Important Information

Protect Your TV from Damage

Allowing a still image to be displayed on your television screen for an extended period of time can cause an image to burn in and remain on your screen permanently.

Examples of still images include:

- Channel logos;
- On-screen information; and
- the Foxtel Guide.

Some televisions are more prone to burn-in than others.

We recommend that you consult your television manufacturer's manual for proper operating instructions.

ASTRA Codes

We are regulated by ASTRA's codes of practice for subscription television broadcasting and narrowcasting services which have been registered with the Australian Communications and Media Authority. The codes regulate issues such as the classification of program material and the framework for dealing with complaints. You can obtain a copy of the codes by contacting us or via the ASTRA website www.astra.org

1. Foxtel Subscription Television Agreement

This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions on which we will provide you with, and you agree to receive, the Foxtel TV Service.

This Agreement includes the following documents:

- these terms and conditions;
- the Foxtel Welcome Pack;
- the Application (if relevant) which also describes your cooling off rights under the Australian Consumer Law;
- the Pricing Guide;
- the Work Order (if relevant);
- the Direct Debit Service Request Agreement (if relevant);
- the Terms of Use on the PDR; and
- any other terms and conditions that we advise you that apply to any Ancillary Services you take from Foxtel.

1.1 Changes to the Agreement

We can change any term of this Agreement at any time by giving you 21 days' notice. If we make any changes to price or a change as set out in clause 2.5, we will also provide you with 21 days' notice.

If we do make changes to the price or some other term of this Agreement and that change could be reasonably expected to adversely affect you (other than in a minor way or if due to a change in law), you may have termination rights under clause 2.6. You can obtain a copy of the current version of this Agreement at any time by contacting us. A copy of the current version of this Agreement is also available on the Foxtel Website.

1.2 How to contact us

You can contact us by:

- going to the Foxtel Website at foxtel.com.au or via Live Chat;
- writing to us at PO Box 612, Moonee Ponds, Victoria, 3039; or
- calling us on 131 999.

If you need to give us a notice in accordance with this Agreement, please contact us by one of the above methods (except Live Chat which will not be an acceptable form of providing notice).

2. Your Subscription

2.1 What is the Foxtel TV Service?

Foxtel will provide you with the Package you subscribe to. You must continue to subscribe to the Entry Level Package to remain a subscriber. Your Foxtel TV Service may also include Additional Packages, Add-Ons and the Foxtel Box or Foxtel PDR that Foxtel makes available from time to time. If charges apply for these additional services, you authorise us to charge for these services to your Account in accordance with this Agreement. You may also be able to receive various Free-to-air Channels through your Foxtel Box (see clause 8.3). However, these do not form part of the Foxtel TV Service that Foxtel provides to you.

2.2 When does your Agreement begin?

This Agreement starts (subject to any relevant cooling off period) when you:

- sign the Application, or
- agree to take up the Foxtel TV Service by phone or via the Foxtel Website.

Prior to the start of your Agreement, we may undertake a credit assessment to determine your eligibility to receive the Foxtel Service. Your Fixed Term commences on the date we install and activate your first Foxtel Service (for example, where you take a Bundle) or for customers with Foxtel Self Install Kits, the date when you contact us to activate your Smart Card after completing the self installation process.

2.3 How long is the term of your subscription?

We will provide you with the Foxtel TV Service for the Fixed Term you agree to when you subscribe to the Foxtel TV Service. You may also agree to enter a consecutive or subsequent Fixed Term. When the Fixed Term ends, we will continue to provide you with the Foxtel TV Service on the terms of this Agreement on a month-to-month basis until you or we end it.

2.4 How can you use the Foxtel TV Service?

You agree to only access and use the Foxtel TV Service (including all additional outlets or Foxtel Boxes that may be connected to your account) privately, in your Home (except for some Ancillary Services as advised to you in the relevant terms and conditions). You must not:

- use the Foxtel TV Service for a commercial purpose;
- communicate (make available online or electronically transmit, such as broadcast or stream) a Foxtel TV Service or any program included in a Foxtel TV Service, to the public, or display it in a public area;
- otherwise use or attempt to use the Foxtel TV Service in an unlawful manner, including to infringe our or any other person's intellectual property (such as copyright in a program, its broadcast and any underlying material) or other rights or in a way that infringes the Terms of Use; or
- permit anyone else to do any of those things with respect to your Foxtel TV Service or any program included in a Foxtel TV Service. In addition, you must not:
 - do anything inconsistent with our ownership of the Equipment including selling or offering the Equipment for sale, creating or allowing a security or interest to be created over the Equipment or parting with possession of the Equipment; or
 - relocate or remove the Equipment from your Home without our prior approval.

2.5 How can we change the Foxtel TV Service?

We may change the Foxtel TV Service or Ancillary Services at any time, without notice, including:

- changing the scheduled broadcast time of, or withdrawing, any program;
- restricting the features of the Foxtel PDR (including the ability to record); and/or
- adding, withdrawing or changing features or functionality of the Foxtel TV Service or Ancillary Services.

