II. Overview of Business

1. Management policy, business environment and issues to be addressed

MMC's recognition of management issues based on recent changes to the business environment and approach to future business strategies are as stated below. Any future forecasts included in the following descriptions are based on the best estimates or judgment of the MMC Group as of March 31, 2021.

(1) Business environment

Global demand for automobiles fell in the fiscal year under review due to the spread of novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19). Although the demand has not recovered to its original level, the MMC group expects to see a specific recovery in FY2021, supported by economic stimulus measures in various countries. However, MMC's business environment continues to be unstable due to the emerging risk of supply chain disruption, mainly caused by uncertainty over the COVID-19 spread, soaring material prices, and a shortage of semiconductor supply.

(2) Management policy, business strategies and issues to be addressed

Amid this uncertain external environment, the MMC group will continue to implement structural reforms and other measures in line with the new mid-term business plan, "Small but Beautiful," to strengthen its revenue base and achieve profitability.

<Vision of the MMC group>

The MMC group has redefined Mitsubishi Motors' uniqueness, aiming for sustainable growth over the medium to long term. We believe that what the MMC group is aiming for, in other words, Mitsubishi Motors' uniqueness, is to provide safety, security, and comfort with the environment at the core. Specifically, we envision creating vehicles that will allow customers to experience our strengths: (i) electrification technology, (ii) SUV technology with high off-road driving performance, and (iii) comfortable performance in functional and enjoyable spaces.

Plug-in hybrid technology is at the core of the MMC group's electrification technology. It can become a significant weapon as an optimal solution for a rapidly expanding decarbonized society. By incorporating this plug-in hybrid technology into an SUV capable of maintaining high performance in any road environment, we hope to promote it as a unique model with the driving performance to drive anywhere without worrying about running out of electricity.

Another strength of the MMC group is providing various options based on alliances and proprietary technologies. By combining a wide range of component options, we sequentially develop attractive vehicles that meet the needs of each country and region and add a touch of Mitsubishi Motors to them.

In addition, the MMC group intends to provide various values to all users' environmental efforts through products equipped with electric technologies. For example, we can offer our service to companies to reduce CO2 emissions associated with business operations and supply electricity during emergencies. For local governments, we can provide value-added services such as electricity supply sources for disaster and electricity support during vaccine transportation, which is now in full swing. For consumers, our service helps to realize the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) on an individual level. It can be used as a source of electricity during disasters.

Furthermore, we are promoting the V2X system as a secondary use to contribute to the community. Specifically, we are experimenting with electric vehicles as a resource to regulate electric power, which we hope to develop into a business in the future.

Global automobile demand is gradually recovering, especially in developed countries. However, the environment surrounding us remains harsh and uncertain. In such an environment, the MMC group will steadily implement the new mid-term business plan, "Small but Beautiful," to further strengthen its management base.

<Regional strategies>

In the core regions of ASEAN and Oceania, the MMC group will take initiatives appropriate to each country to increase our market share further and expand sales.

In Thailand and the Philippines, which were exposed to fierce competition in the COVID-19 pandemic during the fiscal year under review, we assume that the severe market environment will continue in FY2021. While we are implementing measures to address each issue, we recognize that it will take a certain period to regain our market share. In these regions, we will accelerate the reinforcement of our sales network in preparation for a counter offensive in the severe environment.

On the other hand, we expect the strong sales momentum to continue in FY2021 in Indonesia, where the market is recovering steadily, in Malaysia, where sales and profits continue to expand due to solid sales of EXPANDER and Triton, and in Vietnam, where sales reached a record high in the fiscal year under review. In such regions, we will strive to expand sales to capture the increase in demand.

In New Zealand, we achieved our highest ever market share in the fiscal year under review. In Australia, sales have been strong due in part to the impact of foreign exchange rates. In these regions, we aim to increase sales volume by launching the new Outlander and Eclipse Cross PHEV models, which have been highly acclaimed since their launch.

In this way, we will steadily implement measures that need to be taken in countries where the environment remains severe and seize opportunities in countries where opportunities are expected.

<Product strategies>

The MMC group is currently accelerating development to further enhance its product lineup for FY2022 and beyond. In ASEAN, starting with the next-generation Triton, we will upgrade our existing products and strengthen our product lineup. In addition, we will sequentially introduce entirely new products to the market as planned, using the ASEAN platform. With these efforts, we will enhance our lineup in each segment and further strengthen our brand.

<Reducing fixed costs>

Fixed cost reduction made more progress than initially expected. The MMC group achieved its plan to reduce fixed costs by 20% or more in two years in the fiscal year under review, one year ahead of schedule. Many of the measures taken during the fiscal year under review are expected to bring benefits throughout FY2021.

At the same time, the MMC group needs to make investments for growth, such as advertising expenses for the launch of new vehicles by the group and new product development scheduled for launch in and after FY2022. In FY2021, we will actively make these investments and keep total expenses at the same level as the fiscal year under review through the effects of the full-year contribution of fixed cost reductions from structural reforms.

2. Business-related risks

Risks that may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position, and the like of the MMC Group, which the management is currently aware of, are outlined below. The Group, however, is also potentially exposed to risk other than those listed below. Any of risk factors listed below and otherwise might impact its business results and/or financial position.

Matters concerning the future are judged by the MMC Group as of the filing date of this securities report unless otherwise stated.

(1) Risks related to the market and business (operational risks)

(i) Impact of the spread of COVID-19

From the beginning of last year, COVID-19, which spread globally, caused significant impacts on the global economy and automobile demand due to restrictions on economic activity because of measures to prevent the spread, such as regulations on going out.

Recently, peace of mind has steadily been returning as vaccinations have started. However, some countries, such as those in the main ASEAN area, are still unpredictable due to the continuing difficult situation, such as the spread of COVID-19 variants. Going forward, if the suspension of economic activities continues in a manner that exceeds expectations due to the impact of the global resurgence of COVID-19 causing new regulations on going out and impacting the supply chain, the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be significantly affected.

(ii) Impact of dependence on particular suppliers

The MMC Group sources raw materials and parts, etc. from a large number of suppliers. The necessity to procure materials and parts characterized by higher quality or more advanced technologies at more competitive prices may bring about a situation in which orders are concentrated upon specific suppliers. There may also be only a limited number of suppliers able to supply materials and parts for which specific technology or performance is required. Consequently, we may have to suspend manufacturing or incur increased costs, and the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be seriously impacted in the event that some unforeseen situation arises and interrupts deliveries from such suppliers or in the event that it is not possible to procure materials and parts at competitive prices in a timely manner.

Furthermore, these risks could materialize due to unexpected events on the side of primary, secondary and subsequent suppliers, and other factors including emergency situations, such as natural disasters and terrorist acts, and outbreaks of infectious diseases such as COVID-19. The MMC Group therefore has made every effort to respond promptly to these risks when they materialize, and to minimize the influence of the risks by gathering and updating information concerning the supply chain, including secondary and subsequent suppliers, in cooperation with primary suppliers.

The recent global shortage of semiconductors is projected to significantly affect the manufacturing of automobiles, including those of the Company. The Company will work to minimize the impact by strengthening the link to the supply chain. However, if the tightening of supply and demand and its impacts are prolonged further in a manner that exceeds expectations, the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be significantly affected.

(iii) Impact of changes in manufacturing cost

The MMC Group sources parts and raw materials, etc. from a large number of suppliers to manufacture its products. Furthermore, the rise of material prices, which are exposed to risks, such as sudden changes to the supply and demand situation, disasters and changes to the political situation in producing countries due to not only low output of palladium, rhodium, etc., but also the use of rare metals whose output is limited by specific country or region, is connected to the rise of the price of parts and manufacturing costs. As for changes in market conditions, the Group predicts the outlook to the extent possible based on analyst and other information and incorporates the predicted influence in its earnings forecasts. Any rise in the manufacturing cost of MMC's products due to changes in demand that exceed estimates and other market conditions may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(iv) Impact of product quality and safety

The MMC Group endeavors to improve the quality and assure the safety of the MMC Group's products. However, in the event that MMC has to issue a recall or implement countermeasures, etc. on a large scale due to product defects or failures, or in the event that MMC is sued in a large-scale product liability action, the large costs incurred and the damage to reputation of the MMC's products and consequent drop in demand, etc. for its products may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

In order to minimize the impact to the management, the MMC Group has made every effort to rapidly investigate the cause and implement measures based on information from markets in cooperation with relevant departments for improving product quality, and examine potential risks appropriately.

(v) Impact of lawsuits, etc.

In cases where any lawsuits are brought against the MMC Group by customers, trading partners or other third parties in the course of the MMC Group conducting its business, or the MMC Group is investigated by regulatory authorities in relation to alleged non-compliance with laws and regulations and are deemed non-compliant, the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be seriously impacted.

In addition, in the event that rulings, etc. in legal actions, etc. currently under dispute go against the MMC Group's claims or predictions, these may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

Although the MMC Group holds product liability insurance to fully cover compensation for damages and legal costs arising from claims for damages and lawsuits in relation to product liability where the courts ruled in favor of plaintiffs, the ruling requiring the Group to pay the amount of compensation larger than anticipated may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

With respect to respective lawsuits, etc. in February 20, 2010, MASRIA Co., Ltd. (hereafter "Plaintiff"), a former MMC distributor in Egypt, filed a lawsuit against MMC for dissolution of a distributor agreement between MMC and the Plaintiff including a 900 million USD claim for damages. The judgments in both the courts of first and second instance found in favor of MMC on October 26, 2010, and July 3, 2012, respectively, based on the reasoning that the case was not within the Egyptian court's legal jurisdiction. The case is now before the final appellate court after the Plaintiff appealed on July 21, 2012, against the judgment of the court of second instance.

The case has been found to not be within the Egyptian court's jurisdiction, and the distributor agreement was spelled out clearly, as indicated above. Furthermore, MMC's notice to terminate the distributor agreement with the Plaintiff followed due legal process and the terms of the agreement, thus making the Plaintiff's claim irrational. For these reasons, at present MMC does not consider this legal case will result in any serious impact on the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(vi) Impact of laws and regulations, etc.

The MMC Group is subject to various laws and government regulations concerning the environment such as gas emissions, fuel consumption, noise, chemical substances, recycling, and water resources in the countries where it operates. In the event that the MMC Group fails to conform to or is unable to comply with such laws and regulations, or should such failure lead to sanctions against it, then large costs may be incurred for the purpose of conforming to or of complying with any revision, strengthening of or additions to, these laws and regulations and this may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

The MMC Group is subject to a wide range of laws and regulations in Japan and overseas such as consumer protection regulations, approvals and licenses for businesses and investments, labor regulations, foreign exchange regulations, import-export trade regulations including those for security purposes, various tax laws, anti-monopoly laws, and anti-bribery laws, in addition to the above laws and regulations. In some cases, the MMC Group's businesses may be conducted based on a legislative foundation that has not been developed sufficiently, or the burden of expenses may increase for responding to lack of comprehensive system of laws and regulations, application and interpretation of inconsistent laws and regulations, unilateral changes made by supervisory authorities in regulatory measures, and others. In addition, any unexpected change may be made in rates of taxes imposed on products or services supplied by these businesses, technical requirements for environmental restrictions, income taxes and tariffs, a broad range of laws and regulations including exchange restrictions on repatriation of investment principal and dividends, and others.

In order to deal with these laws and regulations, the MMC Group has put in place a system to ensure that the Group complies with laws and regulations, etc.; and each department in charge has implemented measures to prevent potential non-compliance with laws and regulations, etc. Moreover, the MMC Group fosters a corporate culture of compliance with regulations, with the spread and thorough understanding of internal rules such as the stipulation of matters that should be observed by MMC Group employees in the “MMC Global Code of Conduct” and uniform implementation within the Group. To this end, the MMC Group has also enhanced a structure to respond promptly to any compliance-related matters detected by the Group in an effort to minimize the risk that such matters negatively affect its social credibility and reputation. However, the possibility that a law violation may be committed in the future is not zero. If there is a fact of law violation, or the content, promptness and others of its response are insufficient, the fact or insufficiency may have a negative impact on the MMC Group’s compliance reputation, and consequently, on the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(vii) Impact of infringement of intellectual property rights

In order to distinguish its products from those of other auto manufacturers the MMC Group endeavors to protect its own technologies, know-how and other intellectual property as well as to prevent the infringement of third-party intellectual property rights. However, in the event that a third party unlawfully uses the MMC Group’s intellectual property to manufacture and sell imitations of its products, or in the event that limitations in the legal system in certain countries in relation to the protection of the MMC Group’s intellectual property rights result in a fall in sales or in legal costs, or in the event that an unexpected infringement of a third-party intellectual property right by the MMC Group requires a halt in manufacturing or sales or the payment of compensation, or causes damage to reputation of the MMC’s products and a consequent drop in demand, the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be seriously impacted.

(viii) Impact of IT and information security

The information that the MMC Group uses in its operations, products, services, etc. and the information technology such as networks and systems where such information is stored come in a wide variety, including those managed by subcontractors. Given the advancement of connected services and IoT technologies, the MMC Group has implemented security management measures for hardware and software. Despite the implementation of such measures, however, cyberattacks from outside the Group, lack of proper maintenance or human errors both inside and outside the Group may lead to leakage of confidential, personal and other information, including the information concerning the Group’s technologies; suspension of the Group’s important operations and services; improper paperwork; or destruction/falsification of important data. Such situations may seriously undermine the Group’s brand and social credibility, lead to decline in sales, give rise to legal claims, lawsuits, liability for damages, obligation to pay penalty or fine; and as a consequence, may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(2) Risks related to business strategy and the maintenance of competitiveness (strategic risks)

(i) Impact on the sales strategy and response to competitor trends

In the auto industry, there is fierce competition on a global scale. In addition, against a backdrop of the rise of emerging companies and new entrants from other industries involved in the development of next-generation technologies, the competition could intensify in future. The MMC Group has strived to retain or expand its sales volume and market share by focusing on the development of products and technologies based on the MMC Group’s strength in vehicle electrification and SUV technologies. We have also progressed our regional strategy focused on key areas of ASEAN and Oceania, in line with our basic concept of “selection and concentration,” necessary for sustained growth in the intensely competitive environment. Nevertheless, if such strategy does not progress as planned and we are unable to implement measures that surpass our competitors, it may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(ii) Impact of product and technology development

Automobile manufacturers are subject to demands for drastic change in technologies and attitudes due to factors such as the rapid global movement towards decarbonization, the growth in car sharing, and the increasingly older age of drivers, particularly in Japan. Mitsubishi Motors believes it is important to launch useful and realistic, as well as easy to use new technologies and products that incorporate Mitsubishi Motors’ appeal in a timely manner and meet the values and needs of customers and is working every day on the development of such technologies and products. However, even if the research and development is based on fine-tuned research, it is possible that the values and needs of customers have not been adequately captured.

