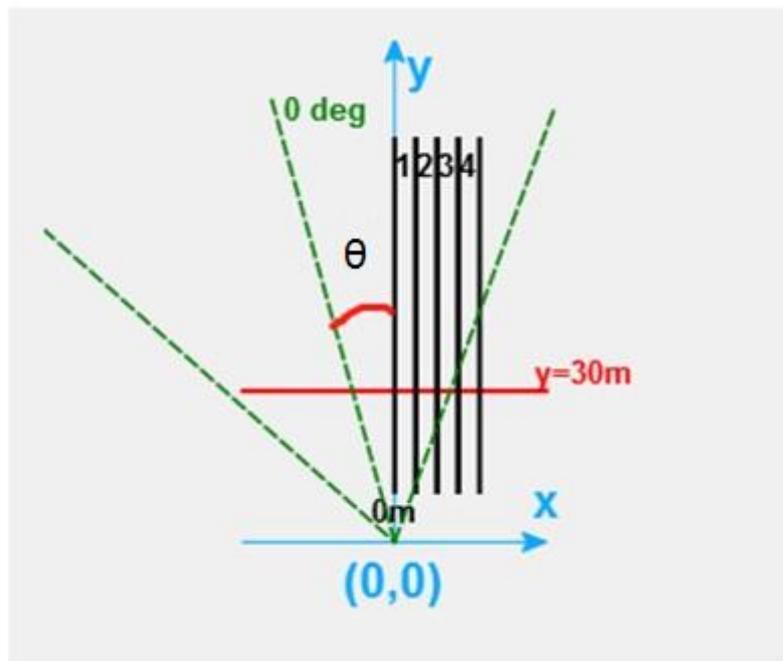

- Make sure that the Radar is installed in an environment without shelter and electromagnetic interference.
- Do not install 2 devices with the same frequency in the same environment. Otherwise, the Radar might not work properly.
- Keep the Radar away from large metal reflectors such as advertising boards.
- Install the Radar at a height between 5 m and 8 m.

3.2 Horizontal Angle and Pitch Angle

3.2.1 Horizontal Angle

The horizontal angle is the angle between the normal of the Radar and the lanes. If the normal is at the left side of the left-most lane (y-axis), the horizontal angle is a positive value. Otherwise, the horizontal angle is a negative value.

The Radar has a spirit level, as shown in the following figure. After you mount the Radar, adjust the horizontal angle until the bubble in the spirit level is in the middle part.

3.2.2 Pitch Angle

The pitch angle is the angle between the normal of the Radar and the horizontal line. If the Radar is down towards the road surface, the pitch angle is a negative value. Otherwise, the pitch angle is a positive value.

You can set the installation height, trigger distance, and pitch angle based on the following table.

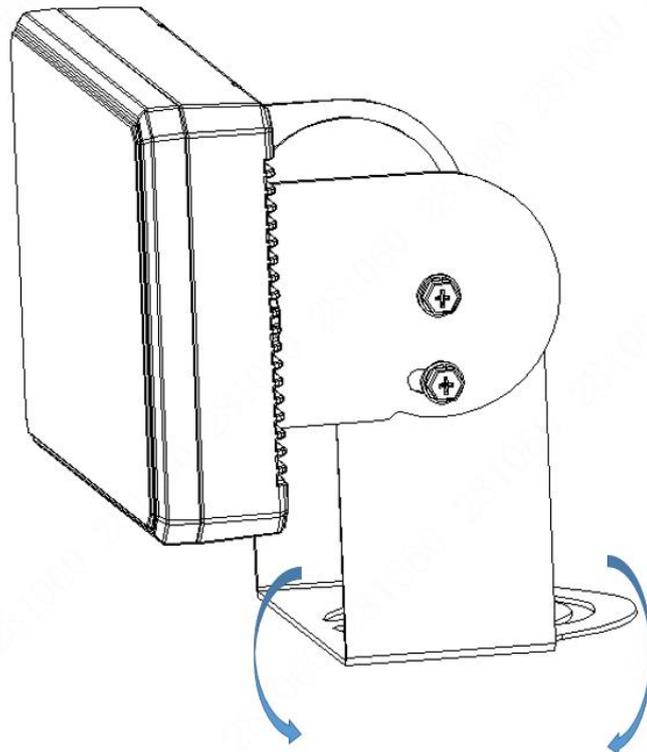

Table 3-1 Recommended pitch angle

Trigger Distance	Pitch angle (H = 4 m)	Pitch angle (H = 5 m)	Pitch angle (H = 6 m)	Pitch angle (H = 7 m)	Pitch angle (H = 8 m)
20 m	-6.0°	-7.5°	-9.0°	-10.4°	-11.9°
25 m	-6.0°	-7.5°	-9.0°	-10.4°	-11.9°

55 m	-4.2°	-5.2°	-6.2°	-7.3°	-8.3°

3.3 Installation Procedure

Step 1 Fix the Radar to the traffic light pole by using a pole mount bracket. You must prepare a pole mount bracket as needed.

