About your claim

eBay claims

Must be accompanied with PayPal statement or bank/ credit card statement for the item and the item site sale page. We also require the auction page including item number. Please make sure that you have included your e-mail address.

Proof of posting

A Certificate of Posting must be obtained for International Signed For and Airsure at the time of posting. For all other postings a Post Office till receipt can be obtained. Business customers can also produce a copy of your company's International Despatch book.

You can either hand this form in at any Post Office branch or send it to us free of charge to: Royal Mail International Team, PO Box 740, STOKE ON TRENT, ST1 5XZ GREAT BRITAIN

Before you sign, date and send this form, please check...

- If you are claiming for a lost item, is it 25 working days since the item was posted? This is the minimum time needed to complete the full international delivery process and includes the time taken for items to return to the UK in the event of non-delivery abroad.
- Is it less than 6 months since the item was posted?
- Have you attached your original certificate or proof of posting? We cannot accept copies
- Have you attached your proof of value for the missing or damaged item?

- Have you attached any other information/paperwork you think is necessary?
- Have you kept a copy of all documentation you are sending?

Make sure you are not claiming for prohibited items. It is your responsibility to check that items sent are not prohibited. Call 08457 740740 if you are unsure. Please note: If a packet contains a mixture of prohibited and non prohibited items, no compensation will be offered.

Declaration

I understand that a false claim for compensation could result in criminal prosecution. I declare that, to the best of my knowledge, the information I have given on this form is correct and truthful.

Date

I also undertake to advise Royal Mail Group plc immediately if any lost items are subsequently traced and refund Royal Mail Group plc any monies paid in compensation for these items.
