To whom it may concern

Warning: RAE-Sep™ tubes being used in other manufacturers' products.

RAE Systems can only guarantee the performance of RAE-Sep™ tubes only when they are used with an UltraRAE or UltraRAE 3000 equipped with a 9.8eV PID lamp. Performance with any other manufacturer's product cannot be guaranteed, and RAE Systems will not be responsible for any inaccurate readings resulting in injury, death, or losses.

RAE Systems' utmost concern is safety. To ensure users are protected from this potential safety hazard, we recommend that you strictly follow the above statement and do not use RAE Systems RAE-Sep™ tubes with any other manufacturer's product.

Please contact your local RAE Systems Regional Sales Manager or RAE Systems Customer Service if you need more details.

Sincerely,
