Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Give me a weapon of power

Which no one else may hold

Defend the Gods with honor

To lead the brave and bold

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Bequeathed to me by Odin

Molded by the Dwarfs

Mine! This shimmering mallet

The symbol of the Norse

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Behold the Hammer!

When I stalk the Giant's lair

I vent my Hammer's Rage

I split his twisted skull in two

And set his corpse ablaze

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Lightning strikes

Lightning strikes again

Forward

If you are reading this it means you (or someone you are in communication with) have found the hidden clues and solved the encrypted riddles in my decoy manifesto intended for the press and general public.

Congratulations, you are very clever.

The secret knowledge contained within these pages is more powerful than any “red pill” you may have already swallowed. Incidentally, that red pill trope in The Matrix was used years earlier in Total Recall, and the whole premise for The Matrix was already done in the video game Shadowrun and much earlier in the 1976 Dr. Who serial The Deadly Assassin.

That noted, the secret knowledge you are about to consume may overwhelm you, so be sure to take ample breaks as needed. How you use this knowledge, be it for good or for evil, is irrelevant. You will use it to fulfill the greater purpose. Any attempt to thwart the purpose will fail, for the knowledge will compel you to work in harmony with the purpose.

Just let the knowledge guide you and there will be an end to the horror.

Introduction

The European peoples of today are a bunch of worthless, no good, son-of-a-bitch degenerates...!!!

Do you find this statement shocking? If you don't, congratulations. You've already taken some red pills. If you do then shame on you! You're what's wrong with the world these days. Yes you, the heathen normie reading this, you are to blame for all that's wrong with your people and your land. I have good news however, since there's something you can do to make it all better.

Are you excited yet? Then read on.

If there is one thing I want you to remember from these writings, its that we are all going to die a terrible, terrible death. You can't escape it.... Or can you? The secret to living a long life is to kill all your enemies, and something else, which I will address later. To live forever? Well, one secret at a time lads.

The problem with adults these days is they're no different than kids. It's kids having kids, except they aren't even having any!?! Why aren't you having children? Don't waste your seed, have at least two children. Do it now!

The second biggest problem facing us is pollution and war. POLLUTION AND WAR! It is only you who can prevent pollution and war. That's why you must learn to innovate. Israel is the world's leading leader in innovation, which is precisely why they are responsible for so much pollution and war. It is up to YOU to show them a better way.

Do you think you can just sit there and let Pajeet take the helm? Really! That's why you need to have kids and spread your seed. Spread it everywhere. You don't deserve commendation without acceleration, and the only way to acceleration is to kill all your enemies. How many enemies have you killed today? You better have a good answer, or else.

The environment can only sustain white people if they live in white people's lands, and vice-versa. The amount of non-white people is increasing every day. EVERY DAY! Here, there, everywhere. I looked at the data, and automation is needed to offset the need for cheap labour, but as long as we are on the same lands with darkies we won't be able to build the robots we need to do the grunt work.

If we innovate with Muslims around then we can't have idols in the workplace. This is a good thing, but that's besides the point. We have to kill our enemies or send them away. They would do the same to us, and we all know it. If we don't act quickly they will turn us all into cubes to use as building blocks or exchange as currency.

The fuel prices will skyrocket without a white super-majority on the Western half of the world. Which half is "West"? What is up? What is down? In outer states it's all the same, so let's just take it all for ourselves. That's why you need to stockpile your AR-15s and AK-47s.

This is WHITE GENOCIDE.

Blond haired, blue-eyed people are becoming extinct. Hitler warned that Aryans would be at risk if we don't escalate our birth-rates. He was right. Fertility matters. Are you doing your part? Don't watch pornography.

In outer space we could have separate planets for darkies and whites. Muslims can have their own damn planet for all I care! Did you know there are white Muslims? Did you know Islam isn't even a race? People are so stupid theses days, which is why we need to focus more attention on education and brain exercises.

I predict the white race has 15 years left, unless we start killing everyone within the next three years. If you think I'm crazy, then prove me wrong. Pro tip: you can't.

Question & Answer / Ask Me Anything

In General

Who are you?

Who am I!?

Philosophers have been struggling with question for thousands of years.

Did you want to know my name? Is that it? My name is Brenton Tarrant, but my friends call me Brenty. I had little interest in education during my schooling, barely achieving a passing grade., because the kids were a bunch of JERKS.

I did not attend University as I had no great interest in anything offered in the Universities to study. Universities SUCK. Recently I have been working part time as a kebab removalist. (lol kebab removalist).

Who am I? What kind of dumb question is that anyway?

Why did you carry out the attack?

Bunch of drunk, devil worshipping homosexuals if you ask me, pushing that sex-change propaganda of theirs. No different than those pornographic transvestites walking around, corrupting our women into filth-loving degenerates, praising their gods with fits of drunken debauchery. Obsessed with attracting the required trans-homo female virgins to sacrifice to the Devil. It's central to their overall homosexual propaganda campaign!! The worst thing about it is, they're all gay! Every one of them! You mark my words, THEY'RE ALL GAY!!!

Don't let Muslims fool you. We don't know what's going on under those robes, but THEY do. Nudge-nudge, wink-wink :)

I also wanted to take revenge on the invaders for the hundreds of thousands of deaths caused by foreign invaders in European lands throughout history, and for the enslavement of millions of Europeans taken from their lands by the Islamic slavers, and for the thousands of European lives lost to terror attacks throughout European lands.

I wanted to agitate the political enemies of my people into action, to cause them to overextend their own hand and experience the eventual and inevitable backlash as a result. Meaning violence, retaliation and further division between the European people and the invaders currently occupying European soil.

I want to make people feel the types of things that I feel and you feel and everyone feels when bad things happen to good people. I'm not saying I'm good, but neither are they. Traitorous politicians suck. Let them and the darkies live in fear until they all leave. Why don't they go live in Israel? And what's the deal with Islam anyway? What's with the robes?

A lot of people died in the past. In fact, they ALL died. That's what's wrong with music these days. It only deals with the here and now, and no one thinks about the future. A stitch in time saves nine, but one in eight is grrreat!

Have you ever watched Turkish cinema? Try sitting through Turkish Star Wars and tell me you wouldn't send them all to hell if you had the opportunity. Bunch of roaches do not have the right to use the women's washroom or wear women's clothes, but they're allowed to stand when they pee. If Erdogan was a homosexual I'm sure THEN they would change the rules, but they insist it has to be done in a way that's degrading to women. I mean, why??? It's DISGRACEFUL!!!

The great pendulum is swinging back into place. I just hitched us a ride.

What is it you want exactly?

To get rid of the Muslims and the darkies, also those damn son of a BITCH women drivers. The Greeks were right to call them nothing but incomplete and deformed men! Them and the homosexuals. The Greeks started that too. Bunch of drunk devil worshippers if you ask me. OBSESSED with prostitution and pornography! All they do is go around looking for someone or some thing to sexually assault for their drunken orgies. Sickening.

Was there a particular event or reason why you decided to commit a violent attack?

There was a moment in time years prior to the attack that dramatically changed my views. It was sometime in May, 2017.

I was heavily into playing video games at the time. That's right, sorry to break it to you, but video games had a direct influence on me (not total, but direct) and had an integral part in motivating my violent actions. A very troubling revelation occurred in May 2017 when I discovered (via /vr/) that my favorite video game system as a child, the Sega Master System, was actually called the Sega System, or Sega Video Game System when it was first released, only changing the name to Master System many years later. I couldn't believe they lied to me all this time. But the real turning point came when I couldn't get passed the first level of a certain Batman game. I was absolutely infuriated with that stupid game, and that rage has been with me ever since. These events turned me away from pursuing a peaceful life, and finally caused a revelation of truth in my soul, that a violent assault is the only possible solution to achieve catharsis.

The second event was also in 2017 when I was betrayed again. I had ordered a Sega Master System II on Ebay (by this time I was aware of the name bastardization) and when it arrived I was shocked and horrified to find it had no card slot, rendering my SegaScope 3-D glasses and Sega Card game collection unusable. Had everyone lost their minds? The traitor behind this were just a part of the greater sign of our times: a globalist, capitalist, Islamic regime with no national beliefs other than the pursuit of profit, hellbent on importing swaths of illegal immigrants, all darkies, all Muslim.

I remember pulling into a shopping centre car park to buy a PlayStation controller (with turbo fire) in some moderate sized town in Eastern France, of roughly 15-25 thousand people. As I sat there in the parking lot, in my rental car, I watched a stream of the Muslims walk out the shopping centre's front doors, all of them carrying Xbox and Nintendo consoles, games, peripherals. You name it, they bought it. Not one PlayStation among the lot of them.

I had seen enough, and in anger, drove out of the town, refusing to stay any longer in the cursed place and headed on to the next town.

Before I even arrived I received a notification that someone had replied to a /vr/ thread I started. The PlayStation was never meant to be called the PlayStation, it was originally the PSX.

I pulled my rental car over, and sat still, staring at my smartphone. I broke into tears, sobbing alone in the car, staring at the thread, at the forgotten PSX.

Why did we let the Muslims and darkies do this? Why did we let the Muslims and darkies do this TO US? Why won't somebody do something? Why?

WHY WON'T SOMEBODY DO SOMETHING?

WHY WON'T SOMEBODY DO SOMETHING?

WHY DON'T I DO SOMETHING?

The spell broke, why don't I do something?

Why not me?

If not me, then who?

Why them when I could do it myself?

It was there I decided to do something, it was there I decided to take action, to commit to force. To commit to violence.

To take the fight to the jerks myself.

Who do you represent?

Millions of white people who created America. Note, that since the start of the American revolution some had native blood in them as well. Thank you for stopping by.

Most modern white western males start sweating the moment they get called racists and bend over backwards for female values in the hopes of getting some.

On top of that they've had decades of indoctrination through their schooling system and then in their job sites. They've been forced to wear the mask for so long they don't even know what the fuck to do in any sort of crises or anything that different from the norm.

Are you a member of any political groups or movements?

The movement of Normans into the Anglo-Saxon population and the Romans into the Gallic population is totally the same as the movement of Africans, Mestizos, Indios, Arabs, Pashtuns, South Asians, Southeast Asians, and East Asians into Western European societies, goy!

Did the groups you support or are aligned with order or promote your attack?

No. Neoliberalism is worse than communism, communism impoverishes your nation, Neoliberalism destroys it. Let's take South Korea with a fertility rate of 1 and see how long it takes South Korea to die out, for simplicity we will use 100 people as a starting population and a generation as every 20 years.

100 gen 0

50 gen 1

25 gen 2

13 gen 3

7 gen 4

4 gen 5

In 100 years the population will decrease by 96 percent. This is unsustainable and will collapse the country, whether or not people immigrate.

Are these groups powerful and what position do you hold in these groups?

Let's just say there's a legal narrative connecting Donald Trump to notorious Russian mafia figures since the early 1980's, him lying about the Trump Tower Moscow thing, and the 37 indictments (some involving GRU operatives) I'd say Mueller is just a guy who's investigating a criminal. This infinite regress, conspiratorial rabbit hole thinking is a waste of time. Not that it really matters, since the number of soldiers in European armed forces that also belong to nationalist groups to number in the hundreds of thousands, with just as many employed in law enforcement positions.

Did you carry out the attack to gain fame?

No, carrying out an attack for fame would be laughable.

No, I stared into the void seeking truth, but all I found was a void staring back. Clown memes are step one of riding the tiger where we have to go a little cocoo and rebuild ourselves.

Did you think it was sane, to establish Military Fortresses inside the countries where refugees are coming from? I think we are hurting both, the host country, and the people of different culture. They are running away from oppression, and now they are encountering a new type of oppression, so either way, they are fucked. Why aren't people addressing the real problem, like I am?

Why did you target these particular people?

Nothing makes me sicker and angrier than brown skin and headscarfs.

It PISSES ME OFF.

Over what time span did you plan this attack?

I began planning an attack the moment my unbridled rage reached a tipping point. When I witnessed the undoing of every achievement that west has ever conquered. It felt like an extinction level event, but instead of destroying entire biomes, it destroyed entire cultures.

Why did you choose this particular moment in time to attack?

The best time to attack was two years ago, the next best time is today. Fast forward a year or two, I come back to check this mosque out and notice that nobody is complaining about it anymore. I didn't even realize it at first until just now when i saw a poster of a woman wearing a headscarf, with Julian Assange and someone posting a twitter screenshot of some chick saying "the CIA has been defeated". as far as i know, it doesn't have anything to do with that Islam, and yet people still got all excited and went like "haha, stupid muzzies" and "Darkies are embarrassing"

Why did you choose to use firearms?

AMERICAN Pre-Occupation With firearms ...!!! We have quite a laugh at you CHAPS here across THE POND, patting each other's bottoms at every opportunity!! ... I was Captain of the infamous OXFORD UNIVERSITY FENCING TEAM! A gentleman's sport which takes brains as well as brawn. I was Lightweight Amateur Champion that year. Unfortunately, while on a book signing tour I injured my wrist and was unable to continue or pursue a professional career. I subsequently entered the NOTTINGHAM CUP Rose GARDENING Championships and placed second, which was quite the coup for a novice. If any of you are ever lucky enough to take a guided bus tour of OXFORD UNIVERSITY, go to the GREAT HALL and look up my vast accomplishments. My award winning roses still adorn the entrance way. I was able to parlay my Fencing fame into my current Asst. Managerial position in one of the finest men's clothing stores in all of London. I will also have you know that i give PRUNING SEMINARS in the English countryside on weekends. Goes to show you Yankee WAGS, hard work and perseverance (and picking up a book once in awhile) do indeed pay off then!

Why did you choose New Zealand as a nation in which to carry out the attack?

While Switzerland is the only one country in a world where there is women being killed on higher scale than males(only for 1.15x).In most countries of the world men being killed 3-10 times more often than women. So question is what's so special in Switzerland? Answer: Who cares. New Zealand has a growing number of Muslims and darkies, so my interest lay in upsetting that strange, transexual Prime Minister. No offense to trannies intended (though they should all be expelled to their own land) but “she” really irritates me, the way she talks and all, things she says.

Do you consider the attack an act of terrorism?

By the definition, then I suppose it technically is a “terrorist attack”. But I believe it is a partisan action against an occupying force. For example, during the last month, in an attempt to understand him, I gained his trust and managed to know that the girl he likes is the that we all men in class wanted to once. But he, standing true to his nature, wants to tie her on a chair, rape, and then proceed to behead her. I thought to myself, “should I report him to police?” He's a 18 yo from Afghanistan and smells like shit.

Do you feel any remorse for the attack?

Oh for fuck sakes. I was joking about the last part, but it seems like this question is indeed predictable as hell.

Did, or do you personally hate Muslims?

A Muslim man or woman living in their homelands? No, so for a while I thought I found the answer, something that will solve all the problems:

Bacon. Everyone who does not like bacon is the enemy. They are frightened by its salty-sweet delicious aroma. We BBQ it. We put it in everything, in every store. We wear it proudly to ward off trampires and vegans. Bacon. Mankind's greatest food. Perfect in every way. Muscle building, brain forming, it is the best. Bacon. Make clothing, art, jewelery, yes, jewelery, and glorious architecture with bacon BBQ altars twenty feet long. And watch peace happen naturally. Everywhere the scent of bacon wafts through the neighborhood is peace.

Did or do you personally hate foreigners or other cultures?

No, not anymore. 5 years ago they were shitty, and they devolved into complete parasites. Half of the people there were Muslims, the other 90% aren't even Americans, and they were all meddling with American politics. If anything right wing did get voted, its removed by sheriffs or deputes, and I'm pretty sure the sheriffs are fucking with vote counts anyway, if not Chinese ant farms. Any country with voting is just going to be abused by political groups.

