

Perceptive Software for Accounts Payable

Accounts payable is one of the most paper-intensive areas within your organization. Success depends on how accurately and efficiently your staff can process the invoices, packing slips, contracts and other documents that influence daily routines.

ImageNow enables you to easily capture, organize, access, manage and process any type of invoice or other document from internal or remote locations alongside any business application. This seamless integration ensures swift processing, timely reimbursement and increased opportunities for supplier discounts.

Advanced ImageNow features further reduce costs and boost productivity in AP by collecting data from invoices and other sources to automate processes, validate totals, assign GL codes, update application records, perform secure archival and more.

Sharpen Your Accounting Focus

Staying focused is more important than ever, especially when searching for ways to cut costs, increase productivity and generate ROI. With just one initiative — using ImageNow to electronically manage accounting and financial documents — your organization could introduce the quickest and most cost-effective way to improve the bottom line.

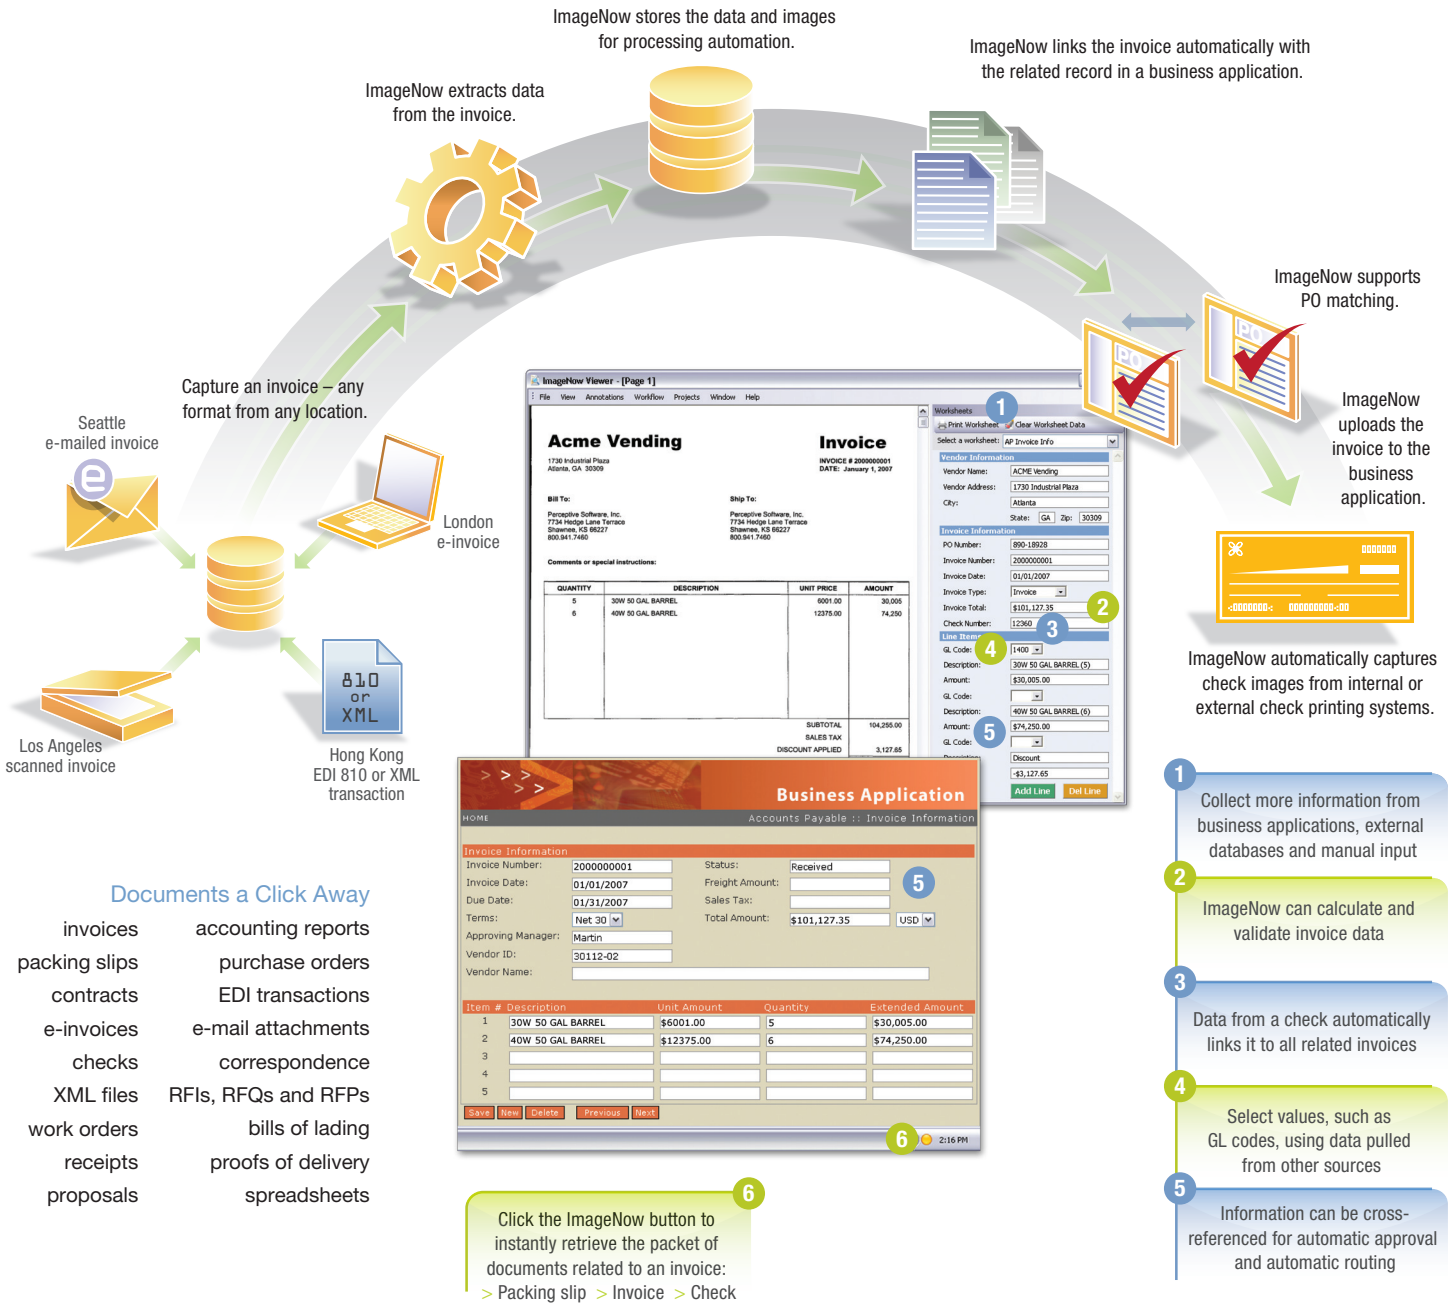

According to a recent study, accounting departments deploying ImageNow can expect a 40 percent increase in worker productivity in the first year. Dolly Droze, director of corporate accounting for Piggly Wiggly Carolina Company (PWCC), estimates that ImageNow saves PWCC $223,000 annually by reducing overheads and manual tasks.

ImageNow has helped hundreds of other organizations do more with less by streamlining document-intensive, back-office routines like invoice processing in AP. But invoice processing is just the beginning. Through a combination of leading technology, industry expertise and proven success, ImageNow is uniquely qualified to deliver immediate efficiencies in procurement processing, check capture, expense reporting, purchase card (p-card) processing and any other area across the department and enterprise.

✳️ “ImageNow improved our ability to deal with problem invoices. By increasing employee accountability, it helped reduce the number of outstanding invoices from 2,000 to 300, which was not possible with paper processes.”
