Troubleshooting

- Power indicator light does not light up when power switch has been turned on

Your keyboard has no battery power. Please charge your keyboard by connecting the micro USB charging cable with a working USB power source to the keyboard.

- iPad is unable to find the keyboard in the Bluetooth search screen

Check the keyboard to ensure that the power has been turned on and Bluetooth function on iPad is turned on. Press the “Fn” key and the letter “C” key on the Bluetooth keyboard together to activate the pairing process once again.

- Seeing the keyboard listed after searching Bluetooth devices, but connection failed.

Switch OFF the keyboard power switch. Then in the bluetooth setting on the iPad, select “JBIPAD7KBF” from the “Devices” list, tap “i” icon to either “Disconnect” or “Forget This Device”. Then follow instruction steps 2 to 5 to pair the Bluetooth keyboard to the iPad.

Please Note: Bluetooth keyboard will enter the standby mode to conserve battery power after 10 minutes of idling, press any key to awaken the keyboard.

Maintenance

- Do not place heavy object on the keyboard.
- Do not disassemble the keyboard.