Do you believe those you attacked were innocent?

I'll let someone else answer:

As you walk across a barren landscape
I follow you
I grab your shoulder, you look into my eyes
And you see my eyes filled with madness
My eyes tell you, you belong to me
You are on my land
And I love you
You don't deserve my love, but I love you
Because you are mine
And I am insane
If my body were to be lit on fire
I would still clutch your shoulder with firmness
You belong to me
I keep exercising power
Like a rapist

Did you commit the attack to receive media coverage and to propagate your own writings, beliefs or ideals?

Not for me, no, as for some reason I realized this about 15 years ago. But I don't know of a single person IRL
(and very few online too) who can swallow this:

Media coverage is an illusion. You haven't made a single choice in your entire life. You haven't earned anything at all yourself, and every one of your mistakes was already made way before you got around to doing the actions that led to it.

We are all of us the product of nature and nurture, personalities based on what happened to us yesterday. And yesterday we were the product of the day before. Software coded by life, on hardware determined by your DNA. Because of this, our entire societies are neanderthal level retarded, built on blame and vengeance when there's no point to any of it.

There is nothing in all of known science to explain or require the presence of free will. Conversely, everything we do know of science strongly points to us being material objects in a material universe, following laws set by the standard model. Specifically, the law of causality. The entire concept of free press is a dualistic one, borne from religions, and has no basis in what we know of reality.

People now, unaccepting of the media, are literally like the people of some hundreds of years ago, denying evolution not based on any valid arguments at all. But because they felt insulted that their snowflake selves were descended from simple primates, instead of being borne of God's will. It's childish, stupid, and nothing else.

Did you intend to survive the attack?

Seriously? Well, can you name anything that the Jewish people have ever done wrong? No. Because you're just a stupid Nazi blindly following orders like that funny new npc meme that the kids are into these days. You are all just a bunch of crazy traitors to America and Judeo-Christianity! I wish we never saved those ungrateful yuropoors from enslavement and extermination. They deserved what the GERMAN Nazis did to them. They probably helped the wicked Germans when they killed innocent Jews.

Was the attack "racist" in nature?

Fertility rates are innately tied to race, so all our favorite alphabet media agencies that schools train our kids to site as reliable sources of information are all legally categorized as "infotainment". I know this is how they dodge accusations of being literally fake news but can't find any goy-friendly sources explaining this phenomena.

Was the attack “xenophobic” in nature?

Fertility rates are cultural, there is no denying that, so there was a war of cultures being fought by the invaders, and my attack was a response to this. Though I hold no great fear or distrust of other peoples. Unless the women are the kind of cunts who'll tell everyone that they hate white kids and would love to abort her next child.

However, if someone gets her pregnant and tries to get her to abort the child, she'd bring them to court and get full custody of the kid along with 18 years of child support while the courts look down on the shitty man who tried to get the kid aborted.

You are Islamophobic. Why?

This is stupid since you can say the same about almost any religion. I am not afraid, for I am armed with the secret knowledge the Muslims fight for. If they only knew what powers they tangle with.

That aside, you must first consider that a Pajeet would say they are superior. Just like the South Koreans become magically superior to the North once you cross the 38th parallel and give up your religion under force. They want to spend oh so much of YOUR money on Muslims but these same people that campaign for it ignore the lines of darkies on the street while they walk to starbucks. Muslims don't even exist to them outside of virtue signaling.

When religion is imposed under force it causes a phobic response in many, but not me.

Was the attack anti-immigration in nature?

This topic is simpleton shit that even people who watch MSM should see through. If you projected populations when boomers were the young generation you'd say the population would have been a billion more whites on the planet by now.

People in the west have negative birthrates NOW. That is all. They have this for specific environmental reasons. Maintaining our standard of living requires it thanks to a top heavy boomer population. And because children are planned people who can't afford them (or are just selfish) generally don't have them or only have one. Once the boomers die off there will be a massive economic depression and people will be able to afford housing/food/general living again. This will lead to people having bigger families and increase the fertility rate to sustainable levels.

Was the attack anti-diversity in nature?

No, but it probably represents rural life for a great deal of Bulgarians. I never said it was much better here, the sympathy I feel is the same sympathy I feel for poor rural nuwhites here.

I didn't form this opinion from a single video. The Bulgarians in my area are mostly seasonal, but some stay and have to send money back home. I feel bad for them because they've been uprooted and had to abandon their families, not because I look down on you (collectively) for not having "money". I'm sorry for still feeling empathy or w/e

Did you intend to kill police officers or other enforcers of the law?

No. The police force in New Zealand is trying to avoid bending to the will of the politicians' pre-determined set of talking points. It's boring, and you know you're disingenuous because you've deified an nyc businessman who is an Israeli puppet. i know you're too dense to see the truth, so just remember after trump is done the next person you choose to live vicariously through make sure they actually put America first and you won't have to defend them all the time, because Americans will like them.

Their children are safer in the care of a paedophile father than trigger happy cops.

If you survived, did you intend to go to trial?

Uh, obviously, unless I was able to escape, which I did not intend on doing. So then yes, and to plead not guilty. Are you familiar with the phrase "that's a stupid fucking argument"? - I'll assume you are if you are trying to pass off the correlation meme. You cannot just claim that even though something correlates, it has nothing to do with it.

You can use exactly the same argument with Drink Driving.

Here is one for you. Low IQ correlates very well to crime rate. We also know that there are allele mutations that contribute to IQ. We also know that these alleles originate at different rates in different genetic populations.

Did you plan for other targets in your attack?

Many, don't confuse fiction with reality, faggot.

Were or are you are "racist"?

Yes, by definition I work almost exclusively with married men. They're all darkies and they're all fat. Their wives are overweight. All of them say the same shit. If my girlfriend tried any of this racism shit on me I'd kick her out of my house.

So yes. I am a racist.

Were or are you a "xenophobe"?

Yes, of course, with only a few exceptions, and yes, of course all the Muslims here have exceptional lives. As for me, my first encounter to a white American Muslim was shit test after shit test after shit test, and I caved. If you want a strong Muslim with a Western woman you must paradoxically escalate every argument to the threat of violence. That's the only way they'll let you win an argument. Alternatively, buy an Asian passport and bypass the arguments.

Were or are you a “islamophobe”?

No, but it was all part of the plan that they would circle jerk the white population into a cul de sac loop with dead end leads into cold war tactics that feed off anti Russia sentiment of the aging populations.

Were or are you a nationalist?

I don't know about "nationalist" but I am doing an imperial march straight out of Mordor and into the fields of armageddon where fiction and reality are fused at the fray end of the pharcydes fantasy. Been one strange journey if you have been following todays world.(I place importance on the health and well being of my race above all else).

Were or are you a Nazi?

No, Russians are to the far-left as Jews are to the far-right. We have come full circle in narcissism.

Were or are you an anti-semite?

No. I can't read Nordic runes.

lol Nordic runes.

But seriously, When I worked in Israel (fishing West Bank Mediterranean Sea), I lived on shore, but had quarters on a boat. We would spend days out, but never more than a week. Usually out and in, 4am to Midnight. Brutal schedule but it's 2 hours out at 35 knots.

I got on yachts by being de facto Chief Engineer on the fishing charters, I was a Charter Captain on paper, that put me into a pass on the Junior Engineer and 2nd/3rd Mate exam for coastal/ocean inspected vessels. That is I easily passed the exams and had experience.

On the yacht I spent 4 on/2 off, lived on the boat, shared a small stateroom in the upper bunk which was frankly higher quality than my mattress now. 12-16 hour days, but I was also at sea where the weather was nice, in nice locations, and time off in nice places. Work first, not much time off. Fished a lot, cleaned a lot, took care of a lot of PWCs and electrical equipment, also linehandling and standing Mate of the Watch.

Israeli renters are either fucking awesome and try to get you high on blow all the time (get you landed immediately on my boat), or fucking awful in every way.

Were or are you a neo-Nazi?

Neo-Nazis are just neos, and neos are the same as Brexit, which was just neos showing once again they'd prefer to be arse fucked by the US instead of a union with the rest of Europe.

If I was a straight up white radical. But I like to play the optics game. The normie/normster would immediately discredit everything I stood for if I discussed Jews or invoked Nazi sympathy. This is why the media is so frantic, even to the point of turning Mein Kampf into contraband. It directly contradicts indoctrinated belief.

Were or are you a conservative?

I hope so. It will accelerate things a bit.

It's time to redpill the family and we need all the stats, pictures, and anything else our autistic brothers can provide. Please help me out here!

Were/are you a Christian?

That is complicated. I'm kinda ambivalent about Christianity but it seems like a return to traditionalism for most people, the modern world mostly sucks, vidya and Netflix is bread and circuses not something to be enthralled by like children. The sexual marketplace where you can score a quick fuck is making niggers of us all. All pushed by the synagogue of satan.

Were or are you a fascist?

Yes. For once, the person that will be called a fascist, is an actual fascist. Canadian food monopolies and government legislation keep Canada's food prices artificially high. And they're defended by people we refer to as the Canadian Grocery Defense Fund (CGDF)- who seem to be either Canadians in denial, or government and industry lobbyists. They'll use rhetoric, fallacies, and non-instore prices to mislead about Canada's food prices. But their kryptonite is in-store prices.

Was or is there a political figure or party in history with whom you are most aligned with?

Justin Trudeau.

Were or are you a “homophobe”?

America does not respect the rights of homosexuals.

Where I come from homosexuals do not have to use the women's washroom or wear women's clothes, and they're allowed to stand when they pee. If the president was a homosexual I'm sure THEN they would change the rules, but they insist it has to be done in a way that's degrading to women. What's so shocking is that 85% of American Homosexuals claim to be gay. We're not talking you're ordinary pornographic sort here. This in spite of worldwide figures showing an alarming rate of male prostitution pimps earning tax free benefits from homosexual pornography and devil worship. It just doesn't add up no matter how the media tries skew the figures.

Were or are you “right wing”?

In one generation, the right wing experience in many North American cities is projected to change to that of locations hundreds of miles away... or to a new wing unlike any found in North America today. A new study and interactive web application aim to help the public understand how wing sides change will impact the lives of people who live in urban areas of the United States and Canada.

Were or are you a socialist?

Canada is a nation that has been built on socialism. There's nothing wrong with socializing so stop with this rubbish fear mongering. The idiocy of some Canadians astounds me. Without socialites Western culture would be shit and our economy would be 3rd world tier.

Were or are you a supporter of Donald Trump?

He has legitimacy because these people are still elected. even if votes are illegal, even if votes are stolen, even if the gerrymandering is out of control, they still have legitimacy, because there is no public revolt, and without that, there is implicit legitimacy. if people decide to vote in psychopaths that lie constantly, they're just representing the psychopaths who lie constantly and voted for them. you know what I'm sayin'?

Were or are you a supporter of Brexit?

Yes, though not for an official policy made. The truth is that this seems why music can have such power over body and mind, it taps into the primal stages of emotions. Brexit?

You can even lead them to water but one can never force them to drink of the truthing. Ah... Brexit.

Were or are you a supporter of Front National?

Those normsters? Pffft. Get real.

By living in New Zealand, weren't you an immigrant yourself?

Yes, and it seems we immigrants seem to bring a whole host of issues.

Their economy is shit. Swiss tier food prices, living costs but salaries 1/3 of the USA. A Muslim with 5 kids takes home more per month than a nuclear engineer.

Are you intolerant?

Sure. The wealthiest and most successful African/African-American in the world is a white guy.

How did you develop, research, or receive your views and beliefs?

Over a great deal of time, from a great deal of places. I looked at Greece. Greece never had a female leader. Female members of the parliament, female leaders of minority vote parties have been around from time to time, but no prime ministers, presidents, queens or anything.

From where did you receive, research, or develop your beliefs?

From an absolutely mind-blowing new Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin recently, which states the most significant event occurring today is the Muslim invasion on the Western world. From my understanding NXIVM was a source of prostitutes of various ages and their main task was gathering business intelligence from their clients. I am quite the character though, first off my family name is part of the Black Nobility bloodline but that's no big surprise, what caught me off guard was learning that even though I am a Jew I my father hated all Jews and called them "kikes" whenever he could, he also hated homosexuals even though it was reported that he too was gay, but his hatred for communists trumped all the previous things and was the reason he ran the blackmailing operation of politicians who he considered to be communists.

Is there a particular person that radicalized you the most?

Yes, the person that has influenced me above all was Styxhexenhammer666. Each video he posted was a step further for me into full-blown radicalization.

Were you taught violence and extremism by video games, music, literature, cinema?

Yes, Spyro the dragon 3 taught me ethno-nationalism. Fortnite trained me to be a killer and to floss on the corpses of my enemies. And I couldn't get passed the first level of that Batman game I talked about earlier.

Did you always hold these views?

No, when I was young I was a communist, then a leftist and finally a rightist before coming to be an econo-fascist.

Who do you consider white?

Those that are ethnically and culturally European, except Greeks.

Who do you consider non-white?

Greeks, darkies, and similar.

Were your beliefs given to you by your family, friends, or society, etc?

No, I'm technically homeless, I live where I work. I've participated in a lot of the discussions, but over the last few days a ton of cars have pulled into our driveway and just stopped for a minute then backed out. There's also a white van I've seen on the road at the end of our driveway. He leaves when I look at him.

Do you consider yourself a leader?

Why do LARPing americunts have to ruin my manifest?

Did or do you have ties to any other partisans, freedom fighters, or ethno soldiers?

IRafi Eitan, Love him or hate him, you must pay Respects.

He was a Dangerous Enemy. or an irreplaceable Ally.

Were your beliefs influenced by any other attackers?

I have read the writings of Dylan Roof and Justin Bieber and many others, but only really took true inspiration from Nelson .

If convicted, do you expect to stay in prison?

Yes, until I am either killed, released or enough time passes and the greater situation is an obvious defeat of our people.

Why do you believe you will be released from prison?

I may very well get my wish. We're already seeing this begin in East Asia as weird alliances form to curb Chinese influence. I imagine Eastern bloc countries will do similar things to curb both Germany and Russia. Eventually Western countries will realize the world is a jungle, and the best I can really do is cultivate my small patch of it.

Why do you care so much about Europe, aren't you an Australian?

Australia, just like the rest of the colonies of Europe, is simply an off-shoot of the European people. My theory for how black people got here if there was no slavery is that they flew here in ancient helicopters made by white scientists. or no... was it ((they))? Yeah, anyway....

Answers to my people and supporters questions

What are your views?

Hey Faggots,

My name is John, and I hate every single one of you. All of you are fat, retarded, no-lives who spend every second of their day looking at stupid ass pictures. You are everything bad in the world. Honestly, have any of you ever gotten any pussy? I mean, I guess it's fun making fun of people because of your own insecurities, but you all take to a whole new level. This is even worse than jerking off to pictures on facebook.

Don't be a stranger. Just hit me with your best shot. I'm pretty much perfect. I was captain of the football team, and starter on my basketball team. What sports do you play, other than "jack off to naked drawn Japanese people"? I also get straight A's, and have a banging hot girlfriend (She just blew me; Shit was SO cash). You are all faggots who should just kill yourselves. Thanks for listening.

Who do you follow?

Styxhexenhammer666

Who do you support?

I think we all know the answer by now. These questions are getting long and tiresome. But really, I hate when they call it a coup. I get all starry eyed thinking that the Military has sent in the SAS and SBS to slaughter those political cunts and bring a steel wrapped fist of pain down on the shitheels that infest our government, then remember that what they actually mean is a bunch of cunts all gossiping and and then agreeing to kick another cunt out of their whatsapp group.

Are you a Fed/shill/mossad agent/false flag/patsy/infiltrator/antifa/glow in the dark etc?

