“WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW, BEFORE FILING A COMPLAINT”

How to File a Complaint

To file a complaint with the Department you must complete a CED 20 Complaint Form and return it to the Department's Compliance Enforcement Division (CED). Forms may be obtained at a CED office or on the Department website.

Investigations Typically Conducted by the Department

- Dealer failed to issue Dealer Report of Sale (DRS)
- Dealer failed to submit title documentation or fees
- Dealer failed to issue emission control certificate
- Dealer failed to inspect drive train when required
- Dealer fraud and misrepresentations
- Counterfeit, fraudulent or forged DMV documents
- Odometer fraud
- Violations of sales, financing or leasing laws
- Unlicensed dealer, lessor, driving school, etc.

Common Outcomes of Investigations

Licensees often volunteer to resolve complaints once contacted by a CED investigator. However, if violations of law are suspected, CED will take the appropriate criminal or administrative actions in accordance with Nevada law. Should that occur, you may be asked to testify in a court of law or administrative hearing.

Alternatives

Surety Bonds You may be able to file a claim against a licensee's surety bond. CED can provide you with more information as what a licensee's bond covers and to make a claim.

Civil Action You may be able to seek remedy through the courts by contacting an attorney or legal aid group. Small claims are limited to $5,000 or less. The Department cannot give legal advice nor recommend an attorney.

Complaints may also be filed with:

- Nevada Department of Business and Industry, Consumer Affairs Division (garage repair disputes)
- Nevada Transportation Services Authority (Towing Complaints)
- Better Business Bureau
- Chamber of Commerce

The Compliance Enforcement Division does not:

Investigate complaints against towing or impound services or insurance disputes.

Investigate all complaints received. Complaints are assigned based on the Division's legal jurisdiction, case priorities, severity of allegations, history of similar allegations and available personnel.

Help you get a refund or cancel a sale. The Department does not have the authority to represent private citizens seeking a return of money or personal property as part of a dispute or complaint. (See alternatives above.)

Intervene in most disputes involving a vehicle sales contract or repair dispute. The Department will not attempt to change the terms of a valid sales contract, lease or warranty. Complaints involving repairs should be filed with the Department of Business and Industry, Consumer Affairs Division.

Investigate most private party sales. Sales which do not involve a "Division Licensee" or "Employee" will not be investigated unless document fraud or forgery is involved or the Division believes one of the parties should be licensed.

Tips for Buying a Car

“AS IS”

The term “AS IS” means exactly that. Inspect a vehicle you intend to purchase carefully or have it inspected by a qualified mechanic. Warranties or repairs promised on used vehicles must be specified in writing and disclosed on the sales contract or other written form of disclosure. A verbal promise is not binding.

No “Cooling Off” Period

The State of Nevada does not have any type of waiting period that allows you to return a vehicle you have purchased. Once you have signed a sales contract, you have purchased the vehicle and are liable for payments.

Understand the Sales Contract

It is your responsibility to understand the terms of the sale and financing before you enter into an agreement and do not sign a contract that contains blank spaces.

Private Party Sales

The Department recommends that sales between private parties occur at a residence. Consumers who buy vehicles displayed for sale from roadsides, vacant lots or commercial parking lots often have no recourse if there is a problem with registration or titling. In most cases it is illegal to sell a vehicle from an empty lot. Nevada law allows private parties to sell only three personally owned vehicles per year without a dealer's license.

Responsibilities of a Dealer

- ✓ Dealer's report of sale - You must receive this document within 20 day of the date of sale from the dealer to register your vehicle. You have 30 days to register the vehicle.
- ✓ Used Vehicle Inspection Report - Dealers are required to visually inspect the engine and drivetrain on any vehicle, which registers 75,000 miles or more on its odometer, and provide you with a copy of that inspection.
- ✓ Emission Control Certificate - Dealers must provide this to buyers if vehicles are sold to residents of counties where an emissions control check is required.
- ✓ Title Documentation - Dealers must submit the required documentation needed to create a Nevada title on any used vehicle sold in this state within 30 days of sale. Documents applicable to new vehicle sales must be submitted to the Department within 20 days. DMV will then forward the new Nevada title to the lien holder or legal owner.

Responsibilities of the Department of Motor Vehicles