Fix the Radar to the traffic light pole at this place.

- Step 2 Adjust the pitch angle based on Table 3-1. You can adjust the pitch angle by adjusting the location of the Radar bracket.
- Step 3 Adjust the horizontal angle. We recommend you make the Radar surface that emits beams face the middle part of the road. This ensures that the Radar beams can cover the area to be detected.

5 FAQ

1. What can I do if the Radar cannot be found?

- Check whether the Radar is powered on, whether the Radar is connected to the network, whether the Radar IP and computer IP are on the same network segment, whether the Radar is connected to multiple applications in the computer, and whether an application is started multiple times.
- If a wireless network adapter and a local network adapter of your computer are enabled at the same time, you cannot search for or connect to radars by using the computer. In this case, you can disable a network adapter and restart the host computer.

After you modify the network adapter information of your computer, you need to restart the host computer.

2. What can I do if I cannot connect to the Radar in the device list?

- Troubleshoot the issue based on the solution to the first question in FAQ.
- Check whether the information of the Radar is invalid. If yes, delete invalid information.

After you modify the Radar IP or update the parameter file, the information of the Radar becomes invalid.

3. What can I do if the Radar is automatically disconnected?

- Check whether the Radar is powered off, restarted, or updated. If yes, reconnect the Radar to the network.
- Check whether the network is unstable. If yes, improve the network and then reconnect the Radar to the network.

4. What can I do if the actual parameters are inconsistent with parameters in the parameter diagram?

The parameter diagram is a visual graph designed to help you understand the meaning of parameters. If the actual parameters are inconsistent with parameters in the parameter diagram, the actual parameters prevail.

5. What can I do if I am notified of waiting during an upgrade?

Do not perform any operation. If an exception occurs or the update times out, the system ends the upgrade and might provide a solution.

6. What can I do if an upgrade failed?

- Check whether the Radar is connected to the network.
- Check whether files to be upgraded are valid.
- Check whether the power supply is stable. If the Radar is powered off during an upgrade, you need to perform an upgrade again.
- Check whether the network is stable. If the network speed is slow, files might fail to be uploaded.

If you cannot solve the issue by yourself, contact the technical support.

7. What can I do if I cannot connect to the Radar after an upgrade?

If files to be upgraded include a parameter file, the Radar parameters are restored to default settings. In this case, search for or manually add the Radar, and then reconnect to the Radar.

- Generally, you do not need a parameter file during an upgrade.
- The default IP address is 192.168.1.108, and the default port is 5004.

8. What can I do if the web client of the camera indicates that the Radar fails?

- Check whether the Radar is powered on and whether the voltage is normal.
- Check whether Radar is correctly connected to the RS-485 communication cable.
- Check whether the Radar protocol configured on the camera is valid.

9. What can I do if no speed is reported or some vehicles are not captured when vehicles pass?

- Check whether the Radar faces the middle part of the monitored area.
- Check whether the pitch angle is within an appropriate range.
- Check whether the trigger distance is within an appropriate range.
- Check whether the horizontal angle and lane parameters are correctly configured.

10. What can I do if speeds are reported when no vehicle passes?

- Check whether intense electromagnetic interference or rotating object exists around the Radar.
- Check whether reflectors such as advertising boards and walls exist within the area covered by radar beams.

11. What can I do if moving tracks are abnormal in debugging mode?

- Modify installation parameters and lane parameters.
- Check whether the Radar is fastened. If no, fasten the Radar and then debug the Radar.

Appendix 1 Cybersecurity Recommendations

Cybersecurity is more than just a buzzword: it's something that pertains to every device that is connected to the internet. IP video surveillance is not immune to cyber risks, but taking basic steps toward protecting and strengthening networks and networked appliances will make them less susceptible to attacks. Below are some tips and recommendations from Dahua on how to create a more secured security system.

Mandatory actions to be taken for basic device network security:

1. Use Strong Passwords

Please refer to the following suggestions to set passwords:

- The length should not be less than 8 characters.
- Include at least two types of characters; character types include upper and lower case letters, numbers and symbols.
- Do not contain the account name or the account name in reverse order.
- Do not use continuous characters, such as 123, abc, etc.
- Do not use overlapped characters, such as 111, aaa, etc.

2. Update Firmware and Client Software in Time

- According to the standard procedure in Tech-industry, we recommend to keep your device (such as NVR, DVR, IP camera, etc.) firmware up-to-date to ensure the system is equipped with the latest security patches and fixes. When the device is connected to the public network, it is recommended to enable the "auto-check for updates" function to obtain timely information of firmware updates released by the manufacturer.
- We suggest that you download and use the latest version of client software.