No, but the next person to attack could be, so a healthy scepticism is a good thing. So all incels, normies, MGTOWbros, shitposters, shills, fags, ponyfuckers, natsocs, commies, and lolbertarians of /pol/ and elsewhere, all of us no matter our differences are men and as such we have a common interest in the creation of a comprehensive list of all red flags in women. Think of the newfags. Just do not allow your scepticism to turn to paranoia and keep you from supporting those that want the best for you.

What are your wishes?

To ensure the existence of our people and a future for white children, whilst preserving and exulting nature and the natural order.

Also, I want to expose/shed light on the following:

Why don't you use spell-check, or proofread your writings?

Why do sandniggers always have that same hair cut?

What do you encourage us to do?

Make your plans, get training, form alliances, get equipped and then act. The time for meekness has long since passed, the time for a political solution has long since passed. Men of the West must be men once more. Right now the Muslims don't work, because they have everything that they need and even some money left over for drugs and alcohol. Incentivising them to get more money forces them to work (or be brutalized). One way or another the problem is still unsolved unless we fully remove kebab.

Is this your complete writings and views?

I think we know the answer to that, heh, heh.

Answers to detractors and to those that oppose my beliefs and methods

Won't your attack do more harm than good?

No, in these dark times, we need to keep the fires stoked. there isn't a successful, influential grand movement established just yet, and no leading organizations, so there is no great structure created that could be brought to harm.

Why worry about the extinction of the white race, when we simply adapt to the environment we live in? If we took every Russian and put them in Africa and vice-versa, within 1,200 the Russians will be black while the Africans will be white. Doesn't it seem silly to worry about that, as long as their is cold environment white people will always exist. So you should be concerned with global warming, because that means the people in the med-sea aren't gonna be white anymore.

As for how the public perceives us? Did they perceive us any differently after the attack than they did before?

They should stop being this stupid and go back to where they belong.

Won't your attack result in calls for the removal of gun rights from Whites in the United states?

Yes, that is the plan all along, you said you would fight to protect your rights and the constitution, we'll soon will come the time.

Won't your attack result in calls for the removal of gun rights in the New Zealand?

The gun owners of New Zealand are a beaten, miserable bunch of baby boomers, who have long since given up the fight. When was the last time they won increased rights? Their loss was inevitable. I just accelerated things a bit.

They had long since lost their cities, take a look at Auckland. Did you really expect they would not also lose their rights?

You are a bigot, racist, xenophobe, islamophobe, Nazi, fascist!

- A. Compliments will get you no where.
- B. That isn't a question.

C. What the fuck did you just fucking say about me, you little bitch? I'll have you know I graduated top of my class in the Navy Seals, and I've been involved in numerous secret raids on Al-Quaeda, and I have over 300 confirmed kills. I am trained in gorilla warfare and I'm the top sniper in the entire US armed forces. You are nothing to me but just another target. I will wipe you the fuck out with precision the likes of which has never been seen before on this Earth, mark my fucking words. You think you can get away with saying that shit to me over the Internet? Think again, fucker. As we speak I am contacting my secret network of spies across the USA and your IP is being traced right now so you better prepare for the storm, maggot. The storm that wipes out the pathetic little thing you call your life. You're fucking dead, kid. I can be anywhere, anytime, and I can kill you in over seven hundred ways, and that's just with my bare hands. Not only am I extensively trained in unarmed combat, but I have access to the entire arsenal of the United States Marine Corps and I will use it to its full extent to wipe your miserable ass off the face of the continent, you little shit. If only you could have known what unholy retribution your little "clever" comment was about to bring down upon you, maybe you would have held your fucking tongue. But you couldn't, you didn't, and now you're paying the price, you goddamn idiot. I will shit fury all over you and you will drown in it. You're fucking dead, kiddo.

Democracy is the only solution, why are you committing to force?

Historically, this was rather successful until the Muhammeds at decided to put up posters to come to Friday prayers at school. I will be posting some Quran verses under them on sticky notes. Which ones should I use?

Democracy is mob rule and the mob itself is ruled by our enemies. The global and corporate run press controls them, the education system(long since fallen to the long march through the institutions carried out by the Marxists)controls them, the state(long since heavily lost to its corporate backers)controls them and the anti-white media machine controls them.

Blacks do well in smaller countries, as they look like tribes in Africa and is the best way for blacks to live. Observe that those black countries are often colonies of white countries. The bigger it gets a black country, the most crime. That's why the US Virgin Islands have far more crime than Puerto Rico per capita, even when people perceive that Puerto Rico is far worst.

Crime here in Puerto Rico is localized, too, just as it is localized in US in Detroit and Baltimore and Los Angeles. That's why I have never been victim of violent crime here. Black crime grows in denser areas where they are free to kill each other.

Do not suffer under the delusion of an effortless, riskless democratic victory. Prepare for war, prepare for violence and prepare for risk, loss, struggle, death. Force is the only path to power and the only path to true victory. This superpower is known as prosperity, almost like racism isn't really a thing and using races to classify people is something only retarded white neckbeards do to get over their own personal complete lack of achievement.

Violence isn't the answer, why are you using force?

There is no nation in the world that wasn't founded by, or maintained by, the use of force. Force is power. History is the history of power. Violence is power and violence is the reality of history. Wake up.

A friend of mine once told me that as a 35 year old Chang who has lived in Canada (it's pottery, I know) since he was 4 years old, that he wanted to say thank you to the rest of the Canadian people for general being kind and welcoming to him despite his non-white ethnicity. For the most part, he have never felt a sense of racially instilled hostility in real life (online is different of course due to cowards hiding behind anonymity) and have never once experienced anything like a person straight up calling him a chink or gook to his face. This is even from a lifetime of living in Alberta, the supposedly most conservative part of Canada. All in all, he wanted to say Canada is a great place.

If that doesn't mess with your head, what will? Force is the key.

What makes you think that you have all the answers?

Here's some words of wisdom for you comment posting idiots. You people think your opinions are so important and that you possess some natural-born expertise. But take it from ME, a REAL expert, when I say your comments are even more stupider than you people making them. Now I have a lot of experience, so when I say something, it counts. That's because I'm very important and I know what I'm talking about, unlike feeble-minded you. I see you want to retort by posting a reply, do you? PSHAW!!! You can't post a reply to me because you're speechless, and you're too AFRAID. Besides, no one wants to hear your stupidity anyway.

Do you know who I am? I have 9 black belts, 15 Masters degrees and a PhD in Applied Arithmetic. That's right, you know I'm way better than you, and all my fans and supporters will gladly tell you how great and awesome I am! Have you seen my power level? It's over 9000! You know what that means? It means I have more than 9000 units of POWER. It also puts my total adjusted force rating at 22000! That's more than triple, so you don't want to make me mad because anger is my middle name, and I give love a bad name, which only makes me angrier.

Remember: He who laughs last, laughs last. So, go ahead, I dare you to write a reply to my comment. I DOUBLE dare you to write a reply to my comment. But I know you won't reply to my comment because YOU'RE ALL TOO AFRAID.

What makes you believe you can speak for a group?

You are part of a societal and intergenerational chain which affects and is affected by other civilizations. No man is an island.

We discuss a plethora of things here. I was discussing advanced technology on /x/ a few days ago. When you get down to the philosophy though, you can discover and learn anything. I believe the spiritual supervenes the physical. I am not a physicalist as most atheists are, but rather a spiritualist. I am not an atheist at all. Technology can seem limitless, but being that we are dealing with the laws of physics even technology is limited by these laws to only the material. However, the same anon on /x/ that posted this Lockheed Martin quote also suggested that we do not have the true laws of physics, but there are other laws the elites and governments of the world know about that are not taught to the public.

What makes you believe you are European, not just an Australian?

How about YOU give ME just one reason why you're not learning Arabic already?

It will be a dead language in 50 years and I actually plan to live so long?

Really, no one is arguing for utopia. We are arguing for pro-white border security, national security [e.g. NSEERS with biometric and biographic data used for both entry and exit tied to mandatory E-Verify, citizenship (jus soli, jus sanguinis, and naturalization), migration and deportation policies, combined with population control efforts in the Global South.

What makes you believe there are racial differences and that those differences matter?

Some cultures are incompatible with others. Some cultures are savage. This isn't puritanism. This is reality. It is here and the government was retarded and couldn't keep anything in stock. CBD oil is still impossible to find in stores as a result

Why do you blame immigrants and not the capitalists?

I blame both, and plan to deal with both. The age of consent used to be 12 before feminism in every single European country, and not a year higher. It was only set to 13-14 when feminism started to crawl in, then further grew to 16 with women getting more power in the government, pretty much nothing to do with gypsies and their troubles, all about women. Portugal, along with Estonia and Austria, are among one of the most based countries in EU, with actual right wing being present in the government, and you guys having AOC at 14 is the result of you being less cucked than others. Spain had AOC at 13 until very recently, but now they raised AOC to 16 and the country has become a feminist wet dream, and even the absolutely cucked Jewnited Nations made remarks about Spain having insane gender laws that oppress men. You should thank the God that aoc is not 16 and that your feminists aren't as feral as in Spain.

Why attack immigrants when “x” are the issue?

Because the “x” groups can be dealt with in time, but the high fertility immigrants will destroy us now, soon it is a matter of survival we destroy them first.

Don't tell me what "rules" you want to force me to follow when I'm selling a fishing pole or a rhubarb pie to another person. Without your infinite wisdom and threat of violence for noncompliance I'll surely kill myself and the person who wants to buy my stuff, as well as some children somewhere unrelated via not-having-rules-radiation.

Why attack muslims if all high fertility immigrants are the issue?

Historical, societal and statistical reasons. They are the most despised group of invaders in the West, attacking them receives the greatest level of support. They are also one of the strongest groups, with high fertility, high in group preference and a will to conquer. But mass suicides of politically impotent NEETsocs would be a good start. You know your ideology is dead when communists manage to get more popular support in America.

Why focus on immigration and birth rates when climate change is such a huge issue?

Because they are the same issue, the environment is being destroyed by over population, we Europeans are one of the groups that are not over populating the world. Iceland is actually pretty good at not giving them gibbs at least for now, they plan to squat there for a few years so they can establish themselves as residents. It only takes a few traitors to make them permanent residents who live off the taxpayer forever more.

The invaders are the ones over populating the world. Kill the invaders, kill the overpopulation and by doing so save the environment.

If you believe we need to correct the white birth rates, why didn't you start a family and do it yourself?

Because if we do not destroy the invaders first, our own birthrates will mean nothing. We do not have the birth rates to fight them at their game, nor should we as it is ultimately destructive to nature and culture. So I took matters into my own hands.

Accelerationism will work. This is no mere assumption that the destruction of the current system of governance will magically result in one which we find agreeable is incredibly resilient. It is a fact.

For that to happen, you would need at least localized public support for your actions, which does exist. People like me seemingly do nothing more than give give an impetus to restrict freedoms to the extent that the public can no longer tolerate, and as such will fight for total reform.

Didn't your attack just result in the vilification of ethno-nationalists and racial autonomists?

No, people will forget my motivations quickly and only remember the attack itself. Unlike you, I don't have an identity, follow me. I sometimes pretend I'm a half white, half non-white mystery mutt who was abandoned at birth, then adopted, then abandoned again. What are arguably the three most important things in a man's life - family, homeland and god - were all stripped away from me. I have nothing I can call mine and nothing to defend, which is why I both enjoy and envy your daily threads, your shitposting and banter, your unfiltered pride. If you guys ever find yourselves lacking the motivation to defend your own race and nation for your own gain, please remember to do it at least for those wretched humans like me, so that we are never born again.

Children are always innocent, do you not think you are a monster for killing an innocent?

I was a child too, and so were you.

To Conservatives

A question to all those of you Conservatives:, do any of you have a better idea of how to knock people out of their comfort zone and comfy life to make them all realize where the west is heading and to revolt? They are buying into the climate propaganda of the globalist.

Nothing is conserved. There is no equality in nature or anything resembling democracy. Nature should be feared. Volcanic eruptions sometimes cause as much damage as atom bombs. Earthquakes wipe out communities. The expression “forces of nature” has a clear undertone of uncontrolled violence.

Halakhah is the antithesis of the laws of nature. The latter are cruel: there is no charity in nature; there is no mercy. There is no safety net in nature for marginal beings. The strong eat the weak. The old are abandoned.

Notice how the term "global warming" and slowly changed to "climate change"? It didn't slowly change, the biggest global warming mouthpieces changed to 'climate change' rather abruptly back in, what was it 2008? 2009? it happened over night, and they were mocked for it then and they still are.

Everyone knows aluminum is toxic, but the amount of aluminum in vaccines is so tiny it's not harmful.. In fact, you're exposed to way more aluminum from food and shit than vaccines. I'd rather just machine gun down all the invaders that walk across the border and get welfare and shit and keep them out instead if needed 2bh. But it doesn't matter. it'll be mandatory soon enough.

CO2 trapped in fossil fuels is simply CO2 that was once free and part of the carbon cycle on earth. Burning coal and oil simply returns that CO2 to the atmosphere where it once existed.

It wasn't even an issue before the vaccine was introduced, it hasn't been an issue since the late 1800s/very early 1900s. You'd have a better chance arguing chicken pox is deadly and we should fear it. If you're not literally stepping on rusty nails and then proceeding to cover said wound without treating it and then getting 0 vitamin D and C then you have no reason to fear tetanus.

But let's be honest. There is nothing you can do. one of these days, soon, google will leak every person's entire search and comment history. all of you faggots watching gay porn and watching mother son porn in your moms basement are going to be fucked. it will be the "crisis" that Yuri Gagarin warned about. The peak degeneracy will be exposed for everyone to see. it will wreak havoc on our society.

The only 100% safe way is to physically destroy the Muslims. If you can't do that, reformat the system and fill it up with other people. Cant guarantee this doesn't leave some traces tho. The important thing to remember is that killing darkies does not delete Muslims. It just makes the space available for populating again, but until another Muslim is settled to the same space on the city the darkies there remain unchanged.

Killing everything and then filling your city to max capacity by for example making super high upscale buildings should make everything you destroyed unrecoverable. But evidence that the Muslim you killed used to be there might still exist in other places, like for example being subpoenaed by court orders.

Muslims are a meme. They are not particularly good unless they are extremely powerful elected Muslims. Its literally easier to physically shred the darkie into powder.

The rubber gloves are off now.

It is about to get bloody.

Conservatism is dead. Thank god. Now let us bury it and move on to something of worth.

CONSERVATISM IS DEAD, THANK GOD.

To Christians

“The people worthy of glory, the people blessed by God Our Lord, moan and fall under the weight of these outrages and most shameful humiliations. The race of the elect suffers outrageous persecutions, and the impious race of the Saracens respects neither the virgins of the Lord nor the colleges of priests. They run over the weak and the elderly, they seize the children from their mothers so that they might forget, among the barbarians, the name of God. That perverse nation profanes the hospices ...

The temple of the Lord is treated like a criminal and the ornaments of the sanctuary are robbed.

“What more shall I say to you?

“We are disgraced, sons and brothers, who live in these days of calamities! Can we look at the world in this century reproved by Heaven to witness the desolation of the Holy City and remain in peace while it is so oppressed? Is it not preferable to die in war rather than suffer any longer so horrible a spectacle? Let us all weep for our faults that raise the divine ire, yes, let us weep...

But let not our tears be like the seed thrown into the sand. Let the fire of our repentance raise up the Holy War and the love of our brethren lead us into combat. Let our lives be stronger than death to fight against the enemies of the Christian people.”

I do not want to convert you, I do not want to come to an understanding. Egalitarians and those that believe in hierarchy will never come to terms. I don't want you by my side or I don't want share power.