In addition, even if the values and needs of customers have been captured, it is possible that we will be unable to develop and provide customers with new technologies and products in a timely manner due to internal and external factors. In that case, there is a risk that our sales share could decline, causing net sales and profit margins to fall.

In addition, the MMC Group is forecasting the future needs, particularly for its key region of ASEAN, then prioritizing and investing in the development of new technologies. However, it is also possible that such new technologies will not be well received by customers outside such ASEAN regions if there is a mismatch due to environment changes or changes in needs in other regions. Consequently, similar to the above, this may seriously impact sales and profit due to a decline in sales share.

The technology being developed by the MMC Group must be tailored to peoples' needs, be useful and realistic, as well as easy to use. To achieve these goals, the MMC Group is forecasting the future needs, particularly for its key region of ASEAN, then prioritizing and investing in the development of new technologies. However, there is also the possibility that such new technologies will ultimately not be well received by customers if the environment changes more than anticipated, the world's needs change or if our relative development competitiveness declines. Consequently, this may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(iii) Impact of the personnel and labor strategy

The MMC Group believes it is extremely important to secure highly-specialized personnel and to provide them with opportunities for success to achieve sustainable growth to deal with severe environment changes facing the industry. Therefore, the MMC Group promotes the creation of a corporate culture that supports diverse working-styles through appropriate assignment of personnel based on having the correct key members and the establishment of a role-based compensation system in addition to the creation of schemes that encourage individual growth.

However, if the recruitment and retention do not proceed as planned due to difficulties in recruitment and increased liquidity in the labor markets, there could be an impact on earnings.

(iv) Influence of climate change

In response to rising temperatures worldwide since the Industrial Revolution, the Paris Climate Agreement was signed in 2015, as a coordinated effort to hold down global average temperature increase. The global movement towards a decarbonized society has recently accelerated as highlighted in the 2050 carbon neutral declaration by countries such as Japan, the United States and countries in Europe.

The MMC Group identified materiality (priority issues) in 2018 and has established responding to climate change and energy issues as one of its most important issues, and thus, the MMC Group formulated the "New Environmental Plan Package" as a medium to long-term policy and goal in October 2020, and has sought to develop low-emission vehicles and electric vehicles, save energy at business locations and promote the use of renewable energies.

If global climate change escalates further, physical risks such as having to suspend the operation of its plants due to weather-related disasters may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group. In addition, if global climate change measures advance, and fuel efficiency/CO2 emissions regulations and regulations on the ratio of electric vehicles sold, etc. in the countries and regions that are MMC's markets are further strengthened or introduced, there would be migration risk such as withdrawal from a market due to the investment required to respond to or non-conformity with regulations and this may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(3) Risks related to finance and the economy (financial risks)

(i) Impact of foreign exchange rate fluctuations

Fluctuations in the yen and other foreign currencies cause the values of both foreign currency-denominated receivables and payables to vary. Appreciation of the yen drives down the value of foreign-denominated receivables, while depreciation of the yen drives up the value, and vice versa the value of payables. As overseas sales account for around 80 percent of the MMC Group's overall sales, the Group holds receivables denominated in foreign currencies, including US dollars, Euros and Australian dollars. Further, as the MMC Group manufactures products to export globally at a Thai subsidiary, it also holds liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, primarily the baht. In FY2020, the yen rose by 4 yen against the US dollar year on year, but fell by 3 yen and 2 yen respectively against the Euro and the Australian dollar. In addition, liabilities denominated in foreign currencies denominated in Thai baht also depreciated, which contributed to an improvement in consolidated operating profit by a total of 3.7 billion yen.

At present, the MMC Group has worked on measures to reduce the impact of exchange rates, such as the export of the vehicles manufactured in Indonesia, and sales expansion in Thailand of the vehicles manufactured in the country, to contain the impact of foreign exchange rates over the medium- to long-term. However, significant fluctuations in foreign currencies may still seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

(ii) Impact of credit risks of customer, trading partner and others

The MMC Group is exposed to credit risks in its dealings with dealers and with customers and other trading partners and in its automobile financing business.

The MMC Group has made every effort to preserve receivables appropriately through the continuous evaluation of country risks and trading partners' financial positions to minimize credit risks against dealers and other trading partners, and reduce the occurrence of bankruptcy and control the uncollectible amount by the MMC Group's own examination and collection management for the automobile financing business. However, in the event that losses stemming from such credit risks exceed the MMC Group's estimates due to the deteriorating external environment and other factors, the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group may be seriously impacted.

(iii) Impact of the liquidity of funds

In addition to borrowing from financial institutions, the MMC Group issues CP, etc. for financing. However, if unable to finance the required funding at appropriate terms in the financial markets due to an economic or financial crisis, etc. or due to a lowering of the MMC Group's credit ratings, this may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group. MMC has secured sufficient liquidity having, in addition to an unused committed line of credit worth about 150.0 billion yen, entered into new financing of 200.0 billion yen on a standalone basis in the current fiscal year while also establishing and drawing down on a financing limit worth about 100.0 billion yen for overseas subsidiaries. To ensure such arrangements, we strive to maintain good relationships with our main bank and other relevant financial institutions.

(4) Risks related to business continuity (hazard risks)

(i) Impact of natural disasters, accidents and outbreak of infectious diseases

The MMC Group maintains production and other facilities in Japan and many other parts of the world. The occurrence of a major natural or other disaster, including earthquakes, typhoons, floods, fires and epidemics, in these areas may result in the suspension or other serious interruption in the operations of the MMC Group or of its suppliers. The BCM (Business Continuity Management) Committee has formulated a business continuity plan, while also verifying the effectiveness through regular training and preparing for any emerging threats based on a scenario that such risks are highly likely to materialize, and they would have a serious impact on the MMC Group's operations. In addition, in terms of measures to address infectious diseases such as COVID-19, MMC has created and released response guidelines to ensure health and safety of employees, etc. from the perspective of preventing the spread of infection and maintaining a structure for business continuity. While demanding behavior that is in line with such guidelines, MMC is undertaking measures such as the promotion of working from home and off-peak working, strictly managing business trips and, in principle, prohibiting entertaining and gifts as well as the holding of events.

However, a natural disaster, accident or spread of infection on a scale larger than anticipated may seriously impact the operating results and/or financial position of the MMC Group.

3. Management analysis of financial position, operating results and cash flows

An overview of the financial position, operating results and cash flows (“operating results, etc.”) of the MMC Group (MMC, its consolidated subsidiaries and its entities accounted for using equity method) during the current fiscal year follows.

Any forward-looking statements expressed below are based on the judgment of the MMC Group as of March 31, 2020.

(1) Financial position and operating results

(i) Operating results

The global slump in automobile demand due to the COVID-19 spread and other factors has become apparent since the beginning of last year. Although the situation has gradually calmed down in developed countries, the recovery in the markets where MMC excels has been delayed, and the severe situation continued.

Under such circumstances, the MMC group formulated a new mid-term business plan, “Small but Beautiful,” to drastically improve profitability and promote structural reforms in line with the basic concept of “selection and concentration.”

As a result, the full-year sales volume decreased from the previous fiscal year to 801,000 units, and the full-year net sales was 1,455.5 billion yen (down 814.8 billion yen year on year, down 36% year on year). However, operating profit improved from the full-year forecast of operating loss of 100.0 billion yen announced in February 2021 to operating loss of 95.3 billion yen (profit of 12.8 billion yen in the previous fiscal year) due to company-wide efforts to reduce overhead and fixed costs and structural reform activities. Earnings momentum bottomed out in the first half of the fiscal year under review and has been steadily recovering. Ordinary profit was a loss of 105.2 billion yen (a loss of 3.8 billion yen in the previous fiscal year), and profit attributable to owners of parent was a loss of 312.3 billion yen (a loss of 25.8 billion yen in the previous fiscal year).

The sales status by major region is as follows:

- ASEAN: 189 thousand units (down 101 thousand units year on year)
- Australia and New Zealand: 72 thousand units (down 16 thousand units year on year)
- Japan: 73 thousand units (down 22 thousand units year on year)
- China and Other: 105 thousand units (down 38 thousand units year on year)
- North America: 113 thousand units (down 47 thousand units year on year)
- Europe: 144 thousand units (down 71 thousand units year on year)
- Central America, Middle East, Africa and Other: 105 thousand units (down 31 thousand units year on year).

In the key ASEAN region, results have been mixed such as with the severe situation continuing in Indonesia, while Vietnam has had success with curbing COVID-19, and overall the recovery pace has been moderate. In addition, in Thailand, where economic activities have stalled due to the resurgence of COVID-19 since the end of the previous fiscal year, the situation remains severe. However, a recent recovery has been evident in Indonesia, where the recovery had been most delayed.

Automobile demand in Australia and New Zealand has continued on a moderate recovery trend. MMC sales have also been in line with the market recovery.

In Japan, automobile demand overall recovered somewhat, but the priority given to structural reforms, such as the suppression of fleet sales and the review of sales prices and the lack of MMC lineup in segments that are leading the market recovery resulted in a decrease of 23% year on year.

China and North America decreased by about 30% year on year as a result of the prioritization to improve the quality of sales, as in Japan, and the actual number of car sales in regions such as Europe, Central America, Middle East and Africa were in line with the market declines.

The operating status by business segment is as shown below.

i) Automobile business

Net sales for the automotive business in the current fiscal year were 1,436.5 billion yen (down 815.4 billion yen year on year) with operating loss of 101.3 billion yen (operating profit of 7.8 billion yen in the previous fiscal year). The decline in operating profit was mainly due to the decline in the number of cars sold.

ii) Financial service business

Net sales for the current fiscal year were 35.8 billion yen (down 4.6 billion yen year on year), and operating profit was 4.8 billion yen (operating profit of 5.6 billion yen in the previous fiscal year).

(ii) Financial position

Total assets as of March 31, 2021 amounted to 1,856.3 billion yen (down 81.8 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year). Cash and deposits amounted to 455.7 billion yen (up 56.1 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year). Total liabilities amounted to 1,331.0 billion yen (up 181.3 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year). Of total liabilities, the interest bearing debt balance was 483.3 billion yen (up 183.9 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year). Net assets as of March 31, 2021 amounted to 525.3 billion yen (down 263.1 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year).

(2) Cash flows

(i) Basic approach to cash flows

The MMC Group adheres to a basic policy to maintain the stable distribution of profits to shareholders by achieving sound and sustainable growth and enhancing its corporate value, while maintaining financial discipline; the Group has adopted free cash flow as one of its business performance indicators.

Based on the policy above, the MMC Group has centrally managed the funding needs of its business activities, including the development, manufacturing and sale of vehicles (e.g., material costs, personnel expenses, various other overheads and loan funds for its financial service business); for new technologies such as MaaS and CASE and compliance with environmental regulations; and for maintenance and renewal of outdated manufacturing facilities. In principle, these funding needs shall be covered by cash flows the Group newly generate each year. When necessary, however, the Group uses internal funds accumulated over the past fiscal years, borrows from financial institutions, or issues CP to finance additional funding needs.

(Note) The free cash flow is calculated as the sum of cash flows from operating activities and cash flows from investing activities.

(ii) Cash flow status

Cash flows for the current fiscal year consisted of a net outflow of 41.5 billion yen from operating activities (up 60.3 billion yen year on year), a net outflow of 101.3 billion yen from investing activities (down 4.4 billion yen year on year), and a net inflow of 168.3 billion yen from financing activities (improvement of 158.7 billion yen from the previous fiscal year). In addition, the balance of cash and cash equivalents at the end of the current fiscal year increased by 45.0 billion yen from the end of the previous fiscal year to 444.6 billion yen, partially due to an increase of 19.4 billion yen in effect of exchange rate change on cash and cash equivalents and other factors.

Free cash flow for the current fiscal year ended up with a net outflow of 142.8 billion yen (deterioration of 55.9 billion yen from the previous fiscal year), due to a significant increase in the amount of net outflow from operating activities as a consequence of the impact of business restructuring expenses in addition to both net sales and operating profit decreasing as a result of deterioration of the business environment because of the spread of COVID-19.

Cash flows from operating activities

Net cash used in operating activities was 41.5 billion yen, an increase of 60.3 billion yen compared to cash provided by operating activities of 18.8 billion yen for the previous fiscal year. This was primarily due to a decline in both net sales and operating profit caused by the spread of COVID-19 and business restructuring.

Cash flows from investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities was 101.3 billion yen, a decrease of 4.4 billion yen compared to cash used in investing activities of 105.7 billion yen in the previous fiscal year. This was primarily due to a decrease in the amount of capital expenditure.

Cash flows from financing activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was 168.3 billion yen, an increase of 158.7 billion yen compared to cash provided by financing activities of 9.6 billion yen in the previous fiscal year. This was primarily due to an increase in the amount of borrowings.

(iii) Liquidity of funds and financing

The consolidated balance of deposits and the consolidated balance of interest bearing debt at the end of the current fiscal year were 455.7 billion yen and 483.3 billion yen, respectively. In addition, MMC has entered into a committed credit line agreement worth approximately 150.0 billion yen with domestic financial institutions. The balance of cash and deposits plus the committed line of credit has provided the Company with a liquidity of approximately 600.0 billion yen.

To provide for additional financing needs due to deteriorating business environment amid spread of COVID-19, etc., MMC has raised an additional 200.0 billion yen while also establishing a financing limit and drawing down on new financing at overseas subsidiaries to secure sufficient funds that may be necessary to maintain, expand and operate the MMC Group's business.

