WOW! COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF BROADSTRIPE'S CABLE MICHIGAN SYSTEMS

Charlotte, MI - January 14, 2012 - WOW! Internet, Cable and Phone announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Broadstripe's cable systems in Michigan. Broadstripe filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in January 2009. Its Michigan cable systems are available to 79,000 households in the Lansing, Flint, Grand Rapids and Detroit markets.

WOW! is a well-known and respected operator in Michigan, having served over 600,000 households in southeast Michigan for over a decade. To oversee the Mid-Michigan system, Ed Sesi has been appointed Vice President and System Manager by the company. "We're excited about expanding our reach into the Mid-Michigan area. And we're committed to being a part of the communities we serve," said Sesi. "Our philosophy to deliver an employee and customer experience that lives up to our name is at the core of how we operate. We are excited by the opportunity and realize there's a lot of work to be done to bring that philosophy to life. We will be providing ongoing communications to our customers and team members throughout the transition."

Based locally in Madison Heights, Michigan, WOW! has achieved the industry's highest independent recognition solidifying its commitment to delivering an experience that lives up to its name. The company has received a record fourteen J.D. Power and Associates awards and has been named the top provider by Consumer Reports over the past four years.
