ShareACoke.com/teams now through April 14 to give fans a new way to cheer on their favorite teams while enjoying uplifting, ice-cold Coca-Cola refreshment. By delivering a Coca-Cola for everyone, fans can further customize their bottles by choosing between Coca-Cola, Coca-Cola Zero™ and Diet Coke®. March Madness, The Big Dance®, Sweet Sixteen®, Elite Eight® and Final Four® bottles are also available.

“Whether you’re a casual or diehard college basketball fan, March Madness offers one of the most exciting game-watching experiences in all of sports,” said Peggy Loos, vice president, Connections Activation, Coca-Cola North America. “Coca-Cola delivers fans the delicious, ice-cold refreshment they need to follow all of the action, and with our new Share a Coke team bottles, we're offering a special way to show school pride and celebrate together with family and friends."

This year, Coca-Cola and POWERADE also are teaming up for a new digital promotion called NCAA March Madness Bracket Refresh to reward thirsty fans all tournament long, even after brackets are busted. Until noon ET on March 16, fans can earn a team in the promotion's tournament bracket with each smartphone scan or online entry of a participating product code at Coke.com/bracketrefresh or Powerade.com/bracketrefresh.

Then after the first and second round games at noon ET on March 20, Coca-Cola and POWERADE will release more entries for the teams that make it to the Sweet Sixteen, giving people more chances to win. At that time and until noon ET on March 23, more people can enter the promotion or refresh their busted brackets to get back in the game.

Fans can earn digital content, movie gift cards, and online retailer gift cards and be entered into the Grand Prize Sweepstakes for the chance to win $25,000 cash. As part of the Bracket Refresh Sweepstakes, fans have the chance to win a trip for two to the 2018 Final Four in San Antonio. For official promotion rules, visit Coke.com/bracketrefresh.

Coca-Cola, the official fan refreshment of the NCAA, is celebrating its 15th year as an NCAA Corporate Champion. As the official sports drink of the NCAA, POWERADE will be on the sidelines of all tournament games to help athletes hydrate and power through. Information on activities planned by the NCAA, Coca-Cola and POWERADE during the NCAA Men's Final Four can be found at NCAA.com/final-four.
