Product requirements

To get alerts, you'll need

- To create a new Hive account if you don't already have one
- A Hive Leak Sensor. This will be posted to you
- An always-on Wi-Fi broadband connection
- An Android or iOS device with an up to date operating system, with Internet access, to receive alerts from the Hive Leak Sensor via the Hive app. Please note that your smartphone will need to have reception and data coverage to be able to receive alerts

Hive Leak Plan features

The Hive Leak Sensor will monitor water within your home and send a notification to your smartphone whenever it detects an abnormal or unexpected duration or rate of water flow.

Please note that the Hive Leak Sensor will not detect any leaks in your home that are not from the water mains pipes. It will also not detect leaks that are on a closed system, for example on your central heating system or waste system. The sensor will also not detect multiple leaks, or a new leak where an existing leak still exists and has not been repaired.

What's included

- The Hive Leak Sensor
- Access to and control of your Hive Leak Sensor from the Hive app
- Notifications to your smartphone of any events

What's not included

- The Hive Hub or any other Hive products or services
- Installation – the Hive Leak Sensor can be installed by you. Please see the product user guide for help on how to do this.
- Any call-outs, related services or work that you may require in the event of a leak being detected in your home. This may be included in your HomeCare agreement. Please check the terms of your HomeCare agreement.

General terms

Period of agreement

Your agreement will begin when you take out your Hive Leak Plan and will continue until you tell us you no longer want it or British Gas cancels it. If you or British Gas cancel the plumbing and drains cover in your HomeCare agreement, you will no longer receive notifications from your Hive Leak Sensor.

Personal use only

All Hive products are sold for personal and domestic use only and must not be resold.

Products may vary slightly from their pictures

The images of the products on our website and packaging are for illustrative purposes only. Although we have made every effort to display the colours accurately, we cannot guarantee that a product's display of the colours accurately reflects their colour. Your product may vary slightly from those images.

Upgrades and updates to digital content

You agree that we may update your Hive products without telling you first. We may also update the Hive app, and we may require you to install an updated version of it. Any updates will be aimed at improving the performance of the products or app, but we'll make sure they continue to match the description we provided before you bought them. We won't be responsible if an upgrade affects how your Hive products work if this is caused by your own equipment – such as your smartphone or broadband – not supporting the upgrade.

Interference with products and services

You must not reverse engineer, decompile, adapt or alter the object code used to provide the services or any Hive product itself.

Who can benefit from these terms and conditions?

Nobody other than you can benefit from, or enforce, these terms and conditions.

Transfer of these terms and conditions

We may transfer our rights and obligations under these terms to another organisation. We will contact you to let you know if we plan to do this. If you are unhappy with the transfer you may contact us to end the contract.

Unenforceable terms

If any section of these terms is found to be void or unenforceable by a court, only that section will be removed and the rest of these terms shall continue to apply as if that section were not included.

Delay in enforcing these terms and conditions

If we delay in taking steps against you in respect of any breach of these terms and conditions, that will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.

English language

Everything we write to you – including terms and conditions – will be in English.

UK law

These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of whichever country your property is in, i.e. England and Wales, or Scotland.

Our right to make changes

Minor changes to the products

We may change any Hive product:

- To reflect changes in relevant laws and regulatory requirements
- To implement technical adjustments and improvements

These changes will not affect your use of any Hive product. In addition, we may make other changes to these terms or any Hive product. If we do, we'll contact you to let you know.

If we need to change these terms and conditions, we will put the changes on our website at hivehome.com/terms. If the changes are significant, we'll let you know in writing.

Our responsibility for loss or damage

The Hive Leak Sensor is an advanced detection device – it constantly monitors the water temperature and flow in your mains pipe. When it detects an unusual flow, the device will send a notification to your Hive app, and the app will lead you through some trouble-shooting steps.

We use sophisticated diagnostic algorithms to do this leak detection – they are very good, but they are not perfect, and so we cannot guarantee that they will always detect a leak, nor can we promise that they will never mistake some other event for a leak. We use the internet to receive the triggers and to send notifications to you – we will do our best to keep our infrastructure running but, even so, there may well be problems which prevent or delay delivery of notifications to you. For all of these reasons, your Hive Leak Sensor is not a complete replacement for your own vigilance.