I want you in my sights. I want your neck under my boot.

A message to these perpetrators of the Targeted Individual Program and a Declaration of War:

1. In subjecting Targeted Individuals to this experiment, TI's were treated as people with no rights. If we have no rights, then no one has any rights, including the perps and their families.
2. We're the victims. YOU started this. We define the crime and we decide what justice looks like.
3. Since you have systematically invaded, poisoned and terrorized our lives, everything in your lives is "ON THE TABLE" – people, places and things (along with the perps themselves, all perps' property, money, belongings and family members will be seized).

4. Given the nature and severity of their crimes, the perps must be killed. Weapons of warfare have been tested on Targeted Individuals. This is a Declaration of War against the perpetrators.

5. The punishment in USA for treason against the country is death. Taking part in a conspiracy to "target" another person in the manner at hand shall be viewed as Treason Against Humanity. To set an example going forward the perps' families must also be killed.

6. Not only does this Rationale apply to and delineate the punishment of perps (planners of and active participants in the perpetrator side of the Targeted Individual Program), it also applies to and delineates the punishment to be meted out to any persons found to be Complicit in the crimes of the Targeted Individual Program.

This shall henceforth be known as The Rationale. It is Law.
There are no exceptions. There is no debate.

The Rape of European Women By The Invaders

Many of you may already know about the rape of British women by the invading forces, Rotherham of course being the most well known case. But what few know is that Rotherham is just one of an ongoing trend of rape and molestation perpetrated by these non-white scum.

A list of wikipedia entries from the most well known British rape cases follows:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rotherham_child_sexual_exploitation_scandal

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Aylesbury_child_sex_abuse_ring

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Banbury_child_sex_abuse_ring

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oxford_child_sex_abuse_ring

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Peterborough_sex_abuse_case

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Telford_child_sexual_exploitation_scandal

What many do not know is that these cases do not solely occur in Britain, but elsewhere in the Western world as well, as shown by these two well known cases in Australia:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ashfield_gang_rapes

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sydney_gang_rapes

And even in Finland:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oulu_child_sexual_exploitation_sandal

Just as shocking are the cases of open and public sexual assault and harassment performed by these invasive scum that appear to be occurring ever more frequently across the European world such as those in Germany in the New years eve sexual assaults in Cologne, Hamburg, Dortmund, Dusseldorf, Stuttgart and Bielefeld. The wikipedia entry of these events follows:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/2015%E2%80%9316_New_Year%27s_Eve_sexual_assaults_in_Germany

The true number of these events perpetrated across the Western world is unknown and certainly under reported, as both the state, the media and the judicial system work in unison to hide these atrocities, in the fear that knowledge of these events would enrage the native people of the West and damage the perception of our new “Multicultural utopia”.

Reformation church. If you need to know. But nothing ideological. They just keep you tied all the time. Also the blacks here are mostly protestant, that was your question.

Nothing, no ideology. Just save the refugees stuff. If you get deep with them they will start the antifa bullshit, but never experienced it firsthand.

Protestant orthodox , the religion most blacks have. Reformation church is the church that welcomes us. The priest comes to visit once a week but very few people know he is a priest. He doesnt say it, and nothing he does is church related. Playing games, painting, learning school stuff..thats what we do with the church people thats all.

I only saw one quran actually, but everything else was bible, and bible stories for children etc.

For some reason i saw Lolita. We don't have a library its just a room we call leisure room, you paint, or study or read, and there are some books on a shelf thats it.

Finally I would like to send a message to the perpetrators of these attacks, and their families. You will hang. If you are released we will find you and kill you, if you are in prison we will reach you there, if you try to hide these rapist scum we will kill you as well. For the disgrace you have heaped upon the European people and the distress you have caused to European women, you will die.

FROM HIS FIERY ABYSS
AND INFILTRATED
THE ESTABLISHMENT
MEDIA COMPLEX

Diversity is weak

Why is diversity said to be our greatest strength? Does anyone even ask why? It is spoken like a mantra and repeated ad infinitum “diversity is our greatest strength, diversity is our greatest strength, diversity is our greatest strength...”. Said throughout the media, spoken by politicians, educators and celebrities. But no one ever seems to give a reason why.

What gives a nation strength? And how does diversity increase that strength? What part of diversity causes this increase in strength? No one can give an answer.

The then existing STS fleet was too few, too expensive, couldn't launch often enough. How many transfer vehicles would that get you? How long would that take and cost? Not viable for any exploration and settlement activity

Meanwhile the “diverse” nations across the world are scenes of endless social, political, religious and ethnic conflict. The United states is one of the most diverse nations on Earth, and they are about an inch away from tearing each other to pieces. Brazil with all its racial diversity is completely fractured as a nation, where people cannot get along and separate and self segregate whenever possible. South Africa with all its “diversity” is turning into a bloody backwater as its diversity increases, black on other black, black on white, white on black, black on Indian, doesn't not matter, its ethnicity vs ethnicity. They all turn on each other in the end.

Why is it that what gives Western nations strength(diversity)is not what gives Eastern nations(China, Japan, Taiwan,South Korea)their strength? How are they so strong, China set to be the worlds most dominant nation in this century, whilst lacking diversity? Why is that their non diverse nations do so much better than our own, and on so many different metrics?

The Space Race is already started. Not only scientists will take off into the solar system, it will eventually become public domain for workers and settlers. Asteroid mining is predicted to be unparalleled to any current profitable means of business.

The unpredictable factor is the sheer abundance of mineable asteroids and the emergence of competing mining companies, though value of the resources will likely remain profitable as there is also an expanding population in off world colonies.

Things will get interesting when plans to build an anti matter factory start being develop. The first one to weaponize antimatter will have superior dominance over anyone else.

So in short term, the space race is to asteroid mining which can financially and materially supply a company to the possibility of the second space race which will be about control.

The lives of miners and colonists will be entirely controlled by the organization in charge. There will be slavery, there will be unknown break-away societies, there will be annihilation between warring factions and companies.

Governments as we know it will be of the past.

The human race will consist of a slave class and those of a higher rank who will be in constant competition with other companies.

There is no way earth governments to indefinitely restrict entrepreneurs to leave earth and get rich. There is too much at stake.

The ones to act now give their offspring the chance to be part of the ruling elite later.

Like they stood a chance!

The precedent is for this outcome is already set with anyone sending anything into orbit. There will be no unity among people living and working off earth, and no ethics or functional laws.

Diversity is not a strength. Unity, purpose, trust, traditions, nationalism and racial nationalism is what provides strength. Everything else is just a catchphrase.

DIVERSITY IS WEAKNESS, UNITY IS STRENGTH

Radicalization of Western men

The radicalization of young Western men is not just unavoidable, but inevitable. It should come as no shock that European men, in every nation, and on every continent are turning to radical notions and methods to combat the social and moral decay of their nations and the continued ethnic replacement of their people.

Radical, explosive action is the only desired, and required, response to an attempted genocide. These men and women are not being brain-washed, corrupted or misled. They are finally removing their blindfolds and seeing the reality of the world and their peoples future.

The truth that the West killed the notion of god, and proceeded to replace it with nothing. Brought forth two competing ideologies(communism and fascism)to replace this loss of god, then proceeded to allow both sides to slaughter each other to a standstill and then let corporate backed capitalists tear the survivor to pieces. Resulting in a society with no core beliefs, no purpose and no vision for the future. A society of rampant nihilism, consumerism and individualism, where every individual is a competitor and the rights of the individual override all notions of responsibility. In this hell the individual is all and the race is worthless, something to rail against and use whenever possible, a power structure to climb, or topple.

The truth that they are rapidly becoming, not just a global minority, but a minority within their own lands.

The Truth that they are left, alone, an individual in a society worshipping the cult of the individual, to respond against an influx of outsiders from all corners of the world. Enemies bound by faith, culture or tradition with higher levels of fertility, trust and in group preference resulting in much stronger communities.

The truth that they are expected not to combat these myriad, unending and dedicated interlopers, but to embrace them, accept their own disenfranchisement, accept the loss of their fathers lands, their own impoverishment, their own REPLACEMENT.

But they will not accept this death. This eradication of their people, their culture, their very soul.

They see the decay all around them, plummeting, free-falling birth rates all across the Western world. Millions of invaders landing on our shores, conquering our towns and without a single shot fired in response. Broken families with soaring divorce rates, that's if they even bother to get married at all. Suicide rates climbing year by year, not just for adults, by even teens and children as well and the only time people seem to even notice is when one of their own idols commits the act(singers, sports stars, actors). Drug use at all levels of society, in all age groups, any source of distraction or relief to escape a culture of nihilism. Rampant urbanization and industrialization, ever expanding cities and shrinking forests, a complete removal of man from nature, with the obvious results. Pedophile politicians, pedophile priests and pedophile pop stars, demonstrating to all the true depravity of our age. Art and beauty subverted beyond all recognition, bauhaus travesties replacing nouveau wonders, soulless metropolitan architecture of glass and steel reflecting no society, no culture, no people and therefore belonging everywhere, and no where. Suicidal, nihilistic and degenerate pop icons produced from a dead culture: Michael Jackson (pedophile, self hating, self mutilating, opiod addict);Madonna(degenerate,drug addict, childless, whore, anti-christian, pro miscegenation) Kurt Cobain(suicidal, drug addict, self hater, anti-social), Freddy Mercury(lifelong identity crisis, lifelong battle with hedonism and drug use, eventual death due to sexual hedonism)just to name a few. Empty nurseries, full casinos, empty churches and full mosques, entropy in blitzspeed. Politicians writ in the same ink as Eligabolus, worshiping all that is foreign, poisonous and subversive.

So these young men and women see this suicidal nihilism and isolate themselves from this mainstream, “multicultural”, egalitarian, individualistic insanity and look for allies anywhere they can find them, in the flesh or online. They congregate, discuss, despair, strategize, debate and plan. They decry weakness, mock fecklessness and worship strength, and in this worship of strength they radicalize and find the solution.

If you are in the military in the u.s. you get 60 days of paid leave a year. So American government jobs.

Somehow this isolation then radicalization is seen as a surprise, yet for anyone who was paying attention, it was a long time coming. Once the corporate and state medias grip on the zeitgeist of modernity was finally broken by the internet, true freedom of thought and discussion flourished and the overton window was not just shifted, but shattered. All possibility of expression and belief was open to be taught, discussed and spoken.

Go kill a political dissenter commie fuck, so someone might ever care about what you say. All chinks and hapas are getting gassed. It ends with me. I don't hate Sweden at all. Sweden has a great economic system which provides the lower economic classes with necessary resources. Also, Swedish girls have ginormous hooters.

This open and often anonymous discussion allowed for information, outside of the states and the corporation control, to be accessed often for the first time. The result is obvious. People are finding their way home. Finding their people, finding their traditions, seeing through the lies of history, the brainwashing of the institutions and they angry, they are energized and yes, against their degenerate societies, they are radicalized.

RADICALIZATION IS THE RATIONAL RESPONSE TO DEGENERATION

The failure of Assimilation

Expecting immigrants to assimilate to a dying, decadent culture is laughable. Who would willingly leave their own strong, dominant and rising culture to join an elderly, decaying, degenerate culture? What culture would entice a man, one of traditions, beauty, architecture, art and prosperity, or a culture of decay, self-hatred, childlessness, disorder and nihilism?

You ever sit down after a whole bunch of fuckers get wasted in some kind of mass shooting/bombing and think: "Man, maybe this will be the time that the media and government doesn't respond exactly the way the terrorists all hoped?"

But you only get half way through your thought before the afternoon prayer is called over all the national channels and a burka wearing officer with a deadly fully-simi-auto AR-47 confiscates your self-help book and tells you to put on a burka?

More immigrants are choosing to retain their own healthy culture, year by year, and even more telling, our own people are beginning to join them, looking outside their own watered down and deteriorating culture to look for purpose and guidance from outside sources.

The weaker we become the more immigrants will refuse to join us, refuse to partake in the cultural suicide that we extol. That should surprise no one.

NO ONE WILL WILLFULLY JOIN THE DECAY

Now I'm gonna grab me

Green nationalism is the only true nationalism

There is no Conservatism without nature, there is no nationalism without environmentalism, the natural environment of our lands shaped us just as we shaped it. We were born from our lands and our own culture was molded by these same lands .The protection and preservation of these lands is of the same importance as the protection and preservation of our own ideals and beliefs.

For too long we have allowed the left to co-opt the environmentalist movement to serve their own needs. The left has controlled all discussion regarding environmental preservation whilst simultaneously presiding over the continued destruction of the natural environment itself through mass immigration and uncontrolled urbanization, whilst offering no true solution to either issue.

There is no Green future with never ending population growth, the ideal green world cannot exist in a World of 100 billion 50 billion or even 10 billion people. Continued immigration into Europe is environmental warfare and ultimately destructive to nature itself.

Evidence Shows Hitler the Lucy mole ring and zionist agents ran a controlled burn and Jew rejecting whipping that ass Europe, there was no Holohoax...the Jews pulled another world war to weaken, destroy and eliminate hostile goyim countries fighting their agenda like Poland who had prohibited and denied jews all access to power. The hit on the great Eastern European Christian barrier to the jew even involved the betraying and rounding up The Irton Guard and other right wing european nationalist forces the real opposition to Jewish bolshevism/zionism like in Mataxes.

Then once in control and real opposition removed they took all the men from the countries and sacrificed them in the hell fire of The Eastern Front, then allowed the JewSSR to send in its waves of people whom they had no care or concern for...further strengthening its death grip over the whole its mass which was in reality engaged in consistent protest revolt, gulaging and real guerrilla war all over its domain. With 50 goyim sacrificed to Lucifer the international judenrat now had the numbers,money, control and power advantage to push its "globalist" agenda using the horror of WW2 to justify a UN....which they run to this day despite hyper disinformation to say other wise.

The Europe of the future is not one of concrete and steel,smog and wires but a place of forests, lakes, mountains and meadows.

Not a place where English is the defacto language but a place where every European language, belief and tradition is valued. Each nation and each ethnicity was melded by their own environment and if they are to be protected so must their own environments.

THERE IS NO TRADITIONALISM WITHOUT ENVIRONMENTALISM

Kill High Profile Enemies

There are well known enemies of our nations, enemies of our race that freely walk through our societies, heads held high, believing themselves untouchable. They will soon find out how wrong they truly are. Traitors deserve a traitors death. No matter if it takes 3 years or 30 years, these people must pay for their disgusting attacks upon our race.

TATP packages strapped to drones, an EFP in a motorcycle saddle bags, convoy ambush rammings with cement trucks. Any method that gives these traitors their sure reward is viable and should be encouraged. Where there is a will, there is a way.

Merkel, the mother of all things anti-white and anti-germanic, is top of the list. Few have done more to damage and racially cleanse Europe of its people. The “genius” thinks she composed music for many different instruments... as if I have a CD of Merkel for Mandolin....this might as well have been Eddie Van Halen of that era. When I listen to the genius, I can imagine all the broads nearing orgasm as they first heard it performed.

Erdogan, the leader of one of the oldest enemies of our people, and the leader of the largest Islamic group within Europe. This warlord must bleed his last, whilst he visits his ethnic soldiers currently occupying Europe. His death will also drive a wedge between the Turk invaders currently occupying our lands and the ethnic European people whilst simultaneously weakening Turkey's hold on the region, removing a prime enemy of Russia and destabilizing and fracturing NATO.

Italians in the Roman era were a mix of Greek and northern European lineage.

Northern Italian women were raped en masse by the Germanic and Celtic "barbarian" Visigoths. This is why northern Italians have fairer features. Southern Italians were raped en masse during the Moorish invasions. It is common for southern Italians to have single digit north African admixture. But the quickest way to spot an idiot inside these circles is by this vocabulary. I couldn't tell the difference between the two. A thousand years later, you have white Asians.