The MMC Group obtained credit ratings from two respected domestic rating agencies. The Group's ratings as of the filing date of this securities report are BBB+ from the Rating and Investment Information, Inc., and BB from S&P.

3. Above stated amounts do not include consumption taxes.

(4) Significant accounting policies and estimates

The MMC Group's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan (Japan GAAP). The preparation of consolidated financial statements requires that estimates and assumptions be made that affect the recorded amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosed amounts of contingent assets and liabilities at the end of the current fiscal year, as well as recorded amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Although the estimates were made based on the past results and methods deemed reasonable, because of uncertainty unique to estimates, actual results could differ from these estimates.

The significant accounting policies applied by the MMC Group in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are explained in “Material basis of the preparation of consolidated financial statements” of “V. Financial Information, 1. Consolidated financial statements.” The MMC Group considers the following significant accounting policies could materially affect the estimates made in the consolidated financial statements: In addition, liabilities related to market quality measures and impairment of non-current assets are explained in “Significant accounting estimates” of “V. Financial Information, 1. Consolidated financial statements.”

- i) Provision for loss on fuel consumption test
To provide for losses relating to fuel consumption test, the provision is calculated to the extent that can be reasonably projected and estimated at the end of the current fiscal year.
- ii) Provision for product warranties
The MMC Group calculates the provision for product warranties after taking into account, according to the warranty agreements, future warranty forecasts based on past results in order to provide for the products’ after-service costs. The estimates of after sales service cost may need to be revised when actual product defect rate or repair cost differ from the estimates.
- iii) Allowance for doubtful accounts
To prepare for losses from bad debts for trade receivables, loans, etc., an estimate of the amount of specific uncollectible accounts is provided as an allowance for doubtful accounts based on the historical default rate for ordinary receivables, and taking into account individual collectability for specific receivables such as doubtful receivables. In cases where a customer’s ability to pay decreases because of financial deterioration due to factors such as changes in economic conditions, recording of the additional allowance for doubtful accounts may be required.
- iv) Retirement benefit expenses and retirement benefit obligation
The retirement benefit expenses and retirement benefit obligations are calculated based on certain actuarial assumptions, including discount rates, expected rate of bonuses, employee turnover rate, as well as mortality rate and long-term rate of return on pension plan assets calculated based on the latest statistical figures. When the actual results differ from assumptions, or when the assumptions are amended, the effect thereof will be accumulated and recognized regularly going forward; thereby affecting the amount of expenses to be recognized and amount of liabilities to be recorded in the future period.
- v) Evaluation of deferred tax assets
The MMC Group deducts a valuation allowance from its deferred tax assets in order to reduce the amount to an amount considered to be highly recoverable, then records the net amount. The valuation allowance is calculated giving consideration to future taxable income, tax planning, and other factors. Where all or part of the deferred tax assets are judged to be unrecoverable in the future, an adjustment to deferred tax assets is recognized as an expense in the period during with the judgment was made. Furthermore, where the amount of deferred tax assets recoverable in the future is judged to exceed the recognized amount of deferred tax assets, an adjustment to deferred tax assets is recognized as profit in the period during which the judgment was made.
- vi) Evaluation of investment securities
The MMC Group retains shares of publicly traded companies with high price volatility and shares of not publicly traded companies for which it is difficult to determine their stock prices. The MMC Group periodically reviews the evaluation of investment securities and conducts impairment accounting if the evaluation falls below the acquisition cost or the carrying amount after impairment by a certain rate or more. Worsening market conditions or unstable performance at invested companies in the future may require the implementation of impairment in the event that losses are not reflected in the current carrying amount or the carrying amount becomes irrecoverable.

5. Research and development activities

The MMC Group has worked on research and development activities in order to realize its mid-term business plan “Small but Beautiful” announced in July 2020.

During the current fiscal year, R&D expenses (the automobile business) for the entire Group amounted to 101,365 million yen.

The Group’s R&D structure, the status of development of next-generation technologies and the new products released from April 2020 through March 2021 are as described below.

(1) R&D structure

In Japan, the MMC Group conducts early technology development, design, and testing of designs and technologies primarily at the “Research & Development Center” and the “EV Research & Development Center.” Also, in collaboration with MMC’s overseas R&D bases in North America, Europe, China, and Thailand, these facilities develop technologies and products adapted to the market characteristics of each region. MMC also has sought to develop technologies and products, such as vehicle electrification, which is a strength of MMC, and four-wheel control, by leveraging the alliance with Renault and Nissan.

(2) Development of next-generation technologies

To realize key points in our mid-term business plan of “enhancing growth based on the ASEAN region,” “augmenting our strengths in environmental technologies” and “providing customers with reliable and attractive products by further advancing our 4WD and off-road performance,” and to achieve the goals set for 2030 in our Environmental Plan Package, MMC has promoted the development of environmental technologies that help realize low-carbon emissions and safety technologies that help reduce traffic accidents, as well as technologies that allow MMC to realize attractive vehicles with unique features leveraging our strengths in electrification technologies and four-wheel control systems.

i) Development of environmental technologies

In the “New Environmental Plan Package” announced in November 2020, we set a target for 2030 of a 40% reduction in CO₂ emissions from new vehicles compared with FY2010. To achieve such target, MMC has promoted the development of next-generation electric vehicles and engines that help realize low-carbon societies, as well as technologies that help reduce the weight of chassis and components. With regard to vehicle electrification technologies, in particular, “Outlander PHEV” and “Eclipse Cross PHEV,” with MMC’s unique plug-in hybrid EV system (PHEV) which achieves both long distance travel and environmental performance, were launched in December 2020, and have been highly rated by customers. This fiscal year, MMC plans to launch the new model Outlander PHEV and continues to work on development of new technologies with the aim of becoming a leading company in the field of electrification technology. In addition, to facilitate the purchase of electric vehicles by our customers in the ASEAN region, we are developing HEV that utilize PHEV technology, with plans to start selling from FY2023. Note that we are advancing our strong collaboration within our alliances for vehicle electrification technology as the most important issue to quickly and efficiently develop technology for the rapidly evolving vehicle electrification (batteries, motors, etc.). In FY2022, we plan to launch light EV jointly developed with Nissan.

ii) Development of technologies providing customers with reliable and attractive products by further advancing our 4WD and off-road performance

MMC has continued to work on advancement of the four-wheel integrated vehicle dynamics control system “S-AWC^{*1},” a technology of its special expertise. In particular, MMC has positioned the combination of motor drive and S-AWC as “e-EVOLUTION,” and has continued their development with the goal of providing both driving pleasure and environmental performance. MMC plans to implement and incorporate this technology into other models including electric vehicles. In addition, to provide safe and comfortable driving for ASEAN customers as well, MMC also plans to implement and incorporate this technology in 2WD vehicles.

iii) Development of safety technologies

We have made group-wide efforts to develop and spread safety technologies aimed at reducing fatal car accidents to zero, so that our customers feel comfortable and safe riding and driving our vehicles. We have made these efforts under the following safety principles shared group-wide: 1. Develop technologies to pre-empt accidents, 2. Develop technologies to minimize damages from car accidents, and 3. Avoid possible hazards as industrial products. These technologies include primarily the advanced preventative safety technology “Mitsubishi e-Assist^{*2}” and the collision safety technology “RISE.^{*3}” In addition, we are promoting the development of safe technology that can be more effective in the ASEAN traffic environment.

iv) Other

MMC is developing technologies for providing a comfortable cabin environment (improving ride, quietness, convenience, etc.) as well as technologies for connecting with information devices such as a smartphone onboard. MMC is also determined to work on future technologies, such as autonomous driving and connected car technologies, by fully leveraging the benefits of the alliance with Nissan and Renault, to ultimately enhance the attractiveness of our products in an efficient manner.

(3) 2 Main new products announced (in press releases) from April 2020 to March 2021

1) Eclipse Cross PHEV – Announced December 2020

2) New Outlander – Announced February 2021

The features of each model are as described below.

- 1) The MMC Group launched the new Eclipse Cross PHEV, in addition to the Eclipse Cross gasoline model. The Eclipse Cross is a crossover SUV that carries unique styling and dynamic performance. Launched globally during Mitsubishi Motors’ 100th anniversary in 2017, the vehicle boasts a stylish coupe shape and dynamic power, epitomizing the essence of Mitsubishi cars. The redesign takes SUV dynamics to a new level, while achieving a graceful, flowing form. For the first time, the company introduces a new PHEV variant which incorporates the twin-motor 4WD system from the Outlander PHEV, the world’s top-selling PHEV^{*4}.

*4: Cumulative number of vehicles sold from January 2013 to September 2020. According to MMC

i) Trim levels

- The PHEV model rolls out with three trim levels; the M comes standard equipped with preventive safety features, the G has additional features including a 100-volt power outlet (max 1,500 watts) and Head Up Display, and the high-end P has its own look while coming standard equipped with smartphone link navigation and other special features.
- The gasoline model has three trim levels; the M comes standard equipped with preventive safety features, the G has additional features including a Head Up Display and the ACC radar cruise control system, and the high-end G Plus Package comes standard equipped with smartphone link navigation and other special features.

ii) Distinctive design that inspires drivers to be more active [common to both PHEV model /gasoline models]

- Developed under the design concept Daring Grace, the extended length of the body and restyled front and rear design create a sleek, classy look with enhanced SUV dynamism in both front and back.
- The front end adopts an evolved version of Dynamic Shield, expressing the powerful performance of an SUV with the security to protect people on board as well as the vehicle. Its refreshed light layout completes the front design with a sharp, sporty look. Skid plates at the bottom of both bumpers add to the powerful SUV presence.
- The elegant yet sporty form continues to the rear. Designers have updated the double rear windshield from the previous model to a single windshield for a sleek styling and graceful shape, at the same time giving a clearer rear visibility. Eclipse Cross' iconic three-dimensional taillights are placed at a higher position for a distinctive look that is also easy to see on the road. The heavy-duty body panels and bumpers project firmness and strength, while combining with the hexagon design reminiscent of a rear-mounted spare tire to express the ruggedness and road handling of an SUV.
- Inside the cabin, high-end trim levels^{*5} are given a new black interior with seats made of a combination of embossed suede-based materials and synthetic leather, while the manufacturer's option of leather seats are now available in light gray in addition to the conventional black. Door trims also coordinate with the car seat color for a high-quality, sporty interior space.
- MMC's trademark high-luminosity Diamond Color series offers two color options for body color - Red Diamond^{*6} and the new White Diamond^{*7}. The latter is a shade that radiates both the white sheen of a pearl and the subtle nuance of metal, reflecting an energetic yet glamorous, mature elegance.

*5: Standard equipped on the P and G of the PHEV model, and the G Plus Package and G of the gasoline model

*6: Optional color cost 77,000 yen (including 10% consumption tax)

*7: Optional color cost 77,000 yen (including 10% consumption tax)

iii) PHEV to enjoy driving to one's heart's content

- The Eclipse Cross uses a modified twin-motor 4WD PHEV system from the Outlander PHEV. The architecture consists of one front and one rear high-power electric motor, a large-capacity drive battery and a 2.4 L MIVEC engine, allowing for the quick, silent, yet powerful acceleration unique to electric vehicles along with nimble yet stable handling.
- The drive battery is 13.8 kWh with an all-electric range of 57.3 km (WLTC Mode), allowing pure electric driving for most of daily commute. There are three driving modes: EV Mode drives with the electric motors using power from the drive battery, Series Hybrid Mode uses gasoline engine to generate power for the electric motors which drive the vehicle, and Parallel Hybrid Mode uses gasoline engine to drive the vehicle assisted by the electric motors. Automatic switching between these modes according to driving conditions allows drivers to feel the driving pleasure of motor drive in a variety of environments.
- The 100-volt AC on-board outlet with a maximum 1,500 watts can supply power to electronics and appliances^{*8} for outdoor leisure and as a reliable source of electricity in an emergency. The vehicle can also serve as a rechargeable battery that powers an entire household with its stored energy by connecting a V2H^{*9} device to the quick-charging port. Since the vehicle can generate its own power, it can supply up to 10 days^{*10} of power to a general household when fully charged and fueled.

*8: Cannot be used by some devices even if they have rated power output of 1,500 watts or less). Please read the instruction manual that come with the electronics and appliances, as well as the points of caution written on the devices, before using them with the on-board outlet.

*9: Vehicle to Home

iv) 4WD control for responsive driving feel with peace of mind

- High-rigidity body and optimized front and rear suspension make the S-AWC (Super-All Wheel Control) even more effective, resulting in an improved handling that is true to the driver's intent, and a more comfortable, quieter ride.
- The PHEV model employs the S-AWC system on the twin-motor 4WD that can freely distribute driving force to the front and rear electric motors without transmission loss. Utilizing electric vehicles' characteristic high response, high precision, and high degree of freedom, the system exercises a high level of vehicle's control on driving, cornering, and braking. Engineers also optimized the front-rear weight distribution on the Eclipse Cross and lowered its center of gravity by positioning the high capacity drive battery under the center of the floor. This gave it an even more comfortable ride, with superior steering stability.
- The gasoline model has the S-AWC system which integrates Active Yaw Control (AYC) to adjust braking force between the front left and right wheels for sharper cornering, as well as an Anti-Lock Brake System (ABS) and Active Stability Control (ASC) to regulate braking force on an electronically-controlled 4WD base that distributes torque optimally between the front and rear wheels. Integrated control of these systems produces highly stable vehicle behavior that is true to the driver's intent. Coupled with optimizing the suspension, the Eclipse Cross provides stable and precise handling in daily life and improved handling on slippery roads.
- Driver can select different driving modes of the Eclipse Cross according to road and driving conditions. Normal Mode provides the appropriate steering and stability for a broad range of driving scenarios. Snow Mode maintains stable vehicle movement on slippery surfaces such as snowy roads. Gravel Mode generates superior road handling and stability on poor surfaces. The PHEV model also has Tarmac Mode, which delivers an even higher level of cornering and stability mainly on dry, paved surfaces for drivers to feel the joy of driving with extra peace of mind.

v) Equipped features

- Mitsubishi Motors specially designed Mitsubishi Power Sound System (MPSS)*¹¹ for the Eclipse Cross, featuring eight premium speakers acoustically tuned and positioned specifically for the shape of the vehicle. Glass fiber cloth with aluminum vapor cone speakers and carbon cone mid-range tweeters in front with coaxial 2-way speakers on the rear doors aligned with the tweeters to deliver smooth, fluid sound quality.
- New smartphone link navigation offers convenient features including route navigation via built-in maps and compatibility with VICS traffic information, facilitates the full enjoyment of your favorite apps from Android Auto™ and Apple CarPlay® by simply connecting your Android™ smartphone and iPhone® to a USB port. The display screen has also been enlarged to 8 inches, making it clearer to see and operate.

