Emotions can sometimes be scary for younger ones. This book teaches kids aged six to ten about why they feel the way they do. They will learn what basic emotions such as happy, angry, afraid and sad mean. Lots of colour, cartoons and honesty."

THE SUN ON MY MIXED EMOTIONS

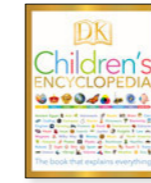

learning

Our educational content is designed to supplement learning beyond the school curriculum, whether in the classroom or at home. In addition to our books, we have an online Home Learning Hub accessible via our website DK.com, providing worksheets and activities to help children stay inspired and curious.

DKfindout!

What do you want to find out?

An award-winning series covering everything from coding and the solar system to engineering and the Stone Age. DKfindout! books are the ultimate knowledge top-up for schools curriculum subjects.

Water waste
Think of all the water you use at home every day. Add to that the water used by farms, factories, and businesses. Water is used to flush toilets, grow crops, and make products, but a huge amount goes to waste in the process. So, what steps can we take to save this very precious resource?

Renewable energy
Most of the energy we use to heat and power our homes, schools, and factories comes from fossil fuels (oil, coal, and gas). These fuels are running out fast, and people are looking at other sources of energy that are renewable, which means that they can be made again and again.

DK Eyewitness

The original "museum in a book" series has been refreshed with a modern look that continues to captivate kids with a thirst for knowledge.

Superb, dramatic photography and eye-catching design help to introduce young readers to a subject in a clear, user-friendly way. With topics ranging from Ancient Egypt to the solar system, these titles, including workbooks, are ideal support for student, as well as a study aid for teachers and parents.

COMBINED SERIES SALES OF MORE THAN 20 MILLION COPIES WORLDWIDE

“What DK did – with almost revolutionary panache – was essentially to reinvent non-fiction books.”

travel

From the publisher

We believe in travel as a force for good and know that celebrating differences in culture is more important than ever. DK is fully committed to travel guide publishing, now and in the future, because trusted, on-the-ground, reliable but inspiring information will be evermore crucial.

We will update our key books safely next year, with our coverage of outdoor activities, alternative options away from crowds and healthcare provisions increased. But most of all we want to remain flexible and responsive to the needs of our readers - a steady hand to guide you back out into the world as travel returns.

Georgina Dee, DK Eyewitness Travel Publisher

Which are greener – paper, plastic, or cotton bags?
When it comes to carrying your shopping home, there's a host of options to choose from. But which is the greenest choice? This book explores the environmental impact of different bag materials, from paper to plastic to cotton, and provides practical tips on how to choose the most sustainable option for your needs.

Is a bag for life really an eco-friendly choice?
A sturdy plastic reusable bag is presented as a green option, but how much use will you really get out of it? This book examines the lifecycle of reusable bags, from production to use to disposal, and compares them to single-use plastic bags. It also discusses the importance of proper recycling and the role of individual consumers in reducing waste.

Is it worth washing up a yogurt pot before recycling it?
Rinsing out your empty food containers before putting them in the bin might seem like a waste of water, but it can be key to keeping the recycling system running efficiently. This book explains why and provides tips on how to do it correctly, including how to use a dishwasher or a dedicated recycling bin.

Should I wash up by hand or use the dishwasher?
Energy-efficient dishwashers have come a long way. Use it wisely, and this kitchen convenience can become an eco-warrior, cutting down on water waste. This book compares the energy and water usage of hand washing versus dishwashing, and offers advice on how to make the most of your dishwasher.

Recycling etiquette
It's the same issue if you smudge up your recycling, or put items that can't be recycled, such as black plastic, in your recycling bin. This book provides a guide to recycling rules and regulations, ensuring that your recycling efforts are as effective as possible.

ENGLISH FOR EVERYONE

Learn English the easy way with this uniquely visual and easy-to-follow self-study course, which is backed by a fully integrated audio programme as well as digital exercises.

- This programme is suitable for all levels
- Clear, attractive illustrations put learning points in context, and simple graphics make even the trickiest concepts easy to understand
- Unique visual learning method aids understanding and recall

The clear graphics are extremely helpful in supporting learning, particularly in the context of self-study where meaning has to be explicit."

TIM BOWEN, ELT CONSULTANT, AUTHOR, AND TEACHER TRAINER, UK

17 Simple questions

To form simple questions with the verb 'to be', you change the order of the subject and verb. The answer to a simple question usually starts with 'yes' or 'no.'

17.1 KEY LANGUAGE QUESTIONS WITH 'TO BE'

To make a question using the verb 'to be', put the verb before the subject.

You are Canadian.

Are you Canadian?

In a question, the verb comes before the subject.

17.2 FURTHER EXAMPLES QUESTIONS WITH 'TO BE'

Is Judi an actor? Are they engineers?

Is he French? Are you a student?

17.3 HOW TO FORM QUESTIONS WITH 'TO BE'

'TO BE'	SUBJECT	BEST OF SENTENCE
Am	I	Canadian?
Are	you / we / they
Is	he / she / it

17.4 REWRITE THE SENTENCES AS QUESTIONS

She is a gardener. These are my keys. This is his laptop.

Brad is a nurse. Ruby and Farid are actors. Valeria is his sister.

17.5 LISTEN TO THE AUDIO AND CIRCLE THE CORRECT ANSWER TO EACH QUESTION

17.6 INTONATION SIMPLE QUESTIONS

The tone of the voice usually rises at the end of a simple question in English.

Sue is an actor. Is Sue an actor?

17.7 SAY THESE SENTENCES OUT LOUD, FILLING IN THE GAPS

Is _____ a waitress?

_____ Holly your mother?

_____ they from Argentina?

_____ you a teacher?

_____ this your dog?
