

RULES OF THE INSTITUTE

1. There are no rules here!
2. You can wear whatever you like. However, trousers, shoes, and shirts are required at all times. Messengers and Executives must wear their uniforms, including tunics and sashes.
3. You don't have to bathe if you don't want to. Simply be clean every day in class. When it comes to personal hygiene, there are unavoidable dangers that must be avoided at all costs.
4. You may stay up as late at night as you wish. Lights are turned off at 10:00 PM, and you must be in your room at that time.
5. You are free to go where you please. Please note, however, that you must keep to the paths and the yellow-tiled corridors. Also, leaving the grounds is not permitted at any time.
6. Eat whatever you want, whenever you want. Our Helpers are available to prepare your favorite delights. Meal hours are posted outside the cafeteria. Latecomers are not permitted.
7. You will be called by the name you prefer. Of course, nicknames are not tolerated unless they are official.
8. Mr. Curtain and his actions are not to be questioned.

Constance Contraire

FOUNDING MEMBER,
THE MYSTERIOUS BENEDICT SOCIETY

Achievements	Has never agreed to do anything
Expertise	Poetic talent, coupled with extreme mental sensitivity
Habits	Grumbling, protesting, demanding sweets, and napping
History	Formerly lived in hiding in a storage room in the Brookville Library
Family	Mr. Benedict, Rhonda Kazembe, and Number Two