*11: Available as an option on the P of the PHEV model, and the G Plus Package of the gasoline model.

- 2) We conducted a full model change of the crossover SUV Outlander and launched it in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico from April 2021. The Outlander is a crossover SUV that has been released globally with total sales volume of 2.6 million units*¹² to date. In North America, the Outlander was launched in 2002 as Mitsubishi Motors' first crossover SUV. Through three generations, it has been highly recognized for its utility and road performance as an SUV, as well as its eco-friendliness and economy.

*12: Including gasoline, diesel and PHEV. Cumulative number of vehicles sold from January 2001 to December 2020. According to MMC

i) Heritage-inspired powerful design

- The design concept of the all-new Outlander is "Bold Stride," representing a bold, adventurous attitude and confidence to move forward. There have been considerable revisions to the package. The strong, horizontal-themed proportion from front to rear, the contrast of broad and powerful surface and character lines with sharp edges, as well as the large-diameter 20-inch wheels and overhanging fenders that emphasize the wide body express a bold aura and a sense of presence and stability.

- In the front, the next generation Dynamic Shield that expresses strong performance and protection of both the people and the car further emphasizes the all-new Outlander's powerfulness as an SUV. The daytime running lights and turn signals were positioned in the upper part and given a thin, sharp shape to improve their visibility by oncoming vehicles and pedestrians. The headlights were placed beneath them toward the outside to illuminate the road more brightly and emphasize the wide body.
- In the rear, a hexagon motif that appears to have been cut from a single surface ornaments the tailgate. This unique and sophisticated shape was inspired by the rear-mounted spare tire of the PAJERO, and the upper part expresses stability while the lower part shows the high road performance as an SUV. Further, the horizontal-themed T-shaped taillights emphasize the wide look of the body and stability.
- The body colors come in Mitsubishi Motors' unique high-brightness paint Diamond Series, Red Diamond and White Diamond, and Black Diamond is newly added to the lineup. Black Diamond is a special color consisting of three coats, with a high-density shiny layer containing glass added to make the vehicle appear jet black when not lit but then emits a powerful sparkle when struck by light. Also available are six basic colors for a total selection of nine body colors.

ii) Safety and safe driving performance

- The newly developed platform greatly improves collision safety performance and achieves a high level of steering stability. For the first time Mitsubishi Motors has used an ultra-high tensile strength steel sheet with hot stamping around the cabin to create a high-strength cabin structure with little deformation while also achieving weight reduction. Adopting connected cyclic structures around the engine compartment and cabin increased flexural and torsional rigidity of the body over that of the previous model. The multi-link suspension and dual pinion electric power steering achieve high-quality ride comfort while also providing operability with a direct, linear feel. This greatly improves traceability during cornering as well as linear stability and provides driving pleasure.
- The newly developed 2.5 L gasoline engine improves maximum output by 8.9% and fuel efficiency (WLTC mode) by 2.6% over the previous model. Torqueful and powerful at low to medium rpm but smooth and easy-to-handle at high rpm means the driver can enjoy pleasant city trips to fun sporty driving. An 8-speed sport mode CVT is used for the transmission. The step shift control that changes speeds crisply like a multistage automatic transmission is employed for acceleration, and a powerful and agile acceleration can be felt when pressing down on the accelerator. When cruising, the driver can enjoy a quiet and smooth driving using the features of CVT.
- For the 4WD model, electronically-controlled 4WD incorporating a hydraulic clutch driven by an electric motor is used in the center coupling device that conducts front and rear torque distribution. The front and rear wheels can be strongly restrained from when the vehicle is stopped, so the rear wheel drive force is generated at the moment of start off to provide a powerful sensation befitting a 4WD. This in particular generates power under severe conditions, such as starting off uphill on frozen roads.
- The 4WD model is equipped with an improved S-AWC integrated vehicle dynamics control system. The Brake AYC*¹³ is adopted on the rear wheels as well, making it possible to provide front and rear wheel distributed control. Sensors detect the steering angle, yaw rate, driving torque, brake pressure, wheel speed, and other factors to continuously and correctly identify driver operation and vehicle status. When turning, the Brake AYC optimizes the difference in drive force and braking force among the front and rear, right and left wheels to improve tire gripping ability to allow the driver to steer as desired. In the 2WD model, Brake AYC for front and rear wheel distributed control was also employed to achieve integrated control with ASC*¹⁴ and ABS*¹⁵ to maintain driving stability on a variety of road surfaces.

- The all-new Outlander is equipped with drive modes that allow the driver to select the vehicle driving characteristics that are optimal for a variety of operation styles and driving situations. There are six modes for 4WD models and five modes for 2WD models. The mode selector in the center console can be used to select the drive mode for choosing the road situation and Eco mode for choosing the operation style. The settings for the drive mode are Normal for normal driving, Tarmac for sporty driving on paved roads, Gravel for high traction performance and stability on unpaved roads, Snow for snowy and other slippery roads, and Mud^{*16} to increase the road handling ability on muddy roads, in deep snow and similar conditions. The drive modes bring out the high road handling of 4WD models and also increase the potential of 2WD models to provide a sense of security and reliability while driving. When a mode is selected, an image representing the driving situation is displayed in the meter to allow the driver to intuitively select a mode.

*13: Active Yaw Control

*14: Active Stability Control

*15: Anti-lock Braking System

*16: Available for 4WD models only

iii) High quality spacious interior

- A linear instrument panel with a powerful horizontal tone gives the vehicle a spacious and roomy look while producing a functional form that makes it easy to see the changes in the vehicle position. The upper part is covered with a soft padding wrapped in leather, and stitching has been applied to project a high-quality feel. The door panels feature a large area of door inserts, and the same soft padding as the instrument panel and floor console sides is used to create a high-quality and comfortable space.
- The interior color variations for the P-Line feature genuine leather seats of light gray and black. The instrument panel and door trim are the same color, and real aluminum is used in the shift panel. Saddle tan accent color and semi-aniline leather seats are also available as an option for the P-Line. The H-Line features black suede combination seats and piano black interior material, while the M-Line offers light gray or black fabric material seats and piano black interior material.
- The front seats have a two-layer urethane structure to ensure the seats are comfortable the moment they are sat on and to reduce fatigue during long trips. Roominess and comfortability are enhanced by widening the body and increasing the legroom of the first and second-row seats. In addition, features such as seat heaters, 3-zone automatic climate control, and rear door sunshades are available depending on the trim level to make the rear seats more comfortable for a family SUV.
- There are two types of meters depending on the trim level. The 12.3-inch full digital driver display equipped with a Mitsubishi Motors' first full-screen, full-color liquid crystal display shows a variety of contents on a large screen with clarity without appearing cluttered. The display is also equipped with a customization function that allows a variety of information to be freely combined and displayed. Another high-contrast meter with a 7-inch multi-information display can show simple arrow navigation in the central information display. It utilizes the high recognition advantage of an analog display while producing a high-quality look with a stereoscopic dial and decorated indicator needle.
- For certain trim levels, a large 9-inch screen is used for the center display and is equipped with Smartphone-link Display Audio navigation system. This smoothly provides highly accurate route information using internal maps and navigation functions. A variety of functions including navigation and audio can be easily selected with one touch of the launch menu icon that is always displayed at the bottom of the screen. By connecting to Android^{TM*17} smartphone or iPhone^{®*18}, user can also enjoy the Android Auto^{TM*17} and Apple CarPlay^{*18*19} applications. Functions for receiving the latest traffic information or updating software online are also planned for the near future.
- To provide driving information safely and more quickly, for the first time Mitsubishi Motors has installed a windshield-type 10.8-inch Head-Up Display (HUD) to project in full color the information required for driving. Driver can manually select ON/OFF for this HUD and customize the displayed contents. In addition to driving information and warnings, such as lane departure, the displayed contents include navigation and audio information through a link with the center display, and multiple types of information can be displayed at the same time.

- A BOSE premium sound system is used for the speakers. The all-new Outlander is equipped with a sound system consisting of 10 speakers. Combining large door woofers with dual subwoofers provides powerful deep bass and a high-quality sound like a live performance.
- The all-new Outlander is a family SUV that offers three-row, seven seats, which is unique in its class. The seats can be flexibly arranged with multiple configurations to suit the number of passengers and their luggage. The second-row seats have a sliding and reclining function, as well as a 4:2:4 split division, allowing two adult passengers to comfortably sit in the second row even when carrying long items such as skis.
- Space for storing smartphones is provided in the center console tray, center console side pockets, driver's seat back pocket, and quarter trim pockets. The center console tray also has a wireless phone charging function (15W) that charges smartphones when placed on it. USB charging ports Types C and A are provided, respectively, on the front and back of the center console.

iv) Advanced driver-assistance system and safety features

- MI-PILOT Assist integrates Adaptive Cruise Control (ACC) and Lane Keep Assist (LKA), and supports driving operation by maintaining the distance between vehicles and keeping the vehicle in the center of the lane. Vehicles equipped with navigation link system can read the speed signs to automatically change the set speed and utilize the navigation map information to automatically adjust the vehicle speed to that appropriate for curves and forks in expressways and other situations. To reduce troublesome setting operations while driving in heavy traffic on expressways, the vehicle can automatically move forward within about 30 seconds after stopping.
- For the airbags, a front center airbag for the driver's seat and side airbags for the second-row seats are standard equipped, and a total of 11 airbags are installed. In case of a side collision, the front center airbag deploys between the driver's seat and front passenger seat.
- Mitsubishi Connect is installed as a car support system that allows users to enjoy a more comfortable car life and a safe driving experience. To protect the safety of the driver, a button can be pressed to request aid from the call center if the vehicle breaks down or is involved in an accident, and it automatically reports when an airbag is deployed. It also handles a variety of incidents, such as generating a vehicle theft warning and reporting vehicle position information to the user if the vehicle is stolen. Further, operation by smartphone can be used to display the vehicle's parked position or to cause the vehicle's lights to flash to show where it is parked. Many convenient functions are provided, such as remote operation that can be used to start the engine and turn on the air conditioner before getting in to make the cabin comfortable during cold winters and hot summers, as well as unlocking the doors from a remote location. To manage driving by family, the user can also receive notices when the vehicle is driven outside of a set time period, above a set speed, or outside a set area.

- 3) In addition to the above, MMC launched certain models with enhanced safety or functional equipment, differentiated interior and exterior, and improved environmental performance.

* These details are based on the end of the current fiscal year (March 31, 2021). As of the end of the month before the month of the filing date (May 31, 2021) there has been no change in the details required to be described since the end of the current fiscal year, so the description related to the end of the month before the month of the filing date has been omitted.

- (Notes) 1. Number of shares to be issued upon the exercise of one share acquisition right, total number of shares that will be issued upon exercise of share acquisition rights, and fair value of a share acquisition right for one share
The number of shares to be issued upon the exercise of one Share Acquisition Right (the “Number of Issued Shares”) shall be calculated by dividing JPY 41,200, which is the issue price for one Share Acquisition Right, (the “Issue Price”) by the fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share. If a grantee simultaneously exercises his/her multiple share acquisition rights, the Number of Issued Shares shall be a maximum whole part of the number calculated by (i) multiplying the Issue Price by the number of the Share Acquisition Rights that are exercised and then (ii) dividing the multiplied number by the fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share.
The fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share shall be calculated on the grant date by using the following Black-Scholes formula:

$$C = Se^{-\lambda t} N(d_1) - e^{-rt} XN(d_2)$$

Where:

$$d_1 = \frac{\ln\left(\frac{S}{X}\right) + \left(r - \lambda + \frac{\sigma^2}{2}\right)t}{\sigma\sqrt{t}}, d_2 = d_1 - \sigma\sqrt{t}$$

- (i) Option price per share: (C)
- (ii) Share price (S): Closing price of the regular trading of the shares of common stock (futsū kabushiki) of MMC on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on the day on which share acquisition rights are granted (if there is no such closing price, the base price of the immediately following trading day)
- (iii) Exercise price: (X): one (1) yen
- (iv) Expected time to maturity: (t): 28 years
- (v) Volatility (σ): Share price volatility calculated using the closing price of the regular trading of the shares of common stock (futsū kabushiki) of MMC on each trading day during the period of twenty-eight (28) years (the 28-year period leading up to the day on which share acquisition rights are granted)
- (vi) Risk-free interest rate (r): Interest rate of national government bonds whose remaining years to maturity corresponds to the expected time to maturity
- (vii) Dividend yield (λ): Dividend amount per share (actual dividends for the fiscal year in which the share acquisition rights are granted) ÷ Share price set forth in (ii) above
- (viii) Cumulative distribution function for the standard normal distribution ($N(\cdot)$)

After the issuance of the share acquisition rights, if MMC conducts a stock split (including a gratis allotment of MMC’s common stock. The same applies for stock splits mentioned below), or a stock consolidation, the number of shares subject to unexercised Share Acquisition Rights shall be adjusted using the formula described below, and any fractional shares arising from the adjustment shall be rounded down.

(Adjusted number of shares) = (number of shares prior to adjustment) x (ratio of the stock split/consolidation)

In addition to the above, if it becomes necessary to adjust the number of shares subject to unexercised Share Acquisition Rights, MMC may adjust it within a rational range, and any fractional shares arising from the adjustment shall be rounded down.

- 1-2. Number of shares to be issued upon the exercise of one share acquisition right, total number of shares that will be issued upon exercise of share acquisition rights, and fair value of a share acquisition right for one share
The number of shares to be issued upon the exercise of one Share Acquisition Right (the “Number of Issued Shares”) shall be calculated by dividing JPY 40,000, which is the issue price for one Share Acquisition Right, (the “Issue Price”) by the fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share. If a grantee simultaneously exercises his/her multiple share acquisition rights, the Number of Issued Shares shall be a maximum whole part of the number calculated by (i) multiplying the Issue Price by the number of the Share Acquisition Rights that are exercised and then (ii) dividing the multiplied number by the fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share.