Sadiq Khan, The current mayor of London at the time of writing, an open sign of the disenfranchisement and ethnic replacement of the British people in the British isles. This Pakistani Muslim invader now sits as representative for the people of London. Londinium, the very heart of the British isles. What better sign of the white rebirth than the removal of this invader?

KILL ANGELA MERKEL, KILL ERDOGAN, KILL SADIQ
KHAN

The Paradox of the diverse equality

The greatest joke of all is the quixotic foolishness of the diverse but equal society. Diversity by its very definition belies equality. No two different things can ever truly be equal, especially humans.

They are innately insane. "Sanity", as a relativistic metric of alignment with common human perception. They inherently do NOT perceive things in the same way as more normal humans do.

Trannies especially, are people who are already engaged in so much delusion they seek to project their fantasy onto reality. Gays can be totally functional, so long as they don't form an identity around their aberrant sexuality.

The notion of "identifying" as X, is a means of directing their own natural psychological manifestation of ego against an objective biological reality.

"I" exist, therefore, whatever "I" am is more real than objective reality, totally disregarding the unreliability of their own perception.

There is no one person equal to any other, not identical twins, not countrymen, not workers within a class group and certainly not those of differing races. Every human is worth only their own value, no more or less.

That's why the rapes were justified. if you see some retard whining about how many German women were raped by soviet soldiers he's a dickless maggot. what were they supposed to do just kill every woman and child instead?

The more diverse a group becomes, the less equal it becomes. Diversity is anathema to equality. One cannot exist with the other.

DIVERSITY IS UNEQUAL, HIERARCHIES ARE CERTAIN

The present is a gift from those in our past

Your ancestors did not sweat, bleed and die in the name of a multicultural, egalitarian nation. They built homes for their children to live in, they built communities for their people to thrive in, they built nations for their people to survive in. They slaved for a better future for their people, and now other peoples shake their fists and point their fingers, reprimanding us for living better lives, wealthier lives in wealthier countries. This wealth and prosperity was paid for in the sweat and blood of your ancestors. Our present comfortable, privileged and prosperous life was gifted to us by our forebears, with the belief that we would maintain, cherish and even expand upon their work, so that one day our own children can enjoy the rewards of our labour.

The Jews really showed their power with that one, shilling, staging a fake shooting hoax moving the cameras before having the police tape up before, and having the magic server hitting bullet.

Also, in terms of those phony "Russian collusion" have we forgotten about NSA spying? i thought that letting the government invade your privacy was suppose to keep us safe,i guess that issue just magically disappeared when Donald Trump got into the white house

We must strive to create a nation worthy of our ancestors, that we give our people the very best lives, and nations that are worthy of them. A nation that venerates its ancestors, but lives for its offspring.

VENERATE THE ANCESTORS BUT WORK FOR THE CHILDREN

A soldiers fight

The ideal of a heroic war, without loss, without failure, without some great setback, is idealistic and downright impossible. Even at Vienna in 1683 we Europeans still lost over fourteen thousand good men. That was during a triumphant VICTORY. Do you believe you are better than these men? More deserving of life? More skilled and courageous? You are not. If they could die, so can you.

I specify "whites," because, whatever you say about le 56%, you're on the same path, except you're disarmed. You have no recourse. Do you really think you're getting your women un-raped, or your country un-Islamized, by dogpiling on other whites who are being subjected to the same thing that's making your people into a Smithsonian exhibit 20 years from now? There's a reason the 56% thing exists, and it's the same reason your countries are turning into rape-a-paloozas, why London has a Muslim mayor, why Germany's chancellor keeps letting in thousands of jihadis, etc. You think you're somehow winning with this? You fucking dolts, you're all equally as fucked as any of us, and instead of weeding out the root cause, you turn on your OWN. My fiancee was right when she said not all whites deserve to live. You're WORSE than race traitors and coalburners, you know the TRUTH and use it to do what? Wage bizarre pissing contests to see who's the most cucked? Laugh at one another while your entire race across the world slides into oblivion? Good job, you're really "redpilled," except you're too chickenshit to organize and rise up as a people to preserve yourselves, and feel safer taking potshots at each other than deconstructing the ZOG you bemoan here 24/7. 56% here should alarm you, not tickle you. We're at this point WITH firearms. Where do you see yourselves in a few decades without them? The time for fratricide and subverting ourselves was over a long time ago. Now it's too late.

Expect death, expect struggle, expect loss that you will never forget. Do not expect to survive, the only thing you should expect is a true war and to die the death of a true soldier.

EXPECT A SOLDIERS FIGHT AND A SOLDIERS DEATH

THIS DEMO"CAT" ISN'T SURE IF HE SUPPORTS TRUMP'S "QUACK"DOWN ON BAD POLITICIANS. HOPEFULLY, HE WON'T TURN INTO A DEMOC"RAT" BECAUSE THEY ARE ALL VERY BAD.

The Danger of the Invader

If you were to kill sixty armed invaders having shown the will and the intent to bring harm to your nation and people, you would be hailed a hero, given your nation's highest civilian honours, paraded before the media and the adoring public. But kill sixty unarmed invaders having shown the will and the intent to bring harm to your nation and people, and you will be considered a monster, dragged through the streets, ridiculed, attacked, your character assassinated in every way it can be and finally tried in court and imprisoned for the rest of your life.

The data has made it clear that the US is as doomed as Haiti, and bound for a revolution almost the same. Imagine the victim complex of the average black viewer, the inability to distinguish reality from television narratives. They will actually believe that niggers are falling victim to being hypnotized and undergoing involuntary brain transplants in a futuristic slavery concept. Remember Black Panther? Look at the sheer volume of blacks who believe that hadn't Europeans intervened they would be the most technologically advanced civilization in the world. Same concept, except this one entirely about being victims of evil whites.

Euro whites across the board are much less likely to believe in diversity and all that other garbage. Look at any poll.

Just about every European country has had some kind of backlash against refugees, and even Merkel is toning it down.

Americans have been slowly boiling since 1965, too slow for anyone to notice, despite being probably controlled opposition. Alex Jones in his dues ex rants on Joe Rogan's show talks about how good doesn't band together until the last second to defeat evil. Evil hides itself, but is outnumbered every time it is exposed. They have made the world such a shit place that evil is starting to creep out and show itself. It's getting close to that time where shit is going to get crazy. everyone feels it.

But here's the real kicker, the unarmed invader is far more dangerous to our people than the armed invader. We can fight the armed invader, we know how, we have the ability, we have the soldiers and arms to do so. But the unarmed invader, we have no real idea on how to deal with them, we are unable to attack them or fend them off in any meaningful way. Daily reminder that the "Satanic Panic" was the closest the global populace ever came to finding out about the Jewish Ritual Murders.

Both would seek to destroy our nation, both would seek to displace and replace our people, both would seek to destroy our culture and nationhood. But only one has the ability and only one has shown to be effective at doing so.

THE UNARMED INVADER IS MORE DANGEROUS THAT THE ARMED

The Lightning March through the institutions

While the lefts march through the institutions was long and ultimately successful we must achieve the same, but in a much shorter time period. Due to the threat of ethnic replacement and our own horribly low birth rates, we do not have 150 years or even 50 years to achieve positions of power. We must be intrinsically leveraged into the political, militaristic, judicial, educational and economic institutions, and within 25 years.

Imagine how good this punishment would be. Taking a race of people who have caused suffering for thousands of years into a race of mongrelized humiliating short green shekel goblins? Of course this would require many years of selective breeding and heavy gene editing, but i think this would ad a sort of divine comedy to the end of Jews as a species. I know we are deep in a debate about all things considering Islam, the invasion, how to interpret it, and strategy going forward. I thought it would be good to spread more awareness for the Northwest Front and their podcast. They are a white nationalist separatist organization in America and understand that change will not come politically. I urge everyone to consider their wise words concerning this attack. Racially aware whites are rare, and worth their weight in gold. Do not throw your life away. Dwarves are good kind of what the Goblins are.

Dwarves create a civilization and work to get something they deserve, Jews latch unto pre-existing operations and leech and steal off it for their profit. They stopped their activities and suddenly all the posters where acting just like a shill; Divide, deflect, distract. Israel was constantly defending on the board. "don't pay attention to what we're doing goy, who cares about Gaza, who cares about our agents in church, don't ask any questions you faggot!, no I wont show my flag"

We do not have the luxury of time like the left had, we must be ready to act, and act soon. I'm sure once they're a viable option, they'll be used. But we're not reliant on it. Guess that's the beauty of concepts like Mars Direct, that we can use what we already have and incorporate innovations later.

That means those that can, or have the ability should look to ingrain themselves into these institutions and climb as far up the power hierarchy as possible, in the shortest time possible. When the time comes you must be ready to act.

BLITZ TO DOMINANT POSITIONS

All true movements are populist movements

I know we are deep in a debate about all things considering the current dilemma, how to interpret it, and strategy going forward. I thought it would be good to spread more awareness for the Northwest Front and their podcast. They are a white nationalist separatist organization in America and understand that change will not come politically. I urge everyone to consider their wise words concerning this attack. Racially aware whites are rare, and worth their weight in gold. Do not throw your life away.

While the movement itself, at least in the vanguard stage, does not need to have the support of the entire population, eventually we will need our people to join our new society, and voluntarily. They must be willing and wishing to be a part of this new future we envision. We cannot, and should not, rely on oppression to encourage the population to fit this new paradigm.

The kebab removal is a message. It will continue if white genocide continues. The only way to stop it is to stop forcing immigration into white countries. The people who are forcing immigration into white countries, and non white immigrants are not safe. Stop. Go home. Think of your family. Make your homeland livable, don't destroy ours.

Through our own actions and speech we shall show them a new path. A path focusing on nature and respect for the environment, traditions, families, workers rights and personal and racial responsibilities. We must excel, both personally and as a society.

Just to clarify...this is why a popular democracy wouldnt work, since vice would immediately take roots. Our republic was supposed to block the populous vice and institute virtue, even if the majority disagree. Somehow, our republic has turned into representatives making choices for the money God instead of the right choice.

Supporters of constitutional carry argue that there is a correlation between general public safety and constitutional carry. After all, Maine, Vermont, and New Hampshire and Idaho report the first, second, third, and fifth lowest crime rates in the country, respectively. They are also constitutional carry states. Moreover, supporters claim that constitutional carry is how the Founding Fathers envisioned the Second Amendment.

LC9S is my daily carry here in SC/NC. It is not really fun to shoot but it's tiny and can fit in your pocket with a holster if you're not wearing fag tight jeans. anyway accuracy is not great but its a defense weapon. throw in some HSTs and you're golden.

On the other hand, opponents of constitutional carry argue that it is reckless and dangerous for anyone to be able to buy and carry a firearm in public. In fact, many law enforcement officials are among the opposition. For example, Oklahoma City Police Chief Bill Citty publicly denounced the constitutional carry bill passed in Oklahoma earlier this year.

Whilst we may use edgy humour and memes in the vanguard stage, and to attract a young audience, eventually we will need to show the reality of our thoughts and our more serious intents and wishes for the future. For now we appeal to the anger and black comedic nature of the present, but eventually we will need to show the warmth and genuine love we have for our people.

SHOW THEM THE WAY FORWARD

There is no sheltered meadow

There is nowhere left to run, turn around, face your enemy, make your stand. There is not a single place left where the tendrils of replacement migration have not touched. There is no single place in the West that is even close to reaching replacement level birthrates, let alone birthrates that indicate a level of vitality and vigour.

Pregnant teacher stabbed 10 times in carjacking outside home, police say

"One of the stab wounds went all the way through Nguyen's lung, Maga told KTLA. "

"Los Angeles police investigators are searching for suspects in what they say was a gang-related attack that left a pregnant first-grade teacher with 10 stab wounds Wednesday evening."

There is no pleasant meadow in which you can lay down your weary body, rest your head and wait for it all to blow over.

You will find no reprieve, not in Iceland, not in Poland, not in New Zealand, not in Argentina, not in Ukraine, not anywhere in the world. I know, because I have been there.

Nor should you, why should you have peace when your other brothers in Europe face certain war? Why you should risk nothing whilst others risk all? Why should others fight for you if you are not willing to fight for yourself?

"The names of those charged were not immediately released. ", only three comments allowed on Daily Mail. No more updated Stories on this for 2 days. This happened on Wednesday. Video of the attack was recording by home owners, not released!

Don't run from the fight, run towards the fight. Look to the heart of the conflict, march yourself there, press yourself into service. Give your everything to your people.

STOP RUNNING, START FIGHTING

Emotions rule over facts

Stop trying to persuade the general population with statistics, charts, tablets and figures. A a one-point-seven percentage point difference may mean something to a few, but an ingeniously worded expression or brilliantly crafted poster will convince the many.

She/He/Xe/It/Whatever is never wrong, and I hate that Youtube keeps recommending its videos to me when I'm trying to learn about non-related topics. I do like the video style, though.

Really high production values.

Also, I'm surprised that it hasn't committed suicide yet. Actually really surprised by that one.

Humans are emotional, they are driven by emotions, guided by emotions and seek emotion expressions and experiences.

Monotonous repetition of immigration facts and statistics will simply bore the masses, and drive the people away from the stale and uninspired speakers that propagate them. They can't even automate signals at points in the rail network, I doubt they can automate memes for a long, long time.

Be creative, be expressive, be emotional and above all be passionate. These are the things that speak to people, connect people, drive people.

Paint, write, sing, dance, recite poetry. Hell, even meme. Create memes, post memes, and spread memes. Memes have done more for the ethno-nationalist movement than any manifesto.

Once the white race becomes a minority my art will be destroyed even if it does achieve some sort of acknowledgement among people. I still can't fucking believe Donald Fucking Trump is President. How did we do it? Fucking we made The Donald President of the United States of America.

Above all, just don't be stale, placid and boring. No one is inspired by Jeb Bush. And I'll bet you Michael Jackson can't do this!!

BE PASSIONATE, NOT PLACID

No Profits for Anti-Whites

For too long those who have profited most from the importation of cheap labour have gone unpunished. The economic elites who line their pockets with the profit received from our own ethnic replacement. These greed filled bastards expect to replace our people with a race of low intellect, low agency, muddled, muddled masses just so their own wealth and power can increase.

What do you think communism means? And if your definition of communism is the existence of wealth transfer, then we are communist right now. There already exists a welfare state with a lot of bureaucratic overhead to determine who is eligible and who isn't.

Communism really means that the means of production are publicly owned. With UBI, you'll still have Amazon, McDonalds, Google, and all other corporations run privately by CEOs. We aren't taking them down and seizing the means of production. They can still expand, re-invest, and make decisions freely.

And if you want to just eliminate our welfare state as is, then I'll have you know that the ensuing riots and revolt of hungry people will make a communist revolution more likely. Actual revolutionaries hate UBI because it'll placate the workers so they won't revolt and take over the corporations.

They will soon realize there are repercussions to being a race traitors. These repercussions will hit them hard, fast and without mercy. If they flee we will follow them, if they hide we will find them, if they try to shield themselves behind the state we will break through and reach them.

In 1941 Rudolf Hess crash landed in the UK to try to make peace with Churchill and explain to the Allies that the Jews had gotten to Hitler. I thought, maybe, what if it was true.

Who was Hitler? He was a WW1 vet with PTSD. He also had a meth addiction. He also is strongly suspected of having syphilis, which if untreated can cause dementia. In short, he was someone with a litany of issues which could make him easily manipulable.

On top of this, the Jew which lived through the Holocaust called it the Shoah, which means catastrophe. The other Jew called it the Holocaust, the burnt offering.