"Nice to have" recommendations to improve your device network security:

1. Physical Protection

We suggest that you perform physical protection to device, especially storage devices. For example, place the device in a special computer room and cabinet, and implement well-done access control permission and key management to prevent unauthorized personnel from carrying out physical contacts such as damaging hardware, unauthorized connection of removable device (such as USB flash disk, serial port), etc.

2. Change Passwords Regularly

We suggest that you change passwords regularly to reduce the risk of being guessed or cracked.

3. Set and Update Passwords Reset Information Timely

The device supports password reset function. Please set up related information for password reset in time, including the end user's mailbox and password protection questions. If the information changes, please modify it in time. When setting password protection questions, it is suggested not to use those that can be easily guessed.

4. Enable Account Lock

The account lock feature is enabled by default, and we recommend you to keep it on to guarantee the account security. If an attacker attempts to log in with the wrong password several times, the corresponding account and the source IP address will be locked.

5. Change Default HTTP and Other Service Ports

We suggest you to change default HTTP and other service ports into any set of numbers between 1024–65535, reducing the risk of outsiders being able to guess which ports you are using.

6. Enable HTTPS

We suggest you to enable HTTPS, so that you visit Web service through a secure communication channel.

7. MAC Address Binding

We recommend you to bind the IP and MAC address of the gateway to the device, thus reducing the risk of ARP spoofing.

8. Assign Accounts and Privileges Reasonably

According to business and management requirements, reasonably add users and assign a minimum set of permissions to them.

9. Disable Unnecessary Services and Choose Secure Modes

If not needed, it is recommended to turn off some services such as SNMP, SMTP, UPnP, etc., to reduce risks.

If necessary, it is highly recommended that you use safe modes, including but not limited to the following services:

- SNMP: Choose SNMP v3, and set up strong encryption passwords and authentication passwords.
- SMTP: Choose TLS to access mailbox server.
- FTP: Choose SFTP, and set up strong passwords.
- AP hotspot: Choose WPA2-PSK encryption mode, and set up strong passwords.

10. Audio and Video Encrypted Transmission

If your audio and video data contents are very important or sensitive, we recommend that you use encrypted transmission function, to reduce the risk of audio and video data being stolen during transmission.

Reminder: encrypted transmission will cause some loss in transmission efficiency.

11. Secure Auditing

- Check online users: we suggest that you check online users regularly to see if the device is logged in without authorization.
- Check device log: By viewing the logs, you can know the IP addresses that were used to log in to your devices and their key operations.

12. Network Log

Due to the limited storage capacity of the device, the stored log is limited. If you need to save the log for a long time, it is recommended that you enable the network log function to ensure that the critical logs are synchronized to the network log server for tracing.

13. Construct a Safe Network Environment

In order to better ensure the safety of device and reduce potential cyber risks, we recommend:

- Disable the port mapping function of the router to avoid direct access to the intranet devices from external network.
- The network should be partitioned and isolated according to the actual network needs. If there are no communication requirements between two sub networks, it is suggested to use VLAN, network GAP and other technologies to partition the network, so as to achieve the network isolation effect.
- Establish the 802.1x access authentication system to reduce the risk of unauthorized access to private networks.
- Enable IP/MAC address filtering function to limit the range of hosts allowed to access the device.

Cet équipement doit être installé et utilisé à une distance minimale de 20 cm entre le radiateur et votre corps.

Under Industry Canada regulations, this radio transmitter may only operate using an antenna of a type and maximum (or lesser) gain approved for the transmitter by Industry Canada. To reduce potential radio interference to other users, the antenna type and its gain should be so chosen that the equivalent isotropically radiated power (e.i.r.p.) is not more than that necessary for successful communication.

Conformément à la réglementation d'Industrie Canada, le présent émetteur radio peut fonctionner avec une antenne d'un type et d'un gain maximal (ou inférieur) approuvé pour l'émetteur par Industrie Canada. Dans le but de réduire les risques de brouillage radioélectrique à l'intention des autres utilisateurs, il faut choisir le type d'antenne et son gain de sorte que la puissance isotrope rayonnée équivalente (p.i.r.e.) ne dépasse pas l'intensité nécessaire à l'établissement d'une communication satisfaisante.

The device for operation in the band 5150-5250 MHz is only for indoor use to reduce the potential for harmful interference to co-channel mobile satellite systems.

Les dispositifs fonctionnant dans la bande 5150-5250 MHz sont réservés uniquement pour une utilisation à l'intérieur afin de réduire les risques de brouillage préjudiciable aux systèmes de satellites mobiles utilisant les mêmes canaux.