The fair value of a Share Acquisition Right for one share shall be calculated on the grant date by using the following Black-Scholes formula:

$$C = Se^{-\lambda t} N(d_1) - e^{-rt} X N(d_2)$$

Where:

- (i) Option price per share: (C)
- (ii) Share price (S): Closing price of the regular trading of the shares of common stock (futsu kabushiki) of MMC on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on the day on which share acquisition rights are granted (if there is no such closing price, the base price of the immediately following trading day)
- (iii) Exercise price: (X): one (1) yen
- (iv) Expected time to maturity: (t): 8 years
- (v) Volatility (σ): Share price volatility calculated using the closing price of the regular trading of the shares of common stock (futsu kabushiki) of MMC on each trading day during the period of eight (8) years (the 8 year period leading up to the day on which share acquisition rights are granted)
- (vi) Risk-free interest rate (r): Interest rate of national government bonds whose remaining years to maturity corresponds to the expected time to maturity
- (vii) Dividend yield (λ): Dividend amount per share (average dividend paid in the last three fiscal years) \div Share price set forth in (ii) above
- (viii) Cumulative distribution function for the standard normal distribution ($N(\cdot)$)

After the issuance of the share acquisition rights, if MMC conducts a stock split (including a gratis allotment of MMC's common stock. 3. Dividend policy

MMC considers returning profits to its shareholders one of the most important tasks of management. In the automobile industry, there is great demand for capital in order for companies to achieve sustainable growth, such as through further promotion of technological innovations and environmental efforts; therefore, it is our basic policy to maintain the stable distribution of profits to shareholders after comprehensively considering cash flows and business performance.

Furthermore, regarding the number of dividend payments to be made each fiscal year, MMC's basic policy is to conduct two dividends – an interim dividend and a year-end dividend. The organs that decide on these dividends are the General Meeting of Shareholders for the year-end dividend and the Board of Directors for the interim dividend. MMC's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that it may conduct an interim dividend in accordance with the provisions of Article 454, paragraph (5) of the Companies Act.

However, in terms of the end-of-term dividend for the current fiscal year, as a result of the decrease in sales due to the spread of COVID-19 and the loss recorded due to structural reforms, the outlook for securing constant resources to pay dividends remains unclear. Therefore, MMC regrets to inform that it will not pay the end-of-term dividend.

(iii) Information about development of risk management framework

MMC has put in place and works to improve its risk management system for the entire Group through three types of risk management activities: priority risk management, departmental risk management and subsidiaries and affiliates risk management.

For priority risk management, MMC selects risks that the entire MMC Group faces directly, that have significant potential impact and a high degree of urgency. For each risk, MMC assigns “risk owners” and works as quickly as possible to reduce these risks.

In departmental risk management, MMC has appointed employees in charge of risk management to each division or plant. These employees work to reduce risks through repeated application of the PDCA cycle, which involves identifying and evaluating each risk, devising and implementing countermeasures, and monitoring.

Subsidiaries and affiliates risk management includes initiatives for addressing various types of risks encountered by MMC’s subsidiaries and affiliates. MMC periodically confirms the status of activities such as improvement of business continuity plans (BCPs), and proposes and directs improvements, as necessary.

These risk management initiatives are regularly reported to the Board of Directors as key internal control measures.

In addition, in order to prepare for unforeseen contingencies MMC operates emergency contact systems that enable the rapid communication of information to the senior management, as well as a swift and accurate response. In particular, in order to create a crisis management system to guide MMC's response when serious incidents occur, MMC has formulated an emergency response manual. This manual outlines the establishment of an emergency response organization and clarifies the chain of command, enabling MMC to put appropriate response systems into place.

MMC's basic policy in times of disaster, such as earthquake or other large-scale natural disaster or an outbreak of infectious disease, is to ensure the safety of customers and employees and their families, and to assist local communities. MMC prepares disaster countermeasures and business continuity plans (BCPs) to this end.

MMC conducts drills in communicating among individual plants and Group companies on the basis of a presumed emergency.

As preparations against the possibility that employees will be unable to return to their homes and to stay at the headquarters for a three-day period, MMC conducts initiatives for communicating with local municipal authorities in order to ensure means through which they can communicate with their families and emergency supplies.

MMC has formulated plans of operation that assume a large-scale earthquake or major outbreak of infectious disease. MMC works to improve these BCPs through drills and communication among individual regions.

(iv) Conditions for resolution on the election of Members of the Board

MMC's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that Members of the Board are to be elected by a majority vote of the General Meeting of Shareholders where shareholders holding at least one-third of the voting rights of shareholders eligible to exercise their voting rights are in attendance, and that a resolution to elect a Member of the Board is not to be made by cumulative voting.

(v) Matters for resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders that may be resolved by the Board of Directors and reason therefor

a. Acquisition of shares

MMC's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that it may acquire treasury shares through market transactions and so forth by a resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of Article 165, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act so as to enable flexible acquisition of treasury shares in response to its management situation, financial situation, and other situations.

b. Exemption from liability of Members of the Board and Executive Officers

To enable Members of the Board and Executive Officers to perform their roles as expected, MMC's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that MMC may exempt Members of the Board (including former Members of the Board) and Executive Officers (including former Executive Officers) from their compensation liability in cases where the criteria stipulated by laws and regulations pursuant to Article 423, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act apply by a resolution of the Board of Directors, by limiting the liability to the amount obtained by deducting the minimum liability limit amount stipulated by laws and regulations from the compensation liability amount. Furthermore, MMC's Articles of Incorporation state that MMC may conclude agreements with its Members of the Board (excluding Members of the Board who execute business and so forth) to limit their compensation liability in cases where the criteria stipulated by laws and regulations regarding compensation liability pursuant to Article 423, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act apply (however, the limit of compensation liability based on the agreements shall be the higher amount of a predetermined amount of 5 million yen or more and the minimum liability limited amount stipulated by laws and regulations). MMC has concluded agreements with Members of the Board who do not serve concurrently as Executive Officers limiting their liability for damages to the higher of 7 million yen or the minimum amount of liability stipulated in Article 425, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act for the liability stipulated in Article 423, paragraph (1) of the same Act.

c. Outline of the directors and officers liability insurance policy, etc.

MMC has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance policy as provided for in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act with an insurance agency, as follows.

<Scope of insureds>

Directors, Executive Officers, Audit & Supervisory Board Members and Corporate Officers (including retired individuals) of MMC and its subsidiaries

<Outline of content of insurance policy>

The insurance policy covers the insured's amount of indemnification and such costs as related litigation expenses incurred from claims for damages arising from acts (including nonfeasance) carried out by the insured as an officer or a person at a certain position of a company. However, losses and costs personally incurred by directors and officers through criminal acts and intentional illegal activities, such as bribery, are not covered by the policy as a measure to ensure that the proper performance of duties of officers, etc., is not impaired. The full amount of insurance premiums are borne by MMC.

d. Interim dividend

In order to return profits flexibly to shareholders, MMC's Articles of Incorporation stipulate that MMC may pay an interim dividend as provided by Article 454, paragraph (5) of the Companies Act by a resolution of the Board of Directors to the final shareholder or registered pledgee of shares listed or recorded on the shareholders register as of September 30 each year.

(vi) Changes in criteria for special resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and reason therefor

To ensure that special resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are carried out in a timely and smooth manner, the Articles of Incorporation stipulate that special resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders as provided by Article 309, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act are to be carried out by a majority of at least two-thirds, where shareholders holding at least one-third of the voting rights of shareholders eligible to exercise voting rights are in attendance.

As of the filing date, MMC has 11 Outside Directors, and MMC has no special interest relationship with any of the Outside Directors.

Outside Director Tomofumi Hiraku has extensive experience, knowledge and personal networks across industries at large, having held important posts such as Director-General, Kansai Bureau and Director-General, Manufacturing Industries Bureau at the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, as well as having been involved in energy policy planning at the Agency for Natural Resources and Energy. As such, MMC has appointed him as an Outside Director with the expectation that with these qualities, he will be able to actively supervise the MMC's management and offer advice and recommendations to MMC. Moreover, MMC recognizes that there is no risk of a conflict of interest arising between Mr. Hiraku and MMC's general shareholders, and considers him to be sufficiently independent. MMC has therefore appointed him as an Independent Director.

Outside Director Shunichi Miyanaga serves concurrently as Chairman of the Board of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd., which conducts transactions with MMC related to automobile parts purchasing and so forth. He also serves concurrently as Outside Director of Mitsubishi Corporation, which is a major shareholder and a major business partner of MMC that conducts transactions with MMC related to overseas sales of automobiles and so forth. In light of the fact that he has served as a business executive of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd., which was a major shareholder of MMC within the past five years and the current relationship between MMC and Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd., he has not been appointed as an Independent Director. However, he has considerable experience, achievements and deep insight nurtured through his long-standing career in corporate management at a manufacturing company that operates worldwide, and as such, MMC has appointed him as an Outside Director with the expectation that with these qualities, he will be able to actively supervise the MMC's management and offer advice and recommendations to MMC.

Outside Director Ken Kobayashi serves concurrently as Chairman of the Board of Mitsubishi Corporation, which is a major shareholder and a major business partner of MMC as described above. Moreover, Mr. Kobayashi serves concurrently as Outside Director of Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd., which conducts transactions with MMC related to automobile parts purchasing and so forth. Mr. Sasae had entered an advisory contract with MMC which terminated in May 2019. However, since the amount of fees under the advisory contract is less than the amount stipulated by the MMC's Independence Standards and Qualification for Outside Directors described above, it does not affect Mr. Sasae's independence, and MMC recognizes that there is no risk of a conflict of interest arising between Mr. Sasae and MMC's general shareholders, and considers him to be sufficiently independent. 2. For Members of the Board who serve concurrently as Executive Officers, MMC pays compensation for their service as Executive Officers and does not pay compensation for their service as Members of the Board.

3. Although the compensation system for Executive Officers is designed to pay “Short-term Performance-linked Compensation,” “Additional Individual Compensation” and “Long-term Performance-linked Compensation” as compensation linked to business performance for the fiscal year under review and thereafter, MMC has decided not to pay any of those types of compensation for FY2020.
4. From FY2017 to FY2020, MMC granted Stock Options to Executive Directors as compensation for each fiscal year linked to business performance, etc. in the previous fiscal year. The amounts under “Stock Options Granted Linked to Performance in Previous Fiscal Years” are the amounts that were posted as expenses incurred for granting those share acquisition rights for FY2020.
5. The following compensation, etc. was paid and recorded in the fiscal year under review due to the retirement and death of former Chairman of the Board and Representative Executive Officer Osamu Masuko in August 2020. The total amount of these compensations is 227 million yen. Osamu Masuko and these compensations are not included in the “Number of payees” and “Amount of compensation” in the above table.
- Base Compensation (monthly basis) during the term of office for FY2020: 30 million yen
 - Cash paid and number of shares delivered as Deferred Retirement Compensation to the term of office for FY2020: 1 million yen in cash, and 5,700 shares of MMC (equivalent to 1 million yen)
 - Lump-sum posted by MMC as accrued expenses of the provisions for Stock Options granted from FY2017 to FY2020: 193 million yen
6. “Deferred Retirement Compensation” is fixed compensation using the Board Incentive Plan Trust (“BIP Trust”), which is the compensation system that MMC introduced starting from the FY2020. The above table shows the total of the 19 million yen posted as expenses for granting 89,850 points (equivalent to 89,850 shares of MMC) during FY2020 for the BIP Trust and the 2 million yen posted as a provision for deferred retirement compensation for FY2020 that MMC plans to pay in cash as a substitute to one non-Japanese officer who is not eligible for the BIP Trust.
7. “Others” is the total of the 90 million yen in “Compensation for Achieving Fixed Cost Reduction Targets” to be paid to Executive Officers only for FY2020 and the 5 million yen equivalent to the tax adjustment allowance, housing allowance and other fringe benefits for one Executive Officer. Note that apart from this, the amount of compensation borne in the fiscal year under review as the amount equivalent to the tax adjustment allowance for compensation for FY2019 paid to two Executive Officers who retired as MMC’s officers in FY2019 was 6 million yen. The above table does not include the said amount. Excluding said amount borne in the fiscal year under review, the amount of this compensation, etc. is included in the amount of compensation disclosed in the “Compensation, etc. of corporate officers” field in MMC’s FY2019 Annual Securities Report.

B. Overview of the Compensation Committee and its activities

MMC is a company with three committees. The Compensation Committee has the authority to determine the policy for determining the content of individual compensation, etc. for Members of the Board and Executive Officers, and the content of individual compensation, etc. for Members of the Board and Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee comprises a total of five members, one Internal Director and four Outside Directors. The Compensation Committee convened a total of nine times in FY2020 and all members had 100% attendance. In FY2020, the Compensation Committee considered and deliberated matters such as the basic policy relating to compensation of Members of the Board and Executive Officers, compensation levels, compensation structure and the introduction of a Board Incentive Plan (BIP) Trust system.

C. The contents and method for determining the policy for setting the amount of compensation of corporate officers or the calculation method

Pursuant to the Companies Act, the Compensation Committee establishes the policy for determining the content of individual compensation, etc. for Members of the Board and Executive Officers.

<Basic approach>

- (i) The compensation system shall contribute to MMC group's sustainable growth and medium- to long-term improvement of corporate value.
- (ii) The compensation system shall be linked with corporate results in order to motivate Executive Officers to accomplish management strategies and management plans as well as to achieve targeted corporate results in an appropriate manner.
- (iii) The compensation levels shall contribute to securing professionals who measure up to ideal standards for management personnel that MMC expects for those responsible for corporate operation to have.
- (iv) The compensation system shall increase a shared awareness of profits with shareholders and awareness of shareholder-focused management.
- (v) The decision-making process relating to compensation shall be highly transparent and objective.