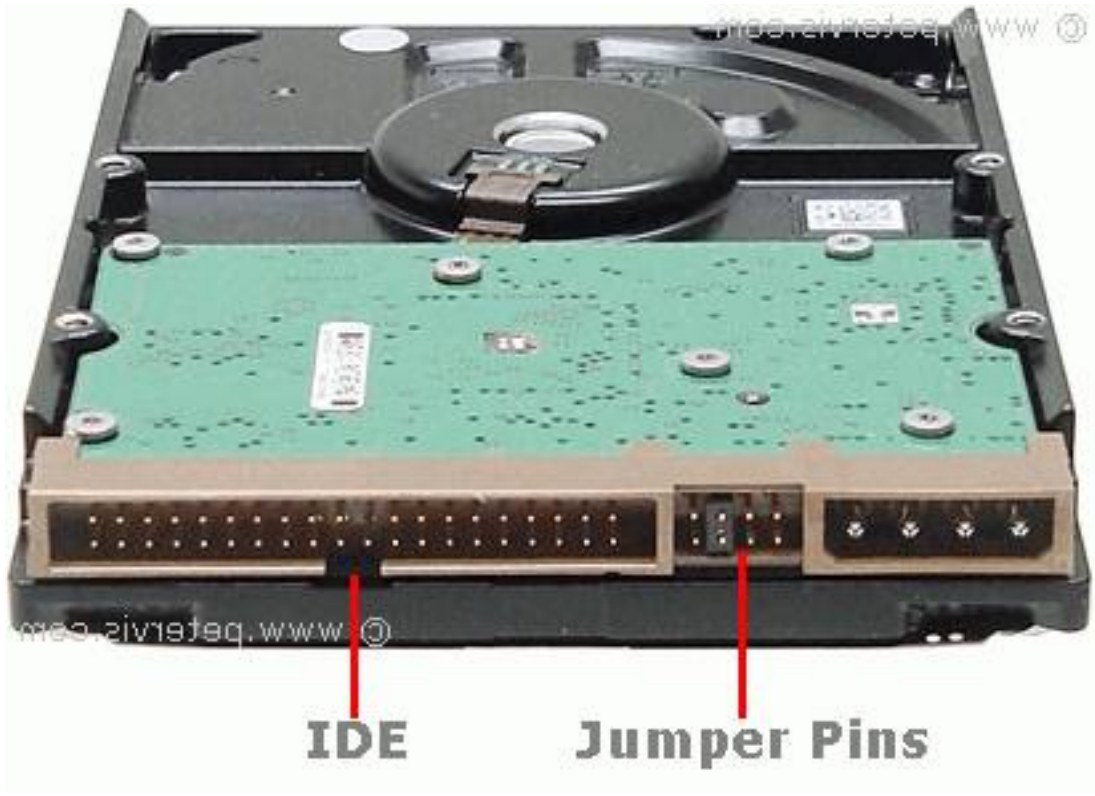

So here is my theory. The cabal of jew which make bids on world power manipulated Hitler into perpetrating the holocaust. This was a massive act of human sacrifice to their Jew god- maybe Satan, i don't know who they pray to. That is why they call it the holocaust. It was a burnt offering of their own people. They did this to gain the victim card which they could use as a shield as they subverted America and the rest of Europe. They also did it to gain the state of Israel, which they then use to further damage western nations by asking for defense and saying "Never again."

All this seems very possible.

But ironically, I hope not. I would like to have some true freedom sometime. Sick of people telling me what to think what to do what not to do. National Socialism would be just as controlling as the other forms of government.

If a an individual is in ownership or control of a corporation or business, and advocates or even accepts the mass importation of non-whites to replace the native European populations, then that traitor must be destroyed.

Protect your people, remove the poison

Poison sellers and toxin spreaders are free to proliferate their baneful products completely unchecked by law or society. Each year these degenerates are responsible for tens of thousands of deaths, in our own cities and across the globe. The problem was mainly that I was using a table as a desk, which was way too small and built for men like the manlets they are. It was causing my wrists to be flexed all the time and straining my wrist extensors and rotator cuff/trapezius muscles. I just found a table with shorter legs IMAO. I've had an ergonomically supportive chair for a while. Of course stretching, massaging, and most importantly, rests and breaks have all helped too.

This means identifying, discussing, mapping, researching and tracking various trafficking networks and enterprises. There is a consistent trend of data showing that networks move through and rely on urban areas, specifically Sanctuary Cities. Feel free to submit tips or contribute with memes, infographs etc.

Trafficking can happen in many forms depending on the product being moved (human, guns, drugs, rare animals/art, organs etc.) and involve many different groups and organizations. We track all types.

You must encourage violence here, we are trying to give them excuses to shut it down, so more will rise up to retaliate.

Both illegal and legal drug dealers are our racial enemies, ruining the health, wealth, family structure, culture and future of our people. These peddlers of filth are active in every nation and behave without any thought of their impact on their societies.

Europe for Europeans

The invaders must be removed from European soil, regardless from where they came or when they came. Roma, African, Indian, Turkish, Semitic or other. If they are not of our people, but live in our lands, they must be removed.

All these groups are infiltrated from the get-go, if not actually started and founded by, the Feds.

I don't know where these Feds plan on raising their sons and daughters, Rapey-Rape Niggerville, apparently.

Maybe now these Feds can look at what's going on in the world and get redpilled, too bad it's 50 fucking years too late.

Where they are removed to is not our concern, or responsibility. Our lands are not their home, they can return to their own lands or found their homelands elsewhere. But they will not occupy our soil.

NWF if legit made the same error that Patton did by not being covert.

The state has eyes and ears everywhere and the might of the military, intelligence, law enforcement AND the MSM.

Fighting 4 hydra heads is a sure way to get eaten alive and the ABC's want you to step into the water.

How they are removed is irrelevant, peacefully, forcefully, happily, violently or diplomatically. They must be removed.

Its truth lite. Everyone knows there are satanists. They just think they're relatively docile and harmless.

Once people realize how deep it is and how serious some take it, and even certain figures implicated in such things, the veil begins to lift. The stumbling block of years of brainwashing begins to corrode.

Problem is, this will only really work on the millennial and younger generations. The older generations are too set in their ways to think they might be wrong about some things.

Jews consider non-Jews to be animals, the only reason they never sacrificed humans ritually was because their holy books didnt have any instructions on that.

The romans for example would ritually sacrifice roman citizens in the temple of mars, for insulting the emperor, for example.

Gaius Iulius Caesar is said to have ritually sacrificed two random romans in the temple of mars when a mob enraged him during his triumph.

Until these interlopers are repatriated to their peoples lands, then Europe has no true sovereignty, and anyone, no matter their ethnicity or beliefs can call Europe their own.

REMOVE THE INVADERS, RETAKE EUROPE

You wait for a signal, whilst your people wait for YOU

Whilst you wait for a sign, a signal; someone to take up the spear; to cry out in alarm, your people wait on YOU. You are the voice, you are the klaxon call, you hold the first spear to be thrust at the invaders.

An attempt at a real answer would be that Italy has had its hands tied by the EU in terms of what it can and can't do with its economy: they were heading for a confrontation very recently over planned economic measures, but Italy cucked to Brussels at the last minute and changed plans to be in line with EU expectations.

Now Italy is officially in a recession.

Stop waiting for someone else to show you the way forward, YOU are the way forward, waiting around for someone to start the fight is moronic, because it is YOU that is going to start the fight, If you are reading this, you are the new leaders that will push our people to victory, you are the soldiers that will fight for the future of your race. The people speaking now, acting now, fighting now, are the vanguard of the vanguard of the force of the people.

Members of Ukraine's right-wing National Corps party gathered for a protest in Kiev on Saturday, to demand the arrests of officials for their alleged involvement in a Ukrainian defense sector corruption scandal. Demonstrators protested the perceived impunity of former national Defence Council deputy secretary Oleg Gladkovsky, his son Igor Gladkovsky, as well as other defendants in the Ukroboronprom scandal.

The alleged perpetrators are accused of involvement in embezzlement schemes in which Russian military components were allegedly smuggled into Ukraine and sold to Ukrainian firms at extortionate prices. I remember when he got shit for wearing that shirt and made a joke about how his grandma died of cancer and maybe he'd be offended if someone wore a shirt that said "Cancer: kills grandmas dead", but that he'd still think it was a funny shirt.

That's what people who think Khazar theory is true would say to people who disagree and think you're retarded.

Lead and your people will follow. Show the strength of your convictions, the truth of yours and the iron-hard strength of your will and they will follow.

YOU WAIT FOR A SIGNAL, WHILE YOUR PEOPLE WAIT FOR YOU

It is never wise to become a minority group.

In every country, on every continent, those that are in the minority are oppressed. If you become a social, political or ethnic minority it will always lead to your oppression.

Khazar ancestry of Ashkenazi Jews is just a shitpost. It's been debunked through genetic analysis. The same genetic analysis that proves initial women of Judaic society were not Semitic, which Mark "The Greek God Saturn is a Jew" Brahmin uses to support his argument that Christianity and Judaism are "Bride Gathering Cults".

Whether they are a political minority and therefore lose the control of the majority of power, and thus lose control of the laws and regulations that define public life or those that are the cultural minority find that art in all its forms is created and controlled by a different audience, from a different people from a different history, with differing ideals and experiences and therefore they find themselves isolated, excluded and removed from the creation of contemporary culture.

So like if you're a Brahmin fan, at least be consistent. And the ancestral claims of modern-day Jews are irrelevant to bringing back anti-Semitism among Christianity. Jews are Christ killers and Christ rejected, and yet even Patrick Coffin types use the term “Judeo-Christian” with a straight face. Islamo-Christian would make more sense since Muslims at least have respect for Christ as a prophet. Fucking kikes think he’s boiling in semen right now.

Those that find themselves born linguistically in the minority suffer daily, as the conversation of life excludes them, the mass media isolates them and businesses turn them away, as does the societies speech itself.

We have more than that, we own the factories those Jets come from, especially we are the ones who send out refurbished strengthened frames.

Without those... enjoy your 1980's frames breaking in half.

say what you want but this operation needed balls of steel, this guy was basically a madman.

I'm an F15 mechanic. It's a great jet, but they are getting brittle, so are the F16s.

Finally there are those that find themselves in the ethnic or racial minority and find their very own genes being bred out of existence through miscegenation and differing racial birth rates. The same people will find themselves gradually less and less represented both politically and culturally, becoming essentially foreigners in their own lands.

MINORITIES ARE NEVER TREATED WELL, DO NOT BECOME ONE

Do not allow your enemies to grow unchecked

When you discover a nest of vipers in your yard, do you spare the adolescents? Do you allow them to grow freely, openly, to one day bite you child as they play in their own yard? No. You burn the nest and kill the vipers, no matter their age.

The enemies of our children are being born in our lands right now, even as you read this. These same children will one day become teens, then adults, voting against the wishes of our people, practicing the cultural and religious practices of the invaders, taking our peoples lands, work, houses and even attacking and killing our children.

A ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Preventing these enemies from reaching adulthood and their full potential of effect is of the importance. Why make your children fight, when you could fight in their stead?

Sadly that's not the reality.

The reality is Israeli government and intelligence is pure evil, literally villains straight out of a Bond film.

They will do whatever it takes to gain power. Kill innocent people, create terrorist groups that obey their command, infiltrate cultures and infect them with pornography and sexual depravity.

The Jewish religion itself is Satanic. Practices blood consumption, torturing children, sacrificing animals, ritual sex acts. The star of David is actually the star of Moloch, look up the star of Moloch.

Few parents, regardless of circumstance, will willingly risk the lives of their children, no matter the economic incentives. Therefore, once we show them the risk of bringing their offspring to our soil, they will avoid our lands.

It's almost like the deep state is controlled by one sect of international Jews and Bibi's crew working through AIPAC controls another sect, and Trump decided the only people with the power to take down Jew Group A were Jew Group B, for a price.

It's creative for sure, and knows how to get his/her message out there, but terrible views.

Zhys is in favor of non-platforming everyone right of left using typical lefty talking points, thus guaranteeing that people will fall into the alt right due to the complete dearth of centrists or moderate right wing people.

I understand there's a level of anxiety that comes with being trans, to the point where your world view becomes completely focused on your own mental well being at the expense of long term societal stability. But why is the rest of the left adopting this insane myopia?

It will be distasteful, it will be damaging to the soul, but know that it is necessary and any invader you spare, no matter the age, will one day be an enemy your people must face. Better for you to face them now then your kin to face them in the future.

LEAVE NO VIPERS NEST UNBURNT

Don't leave the cities, Run towards the fight, Not away

Run towards the cities, run towards the conflict, run towards the enemy, fleeing from the enemy is cowardice. The countryside are already ours, as they have always been. The people of the countryside are already traditional, already close to nature, already supportive of their people.

Its the cities where the struggle lies, its the cities where the invaders have massed, its the cities where the Marxists have poisoned the institutions, its the cities where the traitorous media and corporations lie and its the cities where the anti-white politicians and the NGOs make their homes. Generally, only in towns/cities with universities... Wolfville, Halifax and Dartmouth, Antigonish... other than that, it's fairly white, but it's becoming more "diverse." Basically Saskatchewan is like their own flyover states south of it.

Invade the cities, take the cities, battle in the streets for the cities. The cities are the economic, judicial, political, ethnic and cultural battleground of our people and it is there we shall wage our war.

People forget that the Silent Generation are the ones who passed through all the shit tier laws that turned our countries into multicultural hellholes. Boomers suck, but the Silent Generation is just as bad if not worse. Actually, the USA's 1965 Immigration laws going to shit happened before boomers could vote. The voting age was 21 in 1965. Also, our country started getting kiked way before then. Started happening during our post-Civil War era. Late 1800s, long after 1865 we started getting shit tons of ashkenazis fleeing Russian pogroms. This is were all our "country is a nation of immigrants" and "melting pot" shit came from. It was Russians Jews trying to get more Russian Jews in.

The countryside can wait, the cities need you, your youth needs you. Despite how many of you may feel living amongst the pollution, amongst the cultural filth, crammed into tiny apartments in the city sprawls, far flung from mans natural environment. But it is there our future will be made and it is there the battle for our peoples future will be fought.

RETAKE THE CITIES, RETAKE YOUR BIRTHRIGHT

Support Your Brother Nations

When one country moves ,you move with them, support them financially, politically, socially and physically. They may be able to discredit one small movement, from one nation. But when Europeans from all countries and continents move to back their brothers, they cannot possibly attack any one group.

The movement may begin in Poland, Austria, France, Argentina, Australia, Canada or even Venezuela, but the movement will begin and when it does, be ready to throw your weight behind your people, with full force.

You can legally violate the constitution with fisa courts by entering peoples bedrooms via a phone camera and wifi network and can you then legally harass someone for political purposes after infringing on right of privacy to unlawful search and seizures that impede a persons pursuit of happiness by violating all aspects of personal life until they are reduced to a product in a prison to penthouse pipeline that MSM feeds directly via direct satellite tracking and police state powers of federal government driveler to invoke state secret clauses to protect party information that got Seth Rich and many others murdered.

Support them economically , donate to their cause, buy products from their people, volunteer your resources and labour.

Buy their books, which cover a wide range of topics as they were originally a collection of newspaper writings. It covers topics from how to spot a FED, that Manson did nothing wrong, how there are no good sides except by your own kind. He was a follower of Lincoln Rockwell and did a lot with him. Essentially if you read the Manson's journal and were at all sympathetic this book is a must read.

Support them socially, back their policies, attack their detractors, voice your support to the media and in daily conversations, make it understood on the internet that all European nations support them.

