

The AMA History Project Presents: Biography of CHARLES J. KLEIN

Written by AMA staff (01/1988); Transcribed by JS (05/2008), Reformatted by JS (10/2009)

The following was published in the January 1988 issue of Model Aviation magazine. Charles was a 1987 Sig Memorial Scholarship winner.

Charles J. Klein is at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, where he is majoring in Political Science. He is a member of the City RC Club of Allentown (PA), where he enjoys flying fixed-wing aircraft and Helicopters. His preference is for whirlybirds because he feels they are very demanding.

Active in his community, Charles assisted in Key Club affairs such as car washes and dances to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy and other charities. At high school, he won several awards, some of which were first place, in regional and statewide competitions sponsored by the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science.