If we withdraw a Channel from the Package you subscribe to and/or change the way we package the Channels we provide to you, we will provide you with 21 days' notice of any such change. There may be some circumstances where we withdraw a channel that is outside of our control, such as changes to agreements with our Suppliers or a technical reason, in which case we will give you as much prior notice of the change as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances, which may be less than 21 days. If we change the way we package our Channels or the structure of our Package, we will continue supplying you with the new Package for which you are eligible and that (in our opinion) provides you with the most equivalent Package to the one that you were subscribing to immediately prior to the change. If we do change the Foxtel TV Service, you may have termination rights under clause 2.6.

2.6 When does your Agreement end?

When you can end this Agreement

You can end your subscription to the Foxtel TV Service at any time, and your Foxtel TV Service will be disconnected at the end of your current Bill Period. You will not receive a refund of any amounts paid. If you end your subscription during a Fixed Term, then you must pay us an ETF unless this Agreement says otherwise. Depending on the length of your Fixed Term, the ETF is a maximum of $300 at the start of your Fixed Term. The ETF decreases by equal instalments each month that you remain on your Fixed Term. You may end this Agreement before the end of a Fixed Term without being required to pay an ETF if we:

- withdraw a Channel or functionality of the Foxtel TV Service during the Fixed Term which causes a more than nominal detrimental change to the Foxtel TV Service and we do not (a) replace the Channel or functionality with a similar genre Channel or functionality or (b) reduce the price of the Foxtel Service relating to that Channel or functionality (except in circumstances where the Foxtel TV Service has been reduced due to your failure to pay);
- increase the subscription fee for the Entry Level Package other than to reflect an increase in CPI;
- are prevented from performing our obligations under this Agreement in a material way at any time due to something beyond our control (for example, a prolonged disruption to electricity); or
- introduce new fees and charges that you must pay that you were not previously required to pay in order to receive the Entry Level Package.

Some examples of when you may end this Agreement before the end of the Fixed Term without being required to pay an early termination fee are:

- If we withdraw a sport channel from your Package and we replace it with a general entertainment channel but we do not reduce the price of your Package; or
- If we move a children's channel in your Package to a package that you don't subscribe to and we do not reduce the price of your Package.

When we can end this Agreement

We can end this Agreement and stop providing you with the Foxtel TV Service at any time if we believe, on reasonable grounds, that:

- you have caused genuine distress to, or have exhibited inappropriate behavior towards any of Foxtel's employees, agents or Contractors, including but not limited to behavior that is harassing, indecent, abusive and/or offensive;
- you pose an unacceptably high credit risk for us;
- you have engaged, or you have permitted someone else to engage, in conduct in relation to a Foxtel TV Service, a program included in a Foxtel TV Service, or any other Foxtel Service (including where you take a Bundle), which is fraudulent or unlawful, including to infringe copyright or is in breach of the Terms of Use;
- you have made multiple complaints without a reasonable basis for doing so and you continue to make such complaints after we have made reasonable efforts to notify you to stop
- you breach this Agreement (including not making payments as set out in section 7) and if the breach is able to be remedied, you do not remedy the breach within a reasonable period of receiving notice from us requiring you to do so;
- we are directed by a regulator, one of our content suppliers or a Business Partner to cancel your subscription; or
- we are unable to continue to provide the Foxtel TV Service to you due to legal, regulatory or technical reasons.

2.7 What happens when your Agreement ends?

Subject to the following paragraph, when this Agreement ends, you must pay us for the Foxtel TV Service received in full to the date on which this Agreement ends and you stop receiving the Foxtel TV Service, as well as any other fees or charges which you are required to pay (such as an ETF).

If the Agreement is ended under clause 2.6 because we are prevented from performing our obligations under this Agreement in a material way at any time due to something beyond our control, you must pay us for the Foxtel TV Service received in full to the date on which you stopped receiving the Foxtel TV Service, as well as any other fees or charges which you are required to pay but you are not required to pay an ETF in these circumstances.

2.8 Outstanding fees and Equipment return

We will calculate all of the fees and charges that you owe us when this Agreement ends. If you have been paying by direct debit, you authorise us to deduct this amount from your nominated bank or credit card account. Otherwise, we will send you an invoice for all amounts owing to us and request that you return the Equipment to us, to a location advised by us, within 14 days after receiving such notice. If you fail to return the Equipment, we may take legal proceedings to recover the Equipment or charge you an unrecovered equipment fee for each item you do not return. If you have been charged an unrecovered equipment fee and you subsequently return the item to which that fee relates, we will credit the charges applied and return any monies if the fees have already been paid (subject to the paragraph below). Despite the cessation of your Foxtel TV Service, this Agreement will continue until, and only terminate after, the earlier of the date: (i) you comply with this subclause 2.8; or (ii) 6 months from the termination notice date.

3. Setting up the Equipment

If you are an Owner-Install Customer with a Self Install Kit or a Remote Customer, please see section 9.

