

TRADITIONAL OWNER SERVICES

Dja Dja Wurrung people recognise and respect our Ancestors' spiritual and physical association with the land. Many thousands of years have seen many thousands of Dja Dja Wurrung people walk, live and work the land.

This association has left the Dja Dja Wurrung people with a legacy, connection, obligation and responsibility for country that is an ongoing cultural inheritance.

INTRODUCTION

Under the Aboriginal Heritage Act 2006 the DDWCAC is the Registered Aboriginal Party (RAP) for the Central Loddon Mallee region of Victoria which includes the Central Goldfields area.

DDWCAC's Cultural Heritage Fact Sheet describes how the Dja Dja Wurrung protects and celebrates its cultural heritage. Cultural heritage work and fees are developed pursuant to the Aboriginal Heritage Act 2006 (Victoria).

REGISTERED ABORIGINAL PARTY

Registered Aboriginal Parties (RAPs) are recognised in the Aboriginal Heritage Act 2006 (the Act) as the primary guardians, keepers and knowledge holders of Aboriginal cultural heritage. The Victorian Aboriginal Heritage Council appoints RAPs as the parties who hold primary responsibility for cultural heritage decisions at a local level. Once appointed, RAPs have formal functions in the management and protection of Aboriginal cultural heritage, as well as being the contact people for general enquiries relating to cultural heritage in the appointed RAP area.

A RAP has an overarching duty to act in good faith in the carrying out of all of its functions and exercising its powers under the Act. RAPs are able to charge fees for their participation in their various consultation, assessment, recommendation and advisory roles under the Act. The Victorian Government has published¹ recommended fees and conduct guidelines rates for this work.

Office of Aboriginal Affairs Victoria: Protocols for Recognising Traditional Owners

In addition to the legal functions of RAPs set out under the Act, the Office of Aboriginal Affairs Victoria (OAAV) publishes guidelines and protocols for everyone to follow in order to properly recognise the Traditional Owners when holding a function or event. These guidelines recommend:

- The giving of an Acknowledgement of Country at the commencement of an event and provides a suggested form to take for the Acknowledgement
- That event organisers find out who the Traditional Owners are in the area, by referring to OAAV's map and table of RAPs (which lists the name and contact details of each Registered Party)
- Consulting with Traditional Owners to perform a Welcome to Country and other cultural ceremonies in appropriate circumstances
- Negotiating fees with the Traditional Owners performing a Welcome to Country and ceremonies such as traditional dance or smoking ceremonies.

Example: Acknowledgement of Country

'To start the official proceedings, I would like to acknowledge that we are meeting on Jaara (people) Country of the Dja Dja Wurrung Community. We acknowledge that their forebears are the Traditional Owners of the area we are on and have been custodians for many centuries and have performed age old ceremonies of celebration, initiation and renewal. We acknowledge their living culture and their unique role in the life of this region.'

¹ DDWCAC has developed fees for service in line with the Fees and Conduct Guidelines for Registered Aboriginal Parties, 2008, Aboriginal Affairs Victoria, Department of Planning and Community Development, Melbourne.