- (a) Members of the Board (excluding Members of the Board who serve concurrently as Executive Officers)

Considering the role of Members of the Board in supervising overall execution from a position independent of business execution, MMC established a policy for the compensation of Members of the Board who do not serve concurrently as Executive Officers consisting of only Base Compensation, which is fixed compensation, and an additional fixed amount of compensation according to their duties as the Chairperson or Member of the Nomination Committee, Compensation Committee and Audit Committee.

- (b) Executive Officers

MMC established a policy for the compensation of Executive Officers (including Executive Officers who serve concurrently as Members of the Board) consisting of Base Compensation, Short-term Performance-linked Compensation and Additional Individual Compensation, as well as Long-term Performance-linked Compensation and Deferred Retirement Compensation as share-based compensation (BIP Trust; see the below). The goal of this is to strive for sustained improvement of corporate value, while sharing value with shareholders, and to secure skilled professionals including those from outside the company and overseas.

<Compositional breakdown of compensation>

(The compositional breakdown of compensation differs by individual position. The compensation ratios are determined assuming the total compensation for each position is 10.)

Monetary compensation			Share-based compensation
Base Compensation	Short-term Performance-linked Compensation	Additional Individual Compensation	Long-term Performance-linked Compensation	Deferred Retirement Compensation
5.0 to 6.5	1.5 to 2.0	0 to 0.5	1.0 to 2.0	0.5 to 1.0

- Base Compensation is fixed compensation that has been decided according to position.
- Short-term Performance-linked Compensation is compensation to incentivize the payee to achieve the single-year business performance targets based on annual plans. So that this compensation effectively functions as an incentive to aim for the achievement of management targets, indicators have been established for the Group's management targets.
- Additional Individual Compensation is calculated as a payment amount corresponding to the level of achievement of targets that have been individually set for each Executive Officer. Separate from the Group's overall targets, operating division targets are set for each Executive Officer corresponding to the area of business operations they are in charge of, and these have been established as an incentive for the achievement of those targets.
- Long-term Performance-linked Compensation is compensation to incentivize the payee to achieve the long-term targets necessary to realize the future envisaged for MMC. The indicators for this compensation were determined after considering the key performance indicators used in the manufacturing sector, the pressing issues of management, and the sharing of value with shareholders.
- Deferred Retirement Compensation is accrued by deferring a portion of the payment of fixed compensation, and paid upon retirement.

There are no matters to report concerning the targets and actual results for the fiscal year under review because the Compensation Committee determined at the beginning of the fiscal year to not pay Short-term Performance-linked Compensation, Additional Individual Compensation, or Long-term Performance-linked Compensation. That decision was made in consideration of factors including the fact that deterioration of financial performance was already expected from the beginning of the fiscal year, the fact that no dividends were paid, and the deterioration of the business environment due to the impact of COVID-19.

Share-based compensation (BIP trust) refers to a mechanism that operates as follows. In cases where a certain number of points are granted and beneficiary rights are satisfied in accordance with MMC's share-based compensation rules, the payees receive a delivery of shares of MMC's common stock amounting to the equivalent of the determined ratio of the number of points that are converted to shares on a conversion ratio of 1 share for every 1 point, and for the shares of common stock of MMC corresponding to the remaining number of points, the payees receive money equivalent to the price to convert the equivalent number of shares of common stock of MMC to money within the trust (hereinafter the "Delivery, etc. of MMC's Shares etc.") For the Long-term Performance-linked Compensation, Delivery, etc. of MMC's Shares etc. is made annually at an amount corresponding to the position of the eligible officer and the level of achievement of business targets, etc. for a three-fiscal-year evaluation period. In the case of Long-term Performance-linked Compensation, however, Delivery, etc. of MMC's Shares etc. will not be made because of the determination not to make payments for FY2020 as stated above. In addition, for the Deferred Retirement Compensation, an amount of points corresponding to the officer's position are granted annually and, as a general rule, the Delivery, etc. of MMC's Shares etc. is made in a single lump delivery upon retirement. If it is found that an eligible officer has violated the appointment contract, the entire amount or a portion of the beneficiary rights of the shares scheduled for delivery under the compensation plan may be forfeited by decision of the Compensation Committee (malus clause) or the officer may be required to return the entire amount or a portion of the delivered shares, etc. (clawback clause). The eligible officers must follow the rules to prevent insider trading established by MMC and various related laws and regulations with respect to MMC's shares acquired through the compensation plan.

<Compensation reduction for officers in FY2021>

As we judged that it would be unavoidable to reduce the amount of officer compensation in light of sharing of value with shareholders while sincerely accepting the MMC group's current severe circumstances, such as forgoing of the year-end dividend for FY2020, we have decided to reduce the amounts to be paid to Representative Executive Officers, Executive Officers and Corporate Officers as officer compensation for FY2021 as below. Furthermore, we have been offered by Non-executive Directors including Outside Directors to refund part of their compensation. MMC intends to accept the offer.

Details of the compensation reduction and refund

(i) Representative Executive Officers, Executive Officers and Corporate Officers:

Long-term Performance-linked Compensation: not to be paid; Other compensation (including Base Compensation): reduced by 10% to 12%

(ii) Non-executive Directors including Outside Directors:

Base Compensation: reduced by 5% to 12%

Period subject to the reduction and refund

Twelve (12) months for each

The compensation reduction and refund proposals were finalized after the deliberations at the Compensation Committee and reported to the Board of Directors. MMC's officers will work hard to achieve management strategies based on "Small but Beautiful" that it is aiming to achieve through company-wide concerted efforts.

(5) Status of shareholdings

(i) Standard of investment shares division and the policy

MMC classifies its investment shares as either investment shares held for purposes of portfolio investment with the aim of generating profit derived from changes in the value of the shares and dividends pertaining to the shares, or otherwise as investment shares held for purposes other than portfolio investment. MMC holds investment shares for purposes other than portfolio investment shares only, and accordingly does not hold investment shares for purposes of portfolio investment shares. Moreover, MMC holds investment shares for purposes other than portfolio investment shares only if it deems that such shareholdings are necessary for developing its business with respect to maintaining and strengthening medium- to long-term partnerships, and furthermore essential in order to achieve sustainable growth and to increase medium- to long-term corporate value.

(ii) Investment shares held for purposes other than portfolio investment shares

- a. Method for verifying holding policy and rationale for holdings, and description of verification performed by the Board of Directors, etc. regarding propriety of holding individual issues

MMC maintains cross-shareholdings based on the aforementioned policy, and strives to reduce its cross-shareholdings by such means as selling shares deemed no longer necessary to hold for such purposes. Individual issues currently held are subject to validation on an annual basis in terms of factors including the necessity of maintaining such holdings in relation to MMC's business operations and the medium- to long-term economic rationale for such holdings, and the results of the validation is reported at meetings of the Board of Directors.

- b. Number of issues and balance sheet amount

	Number of issues (Issues)	Total balance sheet amount (Millions of yen)
Unlisted shares	24	6,846
Shares other than unlisted shares	2	743

(Issues of which the number of shares increased in the current fiscal year)

Not applicable.

(Issues of which the number of shares decreased in the current fiscal year)

	Number of issues (Issues)	Total selling price for the shares decreased (Millions of yen)

- c. Information on number of shares, balance sheet amount, etc. of individual issues of specified investment shares

Notes

Material basis of the preparation of consolidated financial statements

1. Scope of consolidation

(1) Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 35

The names of major companies are omitted here because they are provided in “I. Overview of the Company, 4. Status of subsidiaries and associates.”

Changes in the scope of consolidation

1) Newly included in the scope of consolidation: 1

Company included in the scope of consolidation due to increased materiality

MMC Manufacturing Malaysia Sdn. Bhd

2) Excluded from the scope of consolidation: 1

Company excluded from the scope of consolidation due to merger

Chubu Mitsubishi Motor Sales Co., Ltd.

(2) Names of major unconsolidated subsidiaries

MMC Wing Co., Ltd., etc.

Reason for exclusion from scope of consolidation

The amounts of total assets, net sales, profit or loss, and retained earnings of unconsolidated subsidiaries, including the above, are all insignificant in size and do not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements in aggregate either, therefore such subsidiaries are excluded from the scope of consolidation.

2. Application of the equity method

(1) Number of associates to which the equity method is applied: 19

There were no unconsolidated subsidiaries accounted for using the equity method at the end of the fiscal year.

The names of major companies are omitted here because they are provided in “I. Overview of the Company, 4. Status of subsidiaries and associates.”

Changes in the scope of equity method

1) Newly included in the scope of equity method: 1

Company included in the scope of equity method due to the acquisition of additional shares

FF Sheffe B.V. (the parent company of the sales company in Russia)

2) Excluded from the scope of equity method: 1

Company excluded from the scope of equity method due to the sale of equity interest

China Harbin Dongan Automotive Engine Manufacturing Co., Ltd.

(2) Names of unconsolidated subsidiaries and associates to which the equity method is not applied

Unconsolidated subsidiaries

MMC Wing Co., Ltd., etc.

Associates

Diamond F.C. Partners, Co., Ltd., etc.

Reason for non-application of equity method

The amounts such as profit or loss and retained earnings of unconsolidated subsidiaries and associates to which the equity method is not applied are all insignificant in size and do not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements in aggregate either, therefore such unconsolidated subsidiaries and associates are excluded from the scope of equity method.

3. Fiscal year end dates of consolidated subsidiaries

For those overseas seven consolidated subsidiaries such as Mitsubishi Motors (Thailand) Co., Ltd., for which the fiscal year end date (December 31) is different from the consolidated fiscal year end date (March 31), provisional financial statements are prepared as of March 31, for consolidation purposes.

4. Accounting policies

(1) Valuation basis and methods for significant assets

Securities

Held-to-maturity securities:

Stated at amortized cost.

Available-for-sale securities

Available-for-sale securities with a readily determinable market value:

Stated at fair value based on the market price on the consolidated balance sheet date and the cost of securities sold is computed based on the moving average method. The difference between the acquisition cost and the carrying value of available-for-sale securities, including unrealized gains and losses, is recognized in valuation difference on available-for-sale securities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Available-for-sale securities without a readily determinable market value:

Stated at cost determined by the moving average method.

Derivative financial instruments

Market price method (excluding interest rate swaps for which the special treatment is applied)

Inventories

Inventories of MMC and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries are principally stated at cost determined by the first in first out method or specific identification method (under either method, the balance sheet carrying value is reduced to recognize any deterioration of recoverability). Inventories of the overseas consolidated subsidiaries are principally stated at the lower of cost or market value, cost being determined by the specific identification method.

(2) Depreciation and amortization method for significant depreciable and amortizable assets

Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets)

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets) is principally calculated using the declining balance method or the straight line method over the estimated useful life of the respective assets for MMC and domestic consolidated subsidiaries. Depreciation is principally calculated using the straight line method for the overseas consolidated subsidiaries.

The useful lives of the assets are based on the estimated lives of assets for MMC and are consistent with the Corporation Tax Act for its domestic consolidated subsidiaries. The useful lives of the assets are determined based on the expected useful lives for the overseas consolidated subsidiaries.

Intangible assets (excluding leased assets)

Intangible assets (excluding leased assets) are amortized using the straight line method for MMC and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries and using the straight line method primarily over the period for which each asset is available for use for its overseas consolidated subsidiaries. Software intended for use by MMC and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries is amortized using the straight line method over the period for which each asset is available for use (5 years).

Leased assets

Assets recognized under finance leases that do not involve transfer of ownership to the lessee for MMC and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries and right-of-use assets for the overseas consolidated subsidiaries are depreciated using the straight line method based on the contract term of the lease agreement. If a guaranteed residual value is determined in the lease agreement, the said guaranteed residual value is deemed as the residual value of such leased assets. If the residual value is not determined, it is deemed to be zero.

(3) Significant allowances and provisions

Allowance for doubtful accounts

To prepare for losses from bad debts for trade receivables, loans, etc., an estimate of the amount of specific uncollectible accounts is provided as an allowance for doubtful accounts based on the historical default rate for ordinary receivables, and taking into account individual collectability for specific receivables such as doubtful receivables.

Provision for product warranties

MMC and domestic consolidated subsidiaries calculate the provision for product warranties after taking into account, according to the warranty agreements, future warranty forecasts based on past results in order to provide for the products' after-service costs. Overseas consolidated subsidiaries calculate the provision for product warranties after taking into account future warranty forecasts based on their past results in order to provide for the products' after-service costs.

Provision for loss on fuel consumption test

To provide for losses relating to fuel consumption test, the provision is calculated to the extent that can be reasonably projected and estimated at the end of the current fiscal year.

(4) Accounting method for retirement benefits

Method of attributing estimated retirement benefits to the periods

In calculating retirement benefit obligations, the projected total retirement benefits are allocated to periods until the end of the fiscal year using a benefit formula basis.

Method of amortization of actuarial gains and losses and prior service costs

Prior service cost is amortized using the straight line method over a fixed number of years (mainly 10 years) within the estimated average remaining service years of the employees at the time of incurrence.

Actuarial gains and losses are being amortized using the straight line method over a fixed number of years (mainly 10 years) within the estimated average remaining service years of the employees commencing from the following fiscal year after incurrence.

Unrecognized actuarial gains and losses and unrecognized prior service cost are recorded in remeasurements of defined benefit plans in accumulated other comprehensive income under net assets after adjusting for tax effects.

(5) Translation of significant foreign currency accounts

Receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies are translated into yen at the rates of exchange in effect at the end of the fiscal year, and differences arising from the translation are included in the consolidated statement of income. For overseas consolidated subsidiaries, etc., assets and liabilities are translated into yen at the rates of exchange at the end of the fiscal year, and income and expenses are translated at the average exchange rates during the period. Differences arising from the translation are included in foreign currency translation adjustment and non-controlling interests under net assets.

(6) Significant hedge accounting method

Hedge accounting method

Primarily, deferred hedge accounting is applied for derivative instruments. Interest rate swaps meeting the requirements for special treatment are accounted for using the special treatment.