3.1 How do you get the Equipment and the Infrastructure installed?

Unless section 9 applies to you, we will organise installation of the Equipment and Infrastructure at your Home or may facilitate the installation by providing to you a Self Install Kit. When you agree to subscribe to the Foxtel TV Service you will be advised of the amount of the installation fee which you will be required to pay.

You will need to organise an active telephone line or broadband connection to be able to receive some Foxtel TV Services (and may do so by subscribing to a Bundle). You may only use the Equipment and Infrastructure to receive the Foxtel TV Service and not for any other purpose without our written approval, except to use the Infrastructure to receive the VAST Service. If there are any other services that are necessary for the installation of the Equipment and Infrastructure to your Home (for example, an electrician) you will be required to pay for the cost of those services. We will notify you if those services are required and any additional costs that you will be required to pay.

3.2 What do you need to do to ensure installation happens?

Provide Access

If a Foxtel technician is required to attend your Home for any reason, you must provide us with access to your Home to enable us to install, maintain, inspect or remove the Equipment or Infrastructure. You must meet our reasonable requirements for the safety of any personnel who perform this work. You accept that the installation of the Equipment and the Infrastructure may involve alterations to your Home (such as external cabling etc.).

Obtain permission

You must obtain any necessary permission or authorisation (including from your landlord and/or, if you live in an apartment block or townhouse complex, the owner's corporation) for the installation, maintenance, removal and inspection of the Equipment or Infrastructure at your Home. By subscribing to the Foxtel TV Service, you warrant to us that you have done this. If you haven't and we are required to remove some or all of the Equipment or Infrastructure after installation, you may be responsible for the cost of us doing this.

Installation appointment

We do not guarantee that we will meet any agreed date or time for installation of the Equipment. You or we may terminate this Agreement if installation of the Equipment is not completed within 90 days of you ordering the Foxtel TV Service and such failure is not due to or contributed to by the terminating party. We will agree a date for the installation of the Equipment or Infrastructure and you or someone else over 18 years of age must be in attendance for the installation. We will try to keep to the agreed date, however circumstances may arise that prevent us from keeping the agreed date. You must also provide us with reasonable prior notice if you cannot meet the agreed date.

3.3 Who owns the Equipment and Infrastructure?

We retain the ownership of the Equipment and the Infrastructure at all times and the legal title for the Foxtel Box remains with us. We also have the right to use the Equipment and Infrastructure while you remain a Foxtel customer (subject to section 9). The Equipment and/or Infrastructure we supply to you may be new or may be refurbished to an as-new condition.

4. Using the Foxtel TV Service and PDR

4.1 Viewing programs in high definition and 4K format with the Foxtel PDR

HD – you will only be able to view Channels or programs that are broadcast in a high definition format if your television is capable of receiving a high definition signal and is HDCP compliant, and if you have subscribed to the HD Foxtel PDR, and the relevant Additional Package.

4K – you will only be able to view content or programs that are broadcast in a 4K format:

- (a) via the applicable 4K Channel;
- (b) where you subscribe to the 4K Foxtel PDR and relevant Additional Package, which Foxtel may make available for a specific fee (as advised when you first subscribe to the Foxtel Service and set out in the Price Guide, and as varied from time to time);
- (c) if you have a compatible television that meets our 4K UHD Standard and use the HDMI cable provided to you with your Foxtel PDR to connect to the television; and
- (d) if you have any additional equipment connected (e.g. sound system) it must also be compliant with and pass signals consistent with our 4K UHD Standard.

4.2 Recording to the Foxtel PDR

You may record programs to the Foxtel PDR that are available with the Package you subscribe to.

The Foxtel PDR is a temporary recording device only. Programs that you have recorded or downloaded to the Foxtel PDR may be erased from the Foxtel PDR for a number of reasons, including if:

- our program suppliers require this to happen after a certain period of time;
- there are power surges or severe weather conditions;
- we reformat or conduct maintenance work on the Foxtel PDR, or the Foxtel PDR or Smart Card is defective or you upgrade to a new Foxtel PDR with a new Smart Card;
- we alter your Account details, your Account Number or your Smart Card Number; and/or
- you attempt to use the Foxtel PDR otherwise than in accordance with its operating instructions or this Agreement.

Where reasonably practicable, we will provide you with prior notice that programs on your Foxtel PDR may be erased. We are not responsible for any programs that are erased or cannot be retrieved from your Foxtel PDR.

Please note that from time to time we may download content, additional features and/or functionality to the Foxtel PDR, and that this may affect the total amount of space available to you for recording programs.

4.3 Terms of Use

We may make available to you Third Party applications on the Foxtel PDR. Such applications may require your acceptance of Third Party terms and conditions.

You acknowledge that your use of the Foxtel PDR and access to Third Party applications is subject to the Terms of Use contained in the 'settings' menu on the Foxtel PDR.

5. Managing your subscription

5.1 How can you change your Package or Foxtel Box?

You can change your Package at any time, however you must always subscribe to the Entry Level Package and any changes to your Package must remain on your Account for a minimum period of one month.

