KLARA AND THE SUN

Kazuo Ishiguro

Faber

9780571364886 | $32.99 | © | PB | Fiction

The first novel by Kazuo Ishiguro since he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature 2017

Klara and the Sun tells the story of Klara, an Artificial Friend with outstanding observational qualities, who, from her place in the store, watches carefully the behaviour of those who come in to browse, and of those who pass on the street outside. She remains hopeful that a customer will soon choose her.

This is a thrilling feat of world-building, a novel of exquisite tenderness and impeccable restraint that offers a look at our changing world through the eyes of an unforgettable narrator, and one that explores the fundamental question: what does it mean to love? Klara and the Sun is a magnificent achievement, and an international literary event.

Kazuo Ishiguro is the bestselling and Booker Prize-winning author of Never Let Me Go and The Remains of the Day. Born in Japan, he lives in Britain.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

Debra Oswald

Allen & Unwin

9781760877781 | $32.99 | © | PB | Fiction

A novel of searing emotional truth, told with the relentless pull of a thriller, from the award-winning creator of Offspring

Paula is a dedicated suburban GP who is devastated by the murder of a friend and her children by their estranged husband and father. Stacey and the children had been staying with her after fleeing his control, and Paula is haunted by the thought that she couldn't protect them when they most needed it. How had she missed the warning signs? How had she failed to keep them safe?

Not long after, a patient with suspicious injuries brings her anxious young son into Paula's surgery. The woman admits that her husband hurts her, but she's terrified to leave for fear of escalating the violence, and defeated by the consistent failures of the law to keep them safe.

Can Paula go against everything she believes to make sure one woman is safe, one child? She isn't motivated by revenge. She's desperately trying to prevent a tragedy . . .

A riveting, provocative novel about women's fury, traumatic grief, new love, deep friendship, and the preciousness of life, The Family Doctor asks the question: Should you cling to faith in a flawed system, or take control the only way you can? Can a good person justify taking a life to save a life?

Debra Oswald is a playwright, screenwriter and novelist. She is a two-time winner of the NSW Premier's Literary Award and was creator of the TV series Offspring.

NEW ANIMAL

ELLA BAXTER

NEW ANIMAL

Ella Baxter

Allen & Unwin

9781760877798 | $29.99 | © | PB | Fiction

A stunning, heartbreakingly funny debut novel from a brilliant new literary voice. Sex, death, grief, running away . . . only one of these makes Amelia feel like a new animal

It's not easy getting close to people. Amelia's meeting a lot of men but once she gets the sex she wants from them, that's it for her; she can't connect further. A terrible thing happened to Daniel last year and it's stuck inside Amelia ever since, making her stuck too.

Maybe being a cosmetician at her family's mortuary business isn't the best job for a young woman. It's not helping her social life. She loves her job, but she's not great at much else. Especially emotion. And then something happens to her mum and suddenly Amelia's got too many feelings and the only thing that makes any sense to her is running away.

It takes the intervention of her two fathers and some hilariously wrong encounters with other broken people in a struggling Tasmanian BDSM club to help her accept the truth she has been hiding from. And in a final, cataclysmic scene, we learn along with Amelia that you need to feel another person's weight before you can feel your own.

Deadpan, wise and heartbreakingly funny, New Animal is a stunning debut.

Ella Baxter is a writer, poet and artist. In her spare time, she runs a small business making bespoke death shrouds. She lives in Victoria.

FROM WHERE I FELL

Susan Johnson

Allen & Unwin

9781760876555 | $32.99 | © | PB | Fiction

Two women from opposite ends of the earth begin corresponding by chance and start sharing the intimacies of their lives

An anguished email from Pamela Robinson in Australia to her ex-husband in Paris accidentally ends up in the inbox of New York State teacher Chrisanthi Woods. Chrisanthi is sympathetic to Pamela's struggles and the women begin to tell each other the stories and secrets of their lives.

Pamela, responsible for raising her three sons, must re-invent the meaning of home following her divorce, and Chrisanthi, her dreams long dampened, must find home by leaving it.

