ASSISTANCE FOR PRIVATE BUSINESSES AND NONPROFITS
Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Grants Emergency Support to Nonprofits in higher education, the arts, and humanities	N/A – Private Funding	Up to $200 million in grants nationally for 2020	501(c)(3) nonprofits in higher education, the arts, and humanities	Grants to provide emergency support to non-profits in higher education, the arts, and humanities, to help shore up struggling institutions during the global COVID-19 pandemic. Mellon will focus its grantmaking on elevating and undergirding institutions in the arts, culture, humanities, and higher education that are systemically under-resourced; steered by diverse, farsighted leadership; and courageously intent on expanding the possibilities of artistic exploration and social justice.	None, inquiries accepted on an ongoing basis	Application process starts with submitting an inquiry to the Foundation. If Foundation staff find that the proposed grant fits within the Foundation's grantmaking priorities, staff will invite a grant proposal through the portal and will then work with applicants to develop the final proposal. Inquiries concerning a proposed grant should be made through the Foundation's grantee portal, Fluxx (https://mellon.fluxx.io). More on the Foundation's grantmaking policies: https://mellon.org/grants/grantmaking-policies-and-guidelines/
Federal Reserve Main Street Lending Program	Federal Reserve Action	$600 billion in loan purchasing by the Fed	Small and mid-sized businesses employing up to 10,000 workers or with	The Federal Reserve established the Main Street Lending Program (Program) to support lending to small and medium-sized businesses that were in sound financial condition before the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Program will operate through three facilities:	Ongoing	Federal Reserve Bank of Boston's Main Street Lending Program Forms and Agreements website for Lender registration: https://www.bostonfed.org/

Application is through an eligible lender	the Main Street New Loan Facility (MSNLF), the Main Street Priority Loan Facility (MSPLF), and the Main Street Expanded Loan Facility (MSELF). Structure: To implement the Program, a Reserve Bank will set up a special purpose vehicle (SPV) to purchase 95 percent participations in loans originated by eligible lenders. Lenders will retain 5 percent of the loans. U.S. businesses are eligible for loans if they meet either of the following conditions: (1) the business has 10,000 employees or fewer; or (2) the business had 2019 revenues of $2.5 billion or less. Loans would have a four year maturity, and principal and interest payments on the loans will be deferred for one year. Operational Status: Lender registration is now open. Registration instructions and the form loan participation agreement, form borrower and lender certifications and covenants, and other required form agreements can be found on the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston's Main Street Lending Program Forms and Agreements website. The Federal Reserve is currently working to create the infrastructure necessary to fully operationalize the Program.		supervision-and-regulation/supervision/special-facilities/main-street-lending-program/information-for-lenders/docs.aspx Once the Program is operational, small and medium-sized businesses interested in the Program can apply for Program loans by contacting an eligible lender.