If you upgrade your Package during a Bill Period you will be charged the fee(s) set out in the Pricing Guide for the additional services in arrears at the end of that Bill Period and the upgrade will take effect immediately. After that, the fees will be payable in advance like all the other fees for your Package. If you downgrade your Package during a Bill Period, the change to your Package will take effect at the end of the current Bill Period and you will not receive a refund of any amounts already paid. You can change the type of Foxtel Box you take by contacting us, but a change to your Foxtel Box may be subject to additional fees (as specified in the Pricing Guide) and availability at the time of your request.

5.2 How can you suspend your subscription?

You can temporarily suspend your Foxtel TV Service at any time. You will need to pay the voluntary suspension fees specified in the Pricing Guide and ensure your account balance is up to date. You can suspend the Foxtel TV Service for a minimum of one week per month and a maximum of 12 months and the relevant fee as set out in the Pricing Guide shall apply.

If you decide to suspend the Foxtel TV Service, you need to provide us with a date on which you want the Foxtel TV Service to be re-activated, otherwise we will automatically reactivate the Foxtel TV Service 12 months after we suspend it and will provide you with the same Package that you subscribed to before you suspended the Foxtel TV Service. You may no longer be eligible for any discounts you were receiving and may not be able to access or retrieve any programs which were recorded or downloaded to the Foxtel PDR prior to the suspension of your Foxtel TV Service.

5.3 Moving the Foxtel TV Service to your new address

If you are moving house, you must let us know if you wish to transfer the Foxtel TV Service to your new address. This may require you to change from one form of Infrastructure to another (e.g. satellite to cable) and the Foxtel TV Service you will receive at your new address may be different to what you currently receive. You may also be unable to access any programs that you recorded or downloaded to the Foxtel PDR once we transfer the Foxtel TV Service to your new address. You may also be required to pay a fee as set out in the Pricing Guide.

If we are unable to transfer the Foxtel TV Service to your new address for any reason the transfer will be treated as notice to terminate this Agreement and the rules set out at section 2 will apply. If we are unable to connect the Foxtel TV Service at your new address as that address is not serviceable, then you will not be required to pay an ETF if you are part way through a Fixed Term.

5.4 Nominating an authorised representative

You can authorise someone else over the age of 18 years to act as your agent in relation to your Account. In order to do so, you will need to give us some personal information about that person, obtain that person's consent for you to provide their personal information to us and inform them of Foxtel's Privacy Policy, including why we have collected their personal information and what we can do with it.

We will assume that the person you've authorised has consented to you giving us their personal information unless we have spoken to the authorised person ourselves.

The person you nominate will have the authority to do most things in relation to your Account that you do (including changing your Package, for which charges will be incurred). However, please note that your authorised representative will not be able to add another authorised representative, add or remove a Bundle, change your personal details or disconnect or reconnect your Account.

5.5 Managing your Account

You can manage your Account online on the Foxtel Website or by contacting us by phone.

You must take reasonable steps not to disclose any username, passwords, passcodes (including but not limited to PINs) or account information to unauthorised persons. You must advise us of any unauthorised access or use of your Foxtel TV Service or Online Account, as you will be liable for any transaction that is initiated from Equipment we provide to you.

5.6 Parental Control Feature

We will provide you with a Personal Identification Number (PIN) to use in conjunction with your Foxtel Box. You must keep your PIN safe and you can use the PIN to restrict access to certain programs based on their classification, enable access to programs classified "R18+" and purchase Pay Per View Programs or VOD. The PIN will only work in connection with Channels or Free to air Channels and will not function with any Third Party applications available on the Foxtel PDR.

6. Equipment and Infrastructure use and repairs

6.1 When will we repair and replace the Equipment and the Infrastructure?

We will repair, maintain and, if necessary, replace or send you replacement Equipment and Infrastructure at our cost (including the cost of any handling or shipping fees or technician visit fees) while you receive the Foxtel TV Service unless this Agreement says otherwise.

If the Equipment or Infrastructure is faulty because you have damaged or mistreated it or used it improperly or otherwise than in accordance with this Agreement, then we will charge you our reasonable costs of repairing or replacing it, including any replacement fee set out in the Pricing Guide.

We will charge you for any work required (as set out in the Pricing Guide) to try to find or repair a fault if you report a problem and we find that there is no fault, or the fault was not caused by us.

Proper use of Equipment and Infrastructure

You must:

- use the Equipment and Infrastructure in accordance with any manuals we give you or our instructions or directions;
- keep the Equipment and any Infrastructure in good and useable condition at all times (fair wear and tear excepted) until it is returned to or collected by us; and
- notify us as soon as possible if the Equipment or Infrastructure is faulty, damaged, destroyed or interfered with in any way.