Temperamental opposites, their emails turn into an exhilarating and provocative exchange of love, loss and fresh beginnings, by turns amusing, frank and confronting.

Susan Johnson is an acclaimed Australian author of literary fiction, memoir, short stories and essays.

WE RUN THE TIDES

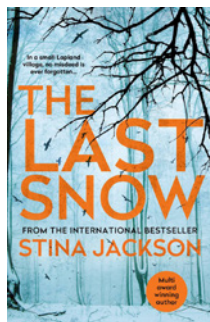

Vendela Vida

Atlantic
9781838951047 | $29.99 | 📖 | PB | Fiction

Teenage Eulabee and her alluring best friend, Maria Fabiola, own the streets of their oceanside San Francisco neighbourhood. Then everything changes.

They have a disagreement and the rupture is followed by Maria Fabiola's sudden disappearance—a potential kidnapping that shakes the quiet community and threatens to expose unspoken truths. An achingly beautiful and wickedly funny story of female friendship and betrayal, We Run the Tides is both a gripping mystery and a tribute to the wonders of youth, in all its beauty and confusion.

Vendela Vida is the award-winning author of Let the Northern Lights Erase Your Name and The Diver's Clothes Lie Empty. She lives in San Francisco.

In a small village in northernmost Sweden, Liv Bjornlund lives in a derelict house together with her teenage son, Simon, and her ageing father, Vidar. Just why has Liv stayed by her domineering father's side all these years? And is it true that Vidar is sitting on a small fortune? His questionable business decisions have made him many enemies over the years, and now someone wants back what is rightfully theirs. And they will stop at nothing to get it, no matter who stands in their way.

Stina Jackson is the award-winning author of The Silver Road. Born in Sweden, she lives in Colorado.

CONSENT

Annabel Lyon

Atlantic
9781838952457 | $29.99 | 📖 | PB | Fiction

Saskia and Jenny—twins—are alike in appearance only. Still, when Jenny is severely injured, Saskia puts her life on hold. Sara and Mattie are sisters with another difficult dynamic. When their mother dies, Sara inherits the duty of caring for her intellectually disabled sister. Now, Sara and Saskia, both caregivers for so long, are on their own—and come together through a cascade of circumstances. Razor-sharp and profoundly moving, Consent is a thought-provoking exploration of the complexities of familial duty, of how love can become entangled with guilt, resentment, and regret.

Annabel Lyon is the bestselling author of The Golden Mean. She lives in Canada.

LIGHT PERPETUAL

Francis Spufford

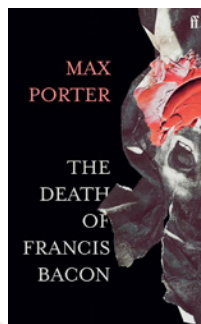

Faber

9780571368730 | $29.99 | © | PB | Fiction

November 1944. A German rocket incinerates a London store, and five young lives are atomised in an instant. Jo and Valerie and Alec and Ben and Vernon are gone. But what if it were possible to resurrect them—to let them experience the unimaginable changes of the twentieth century; to live out all the personal triumphs and disasters, the second chances and redemptions denied them?

Ingenious and profound, Light Perpetual is a story of the everyday, the miraculous and the everlasting—a sweeping and intimate celebration of the gift of life.

Francis Spufford is the award-winning author of Golden Hill. He lives near Cambridge.

THE LONG, LONG AFTERNOON

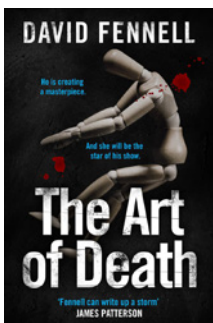

Inga Vesper

Manilla

9781838772277 | $29.99 | © | PB | Fiction

It's the summer of 1959, and the well-trimmed lawns of Sunnyslakes, California, wilt under the sun. At some point during the long, long afternoon, Joyce Haney, wife, mother, vanishes from her home, leaving behind two terrified toddlers and a bloodstain on the kitchen floor . . . A beguiling, deeply atmospheric novel from the cracked heart of the American Dream, The Long, Long Afternoon is at once a page-turning mystery and an intoxicating vision of the ways in which women everywhere are diminished, silenced and ultimately underestimated.

