Count on Andis to deliver packaging that's bold, elegant and inspiring—packaging that moves product.

"Best For" copy clearly indicates what the tool does best.

Actual-size product photos facilitate product comparison without opening boxes.

In-use photos communicate product advantages.

New "Green Fusion" look joins other Andis product families that are packaged to meet demands of niche markets and specialized categories.

Simple icons guide the shopper to the right product for use on head or face.

"Kit count" helps shoppers understand what's included and the value of the total package.

MERCHANDISING

We blended eye-catching style with self-serve content and packaged it up.

At Andis, we're always seeking ways to do things better, from product performance to processes and the services we provide. So it's no surprise that our packaging should evolve as well. We've made it easier to compare products, explore features and understand benefits, all to make shoppers become buyers—faster.