Improper use of Equipment, Infrastructure and Foxtel TV Service

Improper use of the Equipment, Infrastructure and Foxtel TV

Service is prohibited and includes:

- any use of, including permitting a third party to use:
 - (i) any equipment or device (including a smart phone or tablet) to record, copy, reproduce, republish, communicate to the public (make available online or electronically transmit, such as broadcast or stream) the Foxtel TV Service or any program included in a Foxtel TV Service;
 - (ii) any equipment or device, which may split, decrypt, re-encode or affect the Foxtel TV Service, or which is intended to override any content protection measure;
- any attempt to affix the Equipment to any property at your Home or move the Equipment or Infrastructure within your Home without our prior approval;
- any attempt to relocate or remove the Equipment or Infrastructure away from your Home without our prior approval;
- any attempt to repair, interfere with or make any connections to the Equipment or Infrastructure we own without our consent (except for the VAST Service);
- any attempt to insert, remove or replace the Smart Card, unless we ask you to;
- breaking the tamper evident seal on the Foxtel Box or tampering with, or opening or attempting to open, the Foxtel Box at any time;
- any attempt to remove or tamper with any hardware contained in the Foxtel Box, including the hard drive, at any time;
- any attempt to do anything that is inconsistent with our or our Contractors' rights in the Equipment or Infrastructure, including removing any marking or notice which identifies the Equipment or Infrastructure or who owns the Equipment or Infrastructure; or
- any use, or permission to a third party to use, the Equipment or Infrastructure for any commercial purposes.

6.2 How to get the remote control replaced?

We will repair and, if necessary, replace your remote control at our cost in accordance with any guarantees under this Agreement and as required by law. We will replace your remote at our cost (with the same remote type) within the first 12 months of your Foxtel Service except in circumstances where the remote control is faulty because you have damaged or mistreated it, it is lost, or you have used it otherwise than in accordance with this Agreement, in which case we will charge you a replacement fee as specified in the Pricing Guide. If you wish to upgrade to a different remote type then you must do so at your own cost.

6.3 What if the Equipment or Infrastructure is lost or stolen?

You need to contact us immediately if any Equipment or Infrastructure is lost or stolen. You should also contact the police if any Equipment or Infrastructure is stolen.

You may also need to give us any report or incident number which the police give you when you report the stolen Equipment or Infrastructure. We may charge you a replacement fee for any lost or stolen Equipment or Infrastructure.

6.4 What happens if you ask us to remove or relocate your Equipment and Infrastructure?

If you ask us to remove or relocate the Equipment or Infrastructure after we have installed it (including re-pointing the satellite dish), we will not ordinarily do so, however if we do, we may charge you a fee as specified in the Pricing Guide.

Unless this Agreement or the law says otherwise, we are not obliged to repair any damage to your Home or any of your property or equipment caused by the removal or relocation of the Equipment or Infrastructure by somebody other than us.

6.5 Signing Work Orders

You (or the person you nominate to be present at the installation) are required to sign a Work Order when we repair, maintain, relocate, remove, install or add to any Equipment or Infrastructure. When you sign the Work Order you acknowledge that the Equipment and Infrastructure is functioning to your satisfaction and that you are satisfied with the work we have done.

6.6 Exercising of rights

You need to be aware that any person who has provided us with finance can exercise our rights in respect of the Equipment or our Infrastructure in our place.

7. Making Payments

7.1 Paying us for the Foxtel TV Service

You must provide us with accurate and complete billing information including your legal name, address, telephone number and in some cases, date of birth or other proof of identification. We will not be liable for any billing errors that occur as a result of you providing inaccurate billing information. You must pay us every month, in advance of the next Bill Period:

- your Subscription Fee for the Package you have subscribed to;
- any installation fees; and
- all other charges for the Foxtel TV Service (including any Add-On or Third Party charges) that have been incurred at your Home and/or on your Account during the current or a previous Bill Period, that have not yet been paid.

We will calculate the above amounts on or around your Payment Date. All Foxtel TV Services to your Home will be billed to the same account, and have the same Bill Period. In some circumstances we may require a prepayment before installing the Foxtel TV Service at your Home, and if this payment is not met, we will not be able to proceed with your installation.

7.2 How do you pay?

There are two ways you can pay us:

- Direct debit – we can debit the amount that you owe us each month directly from a bank account or credit card nominated by you (excluding prepaid credit cards); or
- Invoice – we can invoice you every month.

You must ensure payment is made to us by the date stated on your invoice. You may be charged a relevant administration fee/s based on your payment method (as set out in the Pricing Guide). Once you have set up a direct debit arrangement and agree to the terms of the Direct Debit Service Request Agreement set out in section 14, on or around the Payment Date each month, we will debit your nominated account for the amount due. We will not automatically send you an invoice but you can access your monthly invoice at any time through your Online Account and may also receive an email notification (if requested).

If you ask us to, we will send you an invoice and charge you the relevant administration fee specified in the Pricing Guide.

If you do not pay by direct debit, payment will be due and must be paid by the date stated on your invoice.

If you think we have made a mistake on your invoice you must notify us as soon as possible.

