2 Membership

2.1 Application

All applicants for membership in the Association must submit a completed, signed Application Form to Association Staff. This application must be accompanied by an application fee in an amount specified by the Board.

Application fees are non-refundable and non-transferable; unless the applicant is denied membership, in which case the fee will be returned. Applicants who do not complete the application process during the required time permitted will not be entitled to a refund. (1/2013)

2.2 Orientation Course

Applicants for REALTOR® membership in the Association are required to attend and successfully complete a course of instruction otherwise known as Orientation. Attendance at an Orientation Course is mandatory. Failure to satisfy this requirement within seventy-five (75) days of the date of application will result in denial of the membership application. New members will be provided two opportunities to attend an orientation class. If the second given opportunity to attend an orientation class is outside of this 75-day window, it will still be considered as meeting this requirement. Reapplication to the Association will require payment of a new application fee. In any event, applicants must participate in and pass the examination given at the end of the Orientation Course. In the event an applicant fails to pass the prescribed examination for REALTOR® membership, he will be given the opportunity to take it again after a waiting period of three (3) days from the date of testing. Additional retakes will be allowed every three days as necessary thereafter. (05/2020)