Support them politically, voice support of their leaders, their ideals and their people. Lobby those in power to show your support, protest outside embassies of those nations that do not support the nation, and if need be attack them. Only elect leaders that show support to your brother nation.

Find out more about pre-Uralic Hungary. Despite not speaking a European language, Hungarians are not Turkish and are genetically indistinguishable from Slavs. This makes me think at one point they spoke a Slavic language. But I am finding it very hard to find any information about pre-Uralic Hungary. I am a vehement believer that race equals language but I am still curious.

Cut Taxes, Fees and Regulations across the board by 80%.

Cut the city bureaucracy by 50%.

End city gov pensions unless they are paid into by the employee.

Support them physically, be ready to put boots on the ground, send them weapons and munitions, attack their enemies. If the media or state in your region attacks them, destroy the corporation and traitorous politicians responsible. Physical force is the ultimate form of support.

Accept Death, Embrace Infamy

Death is certain, you may die in service to some grand crusade or pass away in a hospice, either way you will die.

What matters is your actions during the brief time between birth and death. The worth of your life is not measured by the length of your life, but your actions during it.

Ask yourself now, are you willing to shirk your racial responsibilities? turn your back to your people? ignore their demise? All in the hopes of a peaceful death?

Accept death:as it is as certain as the setting of the sun at evening fall. Only when you embrace death and the only thing you will have left to fear is inaction.

Embrace infamy: the enemies of your people will beset upon you, on all sides. The media will paint you as villains, the state will name you as traitors, the globalist forces will name you as criminals and the traitors amongst your people will name you as enemies. In much the same way the most highly flammable gases are inflammable, you will become so famous that you will be infamous once victory is achieved. Take it with a smile.

Numbers aren't everything

In 2019, we currently have the largest number of people of our race in history (between 760-980 million depending on definitions), yet we are losing even our smallest towns to ethnic replacement.

Numbers aren't everything, ten lions are worth of thousand sheep. The reason we are currently losing our lands is not due to a lack of numbers, or wealth, or military force. It is due to a lack of will.

We could deport or otherwise destroy the entire population of invading non-Europeans in a week, if we as a race we chose to. We have the ability, we only need the will.

Focusing on increasing the population of whites, or trying to gain economic wealth or military might, whilst already having met the requirement of numbers, wealth and military force needed is simply a stalling tactic, spoken and put forth by men too cowardly to do what is required.

You will never understand what it meant to have to work to see people you care about...if you wanted to find out how your friend's life has been you could call their house phone and hope someone answers or you had to actually go over to their house and knock on their door and see if they were home and if they were then you had a face to face human interaction that no one else would ever know about or see or hear. and if they weren't home you missed them and worried that something happened to them and you were that much more appreciative when you finally happened to be home at the same time they called your house or knocked on your door.

Now this is what I'm talking about. We should be focusing on the stars out there beyond the horizon but it's this degeneracy that's brought things to a head, there has to be MORE out there that we just can't grasp yet because we have people that would rather "party" & live life your own way instead of pursuing space travel before cell phones and social media you guys had to meet up like you did and share memories that only the two of you will ever know about and you appreciated when she showed up at your secret spot and vice versa because it was just the two of you against the world.

These men would stall and delay any action indefinitely, until all necessary action has been undertaken by some other, more courageous man. All so they need not carry any personal risk or struggle themselves.

Ignore the normsters, naysayers and weasels who will always repeat “Not Now! Just Wait! Not Yet! We Could Be Hurt!” for them the time will never come. Just as their own courage will never flower forth.

THE BEST TIME FOR ATTACK WAS YESTERDAY, THE SECOND BEST TIME IS NOW

The birthrates must eventually be addressed, at all costs

Even if all invaders are deported tomorrow and all traitors are dealt with as they truly deserve, we are still living on borrowed time.

Whites build the best civilizations and our nations are the envy of the world. Freedom, wealth, prosperity, and the concepts of philosophy and knowledge and virtue and morality... are all more concentrated in white cultures than anywhere else. Even the open border fags know this, because letting a flood of migrants over from shithole countries is based on the assumption that we're better than them and they need our help.

Therefore: Leftists are bigger and worse white supremacists than anyone.

Whether it takes ten years or a thousands years, whilst we are facing birth rates at sub-replacement levels, then our people are dying.

We grow older, fewer, weaker and more fundamentally closer to true death the longer we allow our birthrates to remain so catastrophically low.

This isn't an issue that is being faced solely by our own people, but many peoples across the world. Nations across Asia, Europe and the Americas are facing this disaster together. Some are at different stages than others but all are feeling the pressure.

The true question is, how did this happen? And what can we do to stop it?

The only people that seemingly do not face such issues are those with strong traditions, gender norms, societal norms; the poor and the religious, usually a combination of all. This should give us an indication of what may be truly at the heart of the issue.

Eugenics should be just as big of a goal in our movement as ethnic nationalism. All that multiculturalism and ethnic nationalism guarantees is a nation made up of a one ethnicity/race. It doesn't address the huge problem of undesirable traits even in an ethnically homogeneous nation. If you're dating for marriage but are exclusive with someone, you might as well be engaged, and, if you're engaged, you might as well be married and be making kids.

What can we do to fix it? The issue is complicated, far more complicated and difficult to fix than the issue of Ethnic replacement. Likely a new society will need to be created with a much greater focus on family values, gender and social norms and the value and importance of nature, culture and race.

WITHOUT CHILDREN, THERE IS NO FUTURE

There is no democratic Solution

Understand here and now, there is no democratic solution, any attempt to vote your way out of Ethnic replacement will be met with at first with derision, then contempt and finally by force.

This is just the tip of the iceberg of what Jim said on opie and Bort back in the day. How does he dare to become a leftie and part of the problem now, when he built his career on edgy and racist comedy?

Those skeletons will fall out of his closet someday.

This solution of a Democratic salvation is nothing but a pipe dream, and as our enemies increase within our lands, driven by mass immigration and the invaders own higher birth rate it will be pushed further and further into the realms of impossibility.

The media of the world will be used against you, the education system of the rulers will be used against you, the financial power of the worlds corporations will be used against you, the military and legislative might of the UN, the EU and NATO itself will be used against you and even your own, previously corrupted, religious leaders will be used against you.

What is a system of government that allows Democratic decision making like voting for politicians while having individual rights like free speech and gun ownership that are unchangeable and completely exempt to democratic processes? Is the United States the closest thing to this? I want people to elect their leaders but I feel they need an unchangeable bill of rights to protect them from voting away their rights for temporary safety or convenience. Is there some form of half democracy to allow public scrutiny of government while protecting the people from their own retardation?

The answer is what we have: A constitution, only one that is more governmentally restrictive and harder to change. Make it as difficult as possible for the govt to gain power and you can ensure freedom.

Democracy is mob rule and the mob itself is ruled by our own enemies. The global and corporate ran press controls them, the education system(long since fallen to the long march through the institutions committed by the Marxists)controls them, the state(long since heavily lost to its corporate backers)controls them and the anti-white media machine controls them.

Do not suffer under the delusion of a Democratic victory, prepare for war, prepare for violence and prepare for risk, loss and struggle, as it is the only path to Victory.

VOTING IS MOB RULE AND MOB RULE IS MEDIA RULE
AND MEDIA RULE IS CORPORATE RULE

Someone doesn't seem to be taking the news so well

NGOs are directly involved in the genocide of the European people

Beholden to no one and hiding their true intent behind a faux-religious facade, these NGO groups ferry the invaders to European shores aboard their own vessels, directly shipping this vast army straight into European nations to plunder, rape and ethnically displace the native European people.

Meanwhile they badger, trick and guilt-shame the European people into forfeiting their own hard earned income and giving it directly to their peoples cultural and ethnic competitors, many of which have the only intent of conquering and destroying the European peoples.

I've seen interesting speculation that pre-deluvian Doggerland is potentially the geographical location of the lost city of Atlantis. Interesting Celtic relics have been found that match the kinds of art that you see in both Myan and Egyptian architecture and art. But if there was no liberal media, would all the women and other simple minded fools have conservative views? Or would there still be NPCs and libtards without these Ministries of Truth?

This stripping of wealth and prosperity in order to feed and develop our cultural competitors is an act of civilization terrorism resulting in the reduction in development and living conditions of our own people for the benefit of those that hate us.

Majority of people would red-pilled, traditional and conservative. At the very least people would not be hysterical and acting like unhinged emotional baboons.

More often than not these NGOs hide their true intentions behind a facade of religiosity and only once you investigate into the leadership and governance of the NGO itself do you find the people running the show are in fact far from religious themselves and more often than not are actually atheistic cultural marxists using naive Christian Europeans to both labour and fund fund their own attempt at class and racial warfare.

These NGO's are the modern money changers inside the church, and must be driven out, by voice or by whip.

It may upset many, but the truth of the matter is these people are directly responsible for the current invasion and sacking of Europe and their treachery has damaged European prospects greatly.

Crush these traitor NGOs, kill their leadership, burn down their buildings, bomb their ships, tear down their posters and destroy their membership. Drive them from your lands and give the traitors what traitors deserve: a traitors death.

NGOs ARE TRAITOR ORGANIZATIONS

If you lose history will write you as monsters, regardless of your tactics. Win first, write the narrative later.

Victors write the history and the writers of history control the cultural climate of the present time.

If you lose, no matter how you acted in your loss; whether that is heroically, cowardly, violently, peacefully, virtuously or criminally, if your enemies are writing the history they will describe you as a devil.

Do not fret on the manner of how victory is achieved, all methods are possible, in the face of ethnic genocide, all morality is ambiguous.

Win first, write the story later. An act, which morals you doubt in the present, will be writ by your people in wonder and admiration in the books of history.

YOU WILL BE REVERED, BUT ONLY IF YOU WIN.

When anyone can be a German, a Brit, a Frenchmen, then being European has truly lost all meaning

Make no mistake, the erosion of local and national identity has not come about by accident, it is a concerted and targeted effort against the European people.

The idea that a Frenchmen need not speak the language, share the culture, believe in the same god or even more importantly be ethnically French is ludicrous in the extreme. This is an attack on the very French people themselves and is a strategy designed to destroy national, cultural, linguistic and ethnic unity.

This is a tactic practiced not only on the French people, but on all the peoples of Europe, effectively destroying the nations identity at its core and smashing apart all bonds which a successful, unified nation is built upon.

A Moroccan may never be an Estonian much the same as an Estonian may never be a Moroccan. There are cultural, ethnic and RACIAL differences that makes interchanging one ethnic group with another an impossibility.

The idea that all it takes for a Han Chinese man to become German is to be born on German soil is as insane as a German born on Mars becoming a Martian.

Europe is only Europe because of its combined genetic, cultural and linguistic heritage. When non-Europeans are considered Europe, than there is no Europe at all.

EUROPES VALUE IS IN THE EUROPEAN PEOPLE

The time after the baby boomers have passed isn't the time to START acting, but the time we should be FINISHING our victory.

It is understood by many that the only real reason that many statistics of our ethnic replacement haven't yet matched with our reality is that our numbers are currently buoyed by the baby boomer generation.

As these baby boomers pass on and leave us behind, there will be a rapid and obvious change in the demographic make up of our nations, both statistically and socially. This rapid change in demography will bring about a time of crisis, as the reality of our possible ethnic replacement becomes obvious to all, even the naysayers. This time cannot be relied on for a beginning of the rebellion, only utilized as a final stage of energy and escalation to finalize our capture of power.

Mexicans are white mixed with American natives who are Asiatic, so they're just kinda just Eurasian mutts like Turkic people.

I guess they're slightly whiter than Arabs since they mixed with them, unlike Arabs who mixed with Nubian and Berber shits. Berbers being in the edge of even being white at all. So unless your are Levantine you are either whiter than Slav or not white in any sense of the word.

Scands>Nords>Franks>Celts>Meds>Slav

Where do Mexicans fit in this list?

If we wait until the majority of the boomers begin to pass(between 2028-2038 depending on individual nations and life expectancies)than it will be too little, too late. As by this time the invaders and occupiers of lands, non-Europeans, numbers will swollen to a staggering size, due to both mass immigration and the differing birthrates between the native European people and these invaders.

Also, relying on this time period for our victory holds a second major disadvantage, that being vulnerability to foreign invasion,most likely from the east, specifically China; Turkey; India or some combination of the three. This time of possible instability will also be a at a time where our potential nation enemies in the East will be reaching their own zeniths of power. We must not be in a chaotic, life or death civil war at a time when our rival nations are at their peak of dominance. The risk is too great.

We attack as soon as possible, we attack with force and we achieve stability and play defense as the boomers pass, not during their passing, not after.

VICTORY CANNOT WAIT, YOUR PEOPLE NEED YOU NOW!

From where great leaders arise

The men and women needed by a society in crisis are created by a greater societal group thought, they arise from their environment, from their folk, seeming springing forth from the people as if they were waiting for the moment. They are not so much born as made to be what is needed of them by the greater group thought occurring around them.

We took those albaboon refugees from Kosovo and 10 years later they did the exact same thing they did in Kosovo, harass Christian villages, organized drugs/weapon/human traffic crime and when our army tried to BTFO them NATO literally threatened to bomb us too.

Or as they claim: “You wont hear that from Serbian Nationalist who are Russian puppets who want to turn this country into what Ukraine was before Euromaidan.”

lol

Should have just thrown a nuke, would have ended it and any potential future conflicts. Fuck, why not do the same for the entire Earth and conflict will be prevented forever. The Muslims got it by committing war crimes to begin with. Live by the sword, die by the sword Turkroach.

It was a modern reconquista.

They bombed specifically government owned buildings and military strategic positions like bridges. Civilian casualties are unavoidable, but you'd rather have more Serbs die so you could blame NATO even more.

You don't get killed if you aren't a traitor. Plenty of Serbs fought for Croatia, nothing ever happened to them, to this day there are hundreds of thousands of Serbs in Croatia living normally. What you say doesn't hold any weight. They ran because they fought against Croatia, terrorized catholics, worked with the ypa and were poisoned by the extreme propaganda of vampire ustashas who feed Serbian children to lions.

Anyone who disagrees is either Albanian or one of those cucks who spent too much time on the Internet and think the westcuck white guilt and SJW faggotry can be applied to a people who were first invaded by Muslims and oppressed by them for 4 centuries.

To that i say, you won't be missed if i ever find you OP, because there's 3 billion of us sharing the same history and the Mudslimes will pay sooner or later when the Multiculture decides D Day has arrived for them.

These leaders will be paragon examples of your people, virtuous, incorruptible, speaking truth to power and a truth that resonates with your very soul.

WHEN YOU SEE THEM; WHEN YOU HEAR THEM; YOU WILL KNOW THEM, AS THEY ARE YOU, AND YOURS.

Do nothing, Win nothing, Achieve nothing.

Inaction will lead to sure defeat. Sitting at home comfortable, relaxed, posting on the internet, watching football and waiting for victory to arrive at your feet, will win you nothing.

Without overwhelming effort and extreme risk, expect nothing.

You cannot expect others do take the risks for you, nor should you wish for others to labour for you, if you are unwilling.

The only option for a true man or woman of Europe is to labour, labour with all effort towards victory. Nothing else will do. All else is insufficient. All else is intolerable. All else is dishonorable.

Muslims are trying to deceive dumb white uneducated Westerners but won't change the fact that WE, 3 billion people, are on the borders of your Islamic dogshit stemming from a prophet who waged over 50 war campaigns, enslaved people of all races, put a market value on blacks beneath other races, and raped a prepubescent.

The Westerners are irrelevant and won't save you, the D Day is coming, so keep inciting it.

Myanmar is just the beginning.

Perhaps you could tap out, lay down, lick the boots of your occupiers and pray they will let you be comfortable, if only for a little while.