7.3 What happens if you do not pay?

If (i) a direct debit payment is declined or (ii) you fail to pay us the total amount due by the date specified on an invoice or (iii) your payment is unsuccessful, we will use reasonable endeavours to notify you by text message, email, or telephone that an amount is overdue. If the amount outstanding is not immediately paid then we may take one or more of the following actions:

- charge you the late payment fee specified in the Pricing Guide;
- charge you a dishonour fee specified in the Pricing Guide;
- restrict the Foxtel TV Service you can receive from us;
- erase, or prevent the retrieval of, any program you have recorded or downloaded to the Foxtel PDR;
- suspend the Foxtel TV Service until all amounts due have been paid;
- cancel all Third Party applications you receive via the Foxtel PDR;
- terminate this Agreement;
- take legal action against you to recover the unpaid amount;
- list your default with a credit reporting agency; and/or
- refer you to a collections agency.

7.4 What happens on reconnection?

If you pay all outstanding amounts after your Account has been suspended for non-payment, we can reconnect you and may charge a reconnection fee specified in the Pricing Guide. We may also require you to pay all future fees and charges by direct debit before we reconnect you. We will provide you with the same Package that you subscribed to before the Foxtel TV Service was suspended (or another Package if requested), however you may no longer be eligible for any discounts you were receiving prior to the suspension. You may also need to reconnect any Third Party applications you were previously taking. You may also need to reconnect any Third Party applications you were previously taking with your Foxtel Service.

7.5 Do fees and charges include GST?

The Subscription Fee and the other charges set out in the Pricing Guide include GST where applicable. If any other amounts are payable under this Agreement (being amounts not set out in the Pricing Guide) and such amounts incur GST, you will be required to pay us the relevant amount of GST. Any GST payable is displayed on your invoice and if an item is exempt for GST it will be clearly marked.

7.6 Can fees and charges change?

We can change all fees and charges (or impose new fees or charges) in connection with the Foxtel TV Service at any time. If we make any changes to fees and charges, we will provide you with 21 days' notice of any such change. If this occurs, you may have termination rights under clause 2.6.

7.7 Third party charges

In some circumstances if you access Third Party applications via your Foxtel PDR, you may agree to have those Third Party charges (if applicable) added to your Foxtel Account via direct debit. Any charges will be set by the Third Party and Foxtel will only pass on the relevant monthly charges. In the event that you believe there is an error or a dispute a charge being billed to you via Foxtel, you must let us know as soon as possible. We may request that you contact the Third Party to resolve such matter.

8. Other Add-Ons

8.1 Pay Per View Programs and VOD

You can purchase Pay Per View Programs and some VOD for an additional fee as advised. Certain Pay Per View programs or VOD titles may not be available to all Foxtel Boxes and may require a broadband internet connection. These downloads may be metered by your Internet Service Provider. Any additional charges will be invoiced on the next Payment Date after you make your purchase. One-off Pay Per View Programs, such as boxing or other sporting events, may have special conditions associated to them. For example, if the particular Pay Per View Program is cancelled or is removed prior to the start of the Pay Per View Program, you may be entitled to a refund or a credit on your Foxtel Account. You will be advised if this is the case.

8.2 Receiving Free-to-air Channels through the Foxtel Box

You may be able to receive Free-to-air Channels through the Foxtel Box. The Free-to-air Channels do not form part of the Foxtel TV Service and may be withdrawn at any time. No additional charges will be imposed on you if you receive the Free-to-air Channels through the Foxtel Box. Foxtel has no control over the Free-to-air Channels (including, for example, scheduling, content or the availability of services such as closed captions). If you have any concerns about these matters, you should contact the Free-to-air Channel provider.

If you are not receiving your Free-to-air Channels properly we recommend you check your free to air digital TV antenna.

8.3 Accessing other Foxtel Services

You may also be able to access additional Foxtel Services (in addition to VOD and Pay Per View Programs as set out in clause 8.1) with your Account, including, mobile or tablet applications, adding a Bundle or other kinds of Ancillary Services. In some cases, these may incur additional charges, which you will be advised about prior to taking such services or features. They may also be subject to their own terms and conditions.

9. Special equipment rules – Owner Install Customers, Foxtel Self Install Kits and Remote Customers

If you live in an area where you are classified as an Owner Install Customer or Remote Customer, or purchase a Foxtel Self InstallKit then this section of the Agreement applies to you.

9.1 Purchasing, installing, and maintaining your Infrastructure

You will own the Infrastructure and be responsible for it as follows:

- (i) if you are an Owner Install Customer – you must provide the Infrastructure (and customers in some areas may be eligible to purchase a Foxtel Self Install Kit) which will belong to you and you will be responsible for arranging a qualified installer to install the Infrastructure and its ongoing maintenance and operation and ensure compliance with the System Specifications in order for you to receive the Foxtel TV Service. Once you have installed the Equipment and Infrastructure please contact us and we will activate your Foxtel TV Service.
- (ii) If you are a Remote Customer – we will provide and install your Equipment and Infrastructure and the following applies:
 - a. in addition to your rights at law as set under section 11, if your Infrastructure fails to comply with its specifications during the first three months from installation through no fault of yours, and you contact us, we will (at our choice) replace or repair the Infrastructure at no cost to you; and
 - b. upon expiry of the three month period referred to above, you will be entirely responsible for the ongoing maintenance and operation and ensure compliance with the System Specifications in order for you to receive the Foxtel TV Service, except to the extent that clause 11.1 applies. If you wish to remove or relocate any Infrastructure, you will need to engage a qualified installer at your cost to undertake this work.

