One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

February 16, 2018 –
A new global initiative emerges.

The Charter of Trust is officially launched at the Munich Security Conference (MSC). As part of this worldwide agreement, the MSC and eight globally active companies lay down important principles for a secure digital world.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones for more cybersecurity

March 8, 2018 – New comrades-in-arms come on board.

At the CERAWeek energy conference in Houston, three new partners join the Charter of Trust: AES, Atos and Enel. The now 12 members make the global need for secure energy systems and infrastructures the overarching goal of the initiative.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

April 23, 2018 –
The initiative addresses the general public and receives a positive response.

The first Charter of Trust Roadshow takes place at the Hannover Messe trade fair in Germany. The participants will answer questions posed by global industrial customers from around the world.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

May 17, 2018 – The number of partners continues to grow.

Cisco, Dell Technologies, Total and TÜV Süd join the Charter of Trust during U.S. Infrastructure Week.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

June 26 and 27, 2018 – Concrete steps to be taken.

At the Partner Workshop in Geneva, the participants discuss the future tasks of the Charter of Trust and set the working objectives for the first year.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

October 16, 2018 – Awareness of the global initiative increases.

The second Charter of Trust Roadshow coincides with the Digital Industry Summit in Paris. The partners promote the strengthening of cybersecurity in France and beyond.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

October 18, 2018 – The value chain moves into the spotlight.

The Board of the Charter of Trust partners decides on baseline cybersecurity requirements for the corporate supply chain.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

November 12, 2018 –
French policy strengthens initiative.

In Paris, President Emmanuel Macron presents his Paris Peace Call for Trust and Security in Cyberspace and thereby sets his sights on the objectives of the Charter of Trust.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

November 15, 2018 –
Overseas politics to be addressed.

At the third Charter of Trust Roadshow in Washington D.C., the partners present new proposals on cybersecurity to U.S. policymakers.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

February 15, 2019 –
The first steps have been taken, and things are now moving quickly.

At the Munich Security Conference 2019, the Charter of Trust's 16 global partners look back on a successful first year and set ambitious goals for 2019.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

April 1, 2019 –
Raising awareness at Hannover Messe 2019.

At the Siemens booth, Siemens
Chief Cybersecurity Officer Natalia Oropeza and representatives of the partner companies look back on a first successful year of the Charter of Trust and discuss current challenges in cyberspace.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

April 2, 2019 – Charter of Trust talks to Europe.

In Brussels, the Charter of Trust partners discuss the latest developments around the EU Cybersecurity Act with the responsible representative of the European Commission, Despina Spanou, and contribute their ideas for further action.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

April 23, 2019 –
Seeking support in Asia.

At the first roadshow in Asia, the partners introduce Charter of Trust to Japanese media and policymakers in Tokyo and call on them to support the initiative.

Charter of Trust

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

May 6, 2019 – Promoting the charter in the German capital.

State Secretary Klaus Vitt and representatives of the Charter of Trust promote a secure digital world at Deutsche Telekom's representative office in Berlin.

One Year
Charter of Trust

Important milestones
for more cybersecurity

May 17, 2019 –
On the way to G7.

During the AtoS Tech Days in Paris, the partners not only presented the Charter of Trust to representatives of French business and politics, they also discussed ways of cooperation with representatives of the OECD – a further important step towards putting cybersecurity on the agenda of the 2019 World Economic Summit in France.