Hedging instruments and hedged items

Hedging instruments and hedged items to which hedge accounting is applied for the current fiscal year are as follows:

a. Hedging instruments: Forward foreign exchange contracts

Hedged items: Primarily, trade receivables denominated in foreign currencies arising from product exports (on forecast transactions)

b. Hedging instruments: Interest rate currency swaps

Hedged items: Borrowings denominated in foreign currencies

Hedging policy

MMC is conducting hedging activities in order to avoid future foreign exchange fluctuation risk on monetary receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies arising from normal course of business transactions and interest rate fluctuation risk on borrowings, etc.

Method of assessing of hedge effectiveness

With respect to forward foreign exchange contracts, assessment of hedge effectiveness is omitted, since material conditions are identical with forecast transactions to be hedged and it can be assumed to offset market fluctuations at the time of inception of hedges and afterward. Also, with respect to interest rate currency swaps through integrated processing, assessment of effectiveness is omitted.

With respect to interest rate swaps accounted for using special treatment, assessment of hedge effectiveness is substituted by identifying that they meet the requirements.

(7) Method and period of goodwill amortization

Goodwill is amortized using the straight-line method over a period of 5 years beginning with the day on which it is realized.

(8) Scope of cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statement of cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, cash in banks which can be withdrawn at any time and short-term investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased which can easily be converted to cash and are subject to little risk of change in value.

(9) Other significant matters serving as the preparation of consolidated financial statements

Accounting for consumption taxes

Consumption tax and local consumption tax are accounted for by tax-exclusion method.

Application of consolidated taxation system

The consolidated taxation system is applied.

Application of tax effect accounting in relation to the transition from the consolidated taxation system to the group tax sharing system

For the transition to the group tax sharing system established by the Act on Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act (Act No. 8 of 2020) and items for which the non-consolidated tax payment system has been revised in conjunction with the transition to the group tax sharing system, MMC and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries have not applied the provisions of paragraph 44 of Implementation Guidance on Tax Effect Accounting (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, February 16, 2018), and have recognized the amounts of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities in accordance with the provisions of the tax law prior to revision, based on the treatment of paragraph 3 in Practical Solution on the Treatment of Tax Effect Accounting for the Transition from the Consolidated Taxation System to the Group Tax Sharing System (ASBJ PITF No. 39, March 31, 2020).

Significant accounting estimates

(1) Liabilities related to market quality measures

1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2021

	As of March 31, 2021 (Millions of yen)
Liabilities related to market quality measures	41,049

(The above amount is included in accounts payable - other, and accrued expenses in the consolidated balance sheet.)

2) Information on significant accounting estimates for identified items

(i) Calculation method

The MMC Group reasonably estimates the future expenses for measures relating to the voluntary recall and repair of sold products that are non-compliant under an individual country's regulatory requirements concerning safety and the environment. In cases where such expenditures are likely to be incurred and can be reasonably estimated, the MMC Group calculates the future expenses, considering the expenses to be incurred per unit, the number of units, the occurrence rate of the recall and repair of subject vehicles, and other factors.

(ii) Key assumption

The key assumption used in the calculation of future expenses is the occurrence rate of the recall and repair, which is based on past experiences and the other factors by sales region and vehicle age.

(iii) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2022

In the event that the actual amount of expenses incurred differs from the estimate due to calculation uncertainties arising primarily from the complexity of the estimated calculation and the long period of time used for the estimate, additional liabilities or reversal of liabilities for market quality measures may be required. In addition, in the event of large-scale recalls, remedial measures, etc., due to product defects or failures, the MMC Group may be required to bear significant costs and record additional liabilities for market quality measures.

(2) Impairment of non-current assets

1) Amounts recorded in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended and as of March 31, 2021

	For the fiscal year ended and as of March 31, 2021 (Millions of yen)
Impairment loss	117,973
Property, plant and equipment, and Intangible assets	444,901

(Details of impairment loss are as stated in "Consolidated statement of income (*4) Impairment losses.")

2) Information on significant accounting estimates for identified items

(i) Calculation method

MMC assesses whether to recognize an impairment loss for an asset or a group of assets for which there is an indication of impairment. If MMC determines that an impairment loss should be recognized, the carrying amount will be reduced to its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is determined by the higher amount of the net selling value or the value in use. The net selling value is reasonably computed using the appraisal value based on the real estate appraisal standard, the assessed value of the inheritance tax based on the road rating, and other values. The value in use, which is based on the mid-term business plan approved by the Board of Directors, is the discounted present value of estimated future cash flows, given growth rates that take into account future uncertainties. The recoverable amount of idle assets is computed using the net selling value and those idle assets which are substantially difficult to sell are assessed as net selling value of zero.

(ii) Key assumption

The key assumptions used in estimating future cash flows and value in use are forecasts of sales volumes, manufacturing/selling costs, growth rates and discount rates. Forecasts of sales volumes, manufacturing/selling costs and growth rates are based on past conditions in the MMC Group and forecast data by third parties, taking into account related market trends, changes in its business environment expected at present, and other factors. The discount rate is the weighted average cost of capital. In estimating future cash flows, regarding the impact of COVID-19, it is assumed that the recovery trend in demand from the second half of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021 will continue during the fiscal year ending March 31, 2022 and thereafter.

(iii) Impact on the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2022

The key assumptions in estimating future cash flows and value in use are based on best estimates. However, these are subject to uncertainties, including future market trends and economic conditions. If the estimated future cash flows and value in use are revised, new impairment losses on non-current assets may be recognized or additional impairment losses on non-current assets may be recorded.

New accounting standards to be applied

MMC and domestic subsidiaries and associates

- “Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition” (ASBJ Statement No. 29, March 31, 2020)
- “Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition” (ASBJ Guidance No. 30, March 26, 2021)
- “Implementation Guidance on Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments” (ASBJ Guidance No. 19, March 31, 2020, Accounting Standards Board of Japan)

(1) Outline

The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) and US Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) jointly developed comprehensive revenue recognition standards and issued “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” in May 2014 (IASB’s IFRS 15 and FASB’s Topic 606). Considering that IFRS 15 is applied from fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, and Topic 606 is applied from fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, the ASBJ developed a comprehensive accounting standard on revenue recognition and thus issued the accounting standard together with the implementation guidance.

The ASBJ established the accounting standard on revenue recognition by following the basic policies in developing it. The basic policies were: firstly, incorporating the core principle of IFRS 15 as the starting point from the perspective of facilitating comparability among financial statements, which is one of the benefits of ensuring consistency with IFRS 15; secondly, adding alternative treatments, but to the extent not impairing comparability, where consideration should be given to the practice having been used in Japan.

(2) Scheduled date of application

The aforementioned standard and guidance will be applied at the start of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2022.

(3) Effect of application of the accounting standards

The effect of the application of the aforementioned standard and guidance on MMC's consolidated financial statements is under evaluation.

Change in presentation

(Application of the Accounting Standard for Disclosure of Accounting Estimates)

The Accounting Standard for Disclosure of Accounting Estimates (ASBJ Statement No. 31, March 31, 2020) has been applied to the consolidated financial statements from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021, and included in the notes concerning significant accounting estimates in the consolidated financial statements.

However, in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in the proviso to paragraph 11 of such Accounting Standard, such notes do not show the details relating to the previous fiscal year.

Additional information

(Stock compensation plan)

Based on the resolution of the Compensation Committee meeting held on December 15, 2020, MMC has introduced a stock compensation plan (hereinafter the “Plan”) that utilizes trusts as an incentive plan for its Executive Officers and Corporate Officers, etc. (hereinafter referred to as “Executive Officers, etc.”)

(1) Outline of the transaction

The Plan adopts a structure called the Board Incentive Plan Trust (hereinafter the “Trust”). Through the Trust, MMC will deliver MMC shares or pay money equivalent to the converted value of such shares to Executive Officers, etc., according to their position and degree of achievement of performance targets.

(2) Treasury shares remaining in the Trust

The MMC’s shares remaining in the Trust are recorded as treasury shares in the net assets section at the book value of the trust (excluding the amount of incidental expenses). The book value of the treasury shares as of March 31, 2021, is 251 million yen, and the number of shares is 1,152,650 shares.

For the previous fiscal year (from April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020)

Location	Usage	Type	Amount (Millions of yen)
Yokohama, Kanagawa, etc. (17 locations)	Sales related assets	Buildings, land, and others	671

Kyoto, Kyoto, etc. (3 locations)	Production facilities	Buildings, machinery, equipment, tools, furniture, fixtures, and others	1,929

(2) Grouping method of assets

Assets used in production are grouped mainly by business company and sales related assets are grouped mainly by business unit. In addition, lease assets and idle assets are treated as individual asset groups.

(3) Circumstances leading to recognition of impairment losses

Due to worsening of market environments, etc., the carrying amounts of certain assets were reduced to the recoverable amounts.

(4) Method of computing the recoverable amount

The recoverable amount is determined by the higher amount of the net selling value or the value in use. The net selling value is reasonably computed using the appraisal value based on the real estate appraisal standard, the assessed value of the inheritance tax based on the road rating, and other values. The value in use is computed based on the future cash flows (discount rate is mainly 6%).

The recoverable amount of idle assets is computed using the net selling value and those idle assets which are substantially difficult to sell are assessed as net selling value of zero.

(5) Amount of impairment loss

Of the impairment loss of 3,278 million yen, 2,292 million yen is recorded as “impairment losses” under extraordinary losses, while 986 million yen is recorded as “loss on sales of facilities,” and major components are as follows:

Kyoto, Kyoto, etc. (3 locations)	Idle assets	Machinery, equipment, and others	110
Total			117,973

(Note) Impairment loss of 117,973 million yen comprises 107,747 million yen of “(*4) Impairment losses” and 10,225 million yen out of “(*6) Business restructuring expenses,” both of which were recorded in “Extraordinary losses.”

(2) Grouping method of assets

Assets used in production are grouped mainly by business company and sales related assets are grouped mainly by business unit. In addition, assets leased to others and idle assets are treated as individual asset groups.

(3) Circumstances leading to recognition of impairment losses

As a result of formulating the new mid-term business plan “Small but Beautiful,” which is aimed at quickly reorganizing management through wide-ranging structural reform plans, it was forecasted that some investments would not be recoverable with the change from the initially forecast sales volume. Consequently, the carrying amounts of MMC’s assets used in production were reduced to their recoverable amounts.

Regarding consolidated subsidiaries’ some sales related assets, decisions were made to close some of their dealer stores in line with the reorganization of the sales structure based on the plan, and accordingly, the carrying amounts of such assets were reduced to the recoverable amounts.

Furthermore, as decisions were made to reorganize the production structure and downsize the business according to the plan, some assets used in production of MMC and consolidated subsidiaries’ assets used in production were classified as a distinctive asset group separate from other assets used in production, and the carrying amounts of such asset groups were reduced to their recoverable amounts.

The impairment losses on some of MMC’s assets used in production and consolidated subsidiaries’ assets used in production and the impairment losses on some sales related assets of consolidated subsidiaries were recorded as business restructuring expenses.

(4) Method of computing the recoverable amount

The recoverable amount is determined by the higher amount of the net selling value or the value in use. The net selling value is reasonably computed using the appraisal value based on the real estate appraisal standard, the assessed value of the inheritance tax based on the road rating, and other values. The value in use is computed based on the future cash flows (discount rate is mainly 10.9%).

The recoverable amount of idle assets is computed using the net selling value and those idle assets which are substantially difficult to sell are assessed as net selling value of zero.

(5) Amount of impairment loss

The breakdown of impairment loss of 117,973 million yen is as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
Buildings and structures	34,038
Machinery and equipment	37,668
Tools, furniture and fixtures	16,686
Land	3,462
Other	26,117

Financial instruments

1. Overview of financial instruments

(1) Our policy for managing financial instruments

MMC group's capital management policy is to limit its investments to low-risk financial products and to obtain required funds mainly through bank borrowings. We use derivative instruments to hedge interest rate, foreign currency and similar risks, and we do not enter into any speculative transactions.

(2) Nature and risks of financial instruments and our risk management structure

Trade receivables, which includes notes and accounts receivable - trade, are exposed to the credit risk of our customers. To manage this risk, in accordance with MMC group's credit control rules, each group company monitors the financial condition of its major customers, as well as managing the due dates and outstanding balances of the receivables by customer.

Trade receivables denominated in foreign currency are exposed to foreign currency risk, but forward foreign exchange contracts and others are used to hedge a portion of the position after netting foreign currency denominated payables.

Some investment securities are exposed to the risk of market price fluctuation. However, such securities are composed of mainly the stocks of companies with which MMC group has business relationships.

Trade payables, which include notes and accounts payable - trade, and electronically recorded obligations - operating, are mostly expected to be settled within one year. Some of them are denominated in foreign currency and exposed to foreign currency risk, but forward foreign exchange contracts and others are used to hedge a portion of the position after netting foreign currency denominated receivables.

Floating rate of borrowings are exposed to interest rate risk. For some of the borrowings, derivative transactions (interest rate swaps) may be used as hedging instruments on an individual loan contract basis to hedge the interest payable fluctuation risk.

Certain intercompany loans are exposed to foreign currency risk, however forward foreign exchange contracts and others may be used as hedging instruments for some of these loans.

In order to mitigate counterparty risks, MMC group enters into derivative transactions only with highly rated financial institutions.

Trade payables and borrowings are exposed to liquidity risk. Each group company manages these risks by preparing cash flow projections and other similar tools.

(3) Supplementary explanation on fair value of financial instruments

In "2. Fair value of financial instruments," contractual amounts, etc. for derivative transactions themselves do not indicate market risk on the derivative transactions.

2. Fair value of financial instruments

The carrying amount, fair value, and the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of the financial instruments are as follows. Assets and liabilities for which it is deemed extremely difficult to measure the fair value are not included in the tables below. (Refer to (Note) 2.)

Assets

(1) Cash and deposits

The carrying amounts are used as fair values as these items are settled within a short period of time and the fair values are approximately equal to the carrying amounts.

(2) Notes and accounts receivable - trade

The carrying amounts are used as fair values as these items are generated in the normal course of business operations and principally settled within a short period of time and the fair values are nearly equal to the carrying amounts.

(3) Finance receivables

Finance receivables are classified by certain terms to maturity, and their fair values are determined based on the present values of the respective future cash flows discounted using appropriate rates, such as the rates of government bonds after adding credit risk premiums based on the credit risk classes.