9.2 Other types of Self Install customers

If you are a customer who has all of the necessary Infrastructure already installed and in working order at your address, you may be eligible to order a Foxtel Self Install Kit to install the Equipment yourself in accordance with the System Specifications. If you are unable to install the Equipment in accordance with the System Specifications and you ask us to come to your Home and conduct the installation, we may charge you, unless there is a fault caused by us or with the Equipment itself.

9.3 Repairing, replacing and adding our Equipment

We own the Equipment which you use to receive the Foxtel Service. All of the rules set out in this Agreement regarding the Equipment (but not the Infrastructure) apply to you.

10. Your privacy and personal information

10.1 Consent

By entering into this Agreement, you consent to us collecting, using and disclosing your personal information on the terms of this Agreement and Foxtel's Privacy Policy.

11. Legal rights and liabilities

11.1 Your Rights

Guarantees on Foxtel TV Service / Equipment

Nothing in this Agreement excludes, restricts or modifies any right or remedy, or any guarantee, warranty or other terms, implied or imposed by any legislation that cannot be lawfully excluded or limited including the Australian Consumer Law or any other relevant law of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory. You may have rights under the Australian Consumer Law which contains guarantees that protect the purchasers of goods and services in certain circumstances.

Our goods and services provided to you under this Agreement come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other loss or damage it causes. You are also entitled to have any such goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

In circumstances we can't control

If we are prevented from performing our obligations under this Agreement in a material way at any time for a reasonable period because of an event or cause beyond our control (for example, terrorism or a disruption to electricity):

- we will tell you, unless the circumstances prevent us from doing so;
- the Foxtel TV Service may be suspended for the period for which we cannot perform our obligations. If that period is during the Fixed Term, the Fixed Term will be extended by the period of the suspension. You will not be charged for the Foxtel TV Service while it is suspended; and
- you can choose to terminate this Agreement and you may not be required to pay an ETF.

11.2 Exclusions

Apart from any rights you have that cannot be lawfully excluded, we do not make any promises or assurances to you about the Foxtel TV Service, the Foxtel Guide, the Equipment, Infrastructure, Third Party applications available on the PDR and/or this Agreement. We do not accept responsibility for the accuracy of information contained in the Foxtel TV Service or for any liability for damage caused by any pre-existing structural defects or the effects of normal wear and tear on your Home in relation to the installation of the Equipment. To the maximum extent permitted by law, all terms, conditions and warranties, whether express or implied by legislation or the common law or otherwise relating to this Agreement and/or the provision by us of the Foxtel TV Service, the Foxtel Guide, the Equipment or Infrastructure are expressly excluded.

11.3 Your liabilities

In addition to any rights against you that we may have under this Agreement, you will be liable to us and must keep us, our Foxtel Partners, Related Companies and Contractors indemnified against any loss, cost, expenses, damage or other liability (including legal costs on a solicitor/client basis) arising out of any claim or demand against us by you or any person other than you, which arises from or is connected with our installation, supply, maintenance, repair or removal of the Foxtel TV Service, the Equipment or Infrastructure to you or your use, and anyone else's use that is permitted by you, of the Foxtel Service, Equipment or Infrastructure, unless the loss, costs, expense, damage or other liability is caused by our, Telstra's, our Foxtel Partners', Related Companies', or Contractors' wilful default, negligence or breach of this Agreement or any law.

11.4 When we are not responsible

Subject to your rights under the Australian Consumer Law, unless there is default, negligence or breach of this Agreement or any law by us or our Foxtel Partners, Related Companies, Contractors or any of our agents, Contractors or employees, we will not be responsible to you or any other person in connection with:

- your operation and use of the Equipment, Infrastructure, Third Party applications, the telephone line or broadband internet connection;
- any misuse or failure of the Foxtel TV Service or the Foxtel Guide caused by you or anyone else at your address;
- any loss of programming recorded or downloaded to the Foxtel PDR, your tablet or computer;
- any loss you suffer if you do not receive a Free-to-air Channel; and/or
- any loss you or any other person suffer as a result of:
 - (i) any misuse or unauthorised use of the PIN, your Login Details, your Account Number or your Smart Card Number; or
 - (ii) any other cause where the cause is outside our reasonable control; or
- any damage to your own equipment that you use to receive the Foxtel TV Service (for example, your television, computer, video recorder, tablet or mobile phone or other device, including any burn-in suffered to your television monitor).

11.5 Indirect loss

Except where we have breached any of your rights under the Australian Consumer Law or any other applicable legislation which cannot be lawfully excluded or limited, we are not responsible in any way for any indirect or consequential loss that arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, the Foxtel TV Service, any Third Party applications, the Equipment and/or the Infrastructure.

11.6 Exercise of our rights

Unless this Agreement says otherwise, we are also allowed to exercise all the other rights and powers we have under law.

When this Agreement ends, any rights that have not been fulfilled which you have against us or we have against you will continue to exist after this Agreement ends.