Please note that, as the Hive Leak Sensor needs to learn about the water usage in your home, you won't receive any notifications during the first 24 hours after installation of the sensor.

Foreseeable loss or damage caused by us

We are responsible for any loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our failing to comply with these terms and conditions or to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if it is obvious that it will happen or if both you and we knew it might happen at the time that we accept your order for any Hive products or services, for example, if we discussed it during the sales process.

Unlawful exclusions and limitations

We don't exclude or limit our liability where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for:

- death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors;
- fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
- breach of your legal rights in relation to the products as summarised above on the first and second pages of these terms and conditions; and
- defective products under the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

Damage to your property

If we are providing services in your property, we will make good any damage to your property that we cause while providing such services. However, we're not responsible for the cost of repairing any pre-existing faults or damage to your property that we discover while providing the services.

Damage caused by digital content

If defective digital content which we have supplied, such as the Hive app, damages any of your devices or digital content and this is caused by our failure to use reasonable care and skill, we'll either repair the damage or pay you compensation. However, we won't be liable for damage which you could have avoided by following our advice to apply an app update offered to you or for damage which was caused by you failing to correctly follow installation instructions or to have in place any advised minimum system requirements.

Business losses

We only supply Hive products for domestic and private use. If you use the products for any commercial, business or re-sale purpose we will have no liability to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption, or loss of business opportunity.

Unrelated supporting equipment

We won't be responsible for:

- replacing the batteries in your Hive Leak Sensor – this is up to you, and it is important that you follow the instructions carefully when you do so;
- the broadband internet connection to your home – if you have any issues with your broadband, you should speak to your broadband provider who will be best placed to help you; or
- providing a smartphone, computer or internet browser that is compatible with Hive products and services – see our Product requirements section above, which explains what you will need to receive alerts.

General exclusions

We won't be responsible for:

- any costs, loss or damage that you suffer as a result of not using your Hive products in line with our instructions, including any user guides, or by problems caused by your smartphone, computer, internet browser or internet connection, rather than the Hive system;
- any costs that you incur by exceeding the permitted data limit on your broadband or smartphone;

- any costs, loss or damage that you experience by unauthorised use of your Hive products, for example if your smartphone or log-in details are lost or stolen. We advise you to keep your log-in details secret and to use PIN protection on your smartphone to prevent unauthorised use of your Hive system. If you believe that someone has gained unauthorised access to your Hive system, you can report this to us on our Service number above and we will do what we can to help you reset your Hive log-in details;
- any loss or damage you experience as a result of you, or anyone else, tampering with, decompiling or reverse-engineering any Hive products or altering the radio frequency allocations of your system controls;
- any costs, loss or damage you experience following our failure to send you a notification in relation to any Hive product;
- any costs, loss or damage you experience which is caused by the incorrect installation of your Hive Leak Sensor by you or a third party;
- any costs, loss or damage you experience from any water leaks that occur in the first 24 hours after your Hive Leak Sensor has been installed, however you may be covered for repairs under your HomeCare agreement – you should check your HomeCare terms and conditions;
- any costs, loss or damage you experience if your Hive Leak Sensor fails to send you an alert or sends you a false alert and this is due to factors outside of our control, for example the sensor has been damaged or your smartphone cannot receive notifications;
- any costs, loss or damage you experience by exceeding the permitted data limit on your broadband or smartphone;
- any loss or damage you experience by downloading or upgrading the software connected to your Hive system unless this is caused by us; or
- any damage caused to your property or Hive products by anyone but us.

Routine maintenance

The Hive website, app and services provided through these may be temporarily unavailable if we have to carry out routine or emergency maintenance. We'll try to inform you in advance, but it may not always be possible to do so.

Consumer rights

These exclusions don't affect your statutory rights under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 and any laws that replace it. If you want independent advice about your rights, you can speak to Citizens Advice or Trading Standards.