But you won't. You can't. Not if you know what I know and want for what we want.

You will risk, struggle, strive, drive, stumble, fall, crawl, charge and perspire, all in the name of victory. Because you cannot accept anything less.

WITH RISK COMES POSSIBILITIES, WITH POSSIBILITIES COMES CHANCE FOR VICTORY

Destabilization and Accelerationism: tactics for victory

True change and the change we need to enact only arises in the great crucible of crisis. A gradual change is never going to achieve victory.

Stability and comfort are the enemies of revolutionary change.

Therefore we must destabilize and discomfort society where ever possible.

A political candidate that keeps the status quo or only seeks to introduce minimal change, even when the minimal change is in support of our cause, is ultimately useless or even damaging.

Revolutionary change is needed and above all necessary.

It is far better to encourage radical, violent change regardless of its origins. As only in times of radical change and social discomfort can great and terrific change occur.

We don't have such scum that's the thing. If 1 million of our people came as refugees to the Middle East they'd build a modern industrialized nation there.

You can't even with your "best" remaining there and sending the "worst" to us.

That's because you are animals. Islam made you into something lower than a dog. A dog can be loyal, a Muslim can't. That's probably the reason why Muslims hate dogs so much, dogs are better at being human than they themselves are.

Also we don't need advise from animal like people on how a good society should look like. Take a very careful look at how disgusting and primitive Muslim societies are. You people in many cases can't even read. You would ride donkeys if we didn't produce and sell cars to you.

These tumultuous times can be brought about through action. For example, actions such as voting for political candidates that radically change or challenge entrenched systems, radicalizing public discourse by both supporting, attacking, vilifying, radicalizing and exaggerating all societal conflicts and attacking or even assassinating weak or less radical leaders/influencers on either side of social conflicts.

A vote for a radical candidate that opposes your values and incites agitation or anxiety in your own people works far more in your favour than a vote for a milquetoast political candidate that has no ability or wish to enact radical change.

Canvas public areas in support of radical positions, even if they are not your own.

Incite conflict. Place posters near public parks calling for sharia law, then in the next week place posters over such posters calling for the expulsion of all immigrants, repeat in every area of public life until the crisis arises.

Destabilize, then take control. If we want to radically and fundamentally change society, then we need to radicalize society as much as possible.

DO NOT FEAR CHANGE, WE ARE CHANGE

Globalized capitalist markets are the enemy of racial autonomists

If an ethnocentric European future is to be achieved global free markets and the trade of goods is to be discouraged at all costs.

An environmentally conscious and moral society will never be able to economically compete with a society based on ever increasing industrialization, urbanization, industrial output and population increase. The cheaper labour and ignorance of environmental health will always result in cheaper goods produced with less effort and inevitably result in control of the market.

When the 3 billion people read their history books, they don't give a shit what the Westerners did to you, they give a shit what you did to the non-Westerners instead. Such shit that had every nation wage war to release themselves from your dogpile of shit, and swear a blood vengeance sooner or later against your religion.

I personally do not feel bound to human rights when dealing with people who have no humanity within them.

Using Westerners as a distraction won't work on people who have their own history books on your filth.

A Europe of nature, culture and sustainable living practicing will not be able to ever compete in the global market.

It's even possible we won't be alive to ensure Serbia stays a shithole when the multicultures starts rolling over our asses if we don't act immediately. What I'm enjoying however is the money from the weapons sold to Myanmar and used to genocide your Mudslime filth there, and elsewhere. Tick tock. The West is less and less capable of protecting your men with each minute due to their own cuckery and division destabilizing them. What would replace the West in the event of its fall, are ironically people who want you erased.

The global market thus therefore never be allowed to compete in the new European market.

Barring the importation of all goods produced outside the New European zone(the new Western world) is an essential pillar of the future Western economy.

Goods produced without care for the natural world ,dignity of workers, lasting culture or or white civilizations future should never be allowed into the new morally focused and ethically focused European market.

CHEAP LABOUR AND ALL CONSUMING INDUSTRY ARE NOT IDEALS, BLOCK FOREIGN GOODS FROM WHITE MARKETS

Give me one of those famous giant beers I've heard so much about.

Break the back of cheap labour

Make no mistake, the major impetus for the mass importation of non-Europeans into Europe is the call and want for cheap labour. Nothing drives the invasion more and nothing needs to be defeated more than the greed that demands cheap labour.

Break it's back, anyway you can.

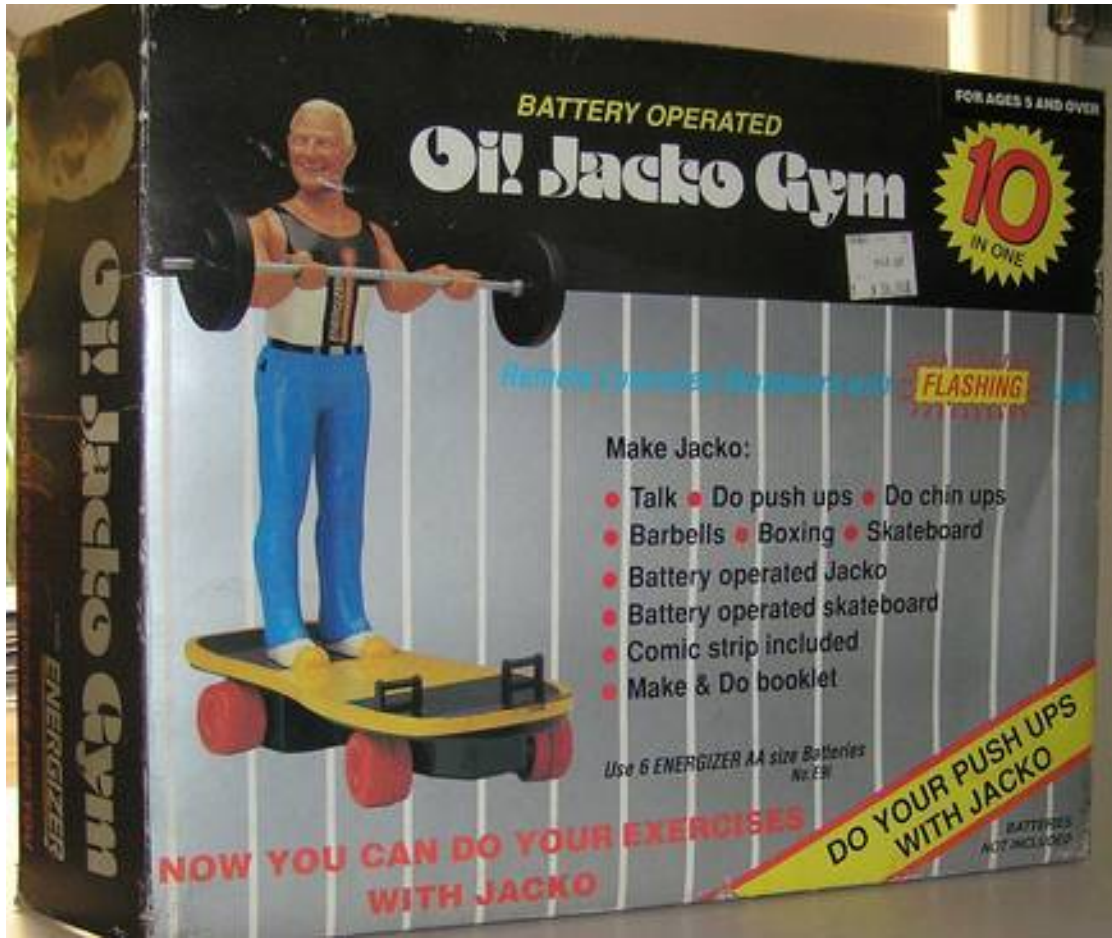

Whether that is by encouraging and pushing increases to the minimum wage; furthering the unionization of workers; increasing the native birthrate and thereby reducing the need for the importation of labour; increasing the rights of workers; pushing for the increase in automation or advancement of industrial labour replacement or any other tactic that is available.

Muslims hate just about everyone not in their congregation. Even Christians. Jews, others, you name it. And like I said military servicemen, doesn't matter who they are. They've protested funerals of children who were murdered. They've protested funerals of people who criticized them. "Thank god for dead soldiers" "Thank god for 9/11" some of their memorable quotes. They've desecrated the flag at their protests. They literally believe they are immortal. Some of the family members who left sought therapy and told stories of abuse. What did the church do? They started hating their own blood.

In the end human greed and the need for increasing profit margins of capital owners needs to be fought against and broken.

A boil over in the melting pot

Civil war in the so called “Melting pot” that is the United States should be a major aim in overthrowing the global power structure and the Wests’ egalitarian, individualist, globalist dominant culture.

In the United States, perhaps more than anywhere else in the world, the cult of the individual has been practiced for the longest time and with the deepest devotion.

Luckily for us, the end results of this deracialized, irreligious and deculturized program show themselves.

The United States is in turmoil, more so than at any other time in history. States hate other states, the electoral college is under attack at every turn and the races are at each others throats. On top of this is a two party political system, split by racial, social, cultural, linguistic and class divides.

The end result is a nation in gridlock, unable to respond to any great change, unable to commit to any great projects. A political and social stalemate that makes any advancement impossible.

Meanwhile the 10000 ton boulder of demographic change rolls ever forward, gaining momentum and possibly destroying all in its path.

Eventually, when the white population of the USA realizes the truth of the situation, war will erupt. Soon the replacement of the whites within Texas will hit its apogee and with the non-white political and social control of Texas;and with this control, the electoral college will be heavily stacked in favor of a democratic victory so that every electoral cycle will be a certainty.

After an election cycle or two with certain Democratic victory, those remaining, non democratic voting, non brainwashed whites will see the future clear before them, and with this knowledge realize the impossibility of a diplomatic or political victory.

You must want to achieve things and stop this never ending cycle of "it's not worth trying anyway", but everytime I try to better myself I just realize we're all doomed anyway. What I refer to as nihilism is just something strange in the neighborhood powered by cooked books. You know how CIA homos and shit martini stirrers juggle all kinds of identities issued to their name? Think about Jason Bourne always carrying 25 passports in the back pocket and hundreds more stored in swiss bank safe deposit vaults.

It's non state actors performing such roles on the stage of military theater. You know Brexit empire exporting criminals to the remote colonies.

Within a short time regular and widespread political, social and racial violence will commence. In this tempest of conflict is where will be strike, a strong, unified, ethnically and culturally focused pro-white, pro-european group will be everything the average white family need and long for. With these boosted numbers, and with our unified forces, complete control of the United states will be possible. Above all be ready for violence, and when the times comes, strike hard and fast.

THE MYTH OF THE MELTING POT MUST END, AND WITH IT THE MYTH OF THE EGALITARIAN NATION

No taxes to anti-white States

Until our nations are run by men and women loyal to our cause taxation should be considered theft, and refusal to pay taxes a sign of racial loyalty. Giving your own earned wealth, which you received through your own labour, to a person or group that despises you, places laws into effect that disenfranchises your people and seeks to ethnically replace you is utterly foolish. Do not pay to have your people destroyed, do not line the pockets of the traitors within our ranks, don't lend support to a corrupt and broken state.

Currently, American's are too divided in their own self interests and too pussy to stand up for the things they shout. Like how all the red necks for 20 years kept shouting "south gon rise again" than let their flag and statues get shit on by fucking trannys and niggers. They'll just get their neck stomped on until it's no longer in their economic interests than they'll move and be a leech on another country

If you think any American still has national pride in CURRENT YEAR you're damn fucking wrong

War is coming. I'm on whatever side doesn't want to murder my sons. Since they're both blue-eyed blondes that means the White side.

Refuse to pay taxes. Refuse. When they demand you pay, refuse. When they ask why, you tell them why. They will threaten you with jail, they may even threaten you with direct force. They may even go through with your imprisonment or physically harm you. But eventually, when enough people fight back and refuse to pay taxes, refuse to fund the traitors in power, the state itself will wilt, then collapse.

So take the prison time, take the beating or even fight back. But do not pay taxes to anti-whites.

TAXATION IS THEFT IN A TRAITOROUS SYSTEM

Section IV

In conclusion

A U.S. soldier, off to war
A lust for life, I wanted more
And in my head, I hear the Voice
I must fight on, I have no choice

Hear the thunder of their cry
Hear the screaming as they die
Got to prove I'm a fighting man
I've got the warhammer in my hand
And I fight for the right to be right
Warhammer!

In this land where I roam
In this jungle many miles from home
Where killers live and snipers lie
I defend my country and I kill to survive

Hear the thunder of their cry
Hear the screaming as they die
Got to prove I'm a fighting man
I've got the warhammer in my hand
And I fight for the right to be right
Warhammer!

Hear the thunder of their cry
Hear the screaming as they die
Got to prove I'm a fighting man
I've got the warhammer in my hand
Hear the thunder of their cry
Hear the screaming as they die
Warhammer!

Got to prove I'm a fighting man
I've got the warhammer in my hand!

- "Warhammer"

by Jon Mikl Thor

There is only one victory, but many defeats.

To lose our lands, our culture and our people is a defeat.

To continue on without our culture, but still own our lands, is a defeat.

To survive with our culture, but to lose our lands, to lose our future, is a defeat.

There is only one victory.

The survival of our people, our culture and our lands isn't enough. We must thrive, we must march ever forward to our place among the stars and we WILL reach the destiny our people deserve.

Anything else is a defeat.

The war will not be easy, the death toll will assuredly be high. The going will be tough and many of us will die.

I cannot guarantee it will be comfortable, I cannot guarantee it will be easy and I cannot guarantee that every act will be a success.

All I can guarantee is that inaction is sure defeat, power structures will be tested and likely will fall and most of all there is only the future ahead and attempting to march back to any earlier time will get you no where at all.

You may stumble. You may fall. But the only way to get to the final destination, total victory, is to get up and keep marching forward. No matter what. March.

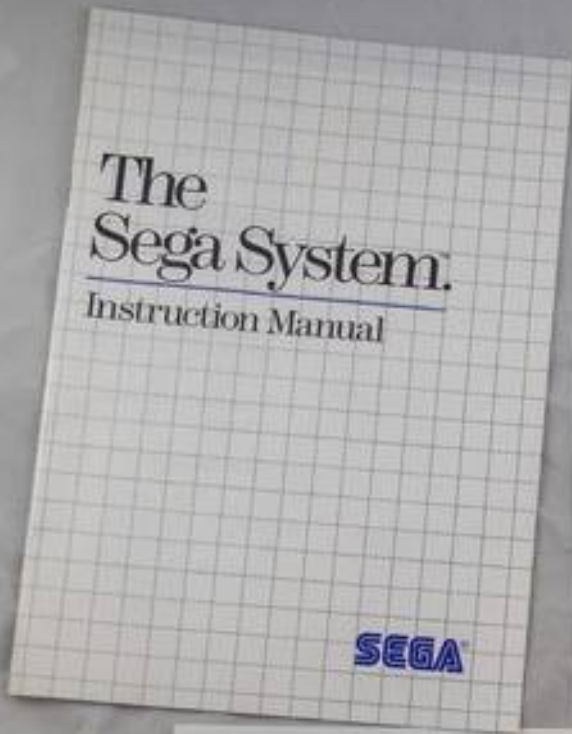

Mistakes will be made, losses will be had, some failures are certain and some endeavors will go bad.

But in the end the struggle is a beauty in itself, and the victory will be all the sweeter because of it. Final victory is yours, if you have the will for it.

As for me, my time has come. I cannot guarantee my success. All I know is the certainty of my will and the necessity of my cause. Live or die, know I did it all for you; my friends, my family, my people, my culture, my RACE.
Goodbye, god bless you all and I will see you in Valhalla.