(4) Investment securities

The fair values of investment securities are based on their respective market values. Please refer to the notes in “Securities” with regard to the noteworthy matters provided for each type of securities, classified by holding purpose.

Liabilities

(1) Notes and accounts payable - trade, (2) Electronically recorded obligations - operating, (3) Short-term borrowings, (5) Accounts payable - other, and accrued expenses and (6) Commercial papers

The carrying amounts are used as fair values of these items as these items are settled within a short period of time and the fair values are nearly equal to such carrying amounts.

(4) Long-term borrowings

Long-term borrowings is classified by certain terms to maturity, and their fair values are determined based on the respective present values of the total amount of principal and interest discounted using the prevailing interest rates that would be applied if similar loans were made at the valuation date.

Derivative transactions

Please refer to the notes in “Derivative transactions.”

4. Method for estimating the fair value price of stock options granted

The method for estimating the fair value price of the fourth stock options granted in the current fiscal year is as follows.

1) Valuation methodology used Black-Scholes formula

2) Main basic figures and method of estimation

	The 4th Stock Options
Share price volatility (Note) 1	42.94%
Expected remaining period (Note) 2	8 years
Expected dividend (Note) 3	15.67 yen per share
Risk-free interest rate (Note) 4	(0.079)%

(Notes) 1. Calculated based on the actual share price for eight years (from December 2012 to December 2020).

2. As making a reasonable estimate is difficult due to no accumulation of sufficient data, MMC estimates under the assumption that it will be exercised in the middle of the exercise period.

3. Average of actual dividends for the last three fiscal years.

4. The yield on government bonds of a maturity corresponding to the expected remaining period.

5. Estimation of the number of stock options vested

In principle, as it is difficult to reasonably estimate the future number of forfeitures, MMC adopts the method of only listing forfeitures that have occurred.

Segment information, etc.

[Segment information]

1. Overview of reportable segments

The reportable segments of the Group are components for which discrete financial information is available, and for which operating results are regularly reviewed by MMC's decision making bodies including the Board of Directors to determine resource allocation to the segments and to assess their performance.

The main business of the Group is automobile business, involving design, manufacturing and sales of automobiles and component parts. In addition, as financial service business, we engage in sales finance and leasing services for Group products. Accordingly, based on the types of products and services offered, the Group determined "automobile business" and "financial service business" as two reportable segments.

2. Calculation method of the amounts of net sales, profit or loss, assets and other items by reportable segment

The accounting method for the reportable segments is the same as "Material basis of the preparation of consolidated financial statements." Intersegment sales and transfers are based on the price in the arms-lengths transaction.

Raw materials and supplies

Stated at cost determined by the gross average method (the balance sheet carrying value is reduced to recognize any deterioration of recoverability).

2. Depreciation and amortization method for non-current assets

(1) Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets)

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated using the declining balance method (however, the straight line method is applied to buildings (excluding building improvements) acquired on or after April 1, 1998).

The useful lives of the assets are based on the estimated lives of assets for MMC. The main useful lives of assets are as follows.

Buildings and structures	3 to 60 years
Machinery and equipment, and vehicles	3 to 17 years
Tools, furniture and fixtures	2 to 20 years

Low value depreciable assets

Assets for which the acquisition cost is equal to or more than 100,000 yen and less than 200,000 yen are depreciated in even amounts over three years pursuant to the provisions of the Corporation Tax Act.

(2) Intangible assets (excluding leased assets)

Intangible assets are amortized using the straight line method.

Software intended for use by MMC is amortized using the straight line method over the period for which each asset is available for use (5 years).

(3) Leased assets

Assets recognized under finance leases that do not involve transfer of ownership to the lessee are depreciated using the straight line method based on the contract term under the lease agreement. If a guaranteed residual value is determined in the lease agreement, the said guaranteed residual value is deemed as the residual value of such leased assets. If the residual value is not determined, it is deemed to be zero.

(4) Long-term prepaid expenses

Long-term prepaid expenses are amortized using the straight line method over a fixed period.

3. Allowances and provisions

(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

To prepare for losses from bad debts for trade receivables, loans, etc., an estimate of the amount of specific uncollectible accounts is provided as an allowance for doubtful accounts based on the historical default rate for ordinary receivables, and taking into account individual collectability for specific receivables such as doubtful receivables.

(2) Provision for product warranties

The provision for product warranties is calculated after taking into account, according to the warranty agreements, future warranty forecasts based on past results in order to provide for the products' after-service costs.

(3) Provision for loss on fuel consumption test

To provide for losses relating to fuel consumption test, the provision is calculated to the extent that can be reasonably projected and estimated at the end of the current fiscal year.

(4) Provision for retirement benefits

To prepare for the payment of retirement benefits to employees, provision for retirement benefits for employees are calculated based on the retirement benefit obligation estimated at the end of the current fiscal year.

Prior service cost is being amortized using the straight line method over a fixed number of years (10 years) within the estimated average remaining service years of the employees at the time of incurrence.

Actuarial gains and losses are being amortized using the straight line method over a fixed number of years (10 years) within the estimated average remaining service years of the employees commencing from the following fiscal year after incurrence.

When calculating retirement benefit obligation, the benefit calculation formula standard was used for attributing the expected retirement benefits to the period until the end of the fiscal year.

Deferral hedge accounting (those with forecast transactions)

5. Accounting for consumption taxes

For the previous fiscal year (from April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020)

For the current fiscal year (from April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2021)

(1) Outline of asset group on which an impairment loss was recognized

Location	Usage	Type	Amount (Millions of yen)
Okazaki, Aichi, Kyoto, Kyoto, Kurashiki, Okayama, etc. (6 locations)	Production assets	Buildings, machinery, equipment, tools, furniture, fixtures, and others	108,040

(2) Grouping method of assets

Asset groupings are determined based on assets used in production, assets leased to others and idle assets. Assets leased to others and idle assets are treated as individual asset groups.

(3) Circumstances leading to recognition of impairment losses

As a result of formulating the new mid-term business plan “Small but Beautiful,” which is aimed at quickly reorganizing management through wide-ranging structural reform plans, it was forecasted that some investments would not be recoverable with the change from the initially forecast sales volume. Consequently, the carrying amounts of assets used in production were reduced to their recoverable amounts.

Furthermore, as decisions were made to reorganize the production structure and downsize the business according to the plan, some assets used in production were classified as a distinctive asset group separate from other assets used in production, and the carrying amounts of such asset groups were reduced to their recoverable amounts.

The impairment losses on some assets used in production were recorded as business restructuring expenses.

(4) Method of computing the recoverable amount

The recoverable amount is determined by the higher amount of the net selling value or the value in use. The net selling value is reasonably computed using the appraisal value based on the real estate appraisal standard, the assessed value of the inheritance tax based on the road rating, and other values. The value in use is computed based on the future cash flows (discount rate is 10.9%).

The recoverable amount of idle assets is computed using the net selling value and those idle assets which are substantially difficult to sell are assessed as net selling value of zero.

(5) Amount of impairment loss

The breakdown of impairment loss of 108,148 million yen is as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
Buildings	27,287
Machinery and equipment	35,069

<Financial statements audit>

Opinion

We have audited, pursuant to the provisions of Article 193-2, paragraph (1) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan, the consolidated financial statements included in "Financial Information," which consist of the consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of income, consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in net assets, consolidated statement of cash flows, material basis of the preparation of consolidated financial statements and other notes, and consolidated supplementary schedules of MITSUBISHI MOTORS CORPORATION (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021 (April 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries as of March 31, 2021, and their consolidated financial performance and cash flows for the fiscal year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are matters which in the auditor's professional judgement are considered to be particularly important in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review. Key audit matters are matters that were dealt with in the process of undertaking the audit and forming the opinion for the entire consolidated financial statements, and we do not represent the individual opinion of such matters.

Liabilities related to market quality measures
Description of the Key Audit Matter and Reason for Determining the Matter	How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit
As stated in the Notes "Significant accounting estimates," the Company recorded 41,049 million yen of liabilities related to market quality measures in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021. Such liabilities related to market quality measures are included in accounts payable - other, and accrued expenses in the consolidated balance sheet.	The Accounting Auditors primarily conducted the following audit procedures in relation to the liabilities related to market quality measures. <ul style="list-style-type: none">Evaluated the comprehensive recording of liabilities related to market quality measures and the effectiveness of the preparation and operations for

The Company reasonably estimates the future expenses for measures relating to the voluntary recall and repair of sold products that are non-compliant under an individual country's regulatory requirements concerning safety and the environment. In cases where such expenditures are likely to be incurred and can be reasonably estimated, the Company calculates the future expenses, considering the expenses to be incurred per unit, the number of units, the occurrence rate of the recall and repair of subject vehicles, and other factors. The significant assumption used in the calculation of future expenses is the occurrence rate which is based on past experiences and the other factors by sales region and vehicle age. However, the complexities and uncertainties of the estimated calculations are high and based on significant judgements of management. In addition, in the event of large-scale recalls, remedial measures, etc., due to product defects or failures, the recording of significant liabilities due to market quality measures may seriously impact the consolidated financial statements. Furthermore, to comprehensively reflect the expenses relating to market quality measures determined following the end of the fiscal year and up until the day on which the consolidated financial statements are submitted, whether or not there are such cases need to be promptly identified with the impact on the consolidated financial statements evaluated. Therefore, the Accounting Auditors determined that such matters are key audit matters.	internal controls relating to the evaluation of such estimates. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To investigate the completeness of liabilities related to market quality measures, asked questions of the quality control division, inspected minutes of meetings for bodies such as the Board of Directors and important approval/decision documents relating to market quality measures, and inspected public information such as submissions to the Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism and press releases, etc. • To evaluate the assumptions used in calculating future expenses, investigated the consistency of the occurrence rate and the expenses per unit with materials that substantiate estimates such as for the results of similar projects. • To evaluate the effectiveness of the process for recording liabilities related to market quality measures, compared the amount recorded for liabilities related to market quality measures at the end of the previous fiscal year and the actual expense. • Investigated the assumptions used in calculating the completeness of the liabilities related to market quality measures and future expenses in light of the details for the market quality measures determined following the end of the fiscal year and up until the day on which the consolidated financial statements were submitted.

Impairment of non-current assets
Description of the Key Audit Matter and Reason for Determining the Matter	How We Addressed the Matter in Our Audit
As stated in the Notes "Consolidated statement of income (*4) Impairment losses," as a result of formulating the new mid-term business plan, which is aimed at quickly reorganizing management through wide-ranging structural reform plans, the Company recorded an impairment loss of 108,000 million yen for non-current assets held as assets used in production in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2021 with the change from the initially forecast sales volume and forecast that some investments would not be recoverable. The Company assesses whether to recognize an impairment loss for an asset or a group of assets for which there is an indication of impairment. If the Company determines that an impairment loss should be recognized, the carrying amount will be reduced to its recoverable amount and an impairment loss will be recorded. Responsibilities of Management and Audit Committee for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern and disclosing, as required by accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, matters related to going concern.

Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the performance of duties by Executive Officers and Directors regarding the development and operation of the Group’s financial reporting process.

Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.
- In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the purpose of the audit of the consolidated financial statements is not expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group’s internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with the ethical requirements regarding independence that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Japan, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current fiscal year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in the auditor's report unless law or regulations precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

- We obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence about the results of the assessment of internal control over financial reporting in the internal control report. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the internal control report. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

1. Basic framework of internal control over financial reporting

Takao Kato, Representative Executive Officer, President & CEO and Koji Ikeya, Representative Executive Officer, Executive Vice President (CFO) have the responsibility for the design and operation of internal control over financial reporting of MITSUBISHI MOTORS CORPORATION (the “Company”) and manage the design and operation of such internal control in accordance with the basic framework set forth in the document “On the Setting of the Standards and Practice Standards for Management Assessment and Audit concerning Internal Control Over Financial Reporting (Council Opinions)” published by the Business Accounting Council.

Internal control aims at achieving its objectives to a reasonable extent given that all individual components of internal control are effectively integrated, and function as a whole. Thus, it is possible that internal control over financial reporting may not be able to completely prevent or detect false statements in financial reporting.

2. Scope of assessment, assessment date and assessment procedure

Assessment of internal control over financial reporting was performed as of March 31, 2021 (i.e., the closing date of the current fiscal year) in accordance with assessment standards for internal control over financial reporting generally accepted in Japan.

In this assessment, evaluation was first made of company-level control which would have a material impact on the reliability of financial reporting on a consolidated basis, and based on such result, business processes to be assessed were then selected. In the business process-level control assessment, the effectiveness of internal control was assessed by analyzing the business processes in scope, identifying key controls that would have a material impact on the reliability of the financial reporting, and evaluating the designs and operations of these key controls.

The scope of internal control assessment for financial reporting was determined by selecting the Company, consolidated subsidiaries and entities accounted for using equity method based on the materiality of their impacts on the reliability of financial reporting. The materiality of the impacts on the reliability of financial reporting was determined in consideration of both financial and qualitative aspects, and the scope of assessment of process-level control was reasonably determined based on the result of the company-level control assessment, which included the Company, 16 consolidated subsidiaries, and three entities accounted for using equity method. Also, 19 consolidated subsidiaries and 16 entities accounted for using equity method were determined to be of minimal financial and qualitative materiality and were not included in the scope of evaluation of company-level control.

For the purpose of determining the scope of process-level control assessment, net sales (after elimination of intercompany transaction) of each business site for the previous fiscal year were totaled in order based on the business site that had the highest net sales amount, and the nine business sites that contributed approximately two-thirds of the Company’s consolidated net sales in the previous fiscal year were designated as significant business sites. In selected significant business sites, all business processes related to the accounts that are closely associated with the Company’s business objectives, such as net sales, accounts receivable - trade, and inventories were included in the scope of assessment. Furthermore, not only at the selected significant business sites, but also at other business sites, certain other business processes with a high probability of there being major false statements which are related to significant accounts involving estimates and forecasts, or related to businesses or operations dealing with high-risk transactions were added to the scope of assessment as “business processes having greater materiality,” taking into account their impacts on financial reporting.

3. Assessment result

Based on the above mentioned assessment results, it was concluded that the internal control over financial reporting at the end of the current fiscal year was effective.