We may exercise our rights (including giving or refusing consent) in any way we consider appropriate. If we do not do something when we are entitled to (for example, impose a late payment fee), that does not mean we are giving up the right to do so.

11.7 Commissions

We may pay commission to any person who introduced you to us.

11.8 Laws relating to this Agreement

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State or Territory in which your Home is located. If part of this Agreement is not legally enforceable, that part will be cut from this Agreement. All other parts of the Agreement will continue.

If you want to assign or transfer this Agreement to someone, you need our permission. Please contact us. We may transfer or assign any of our rights or obligations under this Agreement.

11.9 How we can contact you – notices

Unless this Agreement says otherwise, we can give you notices by sending a letter to your address (by post or email), Foxtel Box messaging, SMS or by including the relevant information on the Foxtel Website or on My Account.

13. System specifications

System Specifications – for Owner Install Customers and Remote Customers Recommended Specifications for the Satellite

System are as follows:

- Minimum Satellite dish size should be 90cm
- For a single Foxtel Box, a single output 10.7 GHz low noise block converter (LNB) see specification below
- Where more than one standard Foxtel Box is used, a dual output Wide band 10.7 GHz low noise block converter (LNB) is required
- A multi switch is required when connecting multiple set top units
- Splitters are not to be used
- F type and or IEC Compression type connectors are required (not crimp type)
- RG6 Quad shield black coaxial cable

LNB Specification

RF Input Frequency	11.7 – 12.75 GHz
RF Output Frequency	1000 – 2050 MHz
Local Oscillator (L.O.)	10.7 GHz

Information on the location of the Satellite C1 & D3 used by Foxtel:

C1: Location: 156 degrees E

D/L: 12250 to 12750 MHz

Polarity: linear

D3: Location: 156 degrees E

D/L: 11700 to 12200 MHz

Polarity: linear

The Infrastructure must be capable of receiving both vertical and horizontal polarised signals from the satellites carrying Foxtel (Optus C1 and D3) in order for you to access all channels and channel enhancements. Note that if you are an Owner Install Customer, you should select your Infrastructure carefully as the availability and quality of the Foxtel signal you receive is likely to be detrimentally affected by using a dish and LNB combination that does not meet the above specifications.

14. Direct debit service request agreement

1. You authorise Foxtel Management Pty Ltd (User ID no. 037017) as agent for Foxtel to debit your nominated account when any amounts you owe us under Foxtel's Residential Subscription Television Agreement become payable (including but not limited to your Subscription Fee, any fees related to Pay Per View Programs or VOD, any ETF, any unrecovered equipment fees and any other general fees as set out in the Pricing Guide.)
2. We will advise you at least 14 days in advance of any changes to the direct debit arrangements.
3. It is your responsibility to ensure sufficient cleared funds are available in your nominated debiting account or there is sufficient available credit on your nominated credit card account (as applicable) when the payments are due to be drawn.
4. We do not take any responsibility for fees or charges incurred on your account as a result of overdrawn funds or any other charges incurred as a result of direct debit arrangements.
5. You acknowledge that if any debit is returned or dishonoured we will charge you a Dishonoured Payment fee as set out in the Pricing Guide. If there are insufficient cleared funds or available credit in your account when the payments are to be drawn, you will arrange for the direct debit to be made by another method or arrange for sufficient cleared funds to be in your account by an agreed time so that we can process the direct debit payment.
6. If your direct debit payment fails for any reason whatsoever, we may attempt to re-draw the amount you owe us on a later date.
7. If the due date for payment falls on a non-working day or a public holiday, the payment will be processed on the next working day. If you are uncertain as to when a debit will be processed, you will enquire directly with your financial institution or credit card issuer.
8. Your records and account details will be kept pursuant to Foxtel's Privacy Policy which is available at www.foxtel.com.au/about-foxtel/privacy/ or by calling 131 999. You accept that it may be necessary for Foxtel to give information to your financial institution or credit card issuer in connection with a claim by you that your account has been incorrectly or wrongly debited.

9. You may change your nominated account, defer payment by direct debit, stop any particular debit or cancel your direct debit authority by calling us on 131 999 or writing to PO Box 612, Moonee Ponds VIC 3039. We will cancel your direct debit authorization within 3 business days of receipt of your request to do so. You may also contact your financial institution at any time to stop any particular debit or cancel your direct debit authority. However if you defer or cancel your debit authority, or stop a particular debit, you will need to ensure you make arrangements with Foxtel for payment in another way.
10. We may cancel this Direct Debit Service Request Agreement at any time by notice to you.
11. It is your responsibility to check your account statement to verify the amounts debited from your account are correct.
12. You should contact Foxtel on 131 999 if you want to query, or you have a complaint regarding, the amount or timing of our drawings on your account. You may also contact your financial institution or card issuer.
13. Direct debiting through the Bulk Electric Clearing System (BECS) is not available on all accounts. It is your responsibility to confirm with your financial institution that your nominated debiting account (if applicable) can accept direct debit through the BECS.