Inga Vesper is a journalist and editor. Born in Germany, she lives in the UK.

THE ART OF DEATH

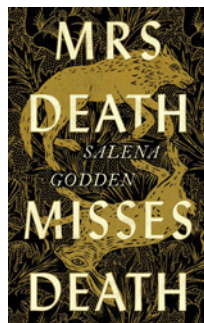

David Fennell

OF GOLD AND DUST

A memoir of a creative life

Samantha Wills

Allen & Unwin

9781760876548 | $32.99 | © | PB | Autobiography

A beautifully written, revealing memoir from one of Australia's most popular and successful business women

Samantha Wills started her self-titled jewellery company on the kitchen table of her share house in the eastern suburbs of Sydney when she was just 21 years old. While her rise to the global stage looked meteoric to many, Samantha has said 'It took me twelve years to become an overnight success.'

Following Samantha's journey, from being named a breakout star by The New York Times to barely being able to breathe on a hotel room floor, Of Gold and Dust is so much more than a business memoir. In her unique, confessional tone, Samantha tells the intimate details of her life and business, sharing her truths with a rare rawness and vulnerability.

Funny, down-to-earth, revealing and heartfelt, Of Gold and Dust is a must-read for anyone who has a desire to start their own business, or a passion to live a creative life and follow their dreams. Her story is an inspiring blueprint for getting out there and finding the magic that awaits you.

Samantha Wills has been in the spotlight as one of Australia's most dynamic speakers and creative personalities since she was 21 years of age. She lives in New York.

HOW TO ENDO

A guide to surviving and thriving with endometriosis

Bridget Hustwaite

Allen & Unwin

9781760879082 | $29.99 | © | PB | Health

A vibrant, empowering guide to surviving and thriving with endometriosis, from triple j presenter and endometriosis advocate Bridget Hustwaite

After years of dismissive doctors and misinformation, Bridget Hustwaite was relieved to finally receive a diagnosis for her intensely heavy periods, pulsing headaches and the excruciating abdominal pain that made her ovaries feel like they were on fire. She has endometriosis—hard to pronounce, hard to diagnose and even harder to live with.

The further Bridget has travelled along the endo path—including two excision surgeries and the building of an endo community on Instagram—the more she's realised how much endo sufferers have to self-educate and self-advocate just to have their pain seen and acknowledged. With her trademark enthusiasm, Bridget has blended her personal experience with a raft of tips and tricks from health experts and endo warriors to help you thrive whenever you can, and survive on days when you just can't.

Covering everything from diet to acupuncture; fertility to mental health, and surgery to sex, Bridget's guide to navigating this sucker punch of a chronic illness will make you laugh and cry and empower you to be proactive about your endo journey.

Bridget Hustwaite is the Melbourne-based host of triple j's flagship new music program, Good Nights and founded the Instagram account @endogram.

GRIEF ON THE RUN

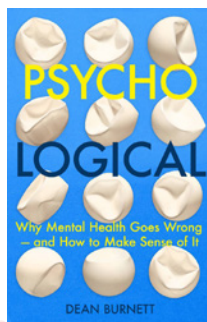

Julie Zarifeh

A&U New Zealand
9781988547367 | $32.99 | 📄 | Psychology

Julie Zarifeh shares the tragic story of losing her 27-year-old son, Sam, in a whitewater rafting accident just sixteen days after her husband, Paul, died of pancreatic cancer. She describes how she dealt with this double whammy and embraced the notion of 'active grieving'. This included a 450-kilometre cycle around Sri Lanka raising money for disadvantaged children and running the New York marathon on behalf of the Mental Health Foundation.

Julie's account of learning to live with grief, plus her experience as a clinical psychologist, make this an inspirational and ultimately uplifting read.

Julie Zarifeh is a consultant clinical psychologist. She lives in New Zealand.
